In the case of any offence in respect of which no form is given in the Schedule, the statement may be in accordance with the analogous Form in the Schedule; and, if there is no such Form, it shall be sufficient to state the offence in the words of the Code or other Statute under which the indictment is presented.

3. Complaints

Similar Forms may be used in complaints before Justices.

Order IIA

Practitioners acting to notify Court

[Heading inserted by Gazette 30 November 1993 p.6413.]

1. Interpretation

In this Order —

“Accused Person” means a person charged with an indictable offence who has been committed to the Court for trial or sentence;

“Practitioner” means a certificated practitioner as defined in the Legal Practitioners Act 1893 and includes a firm of practitioners.

[Rule 1 inserted by Gazette 30 November 1993 p.6413.]

2. Duty to notify Court when acting for an accused person

- (1) A practitioner instructed to act, whether as Solicitor or counsel or both, for an accused person must comply with subrule (3) —
  - (a) at least 28 days before the accused person’s first appearance after the practitioner’s appointment; or
  - (b) if that appearance is less than 28 days after the practitioner’s appointment, as soon as practicable after the appointment.
- (2) Subrule (1) applies —
  - (a) to a practitioner even if another practitioner acts for an accused person in another capacity; and
  - (b) to a practitioner when instructed to act for an accused person in a different capacity.
- (3) To comply with this subrule, a practitioner must —
  - (a) file in the court a notice in the form of Form 1 of Part IA of the Schedule; and

- (b) serve the notice on the Director of Public Prosecutions for the State or for the Commonwealth, as the case requires.

[Rule 2 inserted by Gazette 30 November 1993 p.6414.]

3. Duty to notify Court when ceasing to act for an accused person

- (1) A practitioner who has complied with rule 2 and who ceases to be instructed to act for an accused person, whether as solicitor or counsel or both, must comply with rule 2 (3) at least 14 days before the accused person's first appearance after the cessation.
- (2) Where it is not possible to comply with subrule (1) the practitioner must apply to the Court for leave to cease to act.
- (3) With the leave of the Court, an application under subrule (2) may be made orally.
- (4) Unless the Court orders otherwise, any notice of motion for leave under subrule (2) must be served on —
  - (a) the accused person; and
  - (b) the Director of Public Prosecutions for the State or for the Commonwealth, as the case requires.

[Rule 3 inserted by Gazette 30 November 1993 p.6414.]

4. Practitioner on the record presumed to be acting

The practitioner named in a notice filed under rule 2 shall be taken to be acting for the accused person in the capacity shown by the notice until —

- (a) the practitioner files another notice under rule 2 or a notice under rule 3;

- (b) a notice is filed under rule 2 by another practitioner acting in the same capacity; or
- (c) the Court gives leave under rule 3.

[Rule 4 inserted by Gazette 30 November 1993 p.6414.]

Order III

Proceedings at trial on indictment

1. Subsequent pleadings to be oral

At the trial of a person charged upon an indictment, all pleadings subsequent to the indictment may be made orally; but the pleadings shall be reduced into writing so far as may be necessary for the purpose of recording the proceedings at the trial.

2. Challenges

Challenges, and pleas and demurrers to challenges, may be made orally in the first instance, but the Court may require them to be reduced into writing and handed to the proper officer by the party making the same.

Order IV

Information by private persons

1. Application for leave

Applications for leave to present an information against any person for an indictable offence shall be made by motion to the Court or a Judge for an order calling on the accused person to show cause why the leave should not be granted.

2. Charges against judicial officers

An order nisi shall not be granted upon an application for leave to present an information against a judicial officer for anything done in his capacity as such officer unless it is proved upon affidavit that the applicant has, six days before making the application, given to the person intended to be accused written notice of his intention to make the application, setting forth a distinct statement of the alleged offence. Such notice must be served on the person intended to be accused, either personally or by leaving it at his usual or last known place of residence with some member of the household.

3. Prosecutor's address for service

The copy information for service shall have indorsed thereon a statement of a proper place, to be called the prosecutor's address for service, which shall be not more than one mile from the Central Office of the Supreme Court, where any proceedings in the cause may be left for him.

4. Appearance

An appearance to an information shall be in the like form, and shall be entered in the same manner, as an appearance to a writ of summons in an action; and notice of appearance shall be given as in that case. In this Rule the word "appearance," subject to the context, includes "defence."

[Rule 4 amended by Gazette 9 July 1954 p.1215.]

5. Plea

The defendant may plead by counsel or solicitor. The copy of the plea shall be delivered to the prosecutor at his address for service.

[Rule 5 amended by Gazette 9 July 1954 p.1215.]

6. Service of notices, etc., on defendant

All notices and other documents required to be served on the accused person may be served on him at his address for service stated in his memorandum of appearance in this Rule, the expression “memorandum of appearance” includes “defence.”

[Rule 6 amended by Gazette 9 July 1954 p.1215.]

Order V

Bench warrants

1. Application for Bench warrant

An application for a warrant to arrest a person against whom an indictment has been presented may be made upon production to the Judge of the original indictment, or an office copy thereof, without other evidence.

2. On information by leave

In the case of an information presented by leave, such warrant shall not be granted, except by order of the Court or a Judge made at the time of giving leave, without evidence on oath showing that the accused person is likely to abscond, or that for other reasons his arrest is necessary in the interests of justice.

Order VI

Recognisances

[Heading amended by Gazette 30 December 1988 p.5081.]

[1, 2, 3. Rules 1, 2 and 3 repealed by Gazette 30 December 1988 p.5081.]

4. Form recognisance

Every recognisance to attend and give evidence at a trial shall contain a condition that the party bound shall personally attend from day to day at the trial, and not depart until he is discharged by the Court before which the trial is held.

[Rule 4 amended by Gazette 30 December 1988 p.5081.]

[5, 6. Repealed by Gazette 30 December 1988 p.5081.]

[7, 8. Repealed by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4565.]

[9-16. Rules 9 to 16 repealed by Gazette 30 December 1988 p.5081.]

Order VII

Trial at bar

1. To be by order of Full Court

A trial at bar shall not be had except by order of the Full Court. The order may be made at any time after plea.

2. Application how made

An application for a trial at bar shall be by motion for an order nisi, except when made by the Attorney General on behalf of the Crown, when the order shall be absolute in the first instance, as of course.

3. Terms may be imposed

On making the order absolute for a trial at bar the Court may impose such terms on the applicant, as to payment of costs or otherwise, as the Court may think fit.

4. Copy pleadings for Judges

Four days at least before the day appointed for the trial a copy of the pleadings shall be left by the party prosecuting, at the Chambers of each of the Judges who are to sit at the trial.

5. Trial

A trial at bar may be continued from day to day, or adjourned to a subsequent day at any time, in the discretion of the Court, without any reference to the sittings of the Supreme Court; and no formal order shall be drawn up for any such continued sitting or adjournment, nor shall any such order be entered on the record.

Order VIII

Judgments

1. Minute book

The Clerk of Arraignment shall, in respect of each indictment, enter in a minute book to be kept by him details of the indictment, the plea, the names of counsel, jurors, and witnesses, the verdict, the sentence, and the times of proceedings, details of any order made under section 16 or 17 of the Offenders, Probation and Parole Act 1963, details of any conviction and sentence under section 656A of the Code, and details of any other special order or directions given by the Court.

[Rule 1 inserted by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4565; amended by Gazette 30 December 1988 p.5086.]

2. Calendar

A list or calendar of persons tried at any sittings of the Court, or dealt with by the Court under section 16 or 17 of the Offenders Probation and Parole Act 1963 shall be made out in duplicate according to Form 10 of Section VI of Part I of the Schedule and shall be signed by the Judge and the Clerk of Arraignment and thereupon one list shall be sent to the Registrar of the Court of Trial and shall be the formal record of the proceedings, the other list shall be sent to the Director of the Department of Corrections, an office copy of the list shall be sent to the Parole Board; and another office copy of the list shall be sent to the Commissioner of Police.

[Rule 2 inserted by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4565.]

3. Authority for execution

Both the list or calendar and the certificate in accordance with Form 9, Form 9A, or Form 9B, as the case requires, shall be sufficient authority for the execution of the sentence.

[Rule 3 inserted by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4566.]

4. Certificate of result of trial

After the conclusion of any trial a certificate of the findings of the Jury and of the judgment directed by the Judge may be drawn up according to Form 9 in Section VI. of Part I. of the Schedule hereto and signed by the Clerk of Arraignment and by him delivered to the Comptroller General of Prisons or handed to the Gaoler in attendance at the Court.

[Rule 4 inserted by Gazette 3 March 1922; amended by Gazette 11 August 1922 p.1462.]

Order IX

Appeals and references to the Court of Criminal Appeal

[Heading inserted by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4976.]

1. Obligation on Appellants to fill up forms of appeal notices and answer questions thereon

Subject to the Code and these Rules, a person (not being the prosecutor) desiring to appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeal against his conviction or sentence, or against any order which he is entitled to appeal against, shall commence his appeal by sending to the Registrar a Notice of Appeal or Notice of Application for leave to appeal, or Notice of Application for extension of time within which such notice shall be given, as the case may be, in the form of such notices respectively set forth in the Schedule to these Rules, and in the notice or notices so sent shall answer the questions and comply with the requirements set forth thereon.

2. Notices of appeal to be signed by Appellant and addressed to Registrar

Every Notice of Appeal or Notice of Application for leave to appeal or Notice of Application for extension of time within which such notice, shall be given under Chapter sixty-nine of the Code shall be signed either by the Appellant or Applicant or by his Solicitor.

[Rule 2 amended by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4566.]

3. Where Appellant unable to write

When an Appellant or any other person authorised or required to give or send any notice of appeal or notice of any application for the purposes of Chapter sixty-nine of the Code, is unable to write he may affix his mark thereto in the presence of a witness who shall attest the same and thereupon such notice shall be deemed to be duly signed by such Appellant.

[4. Repealed by Gazette 1 December 1992 p.4566.]

[5. Repealed by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4566.]

6. Time for appealing against conviction to run from verdict

The time within which a person convicted shall give Notice of Appeal or Notice of his Application for leave to appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeal against his conviction shall commence to run from the day on which the verdict of the jury was returned, whether the Judge of the Court of Trial shall have passed sentence or pronounced final judgment upon him on that day or not.

7. Time for appealing against sentence to run from pronouncement of sentence

The time within which a person convicted and sentenced shall give Notice of Appeal or Notice of Application for leave to appeal against such sentence to the Court of Criminal Appeal shall commence to run from the day on which such sentence shall have been passed upon him by the Judge of the Court of Trial.

8. Time for appealing against order for restitution

The time within which a person (not being the person convicted) may appeal against an order for restitution shall commence to run from the day on which the order was made.

9. Registrar to obtain particulars from Clerk of Arraignment

Where the Registrar receives a notice of appeal, a notice of application for leave to appeal, or a notice of application for extension of the time within which such a notice may be given, or where the Attorney General exercises his powers under section 21 of the Code, the Registrar shall obtain from the Clerk of Arraignment —

- (a) the indictment, the depositions taken at the committal proceedings, and the transcript of proceedings at the trial;
- (b) where the appeal is against conviction, or acquittal by direction, the exhibits; and
- (c) such further documents or information as the Registrar considers necessary for the hearing of the appeal or application, or as the Court of Criminal Appeal directs him to obtain.

[Rule 9 inserted by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4566.]

[10. Repealed by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4566.]

11. Prosecutor at trial to be ascertained

The Registrar or Clerk of the Court of Trial shall ascertain and record in every case the name and address of the person, whether a private prosecutor or not, who is responsible for and is carrying on a prosecution in such Court, and the name and address of the solicitor, if any, for the prosecution.

12. Notice of application for leave to appeal

Where the Court of Criminal Appeal has, on a Notice of Application for leave to appeal duly served, and in the form provided under these Rules, given an Appellant leave to appeal, it shall not be necessary for such Appellant to give any Notice of Appeal, but the Notice of Application for leave to appeal shall in such case be deemed to be a Notice of Appeal.

13. Abandonment of appeal

An Appellant at any time after he has duly served notice of Appeal or of Application for leave to Appeal, or of application for extension of time within which such notices shall be given, may abandon his appeal by giving notice of abandonment thereof in the Form No. 7 in Part IV. of the Schedule to these Rules to the Registrar, and upon such notice being given the appeal shall be deemed to have been dismissed by the Court of Criminal Appeal.

14. Notice of application for extension of time for appealing

An application to the Court of Criminal Appeal for an extension of time within which notices may be given shall be in the Form No. 5 in Part IV. of the Schedule hereto. Every person making an application for such extension of time shall send to the Registrar, together with the proper form of such application, a form, duly filled up, of Notice of Appeal, or of Notice of Application for leave to appeal, appropriate to the ground or grounds upon which he desires to question his conviction or sentence, as the case may be.

15. Appeals by prosecution

The foregoing Rules of this Order do not apply to an appeal on the part of the prosecution.

16. Mode of instituting appeal by prosecution

- (1) An appeal by the prosecution shall be instituted by filing a notice of motion in the Registry and producing two copies of the notice.
- (2) Subject to subrule (3) of this Rule, the notice of motion may be in Form No. 8 in Part IV, of the Schedule of Forms to these Rules.
- (3) The notice of motion shall state briefly but specifically the grounds relied upon in support of the appeal, and what decision, verdict, judgment, punishment, or order the appellant seeks in lieu of that appealed from.
- (4) The Registrar shall ascertain the date of the sitting of the Court of Criminal Appeal at which the appeal may be heard, being a date not less than 21 clear days after the institution of the appeal.

r. 17

- (5) The Registrar shall indorse the date of hearing on two copies of the notice and shall return them to the appellant.
- (6) The appellant shall, not less than fourteen clear days before the day of hearing, serve one copy of the notice upon the accused.
- (7) Where the date of hearing has been amended under Rule 18 of this Order, the copy of the notice of motion to be served upon the accused shall show the amended date of hearing.
- (8) The appellant shall notify the Registrar in writing of the date and manner of service.

[Rule 16 inserted by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4976.]

17. Application for extension of time to appeal

- (1) An application for an extension of time for an appeal by the prosecution shall be made to a Judge by summons or to the Court of Criminal Appeal by motion on notice.
- (2) Where an extension of time to appeal is refused by a Judge, the application may be referred to the Court of Criminal Appeal by motion on notice.
- (3) An application for an extension of time (whether by summons or motion) shall be served upon the accused not less than 2 clear days before the return day.

[Rule 17 inserted by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4976.]

18. Amendment of hearing date

Where the appellant notifies the Registrar that the accused has not been served as required by subrule (6) of Rule 16 of this Order, the Registrar shall amend the return day of the notice of motion to a sitting of the Court not less than 21 clear days ahead and inform the appellant accordingly.

[Rule 18 inserted by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4976.]

19. Substituted service

Where it is not practicable, after reasonable inquiry, to serve upon the accused personally a notice of motion by way of appeal, an application for an extension of time to appeal or any other notice (other than a document of the kind referred to in Rules 23 to 28 of this Order), the document may be served in such manner as a Judge may direct.

[Rule 19 inserted by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4976.]

20. Abandonment of appeal

An appeal or application for an extension of time for an appeal by the prosecution may be abandoned at any time by filing notice thereof in the Registry.

[Rule 20 inserted by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4976.]

21. Signature of notice

A notice by the prosecution shall be signed by or on behalf of the appellant or applicant, or his solicitor.

[Rule 21 inserted by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4976.]

22. Appeal books to be lodged

- (1) Not less than 7 clear days before the day appointed for the commencement of the sitting of the Court at which the appeal is to be heard, the appellant shall lodge in the Registry 5 copies of an appeal book containing all documents relevant to the matters to be determined on the appeal and serve two copies of the appeal book upon the accused or his solicitor.
- (2) Where any doubt or difficulty arises regarding the documents to be included in the appeal book, the appellant may apply to a judge for directions and give notice of the application to the respondent.

[Rule 22 inserted by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4976.]

23. Reference under s.693A

(1) In Rules 24 to 30 of this Order —

“reference” means a reference of a question of law under section 693A of the Code;

“respondent” in relation to a reference means the person charged at the trial or affected by the decision out of which the reference arose, and, in relation to a proposed reference, means the person who would be the respondent if the question were referred.

(2) A reference shall be entitled, “Reference under section 693A of the Criminal Code” and shall be distinguished by the year and a number; and all documents relating to the reference shall be entitled in a like manner.

[Rule 23 inserted by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4976.]

24. Request to be made by summons

A request by the Attorney General to have a question of law referred to the Court of Criminal Appeal under section 693A of the Code shall be made to the trial Judge by summons which shall also seek directions regarding the matters mentioned in Rule 27 of this Order.

[Rule 24 inserted by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4977.]

25. Affidavits in support of summons

The summons shall be supported by —

- (a) an affidavit (in this Order called “the jurisdictional affidavit”) deposing to the trial being had, the findings of the jury and the judgment directed by the Judge, and the date or dates of the findings and judgment; and
- (b) a further affidavit (in this Order called “the affidavit of circumstances”) which shall —

- (i) depose to the circumstances out of which the question of law arises but, as far as practicable, without stating the name of the accused person or identifying him as being the respondent named in the jurisdictional affidavit;
- (ii) formulate the question of law proposed to be referred;
- (iii) identify the evidence to which it will be necessary to refer to enable the Court of Criminal Appeal to give its opinion on the question;
- (iv) summarise the arguments intended to be put to the Court of Criminal Appeal; and
- (v) specify the authorities intended to be cited.

[Rule 25 inserted by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4977.]

26. Service of summons etc. on respondent

Not less than 14 days before the return day of the summons, the Attorney General shall cause the respondent to be served with —

- (a) copy of the summons;
- (b) copy of the affidavit of circumstances;
- (c) a notice which shall —
  - (i) inform the respondent that the determination by the Court of Criminal Appeal of the question proposed to be referred to it shall not in any way affect or invalidate any verdict or decision given at the trial at which the question arose;
  - (ii) inform the respondent that he is entitled to be heard upon the return of the summons and before the Court of Criminal Appeal upon the proposed reference and that, if he wishes to be heard by counsel before the Court of Criminal Appeal, the

- reasonable costs of his representation will be paid by the Crown; and
- (iii) request the respondent to inform the Attorney General whether the respondent wishes to be represented upon the proposed reference, and, if so, of the name of his solicitor or counsel.

[Rule 26 inserted by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4977.]

27. Directions regarding reference

Upon the return of the summons, the Judge may give directions as to all or any of the following matters: —

- (a) formulation of the reference and of any statement of the circumstances out of which the question arose;
- (b) the documents to be included in the transcript to be used upon the reference;
- (c) service on the respondent or, should the respondent not propose to be represented upon the determination, of the question, then upon such counsel as the Attorney General may instruct to argue the question, of copy of the transcript and of notice of the entry for hearing;
- (d) the filing and serving by the respondent of a summary of any submissions that he proposes to make upon the reference and a statement of any authorities on which he proposes to rely;
- (e) should the respondent not appear upon the return of the summons, then as to the serving of the summons and the affidavit of circumstances upon the counsel instructed by the Attorney General to argue the question; and
- (f) any other relevant matters.

[Rule 27 inserted by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4977.]

28. Entry for hearing and lodging of transcript

Unless a Judge otherwise orders —

- (a) a reference must be entered for hearing not less than 14 days before the day appointed for the commencement of the sittings; and
- (b) a reference shall not be entered for hearing unless the directions given upon the return of the summons mentioned in the preceding rule have been complied with and unless 5 copies of the transcript to be used at the hearing have been lodged at the Registry.

[Rule 28 inserted by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4977.]

29. Mode of service

Service of a document for the purposes of Rules 23 to 28 of this Order may be effected in accordance with the provisions of section 31 of the Interpretation Act 1918.

[Rule 29 inserted by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4978.]

30. Directions where procedure not prescribed

Where a party to an appeal, application or reference under Chapter LXIX of the Code wishes to take a step in the proceedings and the manner or form of procedure is not prescribed, application may be made to a Judge for directions; and any step taken in accordance with any directions so given shall be deemed to be regular and sufficient.

[Rule 30 inserted by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4978.]

Order X

Shorthand writers and transcript of notes

[Order X to be repealed when Recording of Proceedings Act 1980 comes into operation (To be proc.) see 17 December 1976.]

1. Shorthand writers, how appointed

Shorthand Writers may be appointed from time to time as required for the purposes of chapter sixty-nine of the Code by the Attorney General, on the recommendation of the Chief Justice, for such period and on such conditions as they shall think right.

[Rule 1 amended by Gazette 1 August 1962 p.2071.]

2. Shorthand note to be certified by the writer

A Shorthand Writer shall sign the shorthand note taken by him of any trial or proceeding, or of any part of such trial or proceeding, and certify the same to be a complete and correct shorthand note thereof, and shall retain the same unless and until he is directed by the Registrar to forward such shorthand note to him.

3. Transcript to be furnished on application of Registrar

A Shorthand Writer shall, on being directed by the Registrar, furnish to him, for the use of the Court of Criminal Appeal, a transcript of the whole or of any part of the shorthand note taken by him of any trial or proceeding in reference to which an Appellant has appealed

4. Party interested may obtain transcript from shorthand writer

A Shorthand Writer shall furnish to a party interested in a trial or other proceeding in relation to which a person may appeal under chapter sixty-nine of the Code, and to no other person, a transcript of the whole or of any part of the shorthand note of any such trial or other proceedings, on payment by such party interested to such Shorthand Writer of his charges on such scale as the Attorney General may fix.

5. Party interested may obtain transcript from Registrar

A party interested in an appeal under the said chapter sixty-nine may obtain from the Registrar a copy of the transcript of the whole or of any part of such shorthand note as relates to the appeal.

6. Definition of “Party interested”

For the purposes of Rules 4 and 5, “a party interested” shall mean the prosecutor, or the person convicted, or any other person named in, or immediately affected by, any order made by the Judge of the Court of Trial, or other person authorised to act on behalf of a party interested, as herein defined.

7. Transcript to be made by writer thereof or some other person on Registrar’s directions

Whenever a transcript of the whole or of any part of such shorthand note is required for the use of the Court of Criminal Appeal such transcript may be made by the Shorthand Writer who took and certified the shorthand note, or by such other competent person as the Registrar may direct.

8. Verification of transcript for use of Court of Criminal Appeal

A transcript of the whole or of any part of the shorthand note relating to the case of any Appellant which may be required for the use of the Court of Criminal Appeal shall be typewritten and verified by the person making the same by a Statutory Declaration in the Form No. 9 of Part IV. of the Schedule to these Rules that the same is a correct and complete transcript of the whole or of such part, as the case may be, of the shorthand note purporting to have been taken, signed, and certified by the Shorthand Writer who took the same.

Order XA

Mechanical recording of proceedings and transcripts of recordings

[Order XA inserted by Gazette 1 August 1962 pp.2072-5.]

[Order XA to be repealed when Recording of Proceedings Act 1980 comes into operation (To be proc.) see Gazette 17 December 1976.]

1. System of mechanical recording

- (1) The Attorney General may, on the recommendation of the Chief Justice, approve of any system of mechanical recording, for the purpose of recording and transcribing the proceedings of the Criminal Court and of the District Court.
- (2) A system of mechanical recording established pursuant to this Order may be operated by officers in the employ of the Crown or by some person under contract with the Crown or partly by one and partly by the other of those means.

[Rule 1 amended by Gazette 1 December 1972 pp.4565-6.]

2. Control of system

- (1) The Attorney General may, on the recommendation of the Chief Justice, from time to time, appoint officers to control any system of recording and transcribing, established pursuant to this Order.
- (2) A system of recording and transcribing shall not be approved under this Order, until a person has been appointed to be responsible for the controlling and overseeing of the operation of all recording machines and the transcribing, by every person concerned, of the matter recorded.
- (3) A sufficient number of monitors and typists shall be appointed to be responsible for the recording of proceedings and for the transcribing of matter recorded.

- (4) Every person appointed pursuant to this Rule shall, before commencing his duties, and whether in the employ of the Crown or of some person under contract to the Crown, make a declaration in the form of Form 1 of Part IIIA of the Schedule of Forms to these Rules.

3.      Reproduction of record

Upon the establishment, under this Order, of a system of mechanical recording for any Court, the whole of every proceeding in that Court shall be recorded and the recording shall be supervised and transcribed by the respective persons employed for that purpose.

4.      Duties of monitors

- (1) Every monitor supervising a recording shall note in a register —
- (a) in respect of each section of the recording, the time of commencement and the time of completion of that section;
  - (b) in respect of each section of the recording, the number on the recording machine corresponding with the position on the recording medium of the commencement and the completion of that section;
  - (c) the respective times of the commencement and the completion of addresses and submissions of counsel, with the corresponding numbers on the recording machine;
  - (d) in respect of each witness, the time and corresponding number on the recording machine, of —
    - (i) the commencement of his evidence-in-chief;
    - (ii) the commencement of his cross-examination (if any);
    - (iii) the commencement of his re-examination (if any); and

- (iv) the completion of his evidence; and
  - (e) the respective times of the commencement and the completion, with the corresponding numbers on the recording machine, of the reasons for judgment (if delivered immediately following the close of the case) or, where the trial is had before a jury, the directions and summing-up of the trial judge.
- (2) Every monitor supervising a recording shall give a distinctive number to the reel or other device holding the recording medium, so that the number affixed affords a ready indication of the order in the sequence of the proceedings in which the medium is to be played back; and reels shall be numbered consecutively in the order in which the recording is made on them.
- (3) Where a recording medium is used, the monitor supervising the recording is responsible for ensuring that all other material has been erased from the medium and that the record commences at the commencement of the tape, wire or recording medium used.
- (4) The commencement of a tape, wire or other recording medium shall be marked by a green introductory tape or string and the end by a red tape or string.

5. Duties of persons transcribing recordings

Every person transcribing any matter recorded shall —

- (a) record his initials on every page transcribed by him;
- (b) record on the transcript such of those particulars noted in the register by the monitor, pursuant to subrule (1) of Rule 4 of this Order, as relate to the matter transcribed by him;
- (c) record on the transcript the time of commencement and the time of completion of that section of the transcript; and

- (d) forthwith after the completion of the transcript, complete and subscribe a certificate in respect of the pages transcribed by him, in the form of Form 2 of Part IIIA of the Schedule of Forms to these Rules.

6. Transcript to constitute notes of evidence

Where recorded matter has been transcribed and certified in accordance with Rule 5 of this Order, the transcript so made shall, subject to Rule 8 of this Order, constitute the notes of evidence and record of the proceeding.

7. Progress copies of transcript to be made available to Judge and parties

The officer controlling that part of the system whereby a record and transcript is made shall deliver, free of charge, to the trial judge, to the prisoner or his counsel or solicitor and to counsel for the Crown, a progress copy of each section of the transcript, as soon as it becomes available.

8. Copies of transcript to be again certified for purposes of appeal

Whenever a transcript or part of a transcript is required for the purposes of an appeal or of a proceeding other than that in which it was transcribed, the transcript or part of the transcript so required shall be checked by the officer controlling that part of the system whereby the record and transcript was made and when correct shall be so certified by that officer.

[Rule 8 amended by Gazette 12 October 1967 p.2864.]

8A. Presumption of accuracy of transcript

Where a transcript or part of a transcript is certified in accordance with Rules 5 and 8 of this Order, it is, for the purpose of any other proceeding, —

- (a) presumed to be a true and accurate account of the proceeding or part of the proceeding to which it relates; and
- (b) prima facie evidence that a statement therein attributed to a person was, in fact, made by that person.

[Rule 8A inserted by Gazette 12 October 1967 p.2864.]

9. Register and keeping of records

- (1) An officer, appointed pursuant to Rule 2 of this Order, shall be appointed to keep a register of all recordings made under this Order and the register shall be in the form of Form 3 of Part IIIA of the Schedule of Forms to these Rules.
- (2) The officer keeping the register of recordings shall be responsible for the orderly filing, and safe custody, of all recordings which shall be stored in a fire-proof safe or strongroom.
- (3) A person other than the officer responsible for the safe custody of recordings shall not be permitted or suffered to have access to the safe or strongroom wherein recordings are stored.

10. Erasure of recordings

- (1) A recording shall not be erased until three months after the expiration of the time limited for giving notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal, in respect of the proceeding of which the recording is a record or, where notice of appeal is given or leave to appeal is granted, until the appeal has been disposed of, whichever is the later; and may then be erased on the written authority of the judge who presided at that proceeding or, in case of his death, retirement or absence, on the written authority of the Chief Justice.

[(2) Deleted]

---

- (3) Before a recording is erased under this Rule, the certified copy of the whole of the transcript shall be checked as provided by Rule 8 of this Order.
- (4) The fact and date of erasure and the authority therefor shall be entered in the register of recordings by the proper officer.

[Rule 10 amended by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4566.]

11. Failure of recorder to be reported forthwith

Whenever any mechanical failure occurs in a recording system, that event shall immediately be reported to the trial judge, by the officer then having control of the recording and that officer shall, as soon as practicable after the cause of failure becomes known, furnish the judge with a written report of that cause.

[Rule 11 amended by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4566.]

Order XI

Certificate of Judge of trial

1. Judge's certificate under s.688 (1) (b)

The certificate of the Judge of the Court of Trial under Section 688 (b) of the Code may be in the Form No. 10 of Part IV. in the Schedule to these Rules.

2. Judge's certificate may be given at trial without application

The Judge of the Court of Trial may, in any case in which he considers it desirable so to do, inform the person convicted before or sentenced by him that the case is in his opinion one fit for an appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeal under Section 688 (1) (b), and may give to such person a certificate to that effect in the Form in the Schedule to these Rules.

Order XII

Applications which may be dealt with under section 702

1. Answers to questions to be deemed applications to Court in certain cases

Any answers to the questions on Forms 1, 2, 3, or 4 of Part IV. of the Schedule by which an appellant signifies his desire to be have legal aid assigned to him or to have leave granted to him to be present at the hearing of his appeal, shall be deemed to be applications to the Court of Criminal Appeal in such matters respectively.

2. Certain matter to be referred to Judge

The Registrar shall refer to a judge of the Court any applications which such Judge has power to deal with under Section 702 of the Code, and the Judge may deal with the applications (except applications for bail) ex parte, or may cause notice thereof to be given to the prosecutor or his solicitor (in cases of private prosecutions) or to the Crown Prosecutor in other cases.

3. Procedure where Judge refuses application

When any application has been dealt with by a Judge under Section 702 of the Code the Registrar shall notify the applicant of the Judge's decision. In the event of such Judge refusing all or any of such applications the Registrar on notifying such refusal to the Appellant shall forward to him Form No. 12 in Part IV. of the Schedule hereto, which form the Appellant is hereby required to fill up and forthwith return to the Registrar. If the Appellant does not desire to have his said application or applications determined by the Court of Criminal Appeal as duly constituted for the hearing of appeals under the Act, or does not return within five days to the Registrar the said Form No. 12 duly filled up by him, the refusal of his application or applications by such Judge shall be final. If the Appellant desires that his said application or applications shall be determined by the Court of Criminal Appeal as duly constituted for the hearing of appeals under the Code and is not legally represented he may, if the Court of Criminal Appeal give him leave, be present at the hearing and determination by the Court of Criminal Appeal of his said application: Provided that an Appellant who is legally represented shall not be entitled to be present without special leave of the Court of Criminal Appeal.

When an Appellant duly fills up and returns within the prescribed time to the Registrar Form No. 12 expressing a desire to be present at the hearing and determination by the Court of Criminal Appeal of the applications mentioned in this Rule, such form shall be deemed to be an application by the Appellant for leave to be so present. And the Registrar, on receiving the said form, shall take the necessary steps for placing the said application before the Court of Criminal Appeal. If the said application to be present is refused by the Court of Criminal Appeal, the Registrar shall notify the Appellant; and if the said application is granted the Registrar shall notify the Appellant and the Superintendent of any Prison wherein the Appellant is in custody, as provided by these Rules. For the purpose of constituting a Court of Criminal Appeal the Judge who has refused any such application may sit as a member of such Court, and take part in determining such application.

4. Sittings of a Judge under s.702.

A Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeal sitting under the provisions of Section 702 of the Code may sit and act wherever convenient.

Order XIII

Appeals where fine only is inflicted

1. Where fine imposed on conviction to be retained pending appeal

Where a person has, on his conviction, been sentenced to payment of a fine, and in default of payment to imprisonment, the person lawfully authorised to receive such fine shall, on receiving the same, retain it until the determination of any appeal in relation thereto.

2. Person in custody in default of payment of fine, deemed to be person sentenced to imprisonment

If such person remains in custody in default of payment of the fine, he shall be deemed, for all purposes of Chapter sixty-nine of the Code, to be a person sentenced to imprisonment.

3. Person fined may in certain cases intimate appeal, and not pay fine.

Power of Court of Trial in such cases to impose recognisances

Where any person has been convicted and is thereupon sentenced to the payment of a fine, and, in default of such payment, to imprisonment and he intimates to the Judge of the Court of Trial that he is desirous of appealing against his conviction to the Court of Criminal Appeal, either upon grounds of law alone, or, with the Certificate of the Judge of the Court of Trial, upon any grounds mentioned in Section 688 (1) (b) of the Code, such Judge may, if he thinks right so to do, order such person forthwith to enter into recognisances in such amount, and with and without sureties in such amount as the Judge may think right, to prosecute his appeal. And, subject thereto, may order that payment of the said fine shall be made at the final determination of his said appeal, if the same be dismissed, to the Registrar, or as such Court may then order. The recognisance under this Rule shall be in the Forms Nos.13 and 14 in Part III. of the Schedule hereto. A surety becoming duly bound by recognisance under this Rule shall be deemed to be, for all purposes, and shall have all the powers of a surety under the provisions of Order VI.

The Clerk of Arraignment or Clerk of the Court of Trial shall forward the recognisances of the Appellant and his surety or sureties to the Registrar.

4. Fine to be repaid on success of appeal

An Appellant who had been sentenced to the payment of a fine, and has paid the same in accordance with such sentence shall, in the event of his appeal being successful, be entitled, subject to any order of the Court of Criminal Appeal, to the return of the sum or any part thereof so paid by him.

5. How Appellant committing breach of recognisance under this Rule may be dealt with

If an Appellant to whom Rule 3 applies does not, in accordance with these rules, serve, in accordance with these rules, a Notice of Appeal together with the Certificate of the Judge of the Court of Trial (if such certificate is required by law), within 21 days from the date of his conviction and sentence, the Registrar shall report such omission to the Court of Criminal Appeal who may, after notice in the Forms Nos. 18 and 19 of Part III. of the Schedule hereto has been given to the Appellant and his sureties, if any, order an estreat of the recognisances of the Appellant and his sureties in manner provided by Order VI. hereof, and may issue a warrant for the apprehension of the Appellant and may commit him to prison in default of payment of his fine, or may make such other order as they think right.

[Rule 5 amended by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4978.]

Order XIV

Custody of exhibits used at trial

1. Judge's directions as to custody of exhibits

[Repealed]

[Rule 1 amended by Gazette 9 July 1954 p.1215.]

2. List of exhibits produced before committal, to be made by Coroner or Clerk to Justices

Whenever a person is committed for trial it shall be the duty of the Coroner or of the Clerk to the Justice committing such person for trial to make and forward, with the depositions taken in relation to such person, a complete list of such exhibits as have been produced and used in evidence for or against him during any proceedings before such Coroner or Justice, to the Court before which such person is to be tried. The exhibits appearing on such list shall be marked for the purpose of readily identifying the same.

*[Rule 2 amended by Gazettes 9 July 1954 p.1215;
1 December 1972 p.4566.]*

2A. Marking and listing of exhibits

The Clerk of Arraignment shall mark each exhibit, and make a list of all the exhibits, put in at a trial.

[Rule 2A inserted by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4566.]

3. Retention and return of exhibits

- (1) Subject to this Rule and to Rule 9 of Order IX, exhibits shall be retained in the custody of the Clerk of Arraignment —
  - (a) during the trial;

- (b) after the trial has concluded for a period of 21 days pending the lodging of an appeal or an application for leave to appeal; and
  - (c) where an appeal or an application for leave to appeal has been lodged, until the appeal or application or any appeal consequent upon leave being given has been disposed of.
- (2) Where there is no appeal or application for leave to appeal within the time mentioned in subrule (1), the Clerk of Arraignment shall return the exhibits or cause them to be returned to the person who originally produced them, but —
- (a) documents that are usually kept by an officer of the Court of Trial shall not be returned without a special order; and
  - (b) exhibits to which section 694 of the Code relates shall not be returned except pursuant to the direction of the Court of Trial or of the Court of Criminal Appeal.
- (3) The Court of Criminal Appeal may give such directions as it thinks fit regarding the custody or disposal of any exhibits in the custody of the Registrar of that Court and the Court of Trial may give like directions regarding any exhibits in the custody of the Clerk of Arraignment.

[Rule 3 inserted by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4566; amended by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4978.]

Order XV

Suspension of consequential orders pending appeal

1. Annulling or varying order of restitution of property
Persons affected may appear on appeal

Where, upon the trial of a person entitled to appeal under the Act against his conviction, an order of restitution of any property to any person or awarding compensation to any person has been made by the Judge of the Court of Trial, the person in whose favour or against whom the order of restitution or compensation has been made, any person in whose favour or against whom an order to which Rule 2 relates has been made, and, with the leave of the Court of Criminal Appeal any other person, shall, on the final hearing by the Court of Criminal Appeal of an appeal against the conviction on which such order was made, be entitled to be heard by the Court of Criminal Appeal before any order annulling or varying such order is made.

2. Nonsuspension of orders for restitution, etc., to be subject to property or a sample, etc., being necessary for purposes of appeal

Where the Judge of the Court of Trial is of opinion that the title to any property the subject of an order of restitution made on a conviction of a person before him, or any property to which provisions of subsection (1) of Section 24 of the Sale of Goods Act 1895, apply, is not in dispute, he, if he shall be of opinion that such property or a sample or portion or facsimile representation thereof is reasonably necessary to be produced for use at the hearing of any appeal, shall give such directions to or impose such terms upon the person in whose favour the order of restitution is made, or in whom such property reverts under such subsection, as he shall think right in order to secure the production of such sample, portion or facsimile representation for use at the hearing of any such appeal.

3. Temporary suspension or orders made on conviction as to money, costs, etc.

Where, on the conviction of a person, the Judge of the Court of Trial makes an order condemning such person to the payment of the whole or of any part of the costs and expenses of the prosecution for the offence of which he shall be convicted, or where such Judge makes any order under Section 718 or 719 of the Code, or where such Judge lawfully makes on the conviction of any person before him any order for the payment of money by such convicted person or by any other person, or any order affecting the rights or property of such convicted person, the operation of such orders shall in any of such cases be suspended until the expiration of 21 days after the day on which any of such orders were made. And in any case where Notice of Appeal or Notice of Application for leave to appeal is lawfully given either against the conviction or against the order within 21 days from and after the date of the verdict against such person, such order shall be further suspended until the determination of the appeal. The Court of Criminal Appeal may by order annul any order to which this Rule refers on the determination of any appeal, or may vary such order, and such order, if annulled, shall not take effect, and, if varied, shall take effect as so varied.

[Rule 3 amended by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4978.]

4. Judge's directions as to property of convicted person pending appeal

Where the Judge of the Court of Trial makes any such order on a person convicted before him, as in this Order mentioned, he shall give such directions as he thinks right as in the retention by any person of any money or valuable securities belonging to the person so convicted or taken from such person on his apprehension or of any money or valuable securities at the date of his conviction in the possession of the prosecution for the period of 21 days; or in the event of an appeal, until the determination thereof by the Court of Criminal Appeal.

[Rule 4 amended by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4978.]

5. Suspension of disqualification consequent on conviction

Where upon conviction of any person of any offence any disqualification, forfeiture or disability attaches to such person by reason of such conviction, such disqualification, forfeiture, or disability shall not attach for the period of 21 days from the date of the verdict against such person, nor in the event of an appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeal, until the determination thereof.

[Rule 5 amended by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4978.]

6. Judge's directions as to securing payment of money by convicted person pending appeal

When the Judge of the Court of Trial on the conviction of a person before him makes any order for the payment of money by such person or by any other person upon such conviction, and, by reason of this Order, such order would otherwise be suspended, such Judge may, if he thinks right so to do, direct that the operation of such order shall not be suspended unless the person on whom such order has been made shall, in such manner and within such time as the said Judge shall direct, give security by way of undertaking or otherwise for the payment to the person in whose favour such order shall have been made of the amount therein named. Such security may be to the satisfaction of the person in whose favour the order for payment shall have been made or of any other person as such Judge shall direct.

7. Suspension of order of destruction or forfeiture of property

Where on a conviction any property, matters or things the subject of the prosecution or connected therewith are to be or may be ordered to be destroyed or forfeited under the provisions of any Statute, the destruction or forfeiture or order for destruction or forfeiture thereof shall be suspended for the period of 21 days from and after the date on which the verdict on such indictment was returned, and in the event of an appeal shall be further suspended until the determination thereof by the Court of Criminal Appeal.

[Rule 7 amended by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4978.]

8. Suspension of proceedings or claims consequent on conviction

Where, upon conviction of any person of any offence, any claim may be made or any proceedings may be taken under any Statute against such person or any other person in consequence of such conviction, such proceedings shall not be taken until after the period of 21 days from the date on which the verdict against on such person was returned, nor in the event of an appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeal until the determination thereof.

[Rule 8 amended by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4978.]

9. Hearing on final determination of appeal

Any person affected by any orders which are suspended under this Order may, with the leave of the Court of Criminal Appeal, be heard on the final determination of any appeal, before any such orders are varied or annulled by the Court of Criminal Appeal.

10. Period of suspension of orders under s.6 of Act

The time during which an Order of Restitution or the operation of subsection (1) of Section 24 of the Sale of Goods Act 1895, is suspended under Section 694 of the Code, shall commence to run from the day on which the verdict of the jury was returned, and, in cases where Notice of Appeal or Notice of Application for leave to appeal is duly given within 21 days after such day, the period of suspension of such order or of the operation of the subsection shall continue until the determination of the appeal.

[Rule 10 amended by gazette 17 December 1976 p.4978.]

11. Certificate of conviction not to issue for 10 days after conviction

The Registrar or Clerk of the Court of Trial or other officer thereof having the custody of the Records of such Court, or the deputy of such Clerk or other officer, shall not issue, under any Statute authorising him so to do, a certificate of conviction of any person convicted on indictment in the Court to which he is such Clerk, officer, or deputy, for the period of 21 days after the actual day on which such conviction took place, nor in the event of such Clerk, officer, or deputy receiving information from the Registrar of the Court of Criminal Appeal within such 21 days that a Notice of Appeal or if Application for leave to appeal to that Court has been given, until the determination thereof.

[Rule 11 amended by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4978.]

12. After 10 days from conviction, Clerk to be satisfied no appeal pending before issuing certificate of conviction

Where an application is made to such Registrar, Clerk, officer, or deputy to issue such certificate of conviction as in this rule mentioned after the expiration of the said period of 21 days, he shall require, before issuing the same, to be satisfied that there is no appeal then pending in the Court of Criminal Appeal against such conviction. A person desirous of obtaining a certificate of conviction from such Registrar, Clerk, officer, or deputy shall be entitled to obtain from the Registrar of the Court of Criminal Appeal a certificate in such form as the said Registrar may think right for the purpose of satisfying, by the production thereof, such Clerk, officer, or deputy that no appeal against such conviction is then pending. After the expiration of two months from the date of the conviction a certificate thereof may be issued by such Registrar, Clerk, officer or deputy as heretofore, except in cases in which he has had notice of an appeal still undetermined.

For the purposes of this Rule the expression “conviction” shall mean the verdict or plea of guilty and any final judgment passed thereon.

[Rule 12 amended by Gazette 17 December 1976 p.4978.]

13. Appeal by person convicted against order of restitution or compensation to be made on appeal against conviction

No person convicted of any offence shall be allowed to appeal against any order consequential on such conviction made under Section 717 or 719 of the Code, except on an appeal against the conviction.

14. Conditions may be imposed on appeal against order of restitution

The Judge of the Court of Trial may, at any time, order that any person other than the person convicted who desires to appeal against an order made under Section 717 of the Code shall not be allowed to appeal unless he complies with such conditions as to security or otherwise as shall be specified in the order, but such order may be set aside or varied by the Court of Criminal Appeal.

Order XVI

Notes and report of Judge of trial

1. Judge's note to be furnished to the Registrar on request

The Registrar when he has received a Notice of Appeal, or a Notice of Application for leave to appeal under Chapter LXIX. of the Code or a Notice of Application for extension of the time within which such notices shall be given, or when the Attorney General shall exercise his powers under Section 21 of the Code, shall request the Judge of the Court of Trial to furnish him with the whole of or any part of his note of the trial or with a copy of such note or any part thereof, and such Judge of the Court of Trial shall thereupon furnish the same to the Registrar in accordance with such request.

2. Report of Judge of Court of Trial

The Registrar when he has received a Notice of Appeal, or a Notice of Application for leave to appeal or a Notice of Application for extension of time within which such notices shall be given (not being notices to which in his opinion Section 701, Subsection (2) of the Code applies) or when the Attorney General shall exercise his powers under Section 21 of the Code, and whenever in relation to any appeal the Court of Criminal Appeal or any Judge thereof directs him so to do shall, request the Judge of the Court of Trial to furnish him with a report in writing, giving his opinion upon the case generally or upon any point arising upon the case of the Appellant, and the Judge of the Court of Trial shall furnish the same to the Registrar in accordance with such request.

[Rule 2 amended by Gazette 9 July 1954 p.1215.]

3. Judge's report to be furnished to Court of Appeal

The report of the Judge shall be made to the Court of Criminal Appeal, and except by leave of the Court or a Judge of the Supreme Court specifying what is to be furnished the Registrar shall not furnish to any person any part thereof.

[Rule 3 amended by Gazette 9 July 1954 p.1215.]

4. Registrar to furnish Judge of Court of Trial with materials for report

When the Registrar shall request the Judge of the Court of Trial to furnish a report under these Rules, he shall send to such Judge of the Court of Trial a copy of the Notice of Appeal or Notice of Application for leave to appeal or Notice of Application for extension of time within which under the Act such notice shall be given or any other document or information which he shall consider material, or which the Court of Criminal Appeal at any time shall direct him to send, or with which such Judge may request to be furnished by the Registrar, to enable such Judge to deal in his report with the Appellant's case generally or with any point arising thereon.

Order XVII

Defence of appeals

1. Registrar's duties as to ascertaining Respondent

When the Registrar has received a Notice of Appeal, or a Notice of Appeal on grounds of law alone, which does not, in his opinion, fall within the provisions of Section 701, subsection (2), of the Code, or where leave to appeal is granted to any Appellant, he shall, in the case of a private prosecution, forthwith ascertain from the person specified in Form No. 6 of Part IV. of the Schedule as the Prosecutor, or from the solicitor of such person, whether the Prosecutor intends to undertake the defence of the appeal. And in the event of the Prosecutor declining to undertake the defence of the appeal, notice to that effect shall be sent by the Registrar to the Crown Prosecutor.

In the case of other than private prosecutions the Registrar shall notify the Crown Prosecutor of the appeal.

2. Prosecutor to afford all information, documents, etc., to Registrar and Crown Prosecutor

It shall be the duty of a Prosecutor who declines to undertake the defence of an appeal, and of his solicitor, to furnish to the Registrar and the Crown Prosecutor, or either of them, any information, documents, matters, and things in his possession or under his control connected with the proceedings against the Appellant, which the Registrar or Crown Prosecutor may require for the purposes of their duties under the Act.

3. Court may at any stage substitute Crown Prosecutor for a private prosecutor

Where the defence of an appeal is undertaken by a private prosecutor the Court of Criminal Appeal may, at any stage of the proceedings in such appeal, if it shall think right so to do, order that the Crown Prosecutor shall take over the defence of the appeal and be responsible on behalf of the Crown for the further proceedings in the same.

4. When Crown or Prosecutor is appellant

- (i) The foregoing Rules of this Order do not apply in any case where the Crown or the Prosecutor is the appellant. In any such case the Registrar shall —
  - (a) notify the accused or his counsel or solicitor of the appeal; and
  - (b) where the appellant is a private prosecutor, notify the Crown Prosecutor of the appeal.
- (ii) Where the appellant is a private prosecutor, the Court of Criminal Appeal may, at any stage of the proceedings, order that the Crown Prosecutor shall take over the defence of the appeal.

[Rule 4 inserted by Gazette 9 July 1954 p.1215.]

Order XVIII

Documents required for purposes of appeal

- 1. Registrar on application of Appellant or Respondent, or where he thinks necessary, to obtain documents, exhibits, etc., for purposes of appeal, and same, to be open for inspection

The Registrar may, on an application made to him by the Appellant or Respondent in any appeal, or where he considers the same to be necessary for the proper determination of any appeal or application, or shall where directed by the Court of Criminal Appeal so to do, obtain and keep available for use by the Court of Criminal Appeal any documents, exhibits, or other things relating to the proceedings before the Court, and pending the determination of the appeal, such documents, exhibits, or other things shall be open as and when the Registrar may arrange, for the inspection of any party interested.

- 1A. Judge may allow affidavits to be filed re grounds etc.

If it appears necessary or expedient for the proper determination of an appeal or application to the Court of Criminal Appeal, a Judge of the Supreme Court on application by any Appellant or Respondent prior to the hearing and after notice of such application to other parties concerned, may, by special order, grant leave to all or any parties to file affidavits relating to any ground of the appeal or application, and may direct what persons shall be competent to make any such affidavit or affidavits and within what time or times any such affidavit shall be filed.

[Rule 1A inserted by Gazette 9 July 1954 p.1215.]

2. Court of Appeal may order production of any document or exhibits etc.

The Court of Criminal Appeal may, at any stage of an appeal, whenever they think it necessary or expedient in the interest of Justice so to do, on the application of an Appellant or Respondent, order any document, exhibit, or other thing connected with the proceedings, to be produced to the Registrar or before them, by any person having the custody or control thereof.

3. How Appellant or Respondent may obtain from Registrar copies of documents or exhibits

At any time after Notice of Appeal or Notice of Application for leave to appeal has been given under chapter sixty-nine of the Code, an Appellant or Respondent or the Solicitor or other person representing either of them, may obtain from the Registrar copies of any documents or exhibits in his possession under the Code or these Rules for the purposes of such appeals. Such copies shall be supplied by the Registrar at such charges as may be provided in rules made under the Supreme Court Act 1935.<sup>3</sup>

[Rule 3 amended by Gazette 9 July 1954 p.1215.]

4. Counsel and Solicitor assigned to Appellant may receive copies of documents and exhibits free on his request

Where Solicitor and Counsel, or Counsel only, are assigned to an Appellant under chapter sixty-nine of the Code, copies of any documents or exhibits which they or he may request the Registrar to supply shall without charge be supplied unless the Registrar thinks that they are not necessary for the purpose of the appeal.

5. Transcript of short-hand notes not to be supplied free except on order of Judge of Court

A transcript of the shorthand notes (if any) taken of the proceedings at the trial of any Appellant shall not be supplied free of charge, except by an order of the Court of Criminal Appeal or of a Judge thereof, upon an application made by an Appellant or by his Counsel or Solicitor assigned to him under the Act.

6. Appellant not legally represented may obtain copy of documents or exhibits free

Where an Appellant, who is not legally represented, requires from the Registrar a copy of any document or exhibit in his custody for the purposes of his appeal, he may obtain it free of charge if the Registrar thinks, under all the circumstances, it is desirable or necessary to supply the same to him.

Order XIX

Procedure as to witnesses before Court of Criminal Appeal, and their examination before examiner

1. Attendance of witness before Court of Appeal

Where the Court of Criminal Appeal have ordered any witness to attend and be examined before the Court under Section 697 (b) of the Code, an order in the Form No. 15 in Part IV. of the Schedule hereto shall be served upon such witness specifying the time and place at which to attend for such purpose.

2. Application to Court to hear witnesses

Such order may be made on the application at any time of the Appellant or Respondent, but if the Appellant is in custody and not legally represented the application shall be made by him in the Form No. 14 in Part IV. of the Schedule hereto.

3. Order appointing Examiner

Where the Court of Criminal Appeal order the examination of any witness to be conducted otherwise than before the Court itself, such order shall specify the person appointed as examiner to take and the place of taking such examination and the witness or witnesses to be examined thereat.

4. Registrar to furnish Examiner with exhibits, etc., necessary for examination

The Registrar shall furnish to the person appointed to take such examination any documents or exhibits and any other material relating to the said appeal as and when requested so to do. Such documents and exhibits and other material shall after the examination has been concluded be returned by the examiner together with any depositions taken by him to the Registrar.

5. Notification of date of examination

When the examiner has appointed the day and time for the examination he shall request the Registrar to notify the Appellant or Respondent and their legal representatives, if any, and when the Appellant is in prison, the Superintendent of that prison, thereof. The Registrar shall cause to be served on every witness to be so examined a notice in the Form No. 16 in Part IV. of the Schedule hereto.

6. Evidence to be given on oath

Every witness examined before an examiner under this Order shall give his evidence upon oath to be administered by such examiner, except where any such witness if giving evidence as a witness on a trial on indictment need not be sworn.

7. Deposition of witness, how to be taken

The examination of every such witness shall be taken in the form of a deposition and shall be read over to and signed by the witness and shall also be signed by the examiner. The caption in the Form No. 17 in Part IV. of the Schedule hereto shall be attached to any such deposition.

8. Travelling expenses of witnesses before Examiner

Where any witness shall receive an order or notice to attend before the Court of Criminal Appeal or an examiner, the person serving the same may, if it appears to him necessary so to do, pay to him a reasonable sum not exceeding the amount of the scale sanctioned by the Attorney General for the travelling expenses of such witness from his place of residence to the place named in such notice or order, and the sum so paid shall be certified by such person to the Registrar. Any expenses certified by the Registrar under this rule shall be paid as part of the expenses of a prosecution.

9. Service of notices and orders, under Rule

Any order or notice required by this Order to be given to any witness may be served as a writ of subpoena in the Supreme Court may be served, and any such notice shall be deemed to be an order of the Court of Criminal Appeal on such witness to attend at the time and place specified therein.

10. Presence of parties at examination of witnesses

The Appellant and Respondent, or Counsel or Solicitor on their behalf, shall be entitled to be present at and take part in any examination of any witness to which this Rule relates.

11. Proceedings under Section 697, subsection (d), on reference

When an order of Reference is made by the Court of Criminal Appeal under section 697 (d) of the Code, the question to be referred and the person to whom as Special Commissioner the same shall be referred shall be specified in such order. The Court of Criminal Appeal may in such order or by giving directions as and when they, from time to time, shall think right, specify whether the Appellant or Respondent or any person on his behalf may be present at any examination or investigation ordered under Section 697 (d) of the Code or at any stage thereof, and specify any and what powers of the Court of Criminal Appeal under Chapter LXIX. of the Code may be delegated to such Special commissioner, and may require him from time to time to make interim reports to the Court of Criminal Appeal upon the question referred to him under Section 697 (d) of the Code, and may, if the Appellant is in custody, give leave to him to be present at any stage of such examination or investigation and give the necessary directions to the Superintendent of the prison in which such Appellant is, accordingly, and may give directions to the Registrar that copies of any report made by such Special commissioner shall be furnished to the Appellant and Respondent or to Counsel or Solicitor on their behalf.

Order XX

Notifying result of appeals

1. On final determination of appeals, etc., registrar to notify Appellant, Prison Superintendent, and Attorney General

On the final determination of any appeal under Chapter LXIX. of the Code or of any matter under Section 702 of the Code, the Registrar shall give to the Appellant, if he is in custody and has not been present at such final determination, and to the Attorney General, and to the Superintendent of the prison in which the Appellant then is, or from which he has been released on bail or to which under such determination he is committed, notice of such determination in the Forms 18, 19, 20, and 21 respectively provided for such cases in Part IV. of the Schedule hereto.

2. In cases of death sentence, notice of appeal and final determination to be given

In any case of an appeal in relation to a conviction involving sentence of death, the Registrar shall on receiving the Notice of Appeal or of Application for leave to appeal, send a copy thereof to the Attorney General, and on the final determination of any such appeal by the Court of Criminal Appeal shall forthwith notify the Appellant, the Attorney General, and the Superintendent of the prison in which the Appellant then is or to which he is committed under such determination.

3. Registrar to notify Officer of Court of Trial, result of appeal

The Registrar at the final determination of an appeal (when the Supreme Court was not the Court of trial) shall notify in such manner as he thinks most convenient to the Clerk of the Court of Trial the decision of the Court of Criminal Appeal in relation thereto, and also any orders or directions made or given by the Court in relation to such appeal or any matter connected therewith.

The proper officer of the Court of Trial shall, on receiving the notification referred to in this Rule, enter the particulars thereof on the Records of the Court of which he is such officer.

4. Registrar after appeal to return original depositions, exhibits, indictments, etc., to Officer of Court of Trial when received from him

Upon the final determination of an appeal for the purposes of which the Registrar has obtained from the proper officer of the Court of Trial any original depositions, exhibits, indictment, inquisition, plea, or other documents usually kept by the said officer, or forming part of the Record of the Court of Trial, the Registrar shall cause the same to be returned to such officer.

Proceedings under the Offenders Probation and Parole Act 1963

1. Proceedings pursuant to ss.16, 17.

Where pursuant to section 16 or 17 of the Offenders Probation and Parole Act 1963 a probationer or a person in whose case a probation order has been made is brought or appears before the Court and is dealt with pursuant to either of those sections, the Clerk of Arraignment shall make out a certificate in the Form 9A of Section VI of Part I of the Schedule setting out the judgment directed by the Court with respect to the probationer or such person, and the certificate shall be delivered, where the probationer or such person is sentenced to imprisonment or released from custody, to the Director of the Department of Corrections or handed to the gaoler in attendance at the Court.

[Rule 1 inserted by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4567.]

2. Applications pursuant to s.40(2)

An application pursuant to subsection (2) of section 40 of the Offenders Probation and Parole Act 1963 —

- (a) shall be made —
  - (i) where it is to the Court of Criminal Appeal, by motion; or
  - (ii) where it is to the Supreme Court, by summons to a Judge in Chambers or, if a Judge so directs, by motion in open court;
- (b) shall be supported by an affidavit of the facts on which the Director relies.

[Rule 2 inserted by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4567.]

3. Service

A copy of the application shall be served, with a copy of the supporting affidavit, on the convicted person not less than five clear days before the return day unless he states that he does not wish to be heard on the application or accepts short notice of it.

[Rule 3 inserted by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4567.]

4. Notice to sentencing Court

Where, on hearing the application, the Court fixes a minimum term of imprisonment with respect to a person sentenced by a court other than the Supreme Court, the Registrar shall give notice thereof to the registrar or other proper officer of that other court.

[Rule 4 inserted by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4567.]

Order XXC

Application pursuant to section 4 or 6 of the *Criminal Injuries (Compensation) Act 1970

1. Manner of application

An application pursuant to section 4 or 6 of the Criminal Injuries (Compensation) Act 1970—

- (a) may be made orally to the trial Judge, forthwith after the conviction of the person against whom an order is sought and in his presence, or forthwith after the acquittal of the accused person, as the case may be; or
- (b) may be later made by notice of motion to the Court to be heard in open court.

[Rule 1 inserted by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4568.]

2. Service of notice of motion on person convicted

Where an application pursuant to that section 4 is made by notice of motion, the notice of motion shall be served on the person against whom the order is sought not less than fourteen clear days before the return day.

[Rule 2 inserted by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4568.]

3. Evidence

- (1) Where the person against whom the order is sought has been convicted after trial, the applicant may rely on the evidence given at the trial but that evidence may be supplemented by further oral evidence or, by leave of the Court, by affidavit.
- (2) Where the person against whom the order is sought has been convicted on his own confession, the Court in determining the application may have regard to the depositions of witnesses taken at any preliminary hearing and also may, as the particular circumstances of the case may require, hear such further or other evidence as the Court determines.

[Rule 3 inserted by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4568.]

4. Adjournments

The application, whether made orally or by motion, may be adjourned from time to time until an order is made or refused.

[Rule 4 inserted by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4568.]

5. Final determination

The application shall not be finally determined until the time for appeal against the conviction or acquittal, as the case may be, has expired.

[Rule inserted by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4568.]

Order XXI

Passing of accounts by curator of prisoner's estate

1. Accounts to be filed

A curator of a prisoner's estate liable to pass his accounts shall, as soon as practicable, file in the registry of the Supreme Court his accounts relating to the estate of the prisoner, and shall, at the time of filing the said accounts, take out an appointment for passing the same. If the curator intends to claim commission or other remuneration which has not already been allowed by the Court or a Judge he shall state that fact in the notice.

2. Notice to parties

Notice of the filing of the accounts and of the time fixed for passing the same shall be served on the prisoner or his trustee in bankruptcy or legal personal representative as the case may require.

3. Notice of objections

Any person wishing to object to the passing of the accounts of any curator shall file with the Registrar, on or before the day fixed for the passing of the accounts, a notice of his intention to object and also an affidavit stating his interest and the nature and grounds of his objection.

4. Service on persons interested

Upon the taking of such accounts the Registrar may make such order as to service upon any of the parties interested as he may think fit.

5. Attendance of persons interested

Any person interested may attend before the Registrar upon the taking of such accounts.

6. Registrar's certificate

The Registrar shall state the result of the taking of the accounts in the form of a certificate and in the certificate shall state the amount of commission or other remuneration allowed by the Court or a Judge, or if no such allowance has been made he shall state what he recommends should be allowed in respect of the claim (if any) for commission or other remuneration.

7. Certificate when binding

Every certificate of the Registrar shall be binding on all persons concerned unless discharged or varied by the Court or a Judge upon application by motion or summons made before the expiration of eight clear days from the signing of the certificate; provided that no recommendation for commission or other remuneration shall be binding until approved by the Court or a Judge.

Order XXII

Certiorari to Inferior Courts

1. Title of Affidavits

Affidavits intended to be used on an application for a writ of certiorari to remove an indictment from the District Court or other Inferior Court into the Supreme Court shall be entitled “In the Supreme Court of Western Australia, and in the matter of an indictment presented in the District Court at B. (or other Court, naming it) against C.D.”

*[Rule 1 amended by Gazettes 9 July 1954 p.1216;
1 December 1972 p.4565.]*

2. Grounds for removal

A writ of certiorari for the removal of an indictment from the District Court or other Inferior Court into the Supreme Court shall not be granted, except on the application of the Attorney General acting on behalf of the Crown, either at the instance of the prosecutor or of the accused person, unless it is made to appear to the Court or Judge by the party applying that a fair and impartial trial of the case cannot be had in the Court below, or that some question of law of more than usual difficulty and importance is likely to arise upon the trial.

*[Rule 2 amended by Gazettes 9 July 1954 p.1216;
1 December 1972 p.4565.]*

3. Security for costs of prosecution

A writ of certiorari for the removal of an indictment from the District Court or other Inferior Court into the Supreme Court shall not be issued except on the application of the Attorney General acting on behalf of the Crown, until the accused person at whose instance it has been directed to issue has given security, by recognisance, or in such other manner as the Court or Judge may direct, with or without sureties, and in such sum as the Court or Judge may think fit, conditioned that he will appear and plead in open Court to the indictment, and proceed to trial at the next Criminal Sittings of the Supreme Court at Perth forthwith, or at the sittings of such other Court, and at such time and place as the Supreme Court or a Judge may direct, and will personally attend from day to day at the trial of the indictment, and not depart till he shall be discharged by the Court, and that he will pay the cost of the prosecution subsequent to the removal of the indictment, if he is convicted.

[Rule 3 amended by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4565.]

4. Time and notice

An order nisi for a writ of certiorari to remove a judgment, conviction, order, or other proceeding, of the District Court other than an indictment presented therein, or a judgment, conviction, order, or other proceeding of any other Inferior Court or Tribunal, in a criminal cause, shall not be granted unless it is made within six months after the date of such judgment, conviction, order, or other proceeding, nor unless it is proved upon affidavit that the applicant has given six days' notice of the intended application to the District Court, or other person or persons by or before whom the judgment, conviction, order, or other proceeding was made or taken, or to two of them if more than one.

[Rule 4 amended by Gazettes 9 July 1954 p.1216; 1 December 1972 p.4565 and p.4568.]

5. Objections to be stated in order

Any mistake or omission in any judgment, conviction, order, or other proceeding which is intended to be relied upon as a ground for quashing such judgment, conviction order, or proceeding shall be stated in the order nisi; otherwise an objection on account of such omission or mistake shall not be allowed.

[6. Repealed by Gazette 1 December 1972 p.4568.]

7. Security for costs on certiorari to bring up convictions or orders of Justices

A writ of certiorari to remove a judgment, conviction, or order of the District Court or of any other Inferior Court or Tribunal shall not be issued, except upon the application of the Attorney General, until the applicant has given security in the sum of one hundred dollars, conditioned to prosecute the writ with effect at his own cost without delay, and to pay, within ten days, to the party in whose favour the judgment, conviction, or order was given or made, in the event of the same being confirmed, such costs, if any, as the Court shall order.

Order XXIII

Miscellaneous provisions

1. Application not specially provided for, how made

Except where otherwise provided in these Rules, any application to the Court of Criminal Appeal may be made by the Appellant or Respondent, or by Counsel on their behalf, orally or in writing, but in regard to such applications if the Appellant is unrepresented and is in custody and is not entitled or has not obtained leave to be present before the Court, he shall make any such application by forwarding the same in writing to the Registrar, who shall take the proper steps to obtain the decision of the court thereon.

2. Notice by Registrar to Appellant of results of all applications

When the Court of Criminal Appeal has heard and dealt with any application under the Act or these Rules, the Registrar shall (unless it appears to him unnecessary so to do) give to the Appellant (if he is in custody and has not been present at the hearing of such application) notice of the decision of the Court of Criminal Appeal in relation to the said application.

3. Legal aid

When legal aid is assigned to an Appellant, the Court of Criminal Appeal may give such directions as to the stage of the appeal at which such legal aid shall commence and whether Counsel only or Counsel and Solicitor, shall be assigned or otherwise as they think right.

The Registrar shall thereupon, subject to any special order of the Court of Criminal Appeal select a Counsel and Solicitor or Counsel only for the purpose of affording legal aid to an Appellant under the directions of the Court of Criminal Appeal, having regard in so doing to the place at which the Appellant was tried and the Counsel or Solicitor, if any, who represented the Appellant at his trial and the nature of the appeal.

[Rule 3 amended by Gazette 9 July 1954 p.1216.]

4. Enforcing duties under Rules

The performance of any duty imposed upon any person under Chapter LXIX of the Code may be enforced by order of the Court of Appeal.

5. A petitioner under Section 21, subsection (a) to be deemed an Appellant for all purposes

When the Attorney General exercises his powers under Section 21 (a) and refers the whole case to the Court of Appeal, the petitioner whose case is so dealt with shall be deemed to be for all the purposes of Chapter LXIX of the Code a person who has obtained from the Court of Appeal leave to appeal, and the Court of Appeal may proceed to deal with his case accordingly.

6. Sittings during long vacation

The Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeal shall make arrangements for any sittings that may be necessary during vacation.

7. Reference to Court under s.21 (b)

Where the Attorney General refers a point to the Court of Criminal Appeal under Section 21 (b) of the Code, such Court shall, unless they otherwise determine, consider such point in private.

8. Warrants

- (1) Warrants issued by the Registrar under these rules or Chapter LXIX of the Criminal Code shall be impressed with the seal of the Supreme Court; but the absence of such impression shall not affect the validity of the warrant.

- (2) Warrants issued by a Justice under Chapter LXIX of the Criminal Code require no seal.
- (3) Subject to these rules and to any order of the Court or a Judge, whenever it is necessary to name a prison in any warrant the person issuing the warrant shall select the prison; provided that, where a person has been released from any prison on bail and it is afterwards necessary to issue a warrant for his detention on revocation of the order for bail or at the instance of any surety, the prison named in the warrant shall be that from which he was released unless the Court or a Judge otherwise orders.
- (4) Warrants shall have effect and shall be executed and observed according to their tenor.

9. Notices to Court

All notices required or authorised to be given to the Court of Criminal Appeal shall be addressed to “The Registrar of the Court of Criminal Appeal, Supreme Court, Perth.”

10. Notices to be in writing. Service

Except as in these rules otherwise provided notices under these rules shall be in writing and signed by the person giving the same or his solicitor, and the provisions of Section 31 of the Interpretation Act 1918<sup>2</sup> shall apply to the service thereof.

[Rule 10 amended by Gazette 9 July 1954 p.1216.]

11. Applications to Court, how made

Except as in these rules otherwise provided every application to the Court shall be made by notice of motion.

12. Notice of motion to be served two days before hearing

Unless the Court or a Judge otherwise orders, every notice of motion requiring to be served shall be served at least two clear days before the day on which the same is to be heard.

13. Applications in Chambers

Except as in these rules otherwise provided and subject to any order of the Court or Judge, every application to a Judge in Chambers (not made ex parte) shall be made by summons served (where service is required) at least one clear day before the day on which it is to be heard.

14. Solicitor to represent client

Except as herein otherwise provided, whenever by these rules any act is required to be done by, or to, or with reference to, a party, then, in the case of a party who is represented by a solicitor, such act may be done by, to, or with reference to such solicitor.

15. Schedule of Forms

The Forms contained in the Schedule to these Rules may be used in the several cases and for the several purposes for which they are respectively applicable, with such variations (if any) as the nature of the case may require, and when so used shall be sufficient and shall have effect according to their tenor.

16. Power of Court or Judge to enlarge or abridge time

Subject to the provisions of the Criminal Code, the Court or a Judge shall have power to enlarge or abridge the time appointed by these rules, or fixed by any order enlarging time, for doing any act or taking any proceeding, upon such terms (if any) as the justice of the case may require, and any such enlargement may be ordered although the application for the same is not made until the expiration of the time appointed or allowed.

17. Effect of non-compliance

Non-compliance with any of these Rules shall not render any proceeding void, unless the Court or a Judge so directs, but such proceeding may be set aside either wholly or in part as irregular, or may be amended or otherwise dealt with in such manner and upon such terms as the Court or a Judge may think fit, or the Court or the Judge may waive the irregularity either wholly or in part and either unconditionally or on terms.

18. Certificate or warrant evidencing sentence to be forwarded to Court

- (1) When a Notice of Appeal or Notice of Application for leave to appeal has been given by a convicted person, the Comptroller General of Prisons or the Superintendent or officer in charge of the prison in which the appellant then is, or from which he has been released on bail, shall, on being requested by the Registrar so to do, forward to the Registrar the certificate of the clerk of arraigns, or other warrant evidencing the sentence passed on the appellant by the court of trial, with a memorandum thereon stating the date on which the appellant has been admitted to bail, or the time during which he has been treated as an unconvicted prisoner, as the case may be.
- (2) Such certificate or warrant shall be placed before the Court of Criminal Appeal on the hearing of the appeal or application for leave to appeal, and on the final determination of the appeal or application the associate to the presiding Judge shall endorse on the said certificate or warrant a further certificate according to Form 25 in Part IV. of the Schedule of Forms hereto showing the time which is not to count as part of the term of imprisonment to be served by the appellant or applicant or any direction thereon given by the Court of Criminal Appeal in accordance with the provisions of section 20 of the Code and the Registrar shall return the certificate with such endorsement to the Superintendent or officer in charge of the prison when notifying the determination of the appeal or application.

[Rule 18 inserted by Gazette 8 April 1949 p.777.]

19. Section 656A — transmission of documents

For the purpose of enabling the Court to deal with a simple offence under section 656A of the Code, a clerk of petty sessions shall, upon a request being made by the Registrar, transmit to the Registrar any summons, warrant, complaint, or document of any sort that is filed in the court of petty sessions concerned, or is in the custody of that court, and relates to that offence.

Section 63.

And other persons with intent to carry out a common purpose; namely: (here set out the purpose) assembled together to the number of three [and more] in such a manner [or And other persons with intent to carry out a common purpose; namely: (here set out the purpose) assembled together to the number of three (and more), and, being so assembled conducted themselves in such a manner] as to cause the subjects of our said Lord the King in the neighbourhood to fear on reasonable grounds that he the said A.B. and the other persons so assembled would tumultuously disturb the peace [or would needlessly and without reasonable occasion provoke a tumultuous disturbance of the peace].

No. 20 — Riot.

Section 64.

As in preceding Form to the end and add: And that the said A.B. and the other persons aforesaid, being so assembled together, then and there tumultuously disturbed the peace.

No. 21. — Rioters remaining after Proclamation ordering them to disperse.

Section 65.

(1) And other persons were riotously assembled together to the number of twelve [and more]: and that thereupon one S.T., a justice of the peace (or as the case may be), being amongst the persons so assembled together [or being as near to the said persons so assembled together as he could safely go], commanded [or caused command to be made] with a loud voice that silence should be kept while the proclamation next hereinafter mentioned was made, and then made [or caused to be made] openly and with a loud voice a proclamation in the words following, that is to say, “Our Sovereign Lord the King charges and commands all persons here assembled immediately to disperse themselves and peaceably to depart to their habitations or to their lawful business, or they will be guilty of a crime, and will be liable to be imprisoned and kept to hard labour for life: God save the King”: Yet the said A.B. [and C.D.] and others being so assembled, continued together to the number of twelve [and more], and did not disperse themselves within the space of an hour after the said proclamation was so made.

(2) Divers persons to the number of twelve [and more] were riotously assembled together: And that thereupon one S.T., a justice of the peace (or as the case may be), went to make [or began to make] a proclamation commanding the said persons so assembled to disperse themselves, as by law it was his duty to do: And that A.B. The Clerk of Arraignment is required to address the accused person as follows: —

A.B. [and C.D.]: You stand charged by that name [or those names] that you on etc. at etc (the Clerk of Arraignment is to state the charge in the indictment to the accused person, using the second person plural instead of the third person, and repeating the names of each accused person as to anything alleged of him to the exclusion of the other persons accused):

How say you, A.B., are you guilty or not guilty?

[How say you, C.D., are you guilty or not guilty?]

Note. — If the charges of committing an offence after a previous conviction or convictions, the accused person is to be arraigned in the first instance upon so much only of the indictment as charges the subsequent offence (see Code, Section 627).

No. 2. — Statement to Prisoner of his Right of Challenge on Plea of Not Guilty.

If the accused person says that he is not guilty, the Clerk of Arraignment is required to address him as follows: —

A.B. [and C.D.]: These good men whom you will now hear called are the jurors who are to decide between Our Lord the King and you upon your trial [or (in a capital case) upon your life or death]: If, therefore, you wish to challenge them or any of them you must do so as they come to be sworn, and before they are sworn, and you shall be heard.

No. 3. — Direction to Jurors to take the Box.

(By the Clerk of Arraignment.)

Gentlemen of the jury, answer to your names and take the box as you are called.

No. 4. — Form of giving the Accused Person in Charge to the Jury.

After the names of the jury who have been sworn and called and they have answered, the Clerk of Arraignment is required to address them as follows: —

Gentlemen, A.B. [and C.D.] stands [or stand] charged by that name [or those names] that on etc. at etc. he [or they] (state the offence charged in the words of the indictment): To this charge he says [or they say] that he is [or they are] not guilty: You are the jurors appointed according to law to say whether he is [or they are] guilty or not guilty of the charge: It is your duty, therefore, to hearken to the evidence, and to say whether he is [or they are] guilty or not guilty: Gentlemen, choose your foreman.

No. 5. — Form of Addressing Convicted Person before Sentence.

If the plea or verdict is "guilty," the Clerk of Arraignment is required to address the convicted person as follows: —

A.B., you have been convicted (in the case of a plea of guilty say on your own confession) of murder [or stealing or piracy or forgery (or as the case may be, describing the offence by the name by which it is commonly known, or otherwise so as to sufficiently designate it): Have you anything to say why judgment (in a capital case say of death) should not be pronounced upon you according to law?

SECTION V. — FORM OF ENTRIES OF PLEAS, ETC.

No. 1. — Demurrer to Indictment.

And the said A.B. says that the said indictment [or information] is bad in substance on the ground that (state a ground of demurrer), and on other grounds sufficient in law to sustain this demurrer.

No. 2. — Plea of Guilty.

And the said A.B. says that he is guilty of the said offence.

No. 3. — Plea of Not Guilty.

And the said A.B. says that he is not guilty of the said alleged offence.

No. 4. — Plea of Autrefois Acquit.

And the said A.B. says that he has already, namely, on etc., at the Circuit Court at Coolgardie (or as the case may be), been lawfully acquitted of the said offence [or of (state the offence of which he has already been acquitted, so as to show that the acquittal is a bar to a prosecution on the present charge)].

No. 5. — Plea of Autrefois Convict.

And the said A.B. says that he has already, namely, on etc., at the Circuit Court at Coolgardie (or as the case may be) been convicted of the said offence [or of (etc. as in preceding Form)].

No. 6. — Plea of Pardon.

And the said A.B. says that on etc. our Lord the King [or the Governor of Western Australia, on behalf of our Lord the King] granted him a free pardon for the said offence.

No. 7. — Plea of Truth and Public Benefit on Charge of Defamation.

And the said A.B. [further] says that the said alleged defamatory matter is true in substance and in fact, and that it was for the public benefit that the publication thereof now complained of should be made

No. 8. — Challenge to Array.

The said A.B. challenges the array of the jury panel, and says (state cause of challenge): And wherefore he prays that the said panel may be quashed.

No. 9. — Challenge of Juror.

The said Attorney General [or J.J.K. or A.B.] challenges O.P., a juror called to try the said charge, and says that he is not fair and indifferent between Our Lord the King and the said A.B. [and C.D.] [or has no qualification (or is disqualified) to act as a juror] (or as the case may be).

No. 10. — Demurrer to Challenge.

And the said Attorney General [or J.J.K. or A.B.] says that the said challenge is bad in substance [wherefore he prays that the panel may be affirmed].

No. 11. — Plea to Challenge.

And the said Attorney General [or J.J.K. or A.B.] denies the truth of the matters alleged as cause of challenge [or says that (set out matters relied on in answer to the challenge).]
