benefit means a benefit paid or payable under a scheme, whether paid or payable as a lump sum, pension, allowance or annuity or in any other form;

Board means the Government Employees Superannuation Board under section 5;

Corporations Act means the Corporations Act 2001 (Commonwealth);

Employer means —

- (a) the Crown; or
- (b) the Government of Western Australia; or
- (c) a Minister of the Crown; or
- (d) an authority, body or person prescribed for the purposes of this definition;

Fund means the Government Employees Superannuation Fund under section 14;

GES Act means the Government Employees Superannuation Act 1987 as in force immediately before this Act came into operation;

Member means a member of a scheme;

non-government contributor has the meaning given in section 37(1);

scheme, except in section 30, means a superannuation scheme established or continued under this Act;

SGA Act means the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 (Commonwealth);

subsidiary means a body determined under subsection (3) to be a subsidiary of the Board;

Treasurer's guidelines means guidelines issued by the Treasurer under section 33(2).

- (2) For the purposes of this Act, a person who —
- (a) holds an office or position established or continued under a written law; or
 - (b) is appointed to an office or position by the Governor, a Minister, an Employer or a person who works for an Employer, is taken to work for an Employer.

- (3) Part 1.2 Division 6 of the Corporations Act applies for the purpose of determining whether a body is a subsidiary of the Board.

[Section 3 amended: No. 18 of 2006 s. 6; No. 25 of 2007 s. 5 and 19(2); No. 35 of 2011 s. 6 and 31; No. 50 of 2024 s. 4.]

4. Act binds Crown

This Act binds the Crown.

Part 2A — Employer contribution obligation

[Heading inserted: No. 35 of 2011 s. 50.]

4B. Employer contributions, duty to make etc.

- (1) An Employer must make superannuation contributions such that the Employer will avoid incurring an individual superannuation guarantee shortfall for any of its employees.
- (2) Where subsection (1) requires an Employer to make contributions for an employee, the Employer must pay the contributions to —
 - (a) a chosen fund for the employee; or
 - (b) if at the time the contribution is paid there is no chosen fund for the employee, the default fund.
- (3) Except as prescribed in the regulations, an Employer must comply with the requirements of the SGA Act Part 3A Division 6, even if it is not required by that Act to do so.
- (4) If an Employer becomes liable to pay the superannuation guarantee charge as a result of incurring an individual superannuation guarantee shortfall for an employee for a period, the Employer has no obligation under subsection (1) to make contributions in respect of that employee for that period.
- (5) This section does not apply in relation to an employee who is in a class of employees prescribed by the regulations.

[Section 4B inserted: No. 35 of 2011 s. 50.]

4C. Regulations may require extra contributions

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the regulations may require an Employer to make superannuation contributions which exceed any contributions the Employer is required to make under section 4B or any other written law.
- (2) Regulations which require an Employer to make contributions to a fund must either —
 - (a) specify the amount or rate of contributions to be made; or

s. 4C

- (b) specify the way in which the amount or rate of contributions is to be determined, in which case the regulations must provide that the determination of the rate or amount of contributions is to be subject to the approval of the Treasurer.

[Section 4C inserted: No. 35 of 2011 s. 50.]

[Heading deleted: No. 35 of 2011 s. 7.]

s. 33A

33A. Board to observe certain policy instruments

The Board is to perform its functions in accordance with its strategic development plan and its statement of corporate intent as existing from time to time.

[Section 33A inserted: No. 28 of 2006 s. 434.]

33B. Strategic development plan and statement of corporate intent

- (1) The Board must, at the prescribed times, prepare and submit to the Treasurer —
 - (a) a strategic development plan for the Board; and
 - (b) a statement of corporate intent for the Board.
- (2) The regulations may make provision for the following —
 - (a) the manner and form in which the Board is to prepare, submit, revise or modify a strategic development plan or statement of corporate intent;
 - (b) the period a strategic development plan or statement of corporate intent is to cover;
 - (c) the matters to be set out in a strategic development plan or statement of corporate intent;
 - (d) the functions of the Board and the Treasurer in relation to the development, approval or modification of a strategic development plan or statement of corporate intent;
 - (e) the operation of a strategic development plan or statement of corporate intent.
- (3) If a regulation referred to in subsection (2) enables the Treasurer to give directions to the Board, the Treasurer must cause a copy of a direction given under the regulation to be laid before each House of Parliament or be dealt with in accordance with section 36A —
 - (a) within 14 days after the direction is given; or

- (b) if the direction is the subject of a notice under section 17 of the Statutory Corporations (Liability of Directors) Act 1996, within 14 days after it is confirmed under that section.

[(4) deleted]

- (5) The text of a direction referred to in subsection (3) is to be included in the annual report submitted by the accountable authority of the Board under the Financial Management Act 2006 Part 5.

[Section 33B inserted: No. 28 of 2006 s. 434; amended: No. 25 of 2007 s. 11; No. 35 of 2011 s. 22, 31 and 35.]

[33C. Deleted: No. 25 of 2007 s. 12.]

34. Directions to Employers as to practice and procedure

- (1) The Board or the Treasurer may give written directions to Employers about the practices and procedures to be observed by Employers for the efficient operation of this Act and may amend those directions.
- (2) An Employer must comply with directions given under subsection (1).
- (3) The Board may recover from an Employer any costs or expenses incurred by the Board as a result of the Employer's failure to comply with a direction given under subsection (1).
- (4) Directions given under subsection (1) may —
- (a) apply at all times, at a particular time, or for a particular period; or
 - (b) apply to all Employers, to a particular Employer, or to Employers in a particular class; or
 - (c) direct something to be done in a particular manner; or

s. 35

- (e) confer a discretion on a person or body, or a class of persons or bodies.

[Section 34 amended: No. 25 of 2007 s. 6(5) and 19(2); No. 35 of 2011 s. 23 and 31.]

35. Treasurer may give Board directions

- (1) Subject to the Statutory Corporations (Liability of Directors) Act 1996 the Treasurer may give written directions to the Board with respect to its functions and powers, either generally or with respect to a particular matter.
- (2) The Board is to give effect to directions given by the Treasurer.
- (3) Subject to subsections (5) and (6), a direction becomes effective on the expiry of 7 days after the Board receives it or of such longer period as the Treasurer may, at the Board's request, determine.
- (4) If the Board asks the Treasurer to extend the 7 day period under subsection (3), the Treasurer must decide whether or not to agree to the request and notify the Board of that decision before the 7 day period has expired.
- (5) If a direction is the subject of a notice under the Statutory Corporations (Liability of Directors) Act 1996 section 17, it does not become effective before it is confirmed under that section or the expiry of any extension of time notified under subsection (2).
- (6) Despite the Statutory Corporations (Liability of Directors) Act 1996 section 17(4), the Treasurer may, when confirming a direction under that section, extend the time for the direction to become effective and is to notify the Board of the extension.

- (7) The Treasurer must cause a copy of a direction to be laid before each House of Parliament or dealt with under section 36A —
- (a) within 14 days after the direction is given; or
 - (b) if the direction is the subject of a notice under the Statutory Corporations (Liability of Directors) Act 1996 section 17, within 14 days after it is confirmed under that section.

- (8) The text of a direction is to be included in the annual report submitted by the accountable authority of the Board under the Financial Management Act 2006 Part 5.

[Section 35 amended: No. 77 of 2006 Sch. 1 cl. 160(2); No. 25 of 2007 s. 13; No. 35 of 2011 s. 24 and 31.]

36A. Laying documents before Parliament, procedure for if House not sitting etc.

- (1) If a provision of this Act requires a person to cause a document to be laid before each House of Parliament or dealt with under this section within a period and —
- (a) at the commencement of the period, a House of Parliament is not sitting; and
 - (b) the person is of the opinion that the House will not sit during that period, the person must transmit a copy of the document to the Clerk of that House.

- (2) A copy of a direction transmitted to the Clerk of a House is to be taken to have been laid before that House.
- (3) The laying of a copy of a direction that is regarded as having occurred under subsection (2) is to be recorded in the Minutes, or Votes and Proceedings, of the House on the first sitting day of the House after the Clerk received the copy.

[Section 36A inserted: No. 35 of 2011 s. 25.]

36. Treasurer to have access to information

- (1) For parliamentary purposes or for the proper conduct of the Treasurer's public business, the Treasurer is entitled —
- (a) to have information in the possession, or under the control, of the Board or a subsidiary; and
 - (b) where the information is in or on a document, to have, and make and retain copies of, that document.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) the Treasurer may, in writing, request the Board to —
- (a) give the Treasurer information or access to information; and
 - (b) make its staff and facilities available to enable the Treasurer to access information,
- and the Board is to comply with that request.
- (3) This section does not entitle the Treasurer to information in the possession of the Board or a subsidiary in a form that —
- (a) discloses confidential information about a beneficiary; or
 - (b) might enable confidential information about a beneficiary to be ascertained,
- unless disclosure of the information is —
- (c) authorised by the beneficiary; or
 - (d) authorised or required by a written law.
- (4) In this section —
- beneficiary means —
- (a) a Member; or
 - (b) a former Member; or

- (c) any other person to whom —
 - (i) a benefit has been or is being paid, or is or may become payable; or
 - (ii) a product or service has been provided by the Board;

document includes any tape, disc or other device or medium on which data is recorded or stored mechanically, photographically, electronically or otherwise;

information means information specified, or of a description specified, by the Treasurer that relates to the functions or powers of the Board;

parliamentary purposes means the purpose of —

- (a) answering a question asked in a House of Parliament; or
- (b) complying with a written law, or an order or resolution of a House of Parliament, that requires information to be furnished to a House of Parliament.

[Section 36 amended: No. 18 of 2006 s. 13; No. 25 of 2007 s. 19(2); No. 35 of 2011 s. 31 and 36.]

37. Superannuation contributions made by non-government contributors

- (1) In this section —
 - employee has the meaning given in the SGA Act section 12;
 - non-government contributor means a person, other than an Employer, who makes a superannuation contribution for the benefit of an employee of the person.
- (2) The Board may, with the written approval of the Treasurer —
 - (a) provide a service of receiving superannuation contributions that are made by non-government contributors; and
 - (b) credit the superannuation contributions to the Fund.

- (3) The Treasurer's approval may be of a general nature or limited to a particular non-government contributor or class of non-government contributors.
- (4) The Board may accept a superannuation contribution made by a non-government contributor only if the contribution is made for the benefit of an employee of the non-government contributor who is a member of a scheme.
- (5) The Board must not credit a superannuation contribution made by a non-government contributor to an account that is kept for a scheme continued by section 29.

[Section 37 inserted: No. 50 of 2024 s. 17.]

38. Regulations

- (1) Subject to subsections (3) to (8), the Governor may make regulations prescribing all matters that are required or permitted by this Act or the State Superannuation (Transitional and Consequential Provisions) Act 2000 section 26 to be prescribed, or are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for giving effect to the purposes of this Act.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), regulations may be made under subsection (1) in relation to —
 - (a) establishing schemes; and
 - (b) membership and Employer participation in the schemes; and
 - (c) contributions and transfers of money to the Fund and other funding of the Fund; and
 - (ca) contributions by non-government contributors; and
 - (d) benefits and how they are paid or dealt with; and
 - (e) insurance to be provided through the schemes; and
 - (f) management of the Fund; and
 - (g) administration of the schemes; and

- (h) accounts and records to be kept by the Board; and
 - (i) information and documents to be given to and by the Board; and
 - (j) provision by the Board of, or facilitation by the Board of the provision of, products and services; and
 - (k) appointment and election of directors; and
 - (l) reviews, other than by the State Administrative Tribunal, of decisions of the Board.
- (3) Regulations cannot be made under subsection (1) if they reduce the amount of a benefit that —
- (a) accrued or became payable before the regulations came into operation; or
 - (b) is, or may become, payable in relation to a period before the regulations came into operation.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply if —
- (a) the Treasurer has certified that the Treasurer is satisfied that the change to be made by the regulations is a change that, if each scheme affected by the regulations were a regulated superannuation fund, would be required or permitted under Commonwealth legislation; or
 - (b) the reduction would apply only in respect of Members who agree with the Board that the reduction is to apply in relation to them.
- (5A) Regulations cannot be made under subsection (1) in relation to the superannuation schemes continued by section 29(1)(a), (b) or (c) unless —
- (a) the Treasurer has certified that the Treasurer is satisfied that the change to be made by the regulations is a change that, if each scheme affected by the regulations were a regulated superannuation fund, would be required or permitted under Commonwealth legislation; or

- (b) an actuary appointed by the Board has certified that the proposed regulations will not reduce, or have the same effect as reducing —
 - (i) in the case of a scheme continued by section 29(1)(a) or (b), the multiplying factor for any relevant benefit; or
 - (ii) in the case of the scheme continued by section 29(1)(c), the pension value factor for any Member of that scheme,to less than it was immediately before 17 February 2001; or
- (c) any reduction of the kind referred to in paragraph (b) will apply only in respect of Members who have agreed with the Board that the reduction is to apply in the calculation of their benefit.

(5B) In subsection (5A) and in this subsection — multiplying factor, in relation to a relevant benefit, means the components of the benefit formula by which the Member's salary is to be multiplied in order to calculate the benefit;

pension value factor means —

- (a) the number of units that a Member may, or may become entitled to, acquire per dollar of the Member's salary; or
- (b) the amount of the pension that will or may become payable in respect of each unit held by a Member;

relevant benefit means a benefit, or part of a benefit, the amount of which was, immediately before 17 February 2001, calculated as a multiple of a Member's salary.

[(5C)-(5F) deleted]

- (5) Regulations cannot be made under subsection (1), unless they have been approved by the Treasurer, if they —
- (a) will or may affect the financial rights or obligations of the Crown under this Act and the value of that effect will or may exceed the prescribed amount; or
 - (b) relate to a matter referred to in subsection (2)(j).

[(6A) deleted]

- (6) Regulations that prescribe an authority, body or person for the purposes of the definition of Employer in section 3 may specify as the day on which they come into operation a day that is earlier than the day on which they are published in accordance with the Interpretation Act 1984 section 41(1)(a).
- (7) Regulations of the kind referred to in subsection (6) cannot be made if they will or may affect a person, except the Crown or an Employer, by —
- (a) prejudicing rights that existed before the regulation was published; or
 - (b) imposing liabilities in respect of anything that occurred before the regulation was published.
- (8) Regulations prescribing an amount for the purposes of subsection (5)(a) may prescribe an amount or a method of determining an amount.

41. Default fund for employee

- (1) If, immediately before the day on which the State Superannuation Amendment Act 2024 section 15(1) comes into operation, superannuation contributions were being made by an Employer in relation to an employee to a superannuation fund or scheme in accordance with the approval of the Treasurer under section 30(2) —
 - (a) the employee continues to be an exempt employee, for the purposes of Part 2A, in relation to that Employer; and
 - (b) the fund or scheme to which the contributions were being made continues to be the default fund in relation to that exempt employee for the purposes of Part 2A.
- (2) Subsection (1) ceases to apply if the Treasurer revokes approval of the fund as the default fund for the employee.

[Section 41 inserted: No. 50 of 2024 s. 19.]

42. Maximum period of service for directors

- (1) A term of office of a chairperson of the Board or an Employer director that commenced before the day on which the State Superannuation Amendment Act 2024 section 21(2) comes into operation does not count towards the maximum period of service of the chairperson or Employer director.
- (2) A term of office of an elected director that commenced before the day on which the State Superannuation Amendment Act 2024 section 22 comes into operation does not count towards the maximum period of service of the elected director.

[Section 42 inserted: No. 50 of 2024 s. 19.]

43. Changes to regulation-making power

The amendment of section 38 by the State Superannuation Amendment Act 2024 section 18 does not affect the validity of any regulation in effect immediately before section 18 comes into operation.

- (3) If a casual vacancy occurs in the office of a Member director, the Treasurer may appoint a person to fill the vacancy until a new director is elected.

cl. 6A

- (4) Before appointing a person under subclause (3) the Treasurer is to consult with unions or associations of unions that appear to the Treasurer to be broadly representative of persons who work for Employers.
- (5) The term of office for which a Member director is appointed under subclause (3) to fill a casual vacancy does not count towards the maximum period for which the person is eligible to serve as a Member director.

[Clause 6 amended: No. 10 of 2001 s. 220; No. 25 of 2007 s. 6(6), 17 and 19(2); No. 35 of 2011 s. 29 and 31; No. 50 of 2024 s. 23.]

6A. Acting directors

- (1) The Treasurer may appoint a person to act in the office of an Employer director or Member director during any period, in the director's term of office, in which the director is absent because of illness or on leave granted by the Board.
- (2) Before appointing a person to act in the office of a Member director, the Treasurer must consult with unions or associations of unions that appear to the Treasurer to be broadly representative of persons who work for Employers.
- (3) A person who is appointed to act in the office of an Employer director or Member director has all the functions of the director and is taken to be a director.
- (4) An act or omission of a person appointed to act in the office of a director cannot be questioned on the grounds that the occasion for the appointment had not arisen or had ceased.
- (5) A period in which a person acts in the office of an Employer director or Member director does not count towards the maximum period for which the person is eligible to serve as an Employer director or Member director.

[Clause 6A inserted: No. 50 of 2024 s. 24.]

7. Remuneration and allowances

A director is entitled to the remuneration and allowances(if any) determined by the Treasurer on the recommendation of the Public Sector Commissioner.

*[Clause 7 amended: No. 39 of 2010 s. 89; No. 35 of 2011 s. 38;
No. 50 of 2024 s. 25.]*

Schedule 2 — Meetings and procedures

[s. 10(1)]

1. Board to determine own procedure

The Board may determine its own procedure for calling and conducting Board meetings except to the extent that it is prescribed under this Act.

[Clause 1 amended: No. No. 25 of 2007 s. 6(7); No. 35 of 2011 s. 30.]

2. Quorum

The quorum at a Board meeting is 5 directors.

3. Presiding director

A Board meeting is to be presided over by —

- (a) the chairperson; or
- (b) in the absence of the chairperson, the deputy chairperson (if one has been appointed); or
- (c) in the absence of the chairperson and deputy chairperson, a director chosen by the directors present at the meeting.

[Clause 3 amended: No. 25 of 2007 s. 19(2); No. 50 of 2024 s. 27.]

4. Voting

At a Board meeting —

- (a) each director has one vote; and
- (b) the person presiding does not have a casting vote; and
- (c) a resolution is passed if 5 or more directors vote in favour of it.

[Clause 4 amended: No. 25 of 2007 s. 19(1).]

5. Minutes

The Board is to cause accurate minutes to be kept and preserved of the proceedings at each Board meeting and of each resolution passed by the Board.

6. Resolution without meeting

A written resolution signed by each director who would have been entitled to vote on the resolution at a meeting is as effectual as if it had been passed at a Board meeting.

7. Telephone or video attendance at meetings

A director may attend a Board meeting by telephone, audio-visual link-up or any other form of instantaneous communication if all directors attending the meeting are simultaneously in contact with each other.

8. Committees

- (1) The Board may appoint committees to assist it in the performance of its functions, and may discharge or alter any committee so appointed.
- (2) The Board may appoint a person to a committee whether or not the person is a director.
- (3) The Board may act on the advice of a committee.
- (4) Subject to any directions given by the Board, a committee may determine its own procedure.

9. Material interest

- (1) For the purposes of this Schedule a person has a material interest in a matter if the person —
 - (a) subject to subclauses (2) and (3) has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in the matter; or
 - (b) has given advice for remuneration in relation to the matter to the Board; or
 - (c) subject to subclauses (2) and (3) has a non-pecuniary interest in the matter.
- (2) An interest in a matter is not a material interest if it arises by reason only that the person is —
 - (a) a Member; or
 - (b) a person who works for an Employer or a non-government contributor; or

cl. 10

- (c) an Employer or a non-government contributor or a member of the board or other body responsible for the control or direction of an Employer or a non-government contributor; or
 - (d) an employee of a union or association of unions; or
 - (e) a member of a corporation listed on a prescribed financial market (within the meaning given by section 9 of the Corporations Act) in Australia, unless that interest is material in relation to that corporation.
- (3) The interest of a person in an existing or proposed contract of insurance is not a material interest if it arises by reason only that the contract insures, or is proposed to insure, the person against a liability incurred by the person in his or her capacity as a director or committee member.

- (4) Subclause (3) does not apply if the Board is the insurer.

[Clause 9 amended: No. 21 of 2003 s. 34; No. 25 of 2007 s. 18 and 19(2); No. 50 of 2024 s. 26.]

10. Material interests to be disclosed etc.

- (1) A director or committee member who has a material interest in a matter involving the Board or the Fund must, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to the person's knowledge, disclose the nature of the interest at a meeting of the Board or committee.
- (2) A disclosure under subclause (1) is to be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
- (3) A disclosure under subclause (1) by a person that he or she —
- (a) is a member or employee of a particular company or body; or
 - (b) is a partner or employee of a particular person; or
 - (c) has some other specified interest relating to a particular company, body or person, is a sufficient disclosure of the person's interest in relation to any matter or thing involving that company, body or person which arises after the disclosure is made.

- (4) A contravention of this clause by a person does not invalidate a decision of the Board or committee.

[Clause 10 amended: No. 25 of 2007 s. 19(2).]

11. Director etc. with material interest not to vote etc.

- (1) A director or committee member who has a material interest in a matter being considered by the Board or committee —
- (a) must not be present while the matter is being considered at a meeting of the Board or committee; and
 - (b) must not vote on the matter, whether at a meeting or otherwise.
- (2) If as a result of one or more directors being disqualified under subclause (1) the Board is unable to form a quorum in relation to a matter, the Treasurer may deal with the matter.

[Clause 11 amended: No. 35 of 2011 s. 31.]

12. Clause 11 may be disapplied

- (1) Clause 11 does not apply if the Board has at any time passed a resolution that —
- (a) specifies the director or committee member, the interest and the matter; and
 - (b) states that the directors voting for the resolution are satisfied that the interest should not disqualify the director or committee member from considering or voting on the matter.
- (2) A director who has a material interest in a matter —
- (a) must not be present at a meeting of the Board while a proposed resolution under subclause (1) in relation to that matter is being considered; and
 - (b) must not vote, whether at a meeting or otherwise, on a proposed resolution under subclause (1) in relation to the matter, whether in relation to that or a different director.
- (3) The Treasurer may by notice to the Board declare that clause 11 does not apply in relation to a specified matter either generally or in voting on particular resolutions.

cl. 12

- (4) The text of any declaration received by the Board is to be included in the annual report submitted by the accountable authority of the Board under Part 5 of the Financial Management Act 2006.

[Clause 12 amended: No. 77 of 2006 Sch. 1 cl. 160(3); No. 35 of 2011 s. 31.]

Other notes

- ¹ The Superannuation and Family Benefits Act 1938 was repealed by s. 39 of this Act. Certain provisions of that Act continue to apply to and in relation to certain schemes because of the State Superannuation (Transitional and Consequential Provisions) Act 2000 s. 26.
- ² The Corporations (Consequential Amendments) Act (No. 3) 2003 s. 2-4 read as follows:

2. Commencement

- (1) If this Act receives the Royal Assent before the day on which Schedule 1 to the Financial Services Reform Act comes into operation, this Act comes into operation at the same time as that Schedule comes into operation.
- (2) If this Act receives the Royal Assent on or after the day on which Schedule 1 to the Financial Services Reform Act comes into operation, this Act is deemed to have come into operation at the same time as that Schedule comes into operation.

3. Interpretation

In this Part —

Financial Services Reform Act means the Financial Services Reform Act 2001 of the Commonwealth;

FSR commencement time means the time when Schedule 1 to the Financial Services Reform Act comes into operation; statutory rule means a regulation, rule or by-law.

4. Validation

- (1) This section applies if this Act comes into operation under section 2(2).

- (2) Anything done or omitted to have been done after the FSR commencement time and before this Act receives the Royal Assent that could have been done if this Act had received the Royal Assent before the FSR commencement time is taken to be as valid and lawful, and to always have been as valid and lawful, as it would have been if this Act had received the Royal Assent before the FSR commencement time.
- (3) Anything done or omitted to have been done by a person after the FSR commencement time and before this Act received the Royal Assent that would have been valid and lawful if the Financial Services Reform Act had not commenced, is taken to be valid and lawful.
- (4) Anything done or omitted to have been done after the FSR commencement time and before this Act receives the Royal Assent —
 - (a) that could only have been validly and lawfully done or omitted because this Act received the Royal Assent after the FSR commencement time; and
 - (b) that could not have been validly and lawfully done or omitted if this Act had received the Royal Assent before the FSR commencement time,is taken not to be valid, and to never have been valid.

³ The State Administrative Tribunal (Conferral of Jurisdiction) Amendment and Repeal Act 2004 Pt. 5, the State Administrative Tribunal Act 2004 s. 167 and 169, and the State Administrative Tribunal Regulations 2004 r. 28 and 42 deal with certain transitional issues some of which may be relevant for this Act.

⁴ The Superannuation Legislation Amendment and Validation Act 2006 s. 17 and 18 read as follows:

17. Validation of certain payments

- (1) In this section —
Superannuation Act means the State Superannuation Act 2000, the Government Employees Superannuation Act 1987 or the Superannuation and Family Benefits Act 1938.
- (2) A payment or purported payment of a benefit under the State Superannuation Act 2000, the Government Employees Superannuation Act 1987 or the Superannuation and Family Benefits Act 1938 that was —
 - (a) made before this section came into operation; and

- (b) invalid or ineffective because of the Administration Act 1903 section 10, is, and is to be taken always to have been, as valid and effective as it would have been if the State Superannuation Act 2000 section 40, as inserted by section 15 of this Act, had been in operation in respect of each Superannuation Act at the time of the payment.

- (3) If —

- (a) a benefit under the State Superannuation Act 2000, the Government Employees Superannuation Act 1987 or the Superannuation and Family Benefits Act 1938 was paid to an executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased person before this section came into operation; and
- (b) the executor or administrator paid, or purportedly paid, some or all of the benefit to another person before this section came into operation; and
- (c) the payment was invalid or ineffective because of the Administration Act 1903 section 10, the executor or administrator is, and is to be taken always to have been, as liable for the payment referred to in paragraph (b) as the executor or administrator would have been if the State Superannuation Act 2000 section 40, as inserted by section 15 of this Act, had been in operation in respect of each Superannuation Act at the time of the payment referred to in paragraph (a).

18. Validation of contributions made for visiting medical practitioners

- (1) In this section —

Board means the Government Employees Superannuation Board referred to in the State Superannuation Act 2000 section 5; visiting medical practitioner means a medical practitioner engaged, other than as an employee, to provide services in a hospital.

- (2) This section applies in relation to superannuation contributions made, or purportedly made, under the Government Employees Superannuation Act 1987 or the State Superannuation Act 2000 in respect of a visiting medical practitioner between 1 July 1992 and 30 June 2001.
- (3) A thing done, or purportedly done, by the Board in consequence of a superannuation contribution having been made, or purportedly made, in respect of a visiting medical practitioner is, and is to be taken always to have been, as valid and effective as if the contribution had been made in respect of a person who was a member of the relevant scheme.

- ⁵ The State Superannuation Amendment Act 2007 Pt. 5 Div. 1 and 2 were repealed by the State Superannuation Amendment Act 2007 s. 2(8)(a) and Pt. 3, 4, 5 Div. 3 Subdiv. 2 and Pt. 6 Div. 2 were repealed by the State Superannuation Amendment Act 2011 s. 4 before they purported to come into operation.
