Major Events Regulations 2023

Part 1 — Preliminary

1. Citation

These regulations are the Major Events Regulations 2023.

2. Commencement

These regulations come into operation as follows —

- (a) Part 1 — on the day on which these regulations are published in the Gazette;
- (b) the rest of the regulations — on the day after that day.

3. Terms used

In these regulations —

passenger transport service has the meaning given in the Transport (Road Passenger Services) Act 2018 section 4(1);

public passenger transport service has the meaning given in the Public Transport Authority Act 2003 section 3;

Public Transport Authority means the Public Transport Authority of Western Australia established by the Public Transport Authority Act 2003 section 5.

Part 2 — General matters

4. Exempt advertising on vehicles

- (1) For the purposes of section 64(3)(a) of the Act, an advertisement is exempt if —
  - (a) the vehicle is involved in the provision of a passenger transport service; and
  - (b) the advertisement does not imply that the advertiser or service or thing advertised is an affiliate of the major event.
- (2) Subregulation (1) does not apply to an advertisement on a banner or other sign that is towed by a vehicle.
- (3) For the purposes of section 64(3)(b) of the Act, a vehicle involved in the provision of a public passenger transport service by the Public Transport Authority, or by another person under a contract with the Public Transport Authority, is exempt.

5. Exempt advertising on vessels

For the purposes of section 65(3)(b) of the Act, a vessel involved in the provision of a public passenger transport service by the Public Transport Authority, or by another person under a contract with the Public Transport Authority, is exempt.

6. Insufficient value to justify notice to collect

For the purposes of section 82(6) of the Act —

- (a) the prescribed value is $500; and
- (b) the prescribed manner in which the value of a vehicle or vessel is to be calculated is that the value is to be based on the local private sale value of a vehicle or vessel of the same, or a similar, model or type, year and condition.

7. Infringement notices: prescribed offences and modified penalties

- (1) An offence under a section of the Act specified in Schedule 1 is an offence for which an infringement notice may be issued under the Criminal Procedure Act 2004 Part 2.
- (2) The amount specified opposite a section of the Act specified in Schedule 1 is the modified penalty for an offence under that section for the purposes of the Criminal Procedure Act 2004 section 5(3).
- (3) A description of an offence next to a section of the Act specified in Schedule 1 is for information purposes only and does not limit the reference to the section concerned.

8. Infringement notices: authorised officers and approved officers

- (1) The chief executive officer of the department may, in writing, appoint persons or classes of persons to be authorised officers or approved officers for the purposes of the Criminal Procedure Act 2004 Part 2 in relation to infringement notices issued under that Part for an offence under a section of the Act specified in Schedule 1.
- (2) The chief executive officer of the department must issue to each person appointed as an authorised officer under subregulation (1) a certificate, badge or identity card identifying the officer as a person authorised to issue infringement notices.
- (3) A person appointed as an authorised officer under subregulation (1) may show that they are authorised to issue infringement notices for an offence under a section of the Act specified in Schedule 1 by showing the certificate, badge or identity card issued to them under subregulation (2).

9.        Infringement notices: forms

For the purposes of the Criminal Procedure Act 2004 Part 2 —

- (a)    Schedule 2 Form 1 is the prescribed form for an infringement notice; and
- (b)    Schedule 2 Form 2 is the prescribed form for the withdrawal of an infringement notice.
