 - (b) because of a mental or physical disability of the child.
- (3) A child maintenance order in relation to a child stops being in force when the child turns 18 years of age unless the order is expressed to continue in force after then.

Subdivision 5 — Other aspects of court powers

126. General powers of court — FLA s. 66P

- (1) In proceedings for a child maintenance order, a court may do all or any of the following —
 - (a) order payment of a lump sum, whether in one amount or by instalments;
 - (b) order payment of a weekly, monthly, yearly or other periodic amount;

 - (d) order that payment of an amount ordered to be paid be wholly or partly secured as the court specifies;
 - (e) order that any necessary instrument be executed, and that such documents of title be produced and such other things be done, as are necessary to enable an order to be carried out effectively or to provide security for the due performance of an order;

- (f) order that payment be made to a specified person or public authority or into court;
 - (g) make a permanent order, an order pending the disposal of proceedings, an order for a fixed period, an order until a child attains a specified age or an order until further order;
 - (h) make an order imposing terms and conditions;
 - (i) make an order by consent;
 - (j) make any other order (whether or not of the same nature as those referred to in paragraphs (a) to (i)) that it considers appropriate;
 - (k) make an order under this Division at any time.
- (2) The making of an order of a kind referred to in subsection (1)(c), or of any other order under this Division, in relation to the maintenance of a child does not prevent a court from making a subsequent order in relation to the maintenance of the child.
- (3) The rules may make provision with respect to the making of orders under this Division (whether as to their form or otherwise) for the purpose of facilitating their enforcement and the collection of maintenance payable under them.

127. Urgent child maintenance orders — FLA s. 66Q

If, in proceedings for a child maintenance order in relation to a child —

- (a) a court considers that the child is in immediate need of financial assistance; but
- (b) it is not practicable in the circumstances to determine immediately what order (if any) should be made, the court may order the payment, pending the disposal of the proceedings, of such periodic or other amount as the court considers appropriate.

128. Modification of child maintenance orders — FLA s. 66S

- (1) This section applies if —
- (a) there is in force an order (the first order), for the maintenance of a child (whether or not made under this Act) —
 - (i) made by a court; or
 - (ii) made by a court other than a court exercising jurisdiction under this Act and registered in a court under this Act;
- and
- (b) a person (being someone who could apply for a child maintenance order in relation to the child) or persons (each of whom could do that) apply to a court for an order under this section in relation to the first order.
- (1a) With the consent of all the parties to the first order, a court may make an order —
- (a) discharging the first order; or
 - (b) suspending its operation wholly or in part and either until further order or until a fixed time or the happening of a future event; or
 - (c) if the operation of the order has been suspended under paragraph (b) or subsection (2)(b), reviving its operation wholly or in part; or
 - (d) varying the order —
 - (i) so as to increase or decrease any amount ordered to be paid by the order; or
 - (ii) in any other way.
- (1b) However, a court must not make an order under subsection (1a) that allows any entitlement of a child or another person to an income tested pension, allowance or benefit, to affect the duty of that child's parents to maintain the child.

- (2) In any other case, a court may, by order —
- (a) discharge the first order if there is just cause for so doing; or
 - (b) suspend the first order's operation wholly or in part and either until further order or until a fixed time or the happening of a future event; or
 - (c) if the operation of the first order has been suspended under paragraph (b) or subsection (1a)(b), revive the first order's operation wholly or in part; or
 - (d) subject to subsection (3), vary the first order —
 - (i) so as to increase or decrease any amount ordered to be paid by the first order; or
 - (ii) in any other way.
- (3) A court must not vary the first order so as to increase or decrease any amount ordered to be paid by the order unless it is satisfied —
- (a) that, since the first order was made or last varied —
 - (i) the circumstances of the child have changed so as to justify the variation; or
 - (ii) the circumstances of the person liable to make payments under the first order have changed so as to justify the variation; or
 - (iii) the circumstances of the person entitled to receive payments under the first order have changed so as to justify the variation; or
 - (iv) in the case of a first order that operates in favour of, or is binding on, a legal personal representative, the circumstances of the estate are such as to justify the variation;
- or
- (b) that, since the first order was made or last varied, the cost of living has changed to such an extent as to justify

- its so doing (this is expanded on in subsections (4) and (5)); or
- (c) if the first order was made by consent, that the amount ordered to be paid is not proper or adequate (this is expanded on in subsection (6)); or
 - (d) that material facts were withheld from the court that made the first order or from a court that varied the order, or material evidence previously given before such a court was false.
- (4) In satisfying itself for the purposes of subsection (3)(b), a court must have regard to any changes that have occurred in the Consumer Price Index published by the Australian Statistician.
 - (5) A court must not, in considering the variation of a first order, have regard to a change in the cost of living unless at least 12 months have elapsed since the first order was made or last varied having regard to a change in the cost of living.
 - (6) In satisfying itself for the purposes of subsection (3)(c), a court must have regard to any payments, and any transfer or settlement of property, previously made to the child, or to any other person for the benefit of the child, by the person against whom the first order was made.
 - (7) An order decreasing a periodic amount payable under the first order, or discharging the first order, may be expressed to be retrospective to such day as a court considers appropriate.
 - (8) If an order (the subsequent order) decreasing a periodic amount payable under the first order is expressed to be retrospective, amounts paid under the first order that are not payable under the first order as varied by the subsequent order may be recovered in a court.
 - (9) If an order discharging the first order is expressed to be retrospective to a specified day, amounts paid under the first order since the specified day may be recovered in a court.

- (10) For the purposes of this section, a court must have regard to the provisions of Subdivisions 2, 3 and 4 (to the extent applicable).
- (11) The discharge of the first order does not affect the recovery of arrears due under the order when the discharge takes effect.

[Section 128 amended: No. 25 of 2002 s. 59.]

Subdivision 5A — Varying the maintenance of certain children

[Heading inserted: No. 25 of 2002 s. 60.]

128A. Varying maintenance of certain children — FLA s. 66SA

- (1) This section applies to persons who —
 - (a) are parties to an agreement (the original agreement) dealing with the maintenance of a child; or
 - (b) are entitled to receive, or required to pay, maintenance in respect of a child under a court order,and cannot properly make an application under the Child Support (Assessment) Act for administrative assessment of child support (within the meaning of that Act) for the child seeking payment of child support by the other person.
- (2) The persons may, by registering a written agreement in a court, vary or revoke the original agreement or order to the extent that it deals with maintenance of the child.
- (3) However, the registered agreement is of no effect to the extent that it allows any entitlement of a child or another person to an income tested pension, allowance or benefit to affect the duty of that child's parents to maintain the child.
- (4) If the original agreement or order is varied under subsection (2), it —
 - (a) continues to operate despite the death of a party to the agreement or of a person entitled to receive, or required to pay, maintenance under the order; and

- (b) operates in favour of, and is binding on, the legal representative of that party or person, unless the agreement or order provides otherwise.
- (5) However, despite anything in the agreement or order, it does not continue to operate, to the extent that it requires the periodic payment of maintenance, after the death of the person entitled to receive those payments.
- (6) This section applies despite anything in Division 4.
[Section 128A inserted: No. 25 of 2002 s. 60.]

- (2) If arrears are due under such an order when the order ceases to be in force, the court may, by order, retrospectively —
- (a) discharge the order if there is just cause for doing so; or

- (ii) is expressed to be an order to which this section applies, but does not comply with subsection (1)(d), any payment, transfer or settlement of a kind referred to in subsection (1)(a), that the order has the effect of requiring, is to be taken not to make provision for the maintenance of a de facto partner to the relevant de facto relationship.

[Section 205ZF inserted: No. 25 of 2002 s. 47.]

205ZG. Alteration of property interests — FLA s. 79

- (1) In property settlement proceedings, the court may make such order as it considers appropriate —
- (a) in the case of proceedings with respect to the property of the de facto partners, or either of them — altering the interests of the partners in the property; or
 - (b) in the case of proceedings with respect to the vested bankruptcy property in relation to a bankrupt de facto partner — altering the interests of the bankruptcy trustee in the vested bankruptcy property.
- (1A) An order made under subsection (1) may include —
- (a) an order for a settlement of property in substitution for any interest in the property; and
 - (b) an order requiring either or both of the de facto partners, or the relevant bankruptcy trustee (if any), to make, for the benefit of either or both of the de facto partners or a child of the de facto relationship, such settlement or transfer of property as the court determines.
- (2) An order made under subsection (1) in property settlement proceedings may, after the death of 1 of the de facto partners, be enforced on behalf of, or against, as the case may be, the estate of the deceased party.

- (3) The court must not make an order under this section unless it is satisfied that, in all the circumstances, it is just and equitable to make the order.
- (4) In considering what order (if any) should be made under this section in property settlement proceedings the court must take into account —
- (a) the financial contribution made directly or indirectly by or on behalf of a de facto partner or a child of the de facto relationship to the acquisition, conservation or improvement of any of the property of the de facto partners, or either of them, or otherwise in relation to any of that last-mentioned property, whether or not that last-mentioned property has, since the making of the contribution, ceased to be the property of the de facto partners or either of them; and
 - (b) the contribution (other than a financial contribution) made directly or indirectly by or on behalf of a de facto partner or a child of the de facto relationship to the acquisition, conservation or improvement of any of the property of the de facto partners or either of them, or otherwise in relation to any of that last-mentioned property, whether or not that last-mentioned property has, since the making of the contribution, ceased to be the property of the de facto partners or either of them; and
 - (c) the contribution made by a de facto partner to the welfare of the family constituted by the de facto partners and any children of the de facto partners, including any contribution made in the capacity of homemaker or parent; and
 - (d) the effect of any proposed order upon the earning capacity of either de facto partner; and
 - (e) the matters referred to in section 205ZD(3) so far as they are relevant; and

Family Court Act 1997

Part 5A De facto relationships

Division 2 Property adjustment orders and maintenance orders

s. 205ZG

- (f) any other order made under this Act affecting a de facto partner or a child of the de facto relationship; and
 - (g) any child support under the Child Support (Assessment) Act that a de facto partner has provided, is to provide, or might be liable to provide in the future, for a child of the de facto relationship.
- (5) Subsection (5A) applies if, in property settlement proceedings, a court is of the opinion —
- (a) that there is likely to be a significant change in the financial circumstances of the de facto partners, or either of them and that, having regard to the time when that change is likely to take place, it is reasonable to adjourn the proceedings; and
 - (b) that, if that significant change in financial circumstances occurs, an order that the court could make with respect to the following matters is more likely to do justice as between the de facto partners than an order that the court could make immediately with respect to those following matters —
 - (i) the property of the de facto partners, or either of them;
 - (ii) the vested bankruptcy property in relation to a bankrupt de facto partner.
- (5A) Without limiting the power of any court to grant an adjournment in proceedings under this Act, the court may, if so requested by either de facto partner or the relevant bankruptcy trustee (if any), adjourn the proceedings until such time, before the expiration of a period specified by the court, as that de facto partner or the relevant bankruptcy trustee, as the case may be, applies for the proceedings to be determined, but nothing in this subsection requires the court to adjourn any proceedings in any particular circumstances.

- (6) Where a court proposes to adjourn proceedings as provided by subsection (5A), the court may, before so adjourning the proceedings, make such interim order or orders or such other order or orders (if any) as it considers appropriate with respect to —
- (a) any of the property of the de facto partners, or of either of them; or
 - (b) any of the vested bankruptcy property in relation to a bankrupt de facto partner.
- (7) The court may, in forming an opinion for the purposes of subsection (5) as to whether there is likely to be a significant change in the financial circumstances of either or both of the de facto partners, have regard to any change in the financial circumstances of a de facto partner that may occur by reason that the partner —
- (a) is a contributor to a superannuation fund or scheme, or participates in any scheme or arrangement that is in the nature of a superannuation scheme; or
 - (b) may become entitled to property as the result of the exercise in his or her favour, by the trustee of a discretionary trust, of a power to distribute trust property,
- but nothing in this subsection is to be taken to limit the circumstances in which the court may form the opinion that there is likely to be a significant change in the financial circumstances of a de facto partner.
- (8) Where, before property settlement proceedings are completed, either de facto partner dies —
- (a) the proceedings may be continued by or against, as the case may be, the legal personal representative of the deceased party and the applicable rules may make provision in relation to the substitution of the legal

- personal representative as a party to the proceedings;
and
- (b) if the court is of the opinion that it would have made an order with respect to property if the deceased party had not died, and that it is still appropriate to make an order with respect to property, the court may make such order as it considers appropriate with respect to —
- (i) any of the property of the de facto partners, or either of them; or
- (ii) any of the vested bankruptcy property in relation to a bankrupt de facto partner;
- and
- (c) an order made by the court pursuant to paragraph (b) may be enforced on behalf of, or against, as the case may be, the estate of the deceased party.
- (9) A court must not make an order under this section in property settlement proceedings (other than an order until further order or an order made with the consent of all the parties to the proceedings) unless —
- (a) the parties to the proceedings have attended a conference in relation to the matter to which the proceedings relate with the Principal Registrar, a registrar or a deputy registrar; or
- (b) the court is satisfied that, having regard to the need to make an order urgently, or to any other special circumstance, it is appropriate to make the order notwithstanding that the parties to the proceedings have not attended a conference as mentioned in paragraph (a); or
- (c) the court is satisfied that it is not practicable to require the parties to the proceedings to attend a conference as mentioned in paragraph (a).

- (10) The following are entitled to become a party to proceedings in which an application is made for an order under this section —
- (a) a creditor of a party to the proceedings if the creditor may not be able to recover the creditor's debt if the order were made;
 - (b) any other person whose interests would be affected by the making of the order.
- (11) Subsection (10) does not apply to a creditor of a party to the proceedings —
- (a) if the party is a bankrupt, to the extent to which the debt is a provable debt (within the meaning of the Bankruptcy Act); or
 - (b) if the party is a debtor subject to a personal insolvency agreement, to the extent to which the debt is covered by the personal insolvency agreement.
- (12) Subsection (13) applies if —
- (a) an application is made for an order under this section in proceedings between de facto partners with respect to the property of the de facto partners, or either of them; and
 - (b) either of the following subparagraphs apply to a de facto partner —
 - (i) when the application was made, the de facto partner was a bankrupt;
 - (ii) after the application was made but before it is finally determined, the de facto partner became a bankrupt;and
 - (c) the bankruptcy trustee applies to the court to be joined as a party to the proceedings; and

- (d) the court is satisfied that the interests of the bankrupt's creditors may be affected by the making of an order under this section in the proceedings.
- (13) The court must join the bankruptcy trustee as a party to the proceedings.
- (14) If a bankruptcy trustee is a party to property settlement proceedings, then, except with the leave of the court, the bankrupt de facto partner is not entitled to make a submission to the court in connection with any vested bankruptcy property in relation to the bankrupt partner.
- (15) The court must not grant leave under subsection (14) unless the court is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances.
- (16) Subsection (17) applies if —
 - (a) an application is made for an order under this section in proceedings between de facto partners with respect to the property of the de facto partners, or either of them; and
 - (b) either of the following subparagraphs apply to a de facto partner (the debtor party) —
 - (i) when the application was made, the de facto partner was a debtor subject to a personal insolvency agreement;
 - (ii) after the application was made but before it is finally determined, the de facto partner becomes a debtor subject to a personal insolvency agreement;and
 - (c) the trustee of the agreement applies to the court to be joined as a party to the proceedings; and
 - (d) the court is satisfied that the interests of the debtor party's creditors may be affected by the making of an order under this section in the proceedings.

- (17) The court must join the trustee of the agreement as a party to the proceedings.
- (18) If the trustee of a personal insolvency agreement is a party to property settlement proceedings, then, except with the leave of the court, the de facto partner who is the debtor subject to the personal insolvency agreement is not entitled to make a submission to the court in connection with any property subject to the agreement.
- (19) The court must not grant leave under subsection (18) unless the court is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances.
- (20) For the purposes of subsections (12) and (16), an application for an order under this section is taken to be finally determined when —
- (a) the application is withdrawn or dismissed; or
 - (b) an order (other than an interim order) is made as a result of the application.
