 - (c) subject to subsection (4)(a) and (c) and section 110A(5), be applied only for the purposes of the Casino Control Act 1984, the Betting Control Act 1954 and this Act,
- and all expenditure incurred by the Commission shall be drawn from that Account.
- (4) There shall be paid from the moneys from time to time credited to or placed to the credit of the Account —
- (a) the cost of administering this Act, and any other written law relating to gambling in so far as it is administered by the Commission; and
 - (b) any other expenditure lawfully incurred for a purpose determined by the Commission and approved by the Minister; and
 - (c) any surplus moneys required by the Treasurer with the agreement of the Minister to be credited to the Consolidated Account.
- (5) The Commission shall pay to the Treasurer such amounts, if any, as are fixed by the Treasurer —
- (a) as the interest and sinking fund contributions for each financial year in respect of such proportion of the Consolidated Account as is, or has been, applied for any purpose to which the function of the Commission relates; and

- (b) for the use by the Commission of government buildings or other government property, or for services rendered or facilities provided by any officer of the Public Service, the Police Force, or an instrumentality or agency of the Government, and such amounts shall be taken to be costs incurred in the administration of this Act.

- (6) The Commission may, subject to the approval of the Treasurer, temporarily invest moneys standing to the credit of the Account until those moneys are required for the purposes of the Commission.

[Section 9 amended: No. 6 of 1993 s. 11 and 15; No. 49 of 1996 s. 55 and 64; No. 24 of 1998 s. 34(1) and (2); No. 35 of 2003 s. 128 and 166; No. 28 of 2006 s. 402; No. 77 of 2006 s. 4 and Sch. 1 cl. 71(1); No. 37 of 2018 s. 65.]

10. Financial Management Act 2006 and Auditor General Act 2006 apply to Commission

The provisions of the Financial Management Act 2006 and the Auditor General Act 2006 regulating the financial administration, audit and reporting of statutory authorities apply to and in respect of the Commission and its operations.

[Section 10 amended: No. 77 of 2006 Sch. 1 cl. 71(2).]

11. Some dealings by Commission need Treasurer's approval

- (1) Subject to the approval of the Treasurer, the Commission may acquire, hold and dispose of real and personal property, borrow moneys, and give security for financial accommodation.
- (2) The Treasurer may delegate his power of approval under subsection (1) to the Under Treasurer of the State or to any other officer of the Treasury, and that approval may then be given by the delegate in general terms as regards particular types of transaction authorised by the instrument of delegation.

Division 4 — Membership, co-option, consultation and committees

12. Members of Commission, attendance at meetings etc.

- (1) The membership of the Commission shall comprise —
- (a) the chief executive officer of the Department, who shall be ex officio chairperson of the Commission; and
 - (b) not less than 5, nor more than 7, members appointed by the Minister, and the Minister shall cause notice of the appointments to be published in the Gazette.

- (2) Members appointed under subsection (1)(b) shall be persons who, in the opinion of the Minister, are persons of integrity, good repute and relevant experience.
- (3) A quorum of the Commission shall be constituted by 4 members, unless in relation to any particular matter the Minister directs that all the members are required to be present at the meeting concerned.
- (4) Where the Minister appoints —
- (a) a person having appropriate duties in the Department to be the deputy of the chairperson, that person shall in the absence or incapacity of the chairperson act as chairperson of the Commission; or
 - [(b) deleted]
 - (c) persons of repute, experience and integrity to be the respective deputies of members holding office under subsection (1)(b), those persons shall be such deputies, and, on the Minister causing notice of the respective appointments to be published in the Gazette, the person appointed under this subsection is entitled to attend any meeting of the Commission at which the member to whom that person is the deputy is not present and, when so attending, has all the powers and duties of that member.

- (5) In the absence or incapacity of the chairperson, and of any deputy of the chairperson, the members of the Commission present at a meeting shall select one of their number to preside, and the person so selected has and may exercise all the powers of the chairperson whilst so presiding.
- (6) Subject to this Act, a member other than the ex officio member shall hold office for such period not exceeding 3 years as is specified in the instrument of appointment, but is eligible for re-appointment.
- (7) If at any time an appointed member ceases to hold office, a person who is at that time the deputy of that member shall until —
- (a) the vacancy in the office of that member is filled by the appointment of another member; or
 - (b) where the vacancy is not filled, the expiration of the period of the appointment of that member or of 3 months from the date of that member so ceasing to hold office, whichever is the lesser time, be entitled to attend any meeting of the Commission and, when so attending, has all the powers and duties of a member.

- (8) Where —
- (a) both a member and the deputy of that member are absent or temporarily incapable of fulfilling the duties of a member; or
 - (b) the office of a member is vacant and is not filled in accordance with this Act, and no deputy is acting for that member pursuant to subsection (7), the Minister may appoint a person to act in the place of that member during that absence or incapacity, or until the vacancy is filled, as the case requires, and any person so appointed has,

while that appointment subsists, all the functions, powers and duties of a member.

- (9) Unless the context otherwise requires, any reference in this Act to a member shall be construed as including a reference to —
- (a) a deputy acting in the office of that member;
 - (b) a person appointed by the Minister pursuant to subsection (8) to act in the place of that member while the appointment subsists.
- (10) If at any time in respect of the office referred to in subsection (1) there is not an office of that name the Governor may by notice in the Gazette designate an office as the office to be substituted for the former office referred to in that subsection and specified in that notice, and the person holding or acting in the substituted office for the time being shall thereby be constituted a member of the Commission.
- (11) If a member of the Commission —
- [(a) deleted]*
 - (b) is a person who is an insolvent under administration within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth; or
 - (c) is absent, without the permission of the Commission, from 3 consecutive meetings of the Commission of which he has been given notice; or
 - (d) being an appointed member, is removed from office by the Minister for disability, inefficiency or misconduct,
- the office of that person becomes vacant and the person shall not thereafter be eligible for re-appointment.
- (12) An appointed member may resign office by a written notice given under the hand of that person and addressed to, and received by, the Minister, but a member whose term of office expires or who resigns from office is eligible for re-appointment.

- (13) A person who is or has been a member is not personally liable for any act done or omitted to be done in good faith by the Commission or by that person in acting as a member.

[Section 12 amended: No. 16 of 1990 s. 33; No. 24 of 1998 s. 35; No. 10 of 2001 s. 85; No. 35 of 2003 s. 129 and 168; No. 25 of 2014 s. 62.]

13. Remuneration of members; effect of service with Commission on public servants

- (1) A member of the Commission, a person appointed a member of a committee of the Commission, or a person co-opted to the Commission may be paid such remuneration and allowances as the Minister, on the recommendation of the Public Sector Commissioner, determines.
- (2) If a person who would be eligible to receive remuneration or allowances under this Act is or becomes a member of, or a candidate for election to, the Parliament of the State or of another State or of a Territory or of the Commonwealth, the person shall not be paid remuneration or allowances under this section but shall, subject to the approval of the Minister, be reimbursed such expenses as the person reasonably incurs by reason of attendance at meetings or of undertaking, with the approval of the Commission, business on behalf of the Commission.
- (3) Acceptance of or acting in the office of member of the Commission by any person does not of itself render the provisions of Part 3 of the Public Sector Management Act 1994, or any other Act applying to persons as officers of the Public Service of the State, applicable to that person, or affect or prejudice the application to that person of those provisions if they applied to the person at the time of the acceptance of or acting in that office.
- (4) Where the services of any person are for the time being utilized by the Commission under the provisions of this Act, that utilization does not prejudice the existing or accruing rights of that person under the Public Sector Management Act 1994 or under any other Act, and service rendered on behalf of the Commission pursuant to this Act shall be regarded as not constituting a break in the service in which the person would otherwise have been employed.

[Section 13 amended: No. 32 of 1994 s. 19; No. 24 of 1998 s. 36; No. 39 of 2010 s. 89.]

14. Co-option, consultation etc., Commission's powers as to

- (1) Subject to the Minister, the Commission may for the purpose of any meeting or matter co-opt any person having specialized knowledge or experience relevant to the purposes of this Act, but a person so co-opted is not entitled to a vote.
- (2) The Commission has power to invite or engage any body or person to act in an advisory capacity to the Commission in relation to any or all aspects of the functions of the Commission.
- (3) The Commission may, on matters relevant to the purposes of this Act, consult and collaborate with any government department, authority, instrumentality or agency in the State or elsewhere or with any other body which has interests relevant to those of the Commission.

15. Committees, appointment of etc.

- (1) The Commission may, from time to time, appoint a committee or committees to investigate and advise the Commission on any aspect of its functions under this or any other written law or, subject to section 16, to carry out such of the duties or exercise such of the powers of the Commission under this or any other written law as the Commission may determine.
- (2) The carrying out of any duty or the exercise of any power by a committee of the Commission does not relieve the Commission of the responsibility for the decisions of that committee.
- (3) A committee may consist of such persons as the Commission determines, whether members of the Commission or persons who are not such members, but so that in every case not less than one member of the Commission shall be a member of the committee.

- (4) Each committee appointed by the Commission shall report to the Commission on its activities at such times as the Commission directs.

[Section 15 amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 130.]

16. Delegation powers

- (1) Where the Commission considers that any power of the Commission under this or any other written law should be exercised on its behalf by a person or body other than the Commission, the Commission may, by resolution, delegate all or any of its powers or duties, except this power of delegation, to —
- (a) a member or a committee of the Commission; or
 - (b) the Chief Casino Officer, or a government inspector; or
 - (c) in accordance with section 59(1)(d) of the Interpretation Act 1984, as may be specified in the instrument of delegation, either generally or as otherwise provided by the instrument of delegation.

- (2) A power delegated by the Commission shall be exercised by the delegate in accordance with the instrument of delegation, and when so exercised shall be deemed to have been exercised by the Commission and shall be presumed, unless the contrary is established, to have been exercised by a person duly authorised by a delegation under this section.
- (3) A document purporting to be signed by a person as a delegate of the Commission shall be deemed, unless the contrary is established, to have been signed by such a delegate and to have been so signed pursuant to the exercise of a power duly delegated to the person by the Commission.

- (4) In this section —

government inspector and Chief Casino Officer have the meanings given in the Casino Control Act 1984.

[Section 16 amended: No. 24 of 1998 s. 37; No. 35 of 2003 s. 131.]

Division 5 — Proceedings

17. Proceedings, meetings, declaring interests etc.

- (1) Subject to this Act the proceedings of the Commission may be regulated in such manner as the members think fit.
- (2) A meeting of the Commission may be convened by the Minister or by the chairperson, and where 2 or more members give notice in writing to the chairperson requiring him to convene a meeting in relation to any matter the chairperson shall at their request convene a meeting of the Commission to be held within 21 days thereafter to deal with that matter.
- (3) The Minister shall convene the first meeting of the Commission as soon as practicable after the coming into operation of this section, and thereafter the Commission shall hold meetings at such times and places as the Commission determines.
- (4) Unless in relation to any particular matter the Minister directs that a unanimous resolution is required, a question arising at a meeting of the Commission shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting, but if the votes cast on a question are equally divided the member presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to a deliberative vote.
- (5) A member who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter referred to the Commission —
 - (a) shall, as soon as is practicable after becoming aware of the existence or relevance of the interest, disclose the fact that he has the interest to the person presiding at the next meeting of the Commission; and

- (b) may participate in the discussions of the Commission in relation to the matter but shall not vote thereon, unless the interest that the person has is, or in the context of the vote is, determined by the person presiding at the meeting where the vote is to be taken to be an interest that could not reasonably be regarded as likely to have an influence on the exercise of the vote and the person so presiding indicates that such a vote may be exercised, and particulars of any such determination shall be recorded in the record of the proceedings.

- (6) In all cases of dispute, doubt or difficulty respecting or arising out of matters of procedure or order, or as to the determination of a pecuniary interest of a member, the decision of the member presiding is final.
- (7) A record of the proceedings of every meeting shall be kept in such manner as the Commission may determine, and shall be corrected as necessary and certified by the member presiding at that or the next succeeding meeting.

[Section 17 amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 168.]

 - (b) produce to any person any report, books or other thing relating to the affairs of another person furnished for the purposes of this Act or any other written law relating to gambling.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $2 500.

[Section 20 amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 134 and 166; No. 50 of 2003 s. 66(2); No. 41 of 2018 s. 25(1).]

Division 7 — Confidential police information

[Heading inserted: No. 73 of 2006 s. 113.]

20A. Certain information provided by police to be kept confidential

- (1) In this section —
- confidential police information means any information or document classified as confidential under subsection (2); relevant Act means this Act, the Betting Control Act 1954, the RWWA Act or the Casino Control Act 1984.

- (2) For the purposes of this section, the Commissioner of Police may classify as confidential any information or document that is —
- (a) provided by the Commissioner of Police to the Commission as a report, or part of a report, under section 18(4); or
 - (b) otherwise provided by the Commissioner of Police to the Commission for the purposes of a relevant Act.
- (3) Despite any provision of a relevant Act, any information or document provided by the Commissioner of Police to the Commission for the purposes of a relevant Act must not be published or disclosed by the Commission to any person (except to the Minister, the Parliamentary Commissioner for Administrative Investigations appointed under section 5 of the Parliamentary Commissioner Act 1971, the Corruption and Crime Commission established under the Corruption, Crime and Misconduct Act 2003, the Parliamentary Inspector of the Corruption and Crime Commission appointed under the Corruption, Crime and Misconduct Act 2003, a court or a person to whom the Commissioner of Police authorises its disclosure) if the information or document is classified as confidential police information.
- (4) If —
- (a) the Commission —
 - (i) refuses to grant or issue or renew; or
 - (ii) amends, suspends, cancels or revokes, any permit, approval, certificate, licence or authorisation under a relevant Act; and
 - (b) the decision to do so is made solely or partly on the basis of confidential police information provided to the Commission, the Commission is not required to give any reasons for the decision other than that the decision is made in the public interest.

- (5) In any proceedings (other than proceedings for an offence) before a court under a relevant Act, the court —
- (a) must, on the application of the Commissioner of Police, take all reasonable steps to maintain the confidentiality of confidential police information, including steps —
 - (i) to receive evidence and hear argument about confidential police information in private and in the absence of any party to the proceedings other than the Commission or the Commissioner of Police or their representatives; and
 - (ii) to prohibit the publication of evidence about confidential police information;
- and
- (b) may take evidence consisting of or relating to confidential police information by way of an affidavit of a member of the Police Force of or above the rank of Superintendent.
- (6) The Commissioner of Police must not delegate the function of classifying information or documents as confidential police information except to a Deputy Commissioner of Police or an Assistant Commissioner of Police.

[Section 20A inserted: No. 73 of 2006 s. 113; amended: No. 35 of 2014 s. 39.]

Part III — Enforcement

21. Authorised officers, appointment and duties of and reports by

- (1) The Commission shall appoint, from amongst persons to whom section 18 applies, such persons as may be necessary to carry out the duties of an authorised officer under this Act and the Betting Control Act 1954 and shall furnish any such officer with a certificate evidencing the appointment.
- (2) The Commission may, by arrangement with a local government, delegate to any duly appointed employee of that local government such of the duties imposed and powers of examination and report conferred on an authorised officer by this section as the Commission may determine.
- (3) It is the duty of an authorised officer to examine and report on any matter that, in his opinion, affects the administration of this Act or the Betting Control Act 1954 or upon which the Commission may require him to report and, in particular —
 - (a) to report to the Commission on the conduct, nature, extent and standard of any gaming, and as to the facilities provided, at approved premises and elsewhere; and
 - (b) to report to the Commission on the nature and extent of any premises in respect of which approval is sought, or the change in use of any part or parts of any existing approved premises; and
 - (c) to examine and report on any permitted gaming or proposed permitted gaming as he thinks fit or as may be required by the Commission; and
 - (d) otherwise, to assist and advise the Commission whenever so required by the Commission.

- (4) Where an authorised officer makes a report with respect to any particular premises, but not in so far as the report relates to the nature, extent or standard of gaming conducted, the Commission —
- (a) shall, where the Commission is not satisfied as to any matter in respect of the premises, on request cause a copy to be sent to the owner of the premises or his agent (if known) or, where the owner is not the permit holder or proposed permit holder, to the permit holder or proposed permit holder or his agent, as the case may require; and
 - (b) shall make such part of the report as the Commission thinks appropriate available for inspection, on request, by the local government or by a person who has made submissions to the Commission or the Minister in respect of those premises or a permit relating to those premises.

[Section 21 amended: No. 14 of 1996 s. 4; No. 35 of 2003 s. 135.]

22. Permitted gaming and social gambling, powers to scrutinize etc.

- (1) An authorised officer or a member of the Police Force is entitled —
- (a) to demand entrance to, and enter, inspect and remain on, any premises when permitted gaming or social gambling is, or purports to be, being conducted at those premises under this Act; and
 - (b) to examine at such time and from time to time all gaming equipment, instruments of gaming, books, and things relating, or suspected by him of relating, thereto and to scrutinize and inquire into the conduct of the gambling.

s. 23

- (2) An authorised officer may, on production of the certificate furnished to him under section 21(1), or, if the authorised officer is not appointed under that provision, any other evidence of office that is reasonable in the circumstances, at any reasonable time demand entrance to, enter and inspect —
 - (a) approved premises; or
 - (b) subject to the consent of the occupier, any premises in relation to which the approval of the Commission is sought.
- (3) A person carrying out an inspection, scrutiny or inquiry under this section may take with him a surveyor, auditor or other competent person to assist him.
- (4) Where admittance to any premises the power to enter which is conferred by this section is refused or delayed for such time as reasonably to lead to the inference that wilful delay was intended, the person refusing admittance or occasioning the delay shall be deemed to have attempted to prevent entry.
- (5) Every person who prevents or attempts to prevent an authorised officer or member of the Police Force, or a person to whom subsection (3) applies, from entering and scrutinizing or inquiring into the conduct of any gambling or in examining the premises, or obstructs them or any of them in the discharge of his duties, commits an offence.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000, or imprisonment for 1 year, or both.

[Section 22 amended: No. 24 of 1998 s. 39; No. 35 of 2003 s. 136 and 166; No. 41 of 2018 s. 25(1).]

23. Other police powers not limited by this Act

Nothing in this Act shall be read or construed as limiting any power or authority conferred on a member of the Police Force by any other Act or law.

24. Commissioner of Police, directions by to police officers

The Commissioner of Police shall issue all such orders, and give all such directions, to members of the Police Force as may, in his opinion, be necessary or expedient to —

- (a) prevent gambling contravening the provisions of this Act or any other Act or law; and
- (b) ensure the proper and lawful exercise of the following —
 - (i) a permit granted under this Act;
 - (ii) a permit or licence granted by the Commission under any other Act;
 - (iii) a wagering licence as defined in the Betting Control Act 1954 section 4(1);

- (c) secure the lawful and orderly conduct of approved premises and permitted gaming and ensure the good behaviour of persons present on those premises or participating in or present at permitted gaming; and
- (d) whether in accordance with any request made under section 18(4) or otherwise, provide for the making of such reports to, and the bringing of such applications, complaints and objections before, the Commission as may be necessary or expedient for the proper administration of this Act.

[Section 24 amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 166; No. 21 of 2019 s. 93.]

25. Entry to premises, arrest etc., warrant authorising

- (1) Where a justice is satisfied, upon an application supported by evidence on oath, that there is reason to suspect that —
 - (a) any premises are, have been or are about to be opened, kept or used as a common gaming house; or

- (b) unlawful gaming is, has been or is about to be conducted at any premises; or
- (c) an offence is, or is likely to be, committed under this Act at any premises in relation to any gambling conducted or purported to be conducted under the authority of a permit, he may, by warrant in the prescribed form stating the proposed purpose, empower any authorised officer or member of the Police Force to enter, with such other persons as may be necessary to assist, upon those premises using such force as may be necessary and any such warrant continues to have effect until the purpose for which it was granted is satisfied.

- (2) A warrant under subsection (1) authorises the holder and such other persons as are necessary to assist —
 - (a) to arrest any person found on the premises to which the warrant relates; and
 - (b) to seize all gaming equipment, instruments of gaming and related furnishings and any books, money or other thing which there are reasonable grounds for believing may be required as evidence for the purposes of proceedings in respect of the premises or of any gambling or of the playing of an unlawful game; and
 - (c) to search —
 - (i) the premises; and
 - (ii) all persons found at or in the immediate vicinity of the premises and suspected of being concerned in an offence under this Act.

[Section 25 amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 166; No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]

26. Evidence, information etc., powers to seize, obtain etc.

- (1) The Commission, an authorised officer or a member of the Police Force may for the purposes of this Act —
- (a) seize and detain, or make extracts from or copies of, any books or other material evidence found during the course of the exercise of a power conferred by this Act; and
 - (b) require a person found in any premises entered, or in the immediate vicinity of those premises and suspected of having at a material time been in the premises, to —
 - (i) answer any question put to him or to give or cause to be given any information, in so far as he appears to be in a position to provide material information; or
 - (ii) to produce or cause to be produced, for inspection, any books or other material evidence in his possession or apparent control,to the extent that the person is capable of complying with the requirement.
- (1a) Where the Commission, an authorised officer or a member of the Police Force believes on reasonable grounds that any answer given or any information or evidence given or produced, or caused to be given or produced, by a person under subsection (1)(b) is false, the Commission, authorised officer or member may require the person to verify the answer, information or evidence by statutory declaration or in any other manner that is reasonable in the circumstances.
- (2) In subsection (1), material evidence means evidence which in the opinion of the person exercising the power is likely to be relevant to the investigation of a suspected offence under this Act or to the function of the Commission.

27. Information, production of books, accounts etc., powers to require

- (1) Where the Commission believes that a person is capable of giving information or producing books or other evidence material to a matter that is in the opinion of the Commission likely to be relevant to the investigation of any suspected offence under this Act or any other written law relating to gambling, or otherwise to the functions of the Commission or the Minister, the Commission, by notice in writing served on that person, may require that person —
 - (a) to give the information or produce the books or other evidence to the Commission, or to a person specified in the notice acting on behalf of the Commission, within the time and in the manner specified in the notice; or
 - (b) to cause the same to be so given or produced.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the power of the Commission under that subsection includes the power —
 - (a) to require any corporation within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth or any other body of persons, corporate or unincorporate, to give particulars of the names and addresses of persons who are the holders of shares or other interests in that corporation or other body; and
 - (b) to require a person who is registered or otherwise recorded as the holder of shares or other interests in that corporation or other body to give to the Commission all relevant information, or such information as the Commission may specify, in the possession or control of the person in relation to the beneficial ownership of those shares or that interest, or any right attaching to those shares or that interest, or in relation to any trust, agreement, arrangement, understanding or practice, affecting those shares or that interest or any right attaching to those shares or that interest; and

- (c) to require that the information be verified by statutory declaration signed by a person or the holder of an office specified by the Commission, or by a competent officer of the corporation or other body; and
 - (d) to require a person from whom the Commission may seek information to afford to the Commission such facilities in matters relating to that information as may be necessary to enable the information to be interpreted or collated or as the Commission may from time to time specify.
- (3) In connection with any pending application for a permit the Commission may at any time require accounts to be furnished by —
- (a) the organiser or manager of any permitted gaming; or
 - (b) any promoter, secretary, treasurer, or any one of the committee of any body of persons by or on whose behalf any gaming was or is to be conducted, in relation to the gaming generally conducted by or on behalf of that person previously, or such aspects as the Commission may specify, and may in connection with the accounts require the production to the Commission of all books and things relating to the gaming, where no report pursuant to section 57 was required to be furnished.

[Section 27 amended: No. 24 of 1998 s. 41; No. 10 of 2001 s. 86; No. 35 of 2003 s. 166 and 167.]

28. Recovering moneys payable to Commission

- (1) An amount that is payable by a person to the Commission under this Act but is not paid may be recovered from that person as a debt due to the Commission in any court of competent jurisdiction.
- (2) Where an amount is payable to the Commission by any person, but by reason of his failure to keep or to produce or furnish to the Commission or other proper person the report, return, records or other books or things required under this Act, or to take or permit to be taken any other step which he is so required to take or permit to be taken, or by reason of the report, return, records or other books or things kept, produced or furnished being materially incomplete or inaccurate, the Commission is unable to ascertain the amount properly payable by him, the Commission may estimate the amount payable and (without prejudice to the recovery of the full amount payable or to the making of a further estimate under this subsection) the amount estimated shall be recoverable as an amount properly payable and not paid unless in any action relating thereto the person liable proves the amount properly payable and that amount is less than the amount estimated.

- (3) For the purpose of any action in a court of competent jurisdiction to recover an amount payable to the Commission under this Act as a debt due to the Crown a certificate signed by a member of the Commission stating the circumstances and provision under which the amount became payable and certifying the amount alleged or, where subsection (2) applies, estimated to be payable by a person and that the amount has not been paid is evidence that the amount so specified is payable to the Commission in accordance with this Act and has not been paid.

29. Hindering etc. Commission etc. and false etc. answers, offences as to

- (1) A person —
- (a) who without lawful excuse —
- (i) hinders the Commission, an authorised officer or other officer of the Commission acting in the course of the duties of that officer, a member of the Police Force, or an auditor appointed under this Act in relation to any gambling, in the exercise or purported exercise of a power conferred by this Act or any other written law relating to gambling; or

- (ii) refuses or fails to comply with a requirement of the Commission, such an authorised officer or other officer of the Commission, or a member of the Police Force, or such an auditor, lawfully made under this Act or such a written law;

or

- (b) who knowingly or recklessly —
 - (i) for the purpose of obtaining a benefit for himself or any other person, in or in relation to any application made in respect of an approval, permit or certificate under this Act or in respect of any licence or other matter under any other written law relating to gambling, or its renewal or re-instatement; or
 - (ii) in relation to any report, books or other thing furnished or required to be furnished; or
 - (iii) in purported compliance with a requirement made under this Act or such a written law, makes any statement, that is false or misleading or which makes any material omission, or furnishes or causes to be furnished any report, book or other thing that is false or is misleading in a material particular, or which makes any material omission,

commits an offence.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000, or imprisonment for 1 year, or both.

- (2) Where in relation to any gambling an independent auditor is appointed by the Commission or an authorised officer or member of the Police Force is assisted by an auditor under section 22, a person who —
 - (a) being a person conducting or associated in any manner with the gambling, fails to answer truthfully to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, any question asked of him by the auditor, or fails to disclose to the

auditor all books and things which may be in his possession or control relating to the gambling; or

- (b) being such an auditor, is guilty of any neglect or breach of duty under this Act,

commits an offence.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000, or imprisonment for 1 year, or both.

[Section 29 amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 166; No. 41 of 2018 s. 25(1).]

30. Incriminating information to be provided but is not admissible

A person is not excused from giving information or producing books or any other thing when required to do so under this Act or under any other written law relating to gambling on the ground that the information, books or other thing might tend to incriminate him, but his answer to any question asked, his giving of any other information, the production by him of any books or other thing or his compliance with the requirement in any other respect is not admissible in evidence against him in any criminal proceedings, other than proceedings under this Act or that other written law.

[Section 30 amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 166.]

31. Seizure without warrant

Any authorised officer or member of the Police Force may seize any gaming equipment, instrument of gaming, books, money or other thing which he has reasonable cause to believe may be required as evidence for the purpose of proceedings in respect of an offence under this Act or any other written law relating to gambling or which appears to him to contravene a condition of any approval, permit or certificate under this Act.

[Section 31 amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 166; No. 59 of 2006 s. 48.]

31A. Powers to assist seizing things

Sections 146 to 150 of the Criminal Investigation Act 2006 apply to and in respect of seizing a thing that is or may be seized under this Act or the Betting Control Act 1954.

[Section 31A inserted: No. 59 of 2006 s. 49.]

32. Certain seized things to be forfeited to Crown

[(1) deleted]

- (2) Where any thing is seized under this Act in relation to an offence of a kind that is prescribed for the purposes of this subsection, the court by or before which a person is convicted of an offence to which that thing relates shall order any such thing to be forfeited to the Crown.

[Section 32 amended: No. 24 of 1998 s. 42; No. 70 of 2004 s. 82; No. 59 of 2006 s. 50.]

32A. Disposing of seized or forfeited things

- (1) In this section —

seized thing means any thing that is seized under this Act or the Betting Control Act 1954.

- (2) The Criminal and Found Property Disposal Act 2006 applies to and in respect of any seized thing and any thing that is forfeited to the Crown under this Act or the Betting Control Act 1954.
- (3) For the purposes of the Criminal and Found Property Disposal Act 2006 —
- (a) the Commission is a prescribed agency;
 - (b) the chief executive officer of the Department is the chief officer of the Commission.

[Section 32A inserted: No. 59 of 2006 s. 51.]

s. 33

33. Prosecuting offences

- (1) An offence under this Act, the Betting Control Act 1954 or any other written law relating to gambling may be prosecuted at any time.
- (2) The conviction or acquittal of a person on a charge of an offence under this Act, the Betting Control Act 1954 or any other written law relating to gambling shall not prevent a further prosecution and conviction in respect of a continuation of that offence after the date on which he was convicted or acquitted.
- (3) Proceedings for an offence under this Act or the Betting Control Act 1954 may be instituted by a member of the Police Force or by a person authorised in writing by the Commission to institute those proceedings in a particular case.
- (4) If proceedings for an offence under this Act or the Betting Control Act 1954 are instituted by a member of the Police Force, the Commissioner of Police shall notify the Commission in writing of —
 - (a) the name of the person or persons against whom the proceedings have been instituted; and
 - (b) the offence or offences alleged in the proceedings; and
 - (c) the result of the proceedings.

[Section 33 amended: No. 24 of 1998 s. 43; No. 35 of 2003 s. 137 and 166; No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]

34. Offences to be dealt with by magistrate

A court of summary jurisdiction dealing with an offence under this Act is to be constituted by a magistrate.

[Section 34 inserted: No. 59 of 2004 s. 141.]

35. General penalty

The penalty for an offence under this Act for which no penalty is specifically provided is a fine of $1 000.

[Section 35 inserted: No. 50 of 2003 s. 66(3).]

36. Infringement notices

- (1) Regulations made under this Act may prescribe a modified penalty not exceeding $250 for any offence, or class of offence, if dealt with by way of an infringement notice.
- (2) Where an authorised officer or member of the Police Force has reason to believe that a person has committed an offence to which regulations made under subsection (1) apply and, having regard to —
 - (a) the place where the offence occurs; and
 - (b) the circumstances in which the offence occurs; and
 - (c) the likelihood of the person involved complying with the requirements of such a notice, believes that proceedings under this section are adequate he may serve, by personal delivery to the person or by posting to him at his address ascertained from him at or about the time that the offence is believed to have been committed, an infringement notice in the prescribed form informing the person that if he does not wish to be prosecuted for the alleged offence in a court he may pay to a designated office, within a period of 21 days after the service of that notice, the amount of the modified penalty.

- (3) The Commission may, by notice published in the Gazette, designate an office or class of office to receive payment of the amounts of modified penalties.

- (4) An infringement notice shall inform the alleged offender in general terms of the nature, date and place of the alleged offence and that he has the right to decline to pay the modified penalty and to allow the matter to be determined in a court hearing —
- (a) if he desires to contest the question whether the offence alleged was in fact committed; or
 - (b) if he wishes to submit to the court matters in extenuation of penalty; or
 - (c) for any other reason, in which event he need not reply or take further action in respect of the notice, but that in such case a prosecution for the alleged offence may be commenced against him in due course and he may be liable to costs and to the penalty provided for the offence.

- (5) Where a person on whom an infringement notice is served pays the modified penalty within the period of 21 days after the service of that notice and the notice is not withdrawn under subsection (7) a proceeding against him by way of prosecution for the offence alleged in the notice shall not be brought but otherwise such a proceeding may be commenced as if the notice had not been given.
- (6) A person on whom an infringement notice is served who fails to pay the modified penalty within the period of 21 days after the service of that notice is deemed to have declined to pay.
- (7) The Commission may, whether or not the modified penalty concerned has been paid, withdraw an infringement notice at any time within a period of 28 days after it is served by sending to the alleged offender a notice in the prescribed form advising the alleged offender that the infringement notice has been withdrawn.

- (8) The amount of any modified penalty paid pursuant to an infringement notice which has been withdrawn under subsection (7) shall be refunded.

37. Criminal liability of directors etc.

- (1) Where a corporation within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth or any other body of persons, corporate or unincorporate, is convicted of an offence under this Act or any other written law relating to gambling, each person who, at the time of the commission of that offence, was a director of the corporation or was the manager, secretary or other similar officer of that body, or who purported to act in any such capacity, is liable to be convicted of the offence and is punishable as well as that body unless he proves that that offence was committed without his knowledge or that he took reasonable steps to prevent the commission of that offence.
- (2) Where the affairs of a body of persons are managed by its members, subsection (1) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with his functions of management as if he were the manager of that body.

[Section 37 amended: No. 24 of 1998 s. 44; No. 10 of 2001 s. 87; No. 35 of 2003 s. 166.]

38. Service of notices

For the purposes of this Act or any other written law relating to gambling a notice or other document may be given to, or served on —

- (a) a corporation within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth, or a shareholder in such a corporation, by sending the document to the corporation or that shareholder in a manner that is the same as a manner authorised by that Act for the service of documents; or

- (b) a body of persons incorporated, or taken to be incorporated, under the Associations Incorporation Act 2015, by service in a manner authorised for the service of a notice under that Act, or in any manner authorised by the Interpretation Act 1984.

[Section 38 amended: No. 24 of 1998 s. 45; No. 10 of 2001 s. 88; No. 35 of 2003 s. 139; No. 30 of 2015 s. 217.]

39. Evidentiary provisions for charges of offences

- (1) In any proceedings under this Act or for an offence under The Criminal Code —
 - (a) it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Minister or a member of the Commission, and all courts and persons acting judicially shall take judicial notice of a signature attached or appended to a document purporting to be issued under this Act if the signature purports to be that of a person who at the relevant time is or was the holder of such an office, unless the contrary is proved; and
 - (b) a document signed by a member of the Commission stating that at the time or during the period stated in the document —
 - (i) a person named in the document was an authorised officer or an inspector of soccer football pools for the purposes of this Act generally or for such of those purposes as are specified in the document; or
 - (ii) an approval was granted, a permit or certificate was issued, a requirement was made, or a direction or notice was given, or was in force or had effect, or had been amended, or was not in force or was of no effect, in relation to the circumstances specified in the document, or had been served on any person, under this Act, shall be evidence of the facts stated and, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, conclusive evidence; and

- (c) a document or writing purporting to be a copy of any approval granted or permit or certificate issued, or of any requirement made or direction or notice given, under this Act shall be evidence of the approval, permit, certificate, requirement, direction or notice of which it purports to be a copy and, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, conclusive evidence; and
- (d) an averment that —
 - (i) a person is of a specified age or is under or over a specified age; or
 - (ii) that any premises at which an offence was committed was a place to which an approval, permit or certificate applies or did not apply; or
 - (iii) a specified game is of a kind essentially similar to a game of another specified kind; or
 - (iiia) a specified game is a game that is commonly played in casinos (whether in Australia or elsewhere) or is a variation or derivative of such a game; or
 - (iv) in proceedings against a person in his capacity as the holder of a permit or certificate, that the person is the holder of a specified permit or certificate; or
 - (v) a person is a person to whom a permit or certificate was not issued,

shall be evidence of the facts stated and, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, conclusive evidence; and

- (e) where an authorised officer, a member of the Police Force, or a person acting at the request of an authorised officer or member of the Police Force, enters into any gaming or wager and another person is charged with an offence arising out of the gaming or wager, on the hearing of the charge the authorised officer, member of the Police Force or person acting on request —

- (i) is deemed not to be an accomplice of the person charged and not to be guilty of an offence; and
- (ii) may give evidence, and his evidence shall be deemed not to be the evidence of an accomplice; and

- (f) a person may be convicted on the uncorroborated evidence of an accomplice, and shall not be acquitted by reason only that the only evidence is the uncorroborated evidence of an accomplice unless the truth of that evidence is suspect; and
 - (g) an act, admission or statement of an employee or agent of a person charged with an offence is admissible as evidence, whether it is done, made or given in the presence of that person or not; and
 - (h) where an element of an offence is an act or omission on the part of the permit holder a prosecution for such an offence may be commenced against an individual approved and appointed as the nominee permit holder on behalf of a body of persons; and
 - (j) the authority of a person to accept service of documents under this Act on behalf of another shall be presumed in the absence of evidence to the contrary.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act —
- (a) in determining whether a game, which is played otherwise than against one or more other players, is a game of chance the possibility that superlative skill can overcome the element of chance shall be disregarded, except for the purposes of section 42(3)(a); and
 - (b) it is immaterial whether a charge or levy is compulsory, customary or voluntary, and any reference to making a charge or charging a levy shall be construed accordingly; and

- (c) the public shall be deemed to have or be permitted to have access to a place where that place is for the time being open to the public whether or not a charge or levy is made or payment for admittance is required; and
- (d) the playing of a game of chance or participation in any activity which —
 - (i) is an authorised game as defined by the Casino Control Act 1984 played in accordance with rules approved under that Act in a licensed casino as so defined; or

 - (iii) is conducted under the Lotteries Commission Act 1990,does not constitute gambling contrary to the provisions of this Act, except in so far as section 44 or 45 applies; and
- (e) a machine shall be taken not to be used for gaming if it is used in premises of a prescribed kind or class and if it is constructed or adapted or used in such a way that —
 - (i) a person playing it once and successfully receives nothing except an opportunity, afforded by the automatic action of the machine, to play again (once or more often) without paying; or
 - (ii) where a person plays it once and successfully, that which he receives is determined by the automatic action of the machine and is either a money prize not greater than the amount payable to play the machine once or a token which is, or tokens which in the aggregate are, exchangeable only for such a money prize.

- (3) Where on the hearing of a prosecution —
- (a) for an offence requiring proof that any premises were kept or used or resorted to for playing any unlawful game or any game of chance, and a person is found to have been so playing; or
 - (b) relating to —
 - (i) gambling in; or
 - (ii) opening, keeping or using; or
 - (iii) being concerned in the conduct of, premises being a common gaming house, and a person is found to have been gambling there, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that games played at those premises were games played for money.

- (4) Where a person is found to have been present at any unlawful game or game of chance it shall be presumed that he was present for the purpose of taking part in the game, unless he proves that he was present neither for that purpose nor for the purpose of —
- (a) taking part in the conduct of the game; or
 - (b) operating or using any gaming equipment, instrument of gaming, related furnishings, or any other thing whatsoever used in connection with the game or any wager; or
 - (c) making or receiving wagers, with respect to the game or otherwise.
- (5) Gaming pursuant to a permit shall not be taken to be conducted for the purposes of private gain by reason only that a person concerned in the conduct of the gaming receives reasonable remuneration in respect of his services in that capacity.

[Section 39 amended: No. 16 of 1990 s. 33; No. 24 of 1998 s. 46; No. 35 of 2003 s. 140, 166 and 167; No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]

40. Evidentiary provisions for charges involving common gaming houses

- (1) Where a person is charged with an offence in relation to any premises alleged to be a common gaming house —
 - (a) it shall be presumed that an element of gain or reward was involved, unless the contrary is proved, if it is shown that paragraph (b), or any one or more of the circumstances referred to in paragraph (c), applied;
 - (b) it shall not be necessary to prove that a number of persons habitually congregated at the premises, if at the time of the alleged offence 8 or more persons were present at those premises;
 - (c) it shall be sufficient evidence to support the allegation that any premises were, or were opened, kept or used as, a common gaming house if it is proved in relation to any game there played that —
 - (i) the game is an unlawful game; or
 - (ii) the game involves playing, staking or wagering against a bank, whether the bank is held by one of the players or not; or
 - (iii) the nature of the game is such that the chances in the game are not equally favourable to all players; or
 - (iv) the nature of the game is such that the chances in it lie between the player and some other person, or (if there are 2 or more players) lie wholly or partly between the players and some other person, and those chances are not as favourable to the player or players as they are to that other person; or
 - (v) the gaming was so conducted that the chances therein were not equally favourable to all the players; or

s. 40

- (vi) a charge, in money or money's worth (apart from any stakes hazarded or wagers placed) was made in respect of the gaming or wagering, or a levy was charged on any of the stakes or wagers or on the winnings of any of the players, whether by way of direct payment, by deduction, or by any other means.
- (2) Where a person is convicted of an offence in relation to any premises found to be a common gaming house, any gaming equipment or instruments of gaming and any books, furniture or furnishings found at the premises shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been used in, or ancillary to, the conduct of the premises as a common gaming house.
- (3) Despite any rule of law, premises shall not be taken to be a common gaming house or a common betting house by reason only of the carrying on there of gaming or wagering.
- (3a) It shall be a defence for a person charged with an offence under section 41 in relation to gaming or wagering at any premises to show that the gaming or wagering was permitted gaming or social gambling.
- (4) Where —
 - (a) any gaming equipment is, or instruments of gaming are, found at any premises authorised to be entered or about the person of any of those found there; or
 - (b) any door to, or access or passage to or in, any premises so authorised to be entered is found to be fitted or provided with any means or contrivance intended or adapted or used so as to prevent, obstruct, delay or hinder entry by any such authorised person, or for giving information, as to, or an alarm in case of, any such entry; or
 - (c) any premises are found to be fitted or provided with any means or contrivance related to the conduct of unlawful gaming or for removing or concealing any gaming equipment or instruments of gaming; or

- (d) any authorised officer or member of the Police Force empowered under this Act to enter any premises is knowingly prevented from, or is wilfully assaulted, resisted, obstructed, delayed or hindered in, entering any premises, it is admissible as evidence that the premises are used as a common gaming house and any persons found there may, unless the contrary is proved, be presumed to have been present for the purpose of gaming.

[Section 40 amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 141.]

Part IV — Common gaming houses, unlawful gaming, cheating etc.

40A. Part does not apply to gambling under other written laws gambling and wagering, except in relation to section 44, do not include gambling under and in accordance with —

In this Part —

- (a) the Betting Control Act 1954; or
- (b) the Lotteries Commission Act 1990; or
- (c) the RWWA Act; or
- (d) the Casino Control Act 1984.

[Section 40A inserted: No. 35 of 2003 s. 142.]

41. Common gaming house, meaning of and offences as to

- (1) Premises shall be deemed to be a common gaming house if persons habitually congregate there for the purpose of gambling, or section 40(1)(b) applies, and a person —
 - (a) for gain or reward provides facilities there for others; or
 - (b) permits or suffers others, to use the premises as a place for gambling, other than permitted gaming or social gambling, either with himself or between themselves.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, the playing of a game of a kind which is prohibited by section 42(1) shall be deemed to be gaming.
- (3) Where any premises are opened, kept or used as a common gaming house —
 - (a) a person concerned in the conduct of the gambling; and
 - (b) the owner of the premises, unless he proves that he did not know and could not reasonably be expected to have known that gambling would take place at the premises;

and

- (c) a person other than the owner of the premises who, knowing or having reasonable cause to suspect that gambling, other than permitted gaming or social gambling, would take place at the premises —
 - (i) allowed the premises to be used for such a purpose; or
 - (ii) let the premises, or otherwise made the premises available, to any person by whom an offence in connection with the premises or any gambling there has been committed,

commits an offence.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $10 000, or imprisonment for 2 years, or both.

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), any person who —
 - (a) causes, procures or attempts to procure any other person to commit an offence of a kind referred to in that subsection; or
 - (b) knowingly takes part in procuring the assembly of the players; or
 - (c) assists in the provision of facilities by —
 - (i) providing, servicing, operating or using any gaming equipment or instrument of gaming; or
 - (ii) issuing, receiving or recording money, tokens or other consideration used in the gambling or cheques or value given or credit provided in respect of any such money, tokens or consideration in respect of winnings or losses; or
 - (iii) supervising, controlling or accounting for any gambling, shall be deemed to have been concerned in the conduct of the gambling.

s. 42

- (5) The court by or before which a person is convicted of an offence under subsection (3) shall order any gaming equipment, instruments of gaming or related furnishings, and any money or other thing which has been seized and which the court is satisfied was found to be on the premises at the time of the offence, not being money or a thing shown to the satisfaction of the court not to relate to the offence, to be forfeited to the Crown.
- (6) A person who is present at a common gaming house when any gambling is conducted for the purpose of taking part in that gambling or in other gambling conducted there commits an offence.
Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $500.
- (7) In so far as they are inconsistent with this Act, the rules of law relating to common gaming houses and common betting houses are abolished.
- (8) Any money or other consideration received by a person referred to in subsection (4) from another person in the circumstances referred to in paragraph (c)(ii) of that subsection is to be taken to have been received on trust by the person for the other person and may be recovered accordingly in a court of competent jurisdiction.

[Section 41 amended: No. 24 of 1998 s. 47; No. 35 of 2003 s. 143 and 166; No. 59 of 2006 s. 52; No. 41 of 2018 s. 25(1).]

42. Prohibited gaming and unlawful games defined and offences as to

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), the conduct of gaming by means of or the playing of —
- (a) thimblorig; or
 - (b) two-up, other than permitted two-up; or
 - (c) a game of a kind to which section 46(2)(a) refers or the playing of which would contravene the prohibitions

commits an offence.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $2 500.

[Section 45 amended: No. 16 of 1990 s. 33; No. 24 of 1998 s. 49; No. 35 of 2003 s. 147; No. 50 of 2003 s. 66(4); No. 41 of 2018 s. 25(1).]

Part V — Permitted gambling

[Heading amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 148(1).]

Division 1 — Gaming generally

[Heading amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 148(2).]

46. Permitted gaming defined

- (1) Gaming may be lawfully conducted, and lawfully participated in, where —
 - (a) it occurs on a day and at a time authorised by a relevant gaming permit; and
 - (b) it takes place at premises authorised by the permit to be used for permitted gaming of that kind; and
 - (c) it is of a kind authorised by the permit; and
 - (d) it is conducted by the permit holder or a person acting on behalf of and subject to the direction of the permit holder; and
 - (e) it does not contravene any condition imposed in respect of the permit.
- (2A) Gaming that is prescribed for the purposes of this subsection may be lawfully conducted and lawfully participated in.
- (2) Except in so far as regulations made under this Act may otherwise provide or a permit specifically states, a permit does not authorise the playing of any kind of game —
 - (a) which is declared to be an authorised game under section 22 of the Casino Control Act 1984 to be played in a licensed casino or which, although not so declared, is commonly played in casinos (whether in Australia or elsewhere); or
 - (b) which in that particular part of the State, or in those circumstances, would be subject to the prohibitions contained in clause 22 of the Agreement referred to in section 3 of the Casino (Burswood Island) Agreement Act 1985, not being a game of a kind referred to in clause 22(5) of that Agreement, and every permit shall be deemed to be subject to an implied condition to that effect which shall not be required to be noted on the permit or in the register.

- (3) For the purposes of any proceedings relating to a breach of the implied condition referred to in subsection (2), or of construing any permit or written law relating to gambling, a reference to a particular kind of game shall be taken to include a reference to any game (whether or not alleged to be a variation or derivative of the first-mentioned game and by whatever name called) which is of a kind essentially similar to that game.
- (4) A permit does not authorise the conduct of, or participation in, gaming on Christmas Day, or Good Friday or, except in the case of permitted two-up, on the morning of Anzac Day.

[Section 46 amended: No. 24 of 1998 s. 50; No. 35 of 2003 s. 166 and 167; No. 25 of 2011 s. 8.]

47. Gaming permits, types, issue and effect of

- (1) A gaming permit may be —
 - (a) a function permit, having effect —
 - (i) for the period, not being a period in excess of 7 days; or
 - (ii) during the function; and
 - (iii) in respect of the premises, therein specified, subject to any conditions imposed; or
 - (b) a permit of a continuing nature, having effect —
 - (i) for the period, being a period not exceeding 12 months, therein specified; and
 - (ii) subject to the approval of the Commission to the premises therein specified remaining in force, in respect of those premises; and

(iii) subject to the conditions from time to time imposed;

or

(c) a Ministerial permit, issued under section 48 and having effect according to its tenor, and shall be issued on an application being made and granted in accordance with this Act and on, or subject to, payment of the prescribed fee but may be revoked or deemed to be revoked, amended or renewed subject to this Act.

(2) A gaming permit —

(a) unless it is issued under section 48, shall be in the prescribed form; and

(b) subject to section 46(4), authorises the permit holder to conduct, or cause to be conducted, and persons to participate in, gaming, in accordance with its tenor and subject to the conditions therein specified or otherwise imposed, but in no other manner.

[Section 47 amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 167.]

48. Issue of permit on direction by Minister

(1) Where, by reason of a major sporting event, a special occasion or other exceptional circumstances, the Minister so determines, and notwithstanding that the manner of the application or the matter to which it relates is not otherwise provided for by this Act or does not comply with the requirements of or prescribed under this Act, the Minister, after consultation in so far as the Minister thinks fit with the Commission, may direct the Commission —

(a) to issue a permit to a specified person in relation to a specified kind of gaming on specified premises, whether or not approved premises, on such conditions as are specified; and

- (b) as to the period for and manner in which the permit should be issued; and
- (c) as to any charge, duty or fee that is to be payable in relation to the permit, and effect shall be given to that direction and to any permit complying with that direction, subject to section 46(2) and (4).

- (2) In subsection (1), specified means specified in the direction given by the Minister to the Commission.

[Section 48 amended: No. 16 of 1990 s. 33; No. 35 of 2003 s. 167.]

49. Applications for issue or renewal of permit, matters that may be considered when deciding

- (1) In determining any application for the issue or renewal of a gaming permit regard may be had to —
 - (a) whether or not the applicant is a fit and proper person to hold a permit, likely to be capable of and diligent in, securing that this Act will not be contravened and that any permitted gaming will be conducted fairly and properly; and
 - (b) any arrangement or circumstances whereby the benefit arising from the holding of the permit may accrue to any other person; and
 - (c) the need for persons having relevant experience to be in attendance at, and where appropriate to conduct, the gaming; and
 - (d) the gaming equipment or other apparatus that may be required to conduct the gaming, and any need for the approval of the Commission to be obtained to the supply or use of that apparatus; and
 - (e) the facilities available for the occasion, and the state of the premises where gaming is to occur or which may reasonably be required to be used by participants in or persons present at the gaming; and

- (f) the circumstances existing in the immediate vicinity of the premises and any other relevant factor whereby persons may reasonably be disturbed or offended by the proposed use of the premises, taking into consideration the needs of the public.
- (2) In determining any application for the renewal of a permit regard may be had to —
- (a) any matters to which subsection (1) refers; and
 - (b) the manner in which —
 - (i) gaming has been conducted; and
 - (ii) the premises have been maintained; and
 - (iii) the use of the premises for gaming has affected the circumstances existing in the immediate vicinity of the premises, other permitted gaming operations, and the needs of the public; and
 - (iv) persons participating in or present at the gaming have made use of the premises and facilities provided;
- and
- (c) any circumstances warranting a change in the manner in which any fee or charge is assessed or is paid, and generally as to the nature and amount of the fees and charges payable; and
 - (d) the eligibility and suitability of the applicant in the light of experience; and
 - (e) any further or other considerations or circumstances that may be relevant.
- (3) For the purposes of this section —
- (a) the way in which permitted gaming is conducted by the applicant or by persons employed by him or acting on his behalf, or who are in the opinion of the Commission associated with him, shall be material; and

- (b) a permit shall not be issued if in the opinion of the Commission the gaming thereby to be authorised would be likely to be conducted for the benefit of a person who would himself be refused a permit as not being a fit and proper person to hold a permit.

[Section 49 amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 167.]

50. Register of approvals, permit holders etc., Commission to keep and allow inspection of etc.

- (1) The Commission shall maintain a register showing, in accordance with such manner as may be prescribed, particulars of —
 - (a) persons approved as eligible to hold a permit, and any approved nominee, specifying the body on behalf of which that person or nominee acts and the kind of gaming to which the approval relates;
 - (b) premises approved —
 - (i) generally, in relation to function permits; or
 - (ii) as a venue where permitted gaming may take place under permits of a continuing nature; or
 - (iii) for other prescribed purposes,specifying the kind of permitted gaming to which the approval relates;
 - (c) holders for the time being of permits of a continuing nature;
 - [(d) deleted]*
 - (e) holders of certificates issued under Part V Division 5, and short particulars of any condition imposed.
- (2) Where a person ceases to be the holder of a permit or certificate or to be approved for any purpose, or any premises cease to be approved premises, the name and any other particulars entered in the register in relation to that person or those premises shall be removed from that part of the register which is current.

- (3) A person may inspect and make copies of, or take extracts from, the current register on payment of the prescribed fee.

[Section 50 amended: No. 16 of 1990 s. 33.]

51. Persons eligible to hold gaming permits, approval of

- (1) Subject to this Act, any person may apply to the Commission for his or its approval by the Commission as a person eligible to be the holder of a gaming permit.
- (2) The Commission shall not approve a person as eligible to hold a permit unless —
- (a) where the applicant comprises a body of persons, corporate or unincorporate, an individual approved by the Commission is appointed by and on behalf of that body to be responsible for the conduct of the gaming as nominee permit holder; and
 - (b) the Commission is satisfied —
 - (i) that the applicant is, or is concerned in the administration of and makes the application on behalf of, a club, society, institution, organisation, association or other body of persons being a body which, subject to section 81(2), section 95(2) and section 104, has as the principal object of the proposed gaming the raising of moneys in good faith for the active promotion, support or conduct of any sporting, social, political, literary, artistic, scientific, benevolent, charitable or other like activity detailed in the application; and
 - (ii) that the gaming is not to be promoted or otherwise conducted for the purposes of private gain or any commercial undertaking; and

- (iii) the proceeds of the gaming, after deduction of proper expenses and of prizes, are to be used for the benefit of the activities detailed in the application.
- (3) Where an individual is, from time to time, appointed as the nominee permit holder on behalf of a body of persons for the purposes of this section —
 - (a) that individual shall be primarily responsible for the conduct of the gaming to which the permit relates and where an element of an offence under this Act is an act or omission on the part of that body of persons the nominee may be charged with the offence; and
 - (b) that individual is entitled to be indemnified by the body of persons by which he was appointed as nominee in respect of any penalty imposed under this Act.
- (4) Where a person is approved as eligible to hold a permit —
 - (a) a permit may be issued to that person, but shall where the applicant comprises a body of persons be issued to a person who is an approved nominee; and
 - (b) the Commission, or in a case to which section 52(a) refers the magistrate, shall cause to be specified on the permit —
 - (i) the name of that person and of any body for which he is the nominee permit holder; and
 - (ii) the date of the issue, and the duration, of the permit and where it is a function permit, the nature of the function; and
 - (iii) particulars of the premises where the gaming is to be conducted; and
 - (iv) the kind of gaming authorised by the permit, and

- (c) where the application relates to a permit of a continuing nature, such other particulars as may be prescribed or as the Commission thinks fit, shall be endorsed on the permit, and particulars of any conditions imposed, other than implied or prescribed conditions, shall be endorsed on or annexed to the permit and the Commission or that magistrate shall cause the relevant particulars to be noted in the register.

[Section 51 amended: No. 24 of 1998 s. 51; No. 35 of 2003 s. 167; No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]

52. Applications for gaming permits

An application for the issue of a permit —

- (a) in the case of a function permit, may be made to the Commission and, if the Commission agrees, informally, but otherwise in the prescribed manner save that an application for a function permit may, instead of being made to the Commission, be made to a magistrate who may on behalf of the Commission issue the function permit where —
- (i) the applicant is a person entered in the register as eligible to hold a permit of that kind; and
 - (ii) the premises on which the permitted gaming is to occur are premises entered in the register as approved for gaming of that kind or are the subject of an application to that magistrate under section 55(1)(a)(ii); and
 - (iii) any conditions applicable are not contravened or likely to be contravened, and the magistrate shall cause the Commission to be notified accordingly; but

- (b) in the case of a permit of a continuing nature, shall be made to the Commission in writing in the prescribed manner, and any such application shall, unless the Commission or magistrate dispenses with the requirement, contain or be accompanied by such information as is prescribed and be supported by such further information as the Commission or magistrate may require.

[Section 52 amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 167; No. 59 of 2004 s. 141.]

53. Fees and charges for gaming permits

- (1) A gaming permit shall not be issued otherwise than upon payment of an application fee and such other fees or charges as may be prescribed.
- (2) The fees or charges payable in relation to the approval of premises by or on behalf of the Commission shall be such as may be prescribed.
- (3) Regulations imposing fees or charges payable in relation to the issue of a permit or in relation to the approval of premises to be used under such a permit may provide —
- (a) for an application fee to be payable on the issue of the permit or grant of the approval; and
 - (b) for periodic, percentage or other payments to be made related to the volume or value of the gaming conducted or to be conducted or to its frequency; and
 - (c) for the giving of security, by means of a deposit or otherwise, for payments due or to become due; and
 - (d) for such payments to be made through the permit holder providing, at the place where gaming occurs, facilities for persons participating in or present at the gaming to make payments in respect of the fees payable; and

- (e) for the permit holder to perform specified functions in connection with the payment of or accounting for moneys paid by such persons, including refusing to permit access to the place where the gaming occurs unless the payments required by the regulations are made, having regard to the need for the continued supervision of the premises and to the nature of the gaming.

- (4) The fees payable in relation to the issue of a certificate under section 88 or 92, and in relation to the renewal of any such certificate, shall respectively be such as may be prescribed, and may be prescribed by reference to the operation to be performed or to the circumstances or period for which the certificate is to have effect.

[Section 53 amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 167.]

54. Charging people to take part in permitted gaming

- (1) Except where —
 - (a) a regulation made under this Act, pursuant to subsection (4) or otherwise; or
 - (b) a condition imposed in respect of a permit, otherwise provides, no gambling shall be conducted in circumstances where (apart from any stakes hazarded or wagers placed) a charge, in money or money's worth, is made in respect of that gambling.

- (2) Subject to subsections (3), (4) and (5), any admission charge shall, unless the contrary is proved, be taken to be a charge made in respect of the gambling.
- (3) Where it is shown that a club, society, institution, organisation, association or other body of persons is so constituted and conducted, in respect of membership and otherwise, as not to be of a temporary character, a payment which constitutes payment of, or of a quarterly or half-yearly instalment of, an annual subscription to that body, or of an entrance subscription not made in respect of temporary membership, shall not be taken to be a charge made in respect of the gambling, notwithstanding that it operates as an admission charge.

- (4) Regulations made under this Act may impose an implied condition providing that a charge may be made in respect of any person for the right to take part in the permitted gaming, or permitted gaming of a prescribed kind or in prescribed circumstances, where the charge, or if more than one the aggregate amount of the charges, made on any one day or in respect of any one prescribed period does not exceed such sum as is prescribed.
- (5) Where permitted gaming takes place on approved premises, charges may be made in respect of the gaming in such circumstances as a condition imposed in relation to a permit in respect of that gaming, or to permitted gaming of that kind, may provide, and any such condition —
 - (a) may enable different charges to be made in respect of different facilities (whether provided in different parts of the same premises or by way of different games or of the same game played at different tables or otherwise) or in respect of permitted gaming facilities provided at the premises during different sessions of play; and
 - (b) may provide that a levy, of such amount or calculated in such a manner as is therein specified, may in circumstances therein specified be charged on the stakes or on the winnings of the players.
- (6) A charge shall not be made in relation to permitted gaming unless particulars of the charges and of the circumstances in which they are chargeable —
 - (a) are displayed at the premises; and

- (b) where the regulations or a condition so provide —
 - (i) the charges are approved by the Commission;
and
 - (ii) the particulars comprise such matters as the Commission requires, and are displayed in such a manner and positions as the Commission requires.

[Section 54 amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 149, 166 and 167.]

55. Approving premises for gaming

- (1) An application for the grant by the Commission of approval to the use of premises for gaming —
 - (a) in the case of premises to be used for the purposes of a specific function permit, may —
 - (i) if the Commission agrees, be made to the Commission informally; or
 - (ii) be made to the magistrate hearing the application for the function permit on behalf of the Commission, in which case the magistrate may grant the approval and shall cause the Commission to be notified of his decision;
 - but
 - (b) in any other case, shall be made to the Commission in the prescribed manner, and shall, unless the Commission or the magistrate dispenses with the requirement, contained or be accompanied by such information as is prescribed and be supported by such further information as the Commission or magistrate may require.

- (2) Premises may be approved by or on behalf of the Commission —
 - (a) specifically, to be used for the purposes of a specific function permit; or

- (b) generally, to be used for the purposes of function permits from time to time; or
- (c) in relation to a permit, or permits, of a continuing nature, subject to such conditions as are specified in the instrument of approval (which may be the specific function permit), and may be approved for the purposes only of specified kinds of permitted gaming, and particulars of the approval (other than in relation to a specific function permit) shall be noted in the register together with particulars of the person who is for the time being the holder of that approval.

- (3) The Commission may in relation to any premises require an applicant for the grant of approval or the holder of the approval to produce to the Commission —
 - (a) a report from the local government of the district in which the premises are situated, certifying that those premises conform, or if not conforming in what respect they do not conform, to the Health (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1911, to the relevant Act relating to sewerage and drainage and to any subsidiary legislation made under those Acts or the Local Government Act 1995; and
 - (b) a report from the authority responsible for local planning matters affecting the premises certifying —
 - (i) that the proposed or actual use does not contravene any written law relating to local planning; or
 - (ii) where a proposed use will not contravene such a written law only if a specified consent be given, whether or not that consent will be given and as to any conditions relating to that consent;

and

 - (c) a report from the Commissioner of Police, or of an officer appointed by him with the approval of the Commission for that purpose, certifying that the premises are not in his opinion unsuitable for use as premises where permitted gaming of the kind proposed or to which the approval for the time being refers may occur; and

- (d) evidence satisfactory to the Commission as to the charges proposed or made for the use of the premises for permitted gaming.
- (4) Where the owner or occupier of any approved premises objects or changes, or for any other reason the Commission is satisfied that the circumstances so require, the Commission may in its discretion revoke its approval of the premises, or amend the conditions imposed in relation to any approval.
- (5) The revocation, or amendment of the conditions imposed, shall take effect —
- (a) on the day on which written notice of the decision of the Commission is given to the registered holder of the approval; or
 - (b) on such later day as is specified in that notice,
- subject to subsection (6).
- (6) Where for any reason notice of a decision of the Commission cannot in the opinion of the Commission be conveniently given to the registered holder of the approval in relation to any premises, that notice may in default be given to any person appearing to be an occupier of the premises and be posted in a conspicuous position on the premises, and effect shall thereupon be given to the revocation or amendment in accordance with the tenor of that notice.
- (7) An approval of premises granted by the Commission subsists in favour of the holder to whom or which the approval was first granted, or an assignee acceptable to the Commission entered in the register as the registered holder of that approval, and until —
- (a) the term for which it was granted expires; or

- (b) its operation is suspended pursuant to an amendment; or
- (c) it is revoked under subsection (4), whichever is the sooner.

- (8) Where the Commission proposes to revoke the approval granted in relation to any premises, or to amend the conditions imposed, the Commission shall take such steps as it considers reasonable in the circumstances to afford the registered holder of the approval and, where practicable, the owner and any other occupier who in the opinion of the Commission may be thereby prejudicially affected an opportunity to make submissions to the Commission in relation to the matter.
- (9) Any assignment of the grant of approval by the registered holder proposed by him to the Commission shall not unreasonably be refused.
- (10) Any assignment which is acceptable, and any revocation or amendment under this section shall be noted in the register.

[Section 55 amended: No. 14 of 1996 s. 4; No. 35 of 2003 s. 167; No. 38 of 2005 s. 15; No. 19 of 2016 s. 101.]

56. Renewing approvals, permits and certificates

- (1) An application for the renewal, or where its operation is suspended the re-instatement, of an approval, a permit of a continuing nature or a certificate shall be made in writing as prescribed but need not, unless the Commission by notice in writing to the applicant so directs, contain or be accompanied by the information furnished at the time of the original application by that person in so far as that is stated to remain unaltered, but shall be supported by such further or other information as the Commission may require.
- (2) Subject to section 49(2), the application for the renewal or reinstatement of an approval, permit or certificate shall be dealt with at the discretion of the Commission as though it were an application for the grant of a new approval or for the issue of a new permit or certificate and, except where subsection (3) applies, the holding of an approval, permit or certificate does not confer any right of renewal.

- (3) Where an application for renewal is duly made to the Commission and the Commission considers that the application can not be disposed of prior to the date on which the then current approval, permit or certificate will lapse, the Commission —
- (a) may extend the operation of the then current approval, permit or certificate for such period as may be necessary for the application to be disposed of finally; and
 - (b) shall notify the applicant and amend the register accordingly.

57. Reports by permit holders, when required, content of etc.

- (1) Where the Commission by notice in writing or a condition imposed in relation to a permit so requires, the permit holder shall, not later than the day required by the Commission, furnish to the Commission a report verified in such manner as the Commission may require by the permit holder, and in the case of a body of persons, corporate or unincorporate, also by 2 officers of that body other than the permit holder, being persons appointed by that body with the approval of the Commission for the purposes of this section, showing —
- (a) the particular purpose or purposes to which proceeds of any gaming were applied, and the amount applied for that purpose, or for each of those purposes, as may be required; and
 - (b) each date and place at which gaming to which the permit purported to apply occurred; and
 - (c) the total amount of the proceeds of the permitted gaming; and

- (d) the sums appropriated out of those proceeds on account of expenses, and on account of prizes, respectively, and shall at that time, or subsequently, as the Commission requires, furnish such other information as to the permitted gaming or its conduct or as to moneys related thereto as the Commission may require, verified in such manner as the Commission may require.

- (2) The Commission may require that any report under this section be verified by an independent auditor acceptable to, or appointed by, the Commission at the expense of the permit holder, but any such expense may be deducted as a proper expense in relation to the permitted gaming only where the auditor so certifies and the Commission consents.
- (3) A person who or which fails to furnish a report or information required in accordance with subsection (1), or who or which furnishes in or in relation to any such report information which is false or misleading in a material particular, or who verifies any such report knowing it to contain such information, commits an offence.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000, or imprisonment for 1 year, or both.

58. Gaming permit may regulate use of proceeds from permitted gaming etc.

- (1) A condition imposed in relation to a permit may require the permit holder —
- (a) to give such publicity to the object of the permitted gaming as will be likely to bring it to the attention of persons participating in, or proposing to participate in, the permitted gaming; and

- (b) subject to this section, to apply money accruing from or in relation to the permitted gaming, or a specified part of that money, only to the object of the permitted gaming.
- (2) In this section object means the particular intention, or the activity, detailed in the application for the permit as that for which the proceeds of the permitted gaming are to be applied.
- (3) Where a permit holder desires to apply moneys accruing from permitted gaming to which a condition of the kind referred to in subsection (1) applies for a purpose suggested by the permit holder other than the object detailed in the application, the Commission may at the request of the permit holder authorise the application of the money for that other purpose if the Commission is satisfied —
- (a) that the object, in whole or in part —
- (i) has been as far as may be fulfilled; or
- (ii) cannot be carried out;
- or
- (b) that the object provides a use for part only of the money accruing from the permitted gaming; or
- (c) that the money so accruing and other money applicable for similar purposes can be more effectively used in conjunction, and to that end can suitably be made applicable to common purposes; or
- (d) that the object was specified by reference to an activity which was, when the object was specified, but has since ceased to be, an activity having some particular purpose, or by reference to a class of persons or to an object which has for any reason since ceased to be suitable; or
- (e) that the object, in whole or in part, has since it was specified —
- (i) been adequately provided for by other means; or

- (ii) ceased in any other way to provide a suitable and effective method of using money accruing from the permitted gaming.
- (4) Where the Commission authorises the application of money accruing from permitted gaming for a purpose other than the object of the permitted gaming the permit holder shall apply the money in the manner so authorised and not otherwise.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $2 500.

[Section 58 amended: No. 50 of 2003 s. 66(4) ; No. 41 of 2018 s. 25(1).]

59. Approvals etc. may require security to be given

- (1) A condition imposed in relation to —
 - (a) the eligibility of any person to hold a permit; or
 - (b) the approval of a person as a nominee permit holder; or
 - (c) the approval of premises; or
 - (d) the issue of a permit or certificate, may require that a person lodge with the Commission, within such time as the Commission may specify in the instrument imposing the condition or otherwise allow, security by way of a bond, in a form acceptable to the Commission and executed by an insurer acceptable to the Commission, conditioned upon the holder of the approval, permit or certificate paying, applying and accounting for, duly and according to law, moneys coming into his hands by the operation of this Act and punctually complying with all duties and obligations imposed on him by law in relation to those moneys or any approved premises.

- (1a) A bond referred to in subsection (1) shall provide that it enures during the term of the approval, permit or certificate for which it is originally given and may also provide that it enures during the term of any renewal granted to the same person.

- (2) Any bond lodged with the Commission in relation to any approval, permit or certificate shall be applied by the Commission in such circumstances, for such purposes and in such manner as the Minister may direct, and may be discharged by the Commission as to the whole or any part.
- (3) A judge may, on the application of the Commission and on being satisfied that any condition of the bond has been broken, assign the bond to the Commission or to any other person and the Commission or other person to whom the bond has been assigned is or the executors or administrators of the estate of that other person are, upon the assignment, entitled to sue upon the bond in his or their own name or names, as if the bond had, in the first instance, been given to him or them and also to receive, in trust for all persons interested, the full amount recoverable in respect of the breach of a condition of the bond.
- (4) Where a bond enures in respect of the renewal or further renewal of an approval, a permit or a certificate, the insurer may by notice in writing given to the Commission determine its liability under the bond in respect of any act or default that may be done or made after the current approval or permit expires.
- (5) If, by reason of non-payment of any premium, or any other act or omission of the holder of the approval, permit or certificate, a bond lodged with the Commission ceases to be in force during the term of the relevant approval, permit or certificate the approval, permit or certificate is deemed to have been revoked until another bond acceptable to the Commission is lodged.
- (6) Where for any reason related to the insurer a bond lodged with the Commission ceases to be acceptable to the Commission, the approval, permit or certificate to which the bond relates may be amended by the Commission so that its operation is suspended until another bond acceptable to the Commission is lodged.

[Section 59 amended: No. 16 of 1990 s. 33.]

60. Revoking and amending permits and certain approvals

- (1) Where the Commission is satisfied that the circumstances so require, the Commission, subject to section 62, may in its discretion —
 - (a) revoke its approval as to the eligibility of any person to hold a permit; or
 - (b) revoke its approval of a person as a nominee permit holder; or
 - (c) where a permit holder is a corporation and —
 - (i) a dealing with shares or any other interest in the corporation takes place; or
 - (ii) the corporation or its directors enter into a transaction or arrangement, and in the opinion of the Commission the dealing, transaction or arrangement substantially affects the control of the corporation, revoke the permit; or
 - (d) revoke a permit or a certificate; or
 - (e) amend any such approval or permit or certificate.
- (2) The revocation or amendment of an approval or a permit or a certificate pursuant to subsection (1) takes effect —
 - (a) on the day on which a notice of the revocation or amendment is given by the Commission to the holder of that approval or permit or certificate; or
 - (b) on such later day as is specified in the notice of revocation or amendment, and the register shall be noted accordingly.
- (3) Where notice is to be given pursuant to subsection (2) and service can not be effected within 7 days, a notice published for information in the Gazette setting out the relevant particulars of the notice to be given and of the day on which it was dated shall be taken to be sufficient service of a notice pursuant to subsection (2) for the purpose of any revocation or amendment of an approval or a permit or a certificate to which this section applies.

- (4) The revocation or amendment of an approval or a permit or a certificate to which this section applies shall not be effected unless the Commission has taken reasonable steps to afford the holder of that approval or permit or certificate, and any other person or body likely to be affected, an opportunity to make submissions to the Commission in relation to the matter, unless the ground of revocation or amendment is a suspected offence under this Act.
- (5) The Commission may by notice in writing require the holder of an approval or a permit or a certificate to which this section applies to return it to the Commission for the purpose of amendment.
- (6) Where the Commission by notice requires that an approval or a permit or a certificate be returned to the Commission under subsection (5) and the approval or permit or certificate is not so returned within the time limited by the Commission in the notice, that approval or permit or certificate shall be deemed to have been revoked with effect from the day on which the notice was dated.
- (7) The application of this section to the revocation of a certificate is subject to sections 88 and 92.

[61. Deleted: No. 16 of 1990 s. 33.]

62. Revocation or amendment of current approval etc., Commission to report to Minister; appeals to Minister

- (1) Where the Commission revokes or amends an approval, permit or certificate before the conclusion of the period for which it would otherwise have effect, the Commission, after having given an opportunity to the holder of the approval, permit or certificate to make submissions in relation to the matter and considered any submissions so made, shall make a report and recommendations to the Minister.

- (2) A person aggrieved by a determination of the Commission —
- (a) revoking; or
 - (b) refusing to renew; or
 - (c) amending,

an approval, permit or certificate may appeal by making a submission in writing in the prescribed manner to the Minister.

- (3) The Minister may determine the matter on the substantial merits without regard to legal forms or technicalities and is not required to determine whether the information before him is in accordance with the law of evidence or not.
- (4) The decision of the Minister shall be final and conclusive, is not subject to any further or other appeal, and shall not be questioned in any judicial proceedings.
- (5) Where the holder of an approval, permit or certificate appeals to the Minister the approval, permit or certificate shall, subject to the payment of any fees then due and payable and subject to subsection (6), remain in force until the determination of the appeal.
- (6) Subsection (5) does not apply in the case of an appeal against a determination of the Commission stated to have been made by reason of the conviction of the holder of the permit, approval or certificate for an offence against this Act or any other written law relating to gambling.

[Section 62 amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 166.]

63. No credit to be given to person for permitted gaming; cheques for permitted gaming

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), where permitted gaming takes place, neither the permit holder nor any person acting on his behalf or under any arrangement with him shall make any loan or otherwise provide or allow to any person any credit, or release, or discharge on another person's behalf, the whole or part of any debt —

- (a) for enabling any person to take part in permitted gaming; or
 - (b) in respect of any losses incurred by any person in permitted gaming.
- (2) Neither the permit holder nor any person acting on his behalf or under any arrangement with him shall accept a cheque and give in exchange for it cash or tokens for enabling any person to take part in permitted gaming unless the following conditions are fulfilled, that is to say —
- (a) the cheque is not a post-dated cheque; and
 - (b) it is exchanged for cash to an amount equal to the amount for which it is drawn, or is exchanged for tokens at the same rate as would apply if cash, to the amount for which the cheque is drawn, were given in exchange for them, but, where those conditions are fulfilled, the giving of cash or tokens in exchange for a cheque shall not be taken to contravene subsection (1).

- (3) Where the permit holder, or a person acting on behalf of or under any arrangement with him, accepts a cheque in exchange for cash or tokens to be used by a player in permitted gaming, he shall not more than 2 banking days later cause the cheque to be delivered to a financial institution for payment or collection.
- (4) In this section banking day means a day other than a bank holiday.

[Section 63 amended: No. 24 of 2000 s. 52.]

Division 2 — Social gambling

64. Social gambling defined

- (1) This section does not, subject to subsection (3), apply to or in relation to —
 - (a) betting to which the Betting Control Act 1954 applies; or
 - (b) any other gambling on the result of a race of any kind by horses, whether ridden or driven, or by greyhounds.
- (2) Subject to subsection (1), gambling which —
 - (a) is spontaneous, notwithstanding that it may occur regularly, habitually or by arrangement between the persons involved; and
 - (b) is not promoted or conducted by or for the private gain of any person not participating in the gambling; and
 - (c) is so conducted that —
 - (i) no person is defrauded or cheated; and
 - (ii) no charge in money or money's worth (apart from any stakes hazarded or wagers placed) is made in respect of the gambling, and that no levy is charged on any of the stakes or wagers or on the winnings of any of the players, whether by way of direct payment, by deduction, or by any other means; and
 - (iii) no money or money's worth which any of the players puts down as stakes, or pays by way of losses, or exchanges for tokens used in playing the game or wagering, is disposed of otherwise than by payment to a person participating in the gambling as winnings;

and

 - (d) is not conducted in circumstances that indicate that the mental, physical or moral welfare of any child under the age of 16 years is likely to be in jeopardy; and

- (e) does not contravene the requirements of the person responsible for the premises where it occurs; and
 - (f) is not —
 - (i) two-up; or
 - (ii) a game of a kind which by the operation of section 46(2) is not capable of being authorised by way of permitted gaming; or
 - (iii) prescribed as a game in respect to which social gambling is prohibited;
- and
- (g) being gaming, by the nature of the game is such that the chances in the game —
 - (i) are equally favourable to all the players; or
 - (ii) lie between the player and some other person, or (if there are 2 or more players) lie wholly or partly between the players and some other person, and those chances are as favourable to the player or players as they are to that other person, shall be taken to constitute social gambling and is not unlawful.

- (3) The making of a bet within the meaning of the Betting Control Act 1954 by a person with another person, neither being a person who —
 - (a) holds a current licence as a bookmaker under that Act; or
 - (b) by way of business in any manner holds himself out, or permits himself to be held out, as a person who receives or negotiates wagers or who, whether occasionally or regularly, carries on the business of receiving or negotiating wagers; or
 - (c) is employed by or acts on behalf of a person of the kind referred to in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b), shall be taken to constitute social gambling and is not unlawful.

- (4) The conduct of, or participation in, a lottery on the result of a race of any kind by a person or persons, not being a person or persons of a kind referred to in subsection (3)(a), (b) or (c), on or in the week preceding the day on which that race occurs, not being a lottery conducted for the purposes of private gain or any commercial undertaking, shall be taken to constitute social gambling and is not unlawful.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a payment which constitutes payment of, or of a periodic instalment of, an annual membership subscription to a body of persons, or which constitutes payment of an entrance subscription for membership of such body, shall not be taken to be a charge made in respect of gambling occurring at premises conducted by that body so long as the gambling is not conducted by or on behalf of that body.
- (6) Where in any other written law a reference to gambling, gaming or wagering, or to betting, is construed as a reference to gambling, gaming, wagering or betting that is unlawful that reference shall be taken not to refer to social gambling.

[Division 3 (s. 65-79) deleted: No. 16 of 1990 s. 31.]

Division 4 — Permitted two-up

80. Two-up at country race meetings

- (1) Where persons play or conduct gaming at the game known as two-up, and that game and the conduct of gaming associated with that game —
- (a) takes place —
- (i) at or in the vicinity of a racecourse or track under the control of a country race club; and
- (ii) during the course of the day and, if subsection (1a) applies, the day after the day on which a race meeting licensed by RWWA under the RWWA Act or the Racing Restriction Act 2003 is held on that racecourse or track under the management of that club;

(b) is conducted —

- (i) by or on behalf of the country race club, by a person authorised in writing by the committee of that club for the purpose; and
- (ii) otherwise than during the racing for that day; and
- (iii) in the manner in which the game two-up is customarily conducted in that locality of the State, whether with coins or dice; and
- (iiia) not for the purposes of private gain or any commercial undertaking; and
- (iv) pursuant to, and in all respects in accordance with, a permit issued under section 51 to an approved nominee permit holder on behalf of that country race club pursuant to an application made by the club specifically seeking a permit to conduct gaming to which this section applies;

and

(c) does not contravene any condition —

- (i) specifically imposed in respect of that permit; or
- (ii) implied by section 82 or otherwise prescribed under this Act, it shall be taken to constitute permitted two-up and is not unlawful.

- (1a) Subject to subsection (1b), a permit issued under section 51 that authorises playing or the conduct of gaming at the game known as two-up to take place during the course of the day on which a race meeting is held (race day) may also authorise playing or gaming at that game to continue, for the period specified in the permit, into the day after race day.

- (1b) A permit that authorises playing or gaming at the game known as two-up to continue into the day after race day ceases to have effect if playing or gaming at that game does not begin during race day.
- (2) A reference in this section to a country race club is a reference to a club which is not a club situate inside a radius in any direction of 100 km of the Burswood Casino as referred to in the Casino (Burswood Island) Agreement Act 1985.

[Section 80 amended: No. 24 of 1998 s. 54; No. 35 of 2003 s. 151; No. 25 of 2011 s. 9.]

81. Two-up at other places

- (1) Where persons play or conduct gaming at the game known as two-up, and that game and the gaming associated with that game —
- (a) takes place at approved premises, not being a place situate inside a radius in any direction of 100 km of the Burswood Casino as referred to in the Casino (Burswood Island) Agreement Act 1985; and
- (b) is conducted —
- (i) in the manner in which the game two-up is customarily conducted in that locality of the State, whether with coins or dice; and
- (ia) not for the purposes of private gain or any commercial undertaking; and
- (ii) pursuant to, and in all respects in accordance with, a permit issued under section 51 to, or to a nominee permit holder on behalf of, a person who has made an application specifically seeking a permit to conduct gaming to which this section applies;
- and

- (c) does not contravene any condition —
 - (i) specifically imposed in respect of that permit; or
 - (ii) implied by section 82 or otherwise prescribed under this Act,

it shall be taken to constitute permitted two-up and is not unlawful.

- (2) For the purposes of section 51(2)(b) the Commission may have regard to the recreational and social aspects of any proposed gaming to which this section applies and —
 - (a) is not required to be satisfied that the principal object of the proposed gaming is the raising of moneys for any activity or, except where the gaming purports to be conducted for the benefit of any activity or any charitable or other particular object, as to the use to which any proceeds are to be put; and
 - (b) the gaming shall not be taken to be conducted for the purposes of private gain by reason only that the ringkeeper on behalf of the operator takes a customary commission, not exceeding 10%, of —
 - (i) all winnings from the spinner, after the spinner has withdrawn; and
 - (ii) the winnings of players who have placed their stakes through the ringkeeper and who win on heads (or the equivalent where dice are used),unless the taking of a commission is prohibited or restricted by a condition imposed in respect of the permit.

[(3) deleted]

82. Conditions deemed in certain permits

The following implied conditions shall be deemed to have been imposed in respect of every permit to which this Division applies —

- (a) access to any land or premises used for the purposes of the gaming shall at all times be permitted to any member of the Police Force; and
- (b) a person who is —
 - (i) under the age of 18 years; or
 - (ii) under the apparent influence of alcohol or drugs, or alcohol and drugs, shall not be, or be permitted to be, in any area designated in the permit as to be prohibited to such persons, and such a condition is not required to be noted on the permit or in the register.

[Section 82 amended: No. 24 of 1998 s. 56; No. 35 of 2003 s. 153.]

83. Regulations for this Division

Regulations made for the purposes of this Division may make provision —

- (a) in respect of fees or charges in relation to the application for, operation of, or renewal of any permit to which this Division applies; and
- (b) as to conditions to be imposed in respect of such a permit, the manner of making the application to the Commission or in the case of a function permit to a magistrate, the period and the hours during which the permit is to have effect, and the conduct and supervision of the gaming; and
- (c) for the immediate suspension of the operation of a permit in prescribed circumstances; and

- (d) requiring the furnishing of information as to the operation of any gaming conducted pursuant to a permit to which this Division applies; and
- (e) for the creation of offences and prescribed penalties, in relation to the operation of any such permit or the conduct of gaming thereby authorised; and
- (f) generally, in relation to the conduct of the game of two-up.

- (1) Regulations made under this Act or a permit authorising the conduct of gaming by means of gaming equipment, whether or not prescribed gaming equipment, may impose conditions requiring a person to make, and to retain during a specified period, such records and accounts as may be specified, and to furnish the Commission with such report or information as is specified, in relation to —
 - (a) any payments made in respect of the equipment, whether by way of rent, maintenance charges or otherwise; and
 - (b) any money or tokens inserted into a gaming machine or otherwise hazarded in relation to gaming to which the equipment relates; and
 - (c) any money or tokens removed from a gaming machine, or otherwise received in relation to gaming to which the equipment relates, other than money or tokens delivered as prizes.
- (2) In this section, specified means specified in the regulations or the relevant permit.

88. Prescribed gaming equipment, regulations about, certificates for sellers etc. of

- (1) Regulations made under this Act may prohibit, or impose conditions in relation to —
 - (a) the sale, supply, maintenance or repair of prescribed gaming equipment; and
 - (b) the use or possession of prescribed gaming equipment; and
 - (c) the sale or supply of tokens for use in prescribed gaming equipment.
- (2) The regulations, or a permit authorising the conduct of gaming by means of gaming equipment, may impose conditions in relation to the operation of the prescribed gaming equipment, including conditions —

- (a) that a gaming machine shall not be a machine which, in accordance with the way in which the machine is constructed, adapted or for the time being regulated, is designed to pay out less than a prescribed percentage of the aggregate value of the money or money's worth paid by or on behalf of a player in order to play one or more games by means of the machine; and
 - (b) that play shall not take place using the gaming equipment unless the equipment is operated by a person approved by the Commission; and
 - (c) that a statement as to the value or nature of the prizes that can be won be displayed in a prescribed manner; and
 - (d) that no person who is not approved by the Commission for the purpose shall remove from any gaming machine any money, other than any money delivered by the machine as, or as part of, a prize in respect of a game played by means of the machine.
- (3) A person shall not —
- (a) as principal, or as a servant or agent, sell or supply any gaming equipment otherwise than in circumstances to which subsection (4) applies; or
 - (b) as principal undertake for valuable consideration, or cause or permit another person to enter into such an undertaking on his behalf, to maintain the mechanism of any gaming equipment, being prescribed gaming equipment to which this subsection is by the regulations applied, unless the person so acting —

- (c) being a principal is the holder of a relevant and current certificate issued under this section by the Commission; or

Gaming and Wagering Commission Act 1987

Part V Permitted gambling

Division 5 Gaming machines and other gaming equipment and its operation

s. 88

- (d) being a servant or agent of another person, sells or supplies the gaming equipment on behalf of a person who is the holder of such a certificate.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $2 000.

- (4) Subsection (3)(a) does not apply —

- (a) to the sale of gaming equipment of any particular class or kind to a person who carries on a business which consists of or includes selling or supplying gaming equipment of that class or kind; or
- (b) to the sale or supply of gaming equipment to a person who at no time has possession of the equipment and becomes the owner of it only for the purpose of arranging financial accommodation for another person to permit that other person to purchase or be supplied with the equipment; or
- (c) to the sale or supply of inoperable gaming equipment as scrap; or
- (d) to any transaction whereby approved premises in which the gaming equipment is installed are sold or let and the equipment is sold or supplied to a purchaser or tenant, who is an assignee acceptable to the Commission in relation to the approval of those premises, as part of the fixtures and fittings of those premises.

- (5) A certificate for the purposes of this section may be issued by the Commission on payment of the prescribed fee to any person who satisfies the Commission that he is competent and a fit and proper person to perform the operation to which the certificate relates, and shall have effect —

- (a) in relation to the gaming equipment or gaming equipment of the kind therein specified in the circumstances so specified; or
- (b) in relation to —
 - (i) the gaming equipment, or gaming equipment of the kind; and

- (ii) the period, not being a period in excess of 5 years; and
 - (iii) the operations as to sale or supply, or as to maintenance of the mechanism of the respective kinds of gaming equipment, therein specified,
- and is renewable, but may be revoked at the discretion of the Commission pursuant to subsection (6).
- (6) A certificate may be revoked by the Commission by notice in writing given to the holder at the address specified in the certificate, as from the end of a period (of not less than 7 days from the date of service of the notice) as specified in that notice, and the revocation takes effect at the end of that period.
 - (7) In determining whether a person is competent and a fit and proper person to perform relevant operations regard shall be had in particular to the way in which business is conducted by him and by persons employed by him or acting on his behalf.
 - (8) A person shall not be taken to be a fit and proper person to perform relevant operations if those operations are, or if the certificate in question were issued or renewed would be, performed by him as servant or agent of, or otherwise for the benefit of, a person who would himself be refused a certificate as not being a fit and proper person to perform those operations.

89. Prescribed gaming equipment, sale etc. of

- (1) Regulations made under this Act may impose conditions with respect to the terms on which prescribed gaming equipment may be sold, supplied or maintained.

[Section 93B inserted: No. 41 of 2018 s. 21.]

Division 6 — Permitted bingo

94. Terms used

- (1) In this Division, unless the contrary intention appears — bingo means the game commonly known as bingo, housie-housie or tombola and includes any version of that game by whatever name called;

charitable organisation means an organisation which in the opinion of the Commission has for an object or one of its principal objects the raising of money for charitable purposes, or for the promotion and advancement of social welfare, including public recreation or sport;

club includes any society, institution, organisation, association or other body of persons, by whatever name called, and any separate branch or section of such society, institution, organisation, association or body but a branch or section shall not be treated as a separate branch or section unless it occupies separate premises;

money includes any token, voucher or other thing given by a player in exchange for cards and recognised for the purposes of the exchange to represent a particular sum of money, or money's worth;

multiple bingo means bingo to which section 96 refers;

organiser, in relation to a game of bingo, means the person having the management of the game on behalf of the permit holder in respect of the premises on which the game is played, and in respect of multiple or simultaneous bingo, the person having the central management of the game;

prize means anything won or to be won at bingo, whether money or something else having a value, and value and paid in relation to prizes shall be construed accordingly;

promoter, in relation to bingo, means the person to whom the players look for the payment of prizes;

simultaneous bingo means bingo to which section 97 refers.

- (2) For the purposes of this Division, a player's cards are the sets of numbers or symbols (in whatever form or layout) with which he plays bingo, matching them against calls made by the house; and a player pays for a card when he gives money in exchange for, or for the use of, a particular card, whether it is appropriated to a particular game or can be appropriated by the player to a game of his choice.

95. Permits to conduct bingo; who may play permitted bingo

- (1) Where the Commission is satisfied that it is not to be conducted for the purposes of private gain or any commercial undertaking, a permit authorising the conduct of bingo may be issued —
- (a) to have effect for a period of 6 months from the date of issue, without specifying the dates on which play may take place, where the bingo is conducted by or on behalf of an approved bingo club; or
 - (b) as a permit of a continuing nature, subject to the condition that play takes place on the days and at the times authorised by that permit and not otherwise; or
 - (c) as a function permit.
- (2) A permit to which subsection (1)(a) applies shall not be issued unless the Commission is satisfied that —
- (a) the club seeking the issue of the permit is comprised wholly or mainly of persons who are senior citizens or pensioners, and guests participating in the play will be persons of a like kind; or
 - (b) the club constitutes, or will conduct the bingo on behalf of, a charitable organisation.
- (3) A permit under this Division issued to an approved nominee on behalf of a club shall, unless the Commission otherwise specifies, be issued subject to the implied condition (which need not be specified in the permit or entered in the register) that no person shall participate in the gaming unless either —
- (a) he is a member of the club and there has been an interval of at least 48 hours between the time when he applied or was nominated for membership of the club and the time when he begins to take part in the gaming; or

- (b) he is a bona fide guest of a person who is a member of the club, and for the purposes of paragraph (b) a person shall be taken not to be a bona fide guest if he himself makes any payment required for enabling him to obtain access to the premises, or to a part of them which is a part in which the gaming takes place, or if (apart from any stakes hazarded and the payment of any losses incurred by him in the gaming) he makes any payment in money or money's worth in respect of the gaming.

- (4) A person shall not participate in the gaming under this Division —

- (a) if, unless section 96(1) or 97(1) applies or a permit otherwise provides, he is not present on the premises at the time when the gaming takes place there; or
- (b) on behalf of another person who is not present on the premises at that time.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $100.

96. Multiple bingo

- (1) For the purposes of the game of multiple bingo, a person may be regarded as present on the premises where the game is being played and at the time when it is being played there if he is present at any one of the premises on which it is being played at the time when it is being played on those premises.
- (2) Where multiple bingo is played —
 - (a) the aggregate amount paid to players as prizes in respect of the game shall not exceed 60%, or such other proportion as may be prescribed, of the aggregate amount of the stakes hazarded by the players in playing that game; and

- (b) the amount of any such prize shall not exceed the prescribed amount or such other sum as may be specified in a condition imposed in respect of the permit authorising the gaming; and
- (c) unless the organiser is a person who is the holder of a certificate issued by the Commission for the purpose of the operations performed by him, section 91(6) applies.

(3) A person who —

- (a) performs any operations as an organiser of a game purporting to be multiple bingo, not being the holder of a certificate issued to him for the purposes of section 91(6) in respect of that operation; or
- (b) conducts a game purporting to be multiple bingo otherwise than in accordance with subsections (2) and (4),

commits an offence.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $1 000.

(4) In this section —

multiple bingo means a game of bingo played jointly on different bingo club premises in circumstances where —

- (a) the draw is determined before the beginning of the game by the organiser of the game and announced on each of those premises while the game is being played there; and
- (b) the game is played on each of those premises within a specified period which begins and ends at the same time for all of them; and
- (c) each player competes for a prize calculated by reference to the stakes hazarded at all those premises and also for either or both of the following —
 - (i) a prize calculated by reference to the stakes hazarded at a group of those premises which includes the premises on which he is taking part in the game; and

- (ii) a prize calculated by reference to the stakes hazarded at the last-mentioned premises.

[Section 96 amended: No. 41 of 2018 s. 25(1).]

97. Simultaneous bingo

- (1) Where a game of bingo is played simultaneously on different premises in circumstances where —
 - (a) all the players take part in the same game at the same time and all are present at that time on one or other of those premises; and
 - (b) the draw takes place on one or other of those premises while the game is being played; and
 - (c) any claim of one of the players to have won is indicated to all the other players before the next number is called,then, for the purposes of section 95(4), those different premises shall be deemed to have been the same premises.
- (2) Where games of bingo are played simultaneously —
 - (a) the aggregate amount paid to players as winnings in respect of that game shall not exceed 60%, or such other proportion as may be prescribed, of the aggregate amount of the stakes hazarded by the players in playing that game; and
 - (b) the amount of any prize paid shall not exceed the prescribed amount or such other sum as may be specified in a condition imposed in respect of the permit authorising the gaming; and
 - (c) unless the organiser is a person who is the holder of a certificate issued by the Commission for the purpose of the operations performed by him, section 91(6) applies.

- (3) A person who —
- (a) performs any operation as an organiser of a game purporting to be simultaneous bingo, not being the holder of a certificate issued for the purposes of section 91(6) in respect of that operation; or
 - (b) conducts a game purporting to be simultaneous bingo otherwise than in accordance with subsections (1) and (2),

commits an offence.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $1 000.

[Section 97 amended: No. 41 of 2018 s. 25(1).]

98. Conduct of bingo

A person shall not —

- (a) conduct multiple bingo or simultaneous bingo, otherwise than in accordance with a permit specifically authorising the playing of that version of bingo; or
- (b) as promoter, offer any jackpot prize in relation to bingo, except in so far as may be authorised specifically by a permit relating to multiple bingo or simultaneous bingo; or
- (c) for hire or reward, by way of calling or spotting on behalf of the house or otherwise, assist in the conduct of bingo, unless that person is the holder of a certificate issued by the Commission pursuant to section 91(1) in respect of that operation.

99. Recovering moneys payable to Commission for bingo

Where any moneys are payable to the Commission in relation to a permit authorising the playing of a game of bingo, those moneys shall be recoverable jointly and severally from all or any of the following persons —

- (a) the permit holder; and
- (b) the promoter, and any person who took money as payment by players for cards or paid prizes to players; and
- (c) the organiser, and any person who was responsible for the management of the premises on which the gaming took place; and
- (d) where a body of persons would be liable, any person who pursuant to section 37 would be liable in relation to a conviction of that body for an offence of failing to pay those moneys on demand.

100. Regulations as to bingo

Regulations may be made under this Act with respect to the conduct of games of bingo and in particular with respect to the following matters —

- (a) the number of games that may be played on any premises in any period of 24 hours; and
- (b) the period for the playing of a game; and
- (c) the hours during which gaming is permitted to take place; and
- (d) the amount of the stakes; and
- (e) the method of calculating the value or amount of the prizes; and
- (f) the functions of the organiser of the game and of the persons conducting the game, including a requirement that any such person be the holder of a relevant certificate issued under section 92; and
- (g) requiring the display, in such manner and in such positions on the premises as may be prescribed, of the rules in accordance with which any game is to be played on the premises, either generally or in any particular circumstances; and

- (h) requiring a promoter to ensure that, before the beginning of any game of bingo promoted by him, the value of any prize to be won in the game is made known to the players in accordance with such requirements as may be prescribed; and
- (j) the keeping and retention of accounting records, and as to the production, verification and examination of books relating to the gaming or to the prizes and money involved; and
- (k) requiring the provision of security, by way of deposit or otherwise, for any moneys due to the Commission for which a person is, or may become, liable; and
- (l) authorising the Commission —
 - (i) to waive, in a particular case or class of cases, moneys that would otherwise be payable to the Commission; or
 - (ii) to refund in whole or in part, in a particular case or class of cases, moneys paid to the Commission,under this Division; and
- (m) requiring that in relation to gaming conducted under the authority of a permit in circumstances to which section 95(2) refers, at least 2 persons appointed by the club and acceptable to the Commission are present during the gaming to ensure that it is fairly and properly conducted; and
- (n) the printing, sale, use and call back of cards; and
- (na) the persons —
 - (i) who may be given cards without payment; or
 - (ii) who shall not be given cards without payment;and

- (p) the provision and award of prizes; and
- (q) as to the fees or other moneys payable to the Commission in respect of the gaming, and for the administration of the assessment and enforcement of the payment of such moneys.

 - (ii) persons all of whom are members of, or are the bona fide guests of, a body of persons established and conducted for purposes not connected with gaming or lotteries,and not otherwise; and
 - (b) the price of every ticket, chance or subscription is the same; and
 - (c) the winning of, or the purchase of a chance to win, a prize does not entitle any person (whether subject to a further payment or not) to any further opportunity to win money or money's worth by taking part in any gaming or in any lottery; and
 - (d) no prize, in money or money's worth exceeding the prescribed amount, is distributed or offered; and

- (e) the sale of tickets or chances, and the receipt of subscriptions, and the declaration of the result take place within 8 days, shall, subject to subsection (3), be deemed to be a permitted lottery.

- (2) A lottery in which —

- (a) the tickets are alphabetically and numerically distinct but the same price; and
- (b) the declaration of the result takes place on the same day and on the premises on which the tickets are sold; and
- (c) the aggregate of the value of the prizes offered or distributed does not exceed the prescribed amount,

shall, subject to subsection (3), be deemed to be a permitted lottery.

- (3) In relation to a lottery to which this section applies the following conditions are implied —

- (a) the whole proceeds, after deducting only expenses incurred for printing and stationery, shall be devoted to the provision of prizes in the lottery or to purposes which are purposes common to the persons participating; and
- (b) no advertisement of the lottery shall be exhibited, published or distributed, other than a notice on the premises of the persons for whom it is conducted or such as may be contained in the tickets or approved by the Commission; and
- (c) no prize won shall be paid or delivered to a person other than a person eligible to participate to whom the winning ticket or chance was sold.

[Section 103 amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 158.]

104. Permits for lotteries; duties of holders of permit for standard lottery

- (1) A permit authorising the conduct of a lottery may be issued —
 - (a) where the Commission is satisfied that it is not to be conducted for the purposes of private gain or any commercial undertaking; or
 - (b) for a trade promotion lottery that does not comply with the conditions referred to in section 102.
- (1a) A permit may be issued for a continuing lottery, in support of religious or charitable purposes or the promotion or advancement of social welfare including sports or games and cultural or public recreational activities, for a period not exceeding 12 months.
- (1b) A permit for a continuing lottery shall not be issued to a person who is a licensed supplier within the meaning of section 3(1).
- (1c) A permit for a standard lottery of the kind generally known or described as a calcutta shall be issued only to a race club or an approved club.
- (2) A person applying for a permit authorising a standard lottery shall furnish to the Commission evidence satisfactory to the Commission as to —
 - (a) the proposed opening date and closing date and date of drawing; and
 - (b) the locality in which tickets or chances are to be offered for sale or in which subscriptions may be received; and
 - (c) the purpose for which the standard lottery is to be conducted; and
 - (d) the total number of tickets or chances to be offered for sale, or the total number of subscriptions proposed to be called for; and
 - (e) the price of each ticket, chance or subscription; and

- (f) the total amount of the prize money or other prizes proposed to be distributed or offered in the standard lottery; and
 - (g) such other matters as may be prescribed or as are required by the Commission.
- (3) With respect to a standard lottery —
- (a) the permit holder shall keep in such form as may be prescribed a book regularly and promptly posted up, showing a true and accurate account of the receipt and disposal of all property received and disposed of in connection with the standard lottery; and
 - (b) all accounts and other books, tickets, butts of tickets, vouchers and things relating to the standard lottery shall at all times be kept readily accessible by the permit holder for inspection or audit as provided by this Act; and
 - (c) the permit holder shall within 30 days after the date of drawing of the standard lottery furnish to the Commission a true and accurate account of the receipt and disposal of all property in the conduct of the standard lottery; and
 - (d) notwithstanding that on the closing date the standard lottery is not filled or fully subscribed, the standard lottery shall be closed on that date and thereafter shall be drawn, but may be drawn on a pro rata basis; and
 - (e) the Commission may at any time and from time to time permit the permit holder to postpone the closing date of the standard lottery for such period as the Commission may determine and the permit holder shall postpone the date of drawing in accordance with the determination; and
 - (ea) the permit holder shall ensure that every ticket or chance sold or subscription received is included in the drawing of a standard lottery; and

- (eb) subject to any postponement of the closing date under paragraph (e), the permit holder shall ensure that the drawing of a standard lottery takes place within the prescribed period after the closing date of the lottery; and
- (f) unless paragraph (e) applies, the closing date shall be not more than 3 months from the opening date; and
- (g) every ticket and every notice or advertisement of the lottery shall specify the name of the permit holder, the body on behalf of which or the purposes for which it is conducted (as the Commission may require), and the closing date; and
- (h) the price of every ticket, chance or subscription shall be the same, and shall be stated on the ticket; and
- (j) no person shall be permitted to participate except after payment of the whole price of the ticket, chance or subscription; and
- (k) no money received for or on account of a ticket, chance or subscription shall be returned unless the Commission has given the permit holder notice in writing authorising the return of the money.

- (4) A permit holder who fails to comply with subsection (3)(ea) or (eb) commits an offence.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $1 000.

- (5) A person who returns any money contrary to subsection (3)(k) commits an offence.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $1 000.

[Section 104 amended: No. 24 of 1998 s. 62; No. 6 of 2000 s. 14; No. 41 of 2018 s. 25(1).]

104A. Commission not liable for unpaid lottery prizes

The Commission is not liable to compensate a person who, in a lottery for which a permit has been issued under section 104, wins a prize that for any reason is not paid to the person.

[Section 104A inserted: No. 24 of 1998 s. 63.]

104B. Licensing of suppliers of lottery tickets

- (1) A person, other than a person holding a permit, may, in accordance with subsection (2), apply to the Commission to be licensed under this Division as a licensed supplier.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) shall be made in writing, in a form approved by the Commission, specifying —
 - (a) the address of the place of business within the State at which tickets and records required under this Division to be maintained are to be kept; and
 - (b) such other particulars as the Commission requires,and shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.
- (3) In considering an application under subsection (1), the Commission may have regard to the financial circumstances of the applicant and such other matters as the Commission considers relevant and, without limiting the grounds on which an application may be refused, the Commission may refuse an application on the ground that —
 - (a) the applicant has an interest in a body corporate that holds a licence; or
 - (b) the applicant is a body corporate and a person having an interest in the body corporate holds a licence or has an interest in another body corporate that holds a licence; or
 - (c) the applicant or, where the applicant is a body corporate, the body corporate or a person having an interest in the body corporate has previously held a licence, or had an interest in a body corporate that held a licence, which licence was cancelled under this Division.

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), a person has an interest in a body corporate if the person —
- (a) holds office as a director of the body corporate; or
 - (b) holds any share, or has a beneficial interest in any share, in that body corporate; or
 - (c) holds any unit in a unit trust scheme of which the body corporate is the trustee; or
 - (d) has an interest as a beneficiary under a trust of which the body corporate is the trustee; or
 - (e) may, as the result of the exercise of a power or discretion by the body corporate, benefit under a discretionary trust.
- (5) The Commission may issue to a person making an application under subsection (1) a licence in a form approved by the Commission and a licence so issued —
- (a) is not transferable and relates only to the person to whom it is issued but extends to the conduct of business by that person in the capacity of a trustee; and
 - (b) has effect for 5 years, or until it is cancelled or surrendered under this Division.

[Section 104B inserted: No. 6 of 2000 s. 15; amended: No. 12 of 2008 Sch. 1 cl. 9.]

104C. Licences of licensed suppliers, cancelling etc.

- (1) Where —
- (a) the Commission has reason to believe that a licensed supplier has contravened this Division, whether or not the licensed supplier has been convicted of, or proceedings have been instituted against the licensed supplier in respect of, that contravention; or
 - (b) a licensed supplier ceases to carry on the business by reason of which the licensed supplier was required to be licensed; or

- (c) the Commission has reason to believe that the person is no longer a fit and proper person to hold the licence, the Commission may, by notice in writing given to the licensed supplier, cancel the licence held by the licensed supplier.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b) a licensed supplier is taken to have ceased to carry on the relevant business if, upon the Commission giving to the licensed supplier notice in writing requiring the licensed supplier to show that the licensed supplier has not ceased to carry on the business, the licensed supplier fails within one month after the notice was given to satisfy the Commission that, in the 3 months before the notice was given, the licensed supplier has, in the ordinary course of business, supplied any tickets for the supply of which a licence is required by this Division.
- (3) A licensed supplier may, by notice in writing given to the Commission, surrender the licence held by that person.
- (4) Where the licence of a person is cancelled or surrendered under this section, that person shall —
- (a) within 14 days after the cancellation or surrender, or such further time as the Commission may approve in writing, lodge with the Commission a return in such form as the Commission requires in writing showing the total face value of all tickets supplied by that person under the licence since the last period in respect of which the person has lodged a return under section 104F and showing such other information as the Commission requires in writing; and
- (b) at the time of lodging the return required by paragraph (a) or within such further time as the Commission may approve in writing, pay to the Commission the continuing lotteries levy in respect of all tickets supplied by that person as shown in the return.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000.

[Section 104C inserted: No. 6 of 2000 s. 15; amended: No. 41 of 2018 s. 25(1).]

104D. Refusal or cancellation of supplier's licence, Commission to report to Minister; appeals to Minister

- (1) Where the Commission —
- (a) under section 104B, refuses the application of a previous licence holder for a further licence; or
 - (b) under section 104C, cancels the licence of a person,
- the Commission, after having given an opportunity to the person to make submissions in relation to the matter and considered any submissions so made, shall make a report and recommendations to the Minister in accordance with section 62.
- (2) A person aggrieved by a determination of the Commission may submit an appeal to the Minister in accordance with section 62.

[Section 104D inserted: No. 6 of 2000 s. 15.]

104E. Suppliers to give Commission tickets if licence cancelled etc.

- (1) Where —
- (a) under —
 - (i) section 104C, the licence of a person is cancelled; or
 - (ii) section 104B, a further licence for a person is refused;
- and
- (b) the person has not submitted an appeal against the cancellation or refusal; and
 - (c) the time for submitting an appeal has passed, the person commits an offence against this Act if that person does not, within 30 days after the passing of the appeal time, deliver to the Commission all tickets that are in that person's possession or dispose of those tickets in such other manner as the Commission approves in writing.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000.

(2) Where —

(a) under —

(i) section 104C, the licence of a person is cancelled; or

(ii) section 104B, a further licence for a person is refused;

and

(b) the person has appealed against the cancellation or refusal; and

(c) the appeal has been dealt with by the Minister; and

(d) the Minister has confirmed the cancellation of the licence or confirmed the refusal to issue a further licence, the person commits an offence against this Act if that person does not, within 30 days after the confirmation, deliver to the Commission all tickets that are in that person's possession or dispose of those tickets in such other manner as the Commission approves in writing.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000.

(3) Where the licence of a person is surrendered under section 104C the person commits an offence against this Act if that person does not, within 14 days after the licence is surrendered, deliver to the Commission all tickets that are in that person's possession or dispose of those tickets in such other manner as the Commission approves in writing.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000.

[Section 104E inserted: No. 6 of 2000 s. 15; amended: No. 41 of 2018 s. 25(1).]

- (1) A licensed supplier shall —
- (a) within 90 days after the end of each quarter during which the licensed supplier has supplied tickets under the licence or such further time as the Commission may approve in writing, lodge with the Commission a return in such form as the Commission requires in writing showing the total face value of all tickets supplied by the licensed supplier under the licence during that quarter, and showing such other information as the Commission requires in writing; and
 - (b) at the time of lodging each return required by paragraph (a) or within such further time as the Commission may approve in writing, pay to the Commission the continuing lotteries levy in respect of all tickets supplied by the licensed supplier as shown in the return.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000.

- (2) The Commission may, where upon application made to the Commission in writing the Commission sees fit in the circumstances of the case to do so, approve in writing of the lodging of returns under subsection (1)(a) —
- (a) in respect of a period other than a quarter; and
 - (b) within 60 days, or such further time as the Commission sees fit, after the end of a period approved under paragraph (a),

and may vary or revoke any such approval.

- (3) Where an approval under subsection (2) is for the time being in force, subsection (1) shall, in relation to a case to which that approval applies, have effect as modified by that approval as for the time being in force.

- (4) Where a licensed supplier has not supplied tickets under his or her licence during any quarter or other period in respect of which the licensed supplier has approval under subsection (2)(a) to lodge returns, the licensed supplier shall lodge with the Commission a return in respect of that quarter or other period showing that no tickets were so supplied and showing such other information as the Commission requires under subsection (1)(a).

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000.

- (5) Where the Commission considers that circumstances warrant so doing, the Commission may, by notice in writing given to a licensed supplier, require the lodgement by that licensed supplier of returns under this section and payment of the continuing lotteries levy, at a time specified in the notice that is earlier than the time when the licensed supplier would otherwise be required to lodge returns under this section and pay the continuing lotteries levy, and may, by subsequent notice so given, vary or revoke any notice under this subsection and this section shall have effect as modified by any such notice.

104G. Continuing lotteries levy, application of

- (1) Of the continuing lotteries levy received by the Commission after the commencement of this section but before 1 July 2000 —
- (a) 83.3% (five-sixths) is to be credited to the Consolidated Account; and
 - (b) 16.7% (one-sixth) is to be paid into and placed to the credit of the Gaming Commission Account established under section 9(2).

- (2) Of the continuing lotteries levy received by the Commission on or after 1 July 2000 —
- (a) 69.23% (nine-thirteenths) is to be credited to the Consolidated Account; and
 - (b) 30.77% (four-thirteenths) is to be paid into and placed to the credit of the Gaming Commission Account established under section 9(2).

[Section 104G inserted: No. 6 of 2000 s. 15; amended: No. 77 of 2006 s. 4.]

104H. Exemption from levy

A continuing lotteries levy is not payable on a return lodged under this Division by a licensed supplier to the extent that the return relates to the supply of tickets to —

- (a) another licensed supplier; or
- (b) a person outside the State.

[Section 104H inserted: No. 6 of 2000 s. 15.]

104I. Refund of levy

- (1) Where tickets have been supplied by a licensed supplier and are subsequently returned to the licensed supplier without having been sold in a continuing lottery, the continuing lotteries levy is not payable in respect of that supply and, if paid, shall be refunded to the licensed supplier.
- (2) A person who returns the tickets to the licensed supplier under subsection (1) may recover the amount, if any, of the continuing lotteries levy concerned in a court of competent jurisdiction as a civil debt due from the licensed supplier.
- (3) Where, under subsection (1), a levy is to be refunded to a licensed supplier, the Commission may set the amount off against any other amount of continuing lotteries levy payable by that person.

[Section 104I inserted: No. 6 of 2000 s. 15.]

104J. Tickets, protecting and accounting for; estimating levy for lost etc. tickets

- (1) A licensed supplier shall not destroy or cause to be destroyed any ticket that is in his or her possession except with the written approval of the Commission.
- (2) A licensed supplier shall take reasonable precautions to prevent the theft or loss, or the destruction without the approval of the Commission, of tickets that are in the possession of, or are being consigned to, the licensed supplier.
- (3) A licensed supplier shall, at such times as the Commission by notice in writing requires, take stock of the tickets in his or her possession and provide to the Commission, in a form approved by the Commission, particulars of —
 - (a) the number of tickets found upon the stocktake to be in his or her possession; and
 - (b) any discrepancy between the number of tickets so found to be in his or her possession and records maintained in accordance with the regulations.
- (4) Where it appears to the Commission, whether from an examination of any form or records or otherwise, that —
 - (a) a licensed supplier has destroyed or caused to be destroyed any tickets contrary to subsection (1); or
 - (b) tickets in the possession of, or being consigned to, a licensed supplier have been lost or stolen, or have been destroyed other than with the approval of the Commission or under section 104K; or
 - (c) the number of tickets in the possession of a licensed supplier and being kept as required by section 104L(3) is less than the number of tickets that is shown by the records maintained in accordance with the regulations as being in the possession of the licensed supplier, the Commission may create a memorandum of, and cause an assessment to be made of the amount of, the continuing lotteries levy that, in its judgment, would have been imposed, if the tickets concerned had been supplied by the licensed supplier and had been the subject of a return under this Division.

- (5) The Commission shall not create a memorandum under subsection (4) in respect of tickets where it is satisfied that —
- (a) the tickets were lost, stolen or destroyed and the licensed supplier had taken all reasonable precautions to prevent the theft, loss or destruction; or
 - (b) the licensed supplier has otherwise provided a satisfactory explanation for the deficiency.
- (6) Where an assessment of the continuing lotteries levy is made under subsection (4), there is chargeable in addition to the continuing lotteries levy as a result of that assessment, a fine equal to that levy and that fine is payable at the same time and recoverable in the same manner as that levy but the Commission may remit wholly or in part any fine chargeable under this subsection.

[Section 104J inserted: No. 6 of 2000 s. 15.]

104K. Tickets may be given to Commission for destruction

A licensed supplier may deliver any ticket to the Commission for destruction and the Commission may cause any ticket delivered under this section to be destroyed.

[Section 104K inserted: No. 6 of 2000 s. 15.]

104L. Offences by licensed suppliers

- (1) A licensed supplier shall not cause to be produced, nor obtain from or supply to any person, tickets that are, or are part of, a batch comprising more than such number of tickets as is prescribed by the regulations to be the maximum number of tickets that may be in one batch.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000.

- (2) A licensed supplier shall not supply tickets to any person within the State unless —
- (a) the licensed supplier supplies to that person all of the tickets in the batch; and
 - (b) there is printed on each ticket —
 - (i) the face value of the ticket; and
 - (ii) a series number that is common to all of the tickets in the same batch and distinguishes the ticket from tickets in any other batch; and
 - (iii) the licence number allocated to the licensed supplier by the Commission or, where the tickets have been previously supplied by another licensed supplier, the licence number so allocated to that licensed supplier;
- and
- (c) the tickets are otherwise in accordance with the regulations.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000.

- (3) A licensed supplier shall keep, at the address specified under section 104B(2)(a) or such other address as is for the time being approved in writing by the Commission —
- (a) all tickets that are in his or her possession; and
 - (b) all records that he or she is required by the regulations to maintain that relate to the preceding 5 years.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000.

- (4) The Commission may, by notice in writing, revoke any approval given for the purposes of subsection (3).

[Section 104L inserted: No. 6 of 2000 s. 15; amended: No. 41 of 2018 s. 25(1).]

104M. Offences involving continuing lottery tickets

- (1) A person who is not a licensed supplier shall not —
- (a) obtain tickets for sale in a continuing lottery from a person who is not a licensed supplier; or
 - (b) alter anything printed on a ticket as required by section 104L(2)(b).

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000.

- (2) A person shall not sell or offer for sale in a continuing lottery any ticket for more than the face value of the ticket printed on the ticket.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000.

- (3) A person shall not sell or offer for sale in a continuing lottery —
- (a) any ticket that has not been obtained from a licensed supplier; or
 - (b) any ticket not having printed on it each of the things mentioned in section 104L(2)(b).

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000.

[Section 104M inserted: No. 6 of 2000 s. 15; amended: No. 41 of 2018 s. 25(1).]

105. Continuing lotteries, use of vending machines to sell tickets for

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a permit authorising the conduct of a continuing lottery is deemed to be subject to an implied condition, which shall not be required to be noted on the permit or in the register, prohibiting the sale of tickets or chances, or their offer for sale, by means of a vending machine.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a lottery if all of the tickets or chances in the lottery are sold or offered for sale by means of a vending machine located on premises, or 2 or more vending machines located on the same premises, where those premises are of a prescribed kind or class.

[Section 105 amended: No. 24 of 1998 s. 64.]

106. Offences involving lotteries

- (1) A person who —
- (a) fraudulently takes or fraudulently converts to his own use or to that of any other person, any prize in or money raised by a lottery; or
 - (b) conducts an unlawful lottery, whether or not constituting unlawful gaming,

commits an offence.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000, or imprisonment for 1 year, or both.

- (1a) Section 371 of The Criminal Code (other than subsection (1) of that section) applies for the purposes of subsection (1)(a) —
- (a) as if the reference to “act of stealing” in subsection (6) of that section were a reference to “commission of the offence”; and
 - (b) with any other necessary changes.
- (2) In relation to an unlawful lottery, a person who —
- (a) prints any tickets for use in the lottery; or
 - (b) sells or distributes, or offers or advertises for sale or distribution, or has in his possession for the purpose of sale or distribution, any tickets or chances in the lottery; or
 - (c) prints, publishes or distributes, or has in his possession for the purpose of publication or distribution —
 - (i) any advertisement of the lottery; or

- (ii) any list, whether complete or not, of prize winners or winning tickets in the lottery; or
- (iii) any such matter descriptive of the drawing or intended drawing of the lottery, or otherwise relating to the lottery, as is calculated to act as an inducement to persons to participate in that lottery or in other unlawful lotteries;

or

- (d) brings, or invites any person to send, into the State for the purpose of sale or distribution any ticket in, or advertisement of, the lottery; or
- (e) sends or attempts to send out of the State any money or valuable thing received in respect of the sale or distribution, or any document recording the sale or distribution, or the identity of the holder, of any ticket or chance in the lottery; or
- (f) uses any premises, or causes or knowingly permits any premises to be used, for purposes connected with the conduct of the lottery; or
- (g) receives money, any valuable thing, or any goods for the purposes of the lottery,

commits an offence.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $2 000.

- (3) In proceedings for an offence under subsection (2) it shall be a defence to prove that at the date of the alleged offence the person charged believed, and had reasonable grounds for believing, that the lottery was being conducted under and in accordance with the requirements of this Act.

[Section 106 amended: No. 24 of 1998 s. 65; amended: No. 41 of 2018 s. 25(1).]

107. Amusements with prizes, which are permitted

- (1) Where any amusement with prizes which constitutes gaming or a lottery or both is provided in relation to or in connection with any entertainment or event or for any charitable or social cause, and it —
 - (a) is not conducted for the purposes of private gain or of a commercial undertaking; and
 - (b) does not contravene subsection (2),the conduct of that gaming or lottery is not unlawful and the provision of the amusement with prizes shall, subject to subsection (2), be deemed to be permitted.
- (2) Where an amusement with prizes is provided at any premises in circumstances to which subsection (1) applies —
 - (a) the whole proceeds of the amusement, after deducting expenses, shall be applied for purposes other than of private gain or of a commercial undertaking; and
 - (b) the facilities for winning prizes at the amusement provided, or those facilities together with any other facilities for participating in permitted gaming or social gambling, shall not be the only, or the only substantial, inducement to persons to attend the premises.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(a), where any payment is made in respect of the hiring, maintenance or use of gaming equipment and the amount payable is determined wholly or partly by reference to the extent to which that equipment or some other machine or equipment is used for the purposes of gaming, that payment shall be taken to be an application of the proceeds for the purposes of private gain and shall not constitute a deductible expense.
- (4) Where amusements with prizes (which may include games to which section 42(3)(a) refers) are provided at an agricultural show, a pleasure fair, a fete, or another like event and consist wholly or mainly of amusements provided by travelling showmen, the respective amusements shall each be deemed to be a permitted amusement with prizes if —

- (a) the opportunity to win prizes at the amusements is not the only, or the only substantial, inducement to persons to attend the event; and
- (b) in relation to any amusement which is a lottery, the sale of chances and the declaration of the result take place on the same day and on the premises on which, and during the time when, the amusement is provided; and
- (c) the amount paid by any person for any chance to win a prize does not exceed the prescribed amount; and
- (d) no money prize is distributed or offered which exceeds the prescribed amount, notwithstanding that the amusement would otherwise constitute gaming or a lottery.

[Section 107 amended: No. 35 of 2003 s. 159 and 167; No. 41 of 2018 s. 23.]

108. Some fund raising activities deemed permitted amusement with prizes

- (1) The conduct of —
 - (a) a guessing competition or any other competition in which success does not depend to a substantial degree on the exercise of skill; or
 - (b) a number game based on sporting achievements of a public nature; or
 - (c) a raffle, chocolate wheel, art union or other scheme or device for the disposition of property; or
 - (d) any other minor fund raising activity, which would otherwise be taken to constitute gambling or a lottery, when conducted as a means of raising money for the benefit of community, cultural, ethnic or charitable purposes, and not for the purposes of private gain or any commercial undertaking, shall, subject to subsection (2) and unless subsection (3) applies, not be taken to be unlawful and shall be deemed to be conducting a permitted amusement with prizes.

- (2) The aggregate value of the prizes offered or distributed in relation to an activity to which this section relates shall not exceed the prescribed amount.
- (3) The Commission may, by notice in writing to the person proposing to conduct or conducting gambling of a kind to which subsection (1) refers, prohibit the conduct of that gambling, or gambling of that kind in the circumstances specified in the notice.
- (4) A person who contravenes a prohibition imposed pursuant to subsection (3) commits an offence.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $2 000.

[Section 108 amended: No. 24 of 1998 s. 66; No. 35 of 2003 s. 160 and 166; No. 41 of 2018 s. 25(1).]

109. Regulations for this Division

Regulations made for the purposes of this Division may make provision —

- (a) as to the requirements for the keeping of accounts and the furnishings of reports by persons conducting lotteries; and
- (aa) in respect of the records to be maintained by licensed suppliers and the manner in which those records are to be kept; and
- (b) requiring security to be furnished by persons having the receipt, control or handling of any money or valuable thing received in connection with a lottery; and
- (c) prescribing the terms and conditions under which standard lotteries may be conducted, including the maximum value, or the maximum aggregate value, of any prize money or other prize that may be offered; and

- (d) as to the relation between the time of opening, closing, and drawing of a standard lottery; and
- (e) as to the conduct of continuing lotteries; and
- (f) as to the use of vending machines in relation to lotteries; and
- (g) as to the manner in which a lottery may be advertised, and providing for the advertisement of winning numbers and the notification and delivery to the winner of any prize; and
- (h) as to the printing of tickets and the security of printing arrangements or of tickets, and as to the information which must, or must not, appear on a ticket; and
- (j) as to the matters in respect of which expenses may be incurred, or if incurred shall be taken not to be deductible for the purposes of this Division; and
- (k) prescribing the conditions governing the employment of agents; and
- (l) the use of postal services in connection with activities to which this Division applies; and
- (m) generally as to the conduct of lotteries, amusements with prizes, minor fund raising activities, and matters to which this Division applies.

Part VA — Supervision of RWWA

[Heading inserted: No. 35 of 2003 s. 161.]

109E. Gambling operations of RWWA, meaning of

A reference in this Part to the gambling operations of RWWA is a reference to the business of RWWA referred to in section 50(b) of the RWWA Act.

[Section 109E inserted: No. 35 of 2003 s. 161.]

109F. Supervision of RWWA by Commission etc.

- (1) Without limiting sections 20 to 20C of the Betting Control Act 1954, the Commission and an authorised officer have and may exercise in relation to —
 - (a) RWWA, the directors of the board of RWWA, the employees, officers and agents of RWWA, and the premises and property of RWWA; and
 - (b) any thing that the Commission or that officer has reasonable cause to believe relates to, or may be likely to affect, a person or matter referred to in paragraph (a); and
 - (c) the organisation, management and operations of RWWA including the related accounting and audit procedures of, and amenities or facilities ancillary to, the operations of RWWA, like powers to those conferred on the Commission or an authorised officer, as the case may be, in relation to gambling under this Act, and persons, premises or things relating to gambling.

- (2) Where a member of the Police Force or other person acts in aid of an authorised officer at the request of that officer, the person so acting is taken whilst so acting to have, and to be authorised to exercise, the powers conferred by this Part.

[Section 109F inserted: No. 35 of 2003 s. 161.]

109G. Directions to RWWA, Commission may give

- (1) The Commission may give directions to RWWA —
 - (a) with respect to the systems of internal controls and administrative and accounting procedures that are to apply to the gambling operations of RWWA;
 - (b) to adopt, vary, cease or refrain from any practice in respect of the gambling operations of RWWA.
- (2) A direction may be amended from time to time by the Commission as the Commission thinks fit.
- (3) A direction or an amendment of a direction has effect when written notice of it is given to RWWA or on a later date specified in the notice.
- (4) The controls and procedures referred to in directions, or in amendments of directions, may be described in words or represented diagrammatically, or by a combination of both methods.
- (5) Where a direction given by the Commission so provides, a power of approval or other function specified in that direction may be exercised or carried out by a person or body to whom it has been delegated under section 16.
- (6) For the purposes of a direction referred to in subsection (5), the giving of an approval or the imposition of a prohibition by a delegate referred to in that subsection is as effective as if given or imposed by the Commission.
- (7) To the extent that a direction is inconsistent or in conflict with regulations made under the RWWA Act, the regulations prevail.

[Section 109G inserted: No. 35 of 2003 s. 161.]

109H. RWWA must comply with directions

- (1) RWWA must ensure that any direction given to it under section 109G, or section 52 of the RWWA Act, is brought to the notice of, and not contravened by, any person who is responsible for the organisation or management of gambling operations of RWWA or any other person acting in relation to those gambling operations as an employee, agent or otherwise on behalf of, or subject to the control of, RWWA.

s. 109I

(2) If —

- (a) RWWA; or
- (b) a person to whom or which subsection (1) refers, contravenes a direction made under section 109G, or section 52 of the RWWA Act, the person commits an offence.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000.

[Section 109H inserted: No. 35 of 2003 s. 161; amended: No. 41 of 2018 s. 25(1).]

109I. Complaints about RWWA, Commission's functions as to Without limiting section 109F, the Commission or an authorised officer may receive, investigate and deal with complaints from members of the public with respect to any aspect of the gambling operations of RWWA, and advise the complainant of the result of the complaint.

[Section 109I inserted: No. 35 of 2003 s. 161.]

109J. Reports on and inquiries into RWWA

- (1) Where the Commission thinks fit, the Commission may report to the Minister and make recommendations as to any action that the Commission considers should be taken under section 109K.
- (2) Where it appears to the Minister that it is in the public interest that an inquiry be carried out into the affairs, or into particular affairs, of RWWA or related matters the Minister may, in writing, direct the Commission to arrange the inquiry and a report on the findings of the inquiry.
- (3) Related matters that may be made the subject of an inquiry include —

- (a) gambling operations of RWWA; and
 - (b) RWWA's compliance with the RWWA Act, this Act and other written laws; and
 - (c) suspected corruption; and
 - (d) the directors of the board of RWWA, and their relationship with other persons, or a class of persons which includes other persons, who, in the opinion of the Minister, are associated with them or could affect or be in a position to exercise direct or indirect control over the carrying out of any function in, or in relation to, RWWA; and
 - (e) whether or not it is in the public interest that a director of the board of RWWA remain as a director.
- (4) A direction given under subsection (2) —
- (a) must specify the affairs or matters to be the subject of the inquiry; and
 - (b) may require the inquiry to be carried out by a person appointed by the Minister.
- (5) Where the Commission is directed under subsection (2) to arrange for an inquiry, the Commission must publish in the Gazette a notice —
- (a) specifying the affairs or matters concerned; and
 - (b) stating the name of the person carrying out the inquiry.
- (6) For the purposes of an inquiry carried out at the direction of the Minister under subsection (2), the person carrying out the inquiry has the powers of a Royal Commission and the chairman of a Royal Commission, and the provisions of the Royal Commissions Act 1968 have effect as if they were enacted in this Act with any necessary changes and in terms made applicable to the inquiry by that person.

[Section 109J inserted: No. 35 of 2003 s. 161.]

109K. Report or inquiry under s. 109J, Minister's powers following

- (1) On receiving a report and recommendations made under section 109J(1) or as a result of an inquiry carried out pursuant to a direction given under section 109J(2), the Minister must, if of the opinion that any of the powers conferred by subsection (3) should be exercised, serve on RWWA and on any other person who is considered by the Minister to be likely to be affected by the exercise of that power a notice in writing —
 - (a) specifying the reasons for the Minister's opinion and which of the powers the Minister proposes to exercise; and
 - (b) requiring RWWA and any other person served with the notice to show cause in writing within 14 days after the date of that service why the power specified in that notice should not be exercised.
- (2) A person on whom a notice has been served under subsection (1) may, within the period of 14 days after the date of that service, serve on the Minister a submission in writing showing cause why the power specified in that notice should not be exercised.
- (3) After receiving and considering each submission served under subsection (2) the Minister may, subject to subsection (4) and if the Minister considers it in the public interest to do so —
 - (a) serve a letter of censure on RWWA;
 - (b) revoke the licence of a director given under section 14 of the RWWA Act;
 - (c) with the prior approval of the Governor, order RWWA to pay a monetary penalty fixed by the Minister but not exceeding $100 000.
- (4) The Minister must not exercise a power conferred under subsection (3) unless that power was specified in the relevant notice served under subsection (1).

- (5) The Minister may recover a penalty imposed under subsection (3)(c) in a court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due by RWWA to the Crown.
- (6) A certificate signed by the Minister specifying the amount of penalty imposed under subsection (3)(c) and that the amount has not been paid is evidence that the amount so specified is payable in accordance with this Act and has not been paid.

[Section 109K inserted: No. 35 of 2003 s. 161.]

Other notes

- ¹ Now known as the Gaming and Wagering Commission Act 1987; short title changed (see note under s. 1).
- ² The Acts Amendment (Continuing Lotteries) Act 2000 Pt. 4 (as amended by the Taxation Administration (Consequential Provisions) Act 2002 s. 6) contains savings and transitional provisions.
- ³ The Racing and Gambling Legislation Amendment and Repeal Act 2003 Pt. 9 Div. 2 reads as follows:

Part 9 — Gaming Commission Act 1987 amended, transitional and savings provisions and consequential amendments

Division 2 — Transitional and savings provisions

169. Gaming and Wagering Commission

- (1) The body renamed as the Gaming and Wagering Commission by section 124 is the same body as the Gaming Commission previously established under section 4 of the Gaming Commission Act 1987.
- (2) The account renamed as the Gaming and Wagering Commission Account by section 128 is the same account as the Gaming Commission Account previously referred to in section 9 of the Gaming Commission Act 1987.

- (3) If, in a written law or in a document of any kind there is a reference to the Gaming Commission, that reference is, unless because of the context it would be inappropriate to do so, to be read and construed as if it had been amended to be a reference to the Gaming and Wagering Commission.

170. Members of the Commission

Each person holding office as a member of the Gaming Commission under the Gaming Commission Act 1987 immediately before the coming into operation of this section continues in office as a member of the Gaming and Wagering Commission under and subject to the Gaming and Wagering Commission Act 1987 until the expiry of the term of office.
