Cross-border Justice Regulations 2009

Part 1 — Preliminary matters

1. Citation

These regulations are the Cross-border Justice Regulations 2009<sup>1</sup>.

2. Commencement

These regulations come into operation as follows —

- (a) Part 3 Divisions 4 and 22 — on the day on which the Cross-border Justice Act 2008 sections 67(b), 68(2)(b) and (e), 108, 110, 117, 119 and 137 and Part 15 Division 1 come into operation;
- (b) the rest of the regulations — on the day on which the Cross-border Justice Act 2008 section 146 comes into operation<sup>1</sup>.

Part 2 — Cross-border regions

3. WA/SA/NT region

- (1) The WA/SA/NT region is a cross-border region that —
  - (a) straddles the State's borders with South Australia and the Northern Territory; and
  - (b) is bounded by a line described in Schedule 1 Part A.
- (2) The map in Schedule 1 Part B is indicative of the areas in the WA/SA/NT region in respect of which police officers of participating jurisdictions may be stationed or carry out duties.

Part 3 — Modifications of other laws of State

Division 1 — Interpretation of modifications

4. Terms used in modifications

If a term is given a meaning in section 7 of the Act, it has the same meaning in a modification prescribed by these regulations unless the contrary intention appears in the modification.

Notes for this Division:

1. Under section 14 of the Act, in order to give effect to the Act, a law of the State must be applied with the modifications prescribed by these regulations as if the law had been altered in that way.
2. If a modification is to replace or insert a numbered provision, the new provision is identified by the superscript 1M appearing after the provision number. If a modification is to replace or insert a definition, the new definition is identified by the superscript 1M appearing after the defined term.

Division 2 — Aboriginal Affairs Planning Authority Act 1972 modifications

5. Act modified

This Division prescribes modifications to the Aboriginal Affairs Planning Authority Act 1972.

79AA.<sup>1M</sup> Enforcement of unregistered interstate orders

- (1) In this section —
unregistered interstate order<sup>1M</sup> means an interstate order that is not registered under this Part.
- (2) This section applies if a police officer reasonably believes —
  - (a) that a person in the State is a person against whom an unregistered interstate order made by a court of another participating jurisdiction is in force in that other jurisdiction; and
  - (b) that the person against whom, or for whose benefit, that unregistered interstate order is made ordinarily resides in a cross-border region that is partly in that other jurisdiction.
- (3) The police officer must as soon as practicable after forming that belief —
  - (a) make a declaration in writing stating the belief and setting out the grounds for the belief; and
  - (b) give the declaration to the Commissioner of Police.
- (4) The declaration is in force for 72 hours after it is made.
- (5) While the declaration is in force, the police officer may exercise powers in relation to the person against whom the unregistered interstate order is made as if the order were a family violence restraining order or violence restraining order.

- (6) In relation to the exercise of powers under subsection (5), Part 6 Division 3 has effect for all purposes in respect of any breach of the unregistered interstate order as if the order were a family violence restraining order or violence restraining order.

135. Authorised officers

For the definition of authorised officer in section 7(1) of the Act, an office holder of a participating jurisdiction is an authorised officer for the purpose of carrying out a custodial order if the office holder is authorised under the law of the jurisdiction to carry out in that jurisdiction an order or other authority made or otherwise given under that law that is to the same or similar effect as the custodial order.

136. Custodial orders: recommendation about place of custody

A judicial officer or registrar who issues —

- (a) a warrant of commitment under section 99 of the Act; or
- (b) a remand warrant under section 101 of the Act,

may note on the warrant any recommendation about the place at which the person who is the subject of the warrant should be kept in custody under the warrant.

137. Reduction of fine when work or activity performed or period of custody served

For section 130(2)(c)(iii) of the Act, the amount by which a fine is reduced must be calculated as follows —

- (aa) if the fine is reduced because an offender has satisfactorily undertaken all or some of the activity stated in a work and development permit issued under the Fines Enforcement Act section 46D — in accordance with the Fines Enforcement Act section 46G and the Fines, Penalties and Infringement Notices Enforcement Regulations 1994 regulation 6AE;
- (a) if the fine is reduced because an offender has satisfactorily performed all or some of the required hours of a work and development order made under the Fines Enforcement Act section 48 — in accordance with the Fines Enforcement Act section 51 and the Fines, Penalties and Infringement Notices Enforcement Regulations 1994 regulation 6B;

- (b) if the fine is reduced because of the issue or operation of a fine expiation order issued under the Fines Enforcement Act section 52F — in accordance with the Fines Enforcement Act sections 52H and 52I and the Fines, Penalties and Infringement Notices Enforcement Regulations 1994 regulation 6BAAA.
