Firearms Amendment Act 2004

No. 69 of 2004

An Act to amend the Firearms Act 1973 and for related purposes.

[Assented to 8 December 2004]

The Parliament of Western Australia enacts as follows:

Part 1 — Preliminary

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Firearms Amendment Act 2004.

2. Commencement

- (1) Except as provided in subsection (3), this Act comes into operation on a day fixed by proclamation.
- (2) Different days may be fixed under subsection (1) for different provisions.
- (3) Sections 13 and 21 come into operation on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.

3. The Act amended

The amendments in this Act are to the *Firearms Act 1973.

[* Reprinted as at 11 August 2000.

For subsequent amendments see Western Australian Legislation Information Tables for 2002, Table 1, p. 146 and Act No. 28 of 2003.]

Part 2 — Amendments about paintball

4. Section 4 amended

Section 4 is amended by inserting in the appropriate alphabetical positions the following definitions —

“paintball” means a game in which players attempt to shoot at one another with prescribed paintball guns using prescribed paintball pellets;

“paintball gun” means a firearm designed to discharge or propel paintball pellets;

“paintball pellets” means pellets —

- (a) consisting primarily of a dye or a similar prescribed substance; and
- (b) designed to be discharged or propelled from a firearm;

5. Section 8 amended

After section 8(1)(m) the following paragraphs are inserted —

(ma) by a person who, at a venue that is approved and properly constructed and maintained for the playing of paintball, is in possession of, handles or uses a prescribed paintball gun or prescribed paintball pellets —

- (i) with the permission of the owner of the paintball gun; or
- (ii) if the owner of the paintball gun is an approved club or other approved organisation, as a member of that club or other organisation;

(mb) by a person who is in possession of prescribed paintball pellets;

”.

6. Section 11A amended

After section 11A(2)(d) the following paragraph is inserted—

(da) in the case of a prescribed paintball gun, it is required by the person to conduct or engage in paintball in accordance with this Act;

”.

7. Section 23 amended

(1) After section 23(5) the following subsection is inserted —

(5a) Subsection (5)(c) does not apply to a paintball gun where the alteration is in accordance with the manufacturer’s design and is effected by the addition of a commercially produced product that does not alter the type or velocity of a projectile fired from the gun.

”.

(2) Section 23(8) is amended by deleting “A person who,” and inserting instead —

“ Except as provided in subsection (8a), a person who, ”.

(3) After section 23(8) the following subsection is inserted —

(8a) A player of a paintball game being conducted in accordance with a licence under this Act does not commit an offence under subsection (8) if the person points a paintball gun, named and identified in that licence, at another person while playing the game.

”.

(4) After section 23(11) the following subsections are inserted —

(12) A person must not admit a minor under the age of 16 years to attend a venue where paintball is played unless the minor is accompanied by his or her parent or guardian.

Penalty: $1 000.

(13) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (12) for the person charged to prove that —

(a) the person charged or that person's employee or agent took all reasonable steps to ensure that a minor was not present in contravention of subsection (12);

(b) the person charged or that person's employee or agent believed on reasonable grounds that the minor was 16 years of age or older; or

(c) the person charged or that person's employee or agent believed on reasonable grounds that the person accompanying the minor was the minor's parent or guardian.

Part 3 — Amendments about handguns and other matters

8. Section 4 amended and consequential amendments

- (1) Section 4 is amended by inserting in the appropriate alphabetical positions —

“carry” includes to have on or about one’s person;

“Department” means the department of the Public Service principally assisting in the administration of this Act;

“medical practitioner” means an individual who is registered as a medical practitioner under the Medical Act 1894;

”.

- (2) Section 5(4) is amended by deleting “Police Department” and inserting instead —

“ Department ”.

- (3) Sections 8(1)(d)(ii) and 23(7a)(a) are amended by deleting “Police Department of the Public Service” and inserting instead —

“ Department ”.

9. Section 5B repealed

Section 5B is repealed.

10. Section 6 amended

Section 6(3) is amended as follows:

- (a) by deleting “on conviction, to imprisonment for 5 years.” and inserting instead —

on conviction —

- (a) for a first offence, to imprisonment for 5 years;
 (b) for a subsequent offence, to imprisonment for 10 years.

”;

- (b) by deleting the summary conviction penalty clause and inserting instead —

Summary conviction penalty for a first offence:
 Imprisonment for 3 years or a fine of $12 000.

11. Section 8 amended

- (1) Before section 8(1)(n) the following paragraph is inserted —

- (mc) by a person who is in possession of, or carries, but does not use, an antique mechanism firearm;

”.

- (2) Section 8(2) is amended by inserting before the definition of “approved” —

“antique mechanism firearm” means a muzzle loading firearm (including a percussion lock handgun that is muzzle loading) manufactured before 1900 that uses black powder to propel a shot, bullet, or other missile except that it does not include a breech loading firearm, a firearm with revolving chambers or barrels, or a cannon;

s. 12

”.

12. Section 9A amended

- (1) Section 9A(2) is amended by deleting “A Firearm Collector’s Licence or an” and inserting instead —

“ An ”.

- (2) After section 9A(2) the following subsection is inserted —

- (2a) A Firearm Collector’s Licence is valid for a period of 3 years from the day on which it was issued or last renewed unless that day was before the day on which the Firearms Amendment Act 2003 section 12 came into operation, in which case it is valid for a period of 5 years from the day on which it was issued or last renewed.

13. Section 11 amended

- (1) Section 11(3) is amended as follows:

- (a) by deleting “is satisfied that”;
- (b) in paragraph (a) by inserting before “at any time” —
“ is satisfied that ”;
- (c) by deleting “or” after paragraph (a);
- (d) in paragraph (b) by inserting before “the person fails” —
“ is satisfied that ”;

- (e) by deleting the full stop at the end of paragraph (b) and inserting instead —

; or

- (c) suspects, on the basis of an intelligence report or other information held in relation to the person, that the person is a threat to public safety.

”.

- (2) Section 11 is amended —

- (a) if, when this Act receives the Royal Assent, section 369 of the State Administrative Tribunal (Conferral of Jurisdiction) Amendment and Repeal Act 2004 has come into operation, by inserting after subsection (4) the following subsection —

- (4a) The Commissioner is not required under this Act or any other Act or law to disclose information relied on under subsection (3)(c) unless the disclosure is required under the State Administrative Tribunal Act 2004.

”;

- (b) otherwise, by inserting after subsection (4) the following subsection —

- (4a) The Commissioner is not required under this Act or any other Act or law to disclose information relied on under subsection (3)(c) unless the disclosure is required under section 22AA.

- (3) If, when this Act receives the Royal Assent, section 365 of the State Administrative Tribunal (Conferral of Jurisdiction) Amendment and Repeal Act 2004 has not come into operation,

s. 14

when that section comes into operation section 11(4a) is amended by deleting “section 22AA.” and inserting instead —

“ the State Administrative Tribunal Act 2004. ”.

14. Section 11A amended

Section 11A(2)(c) is amended by inserting before “permission” —

“ written ”.

15. Section 15 amended and transitional provision

- (1) Section 15(1) is amended by deleting “heirloom, or sentimental” and inserting instead —

“ or heirloom ”.

- (2) After section 15(2) the following subsections are inserted —

- (3) For the purposes of this Act, a handgun manufactured after 1946 can form part of a genuine firearm collection only if —

- (a) it is owned by a person who is, in the opinion of the Commissioner, a student of arms as defined in subsection (4); and
- (b) the handgun is within the scope of that person’s interest as a student of arms.

- (4) In subsection (3) —

“student of arms” means a person who can be shown to have a prolonged and genuine interest in the study, preservation, or collection of firearms.

- (5) In considering whether a firearm has significant commemorative value, the Commissioner has to take into account any special significance that the firearm, or any firearm or firearms of the same kind as that firearm or of a related kind, has to a particular event in history.

- (6) In considering whether a firearm has significant historical value, the Commissioner has to take into account any special significance that the firearm, or any firearm or firearms of the same kind as that firearm or of a related kind, has to a particular period in history.
- (7) In considering whether a firearm has significant thematic value, the Commissioner has to take into account any special significance that the firearm, or any firearm or firearms of the same kind as that firearm or of a related kind, has to the development, manufacture, or use of firearms.
- (8) In considering whether a firearm has significant heirloom value to a particular person, the Commissioner has to take into account any special significance that the firearm has because it was owned or possessed by a direct or indirect member of that person's family.
- (9) In considering whether or not it would be appropriate for a person to obtain, or continue to hold, a Firearm Collector's Licence, the Commissioner may take into account any information provided about that person by a person or body designated under section 15A as an accredited society of collectors.

- (3) The amendments made by this section do not affect the validity of a licence or permit that a person already holds under the Firearms Act 1973 on the day on which this section comes into operation, but on or after that day the grant, issue, or renewal of a licence or permit has to be in accordance with that Act as amended by this section.

16. Sections 15A and 15B inserted

After section 15 the following sections are inserted —

15A. Accredited societies of collectors

- (1) The Commissioner may, in writing, designate a person or body, whether incorporated or unincorporated, as an accredited society of collectors for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) For a person or body to be an accredited society of collectors one of its purposes has to be to facilitate the study, preservation, or collection of —
 - (a) handguns in particular; or
 - (b) handguns and other firearms.
- (3) The regulations may specify other requirements for a person or body to be an accredited society of collectors.
- (4) The Commissioner may, by notice in writing given to an accredited society of collectors, cancel its designation as an accredited society of collectors for the purposes of this Act.

15B. Information from accredited society of collectors

- (1) If an accredited society of collectors expels any of its members, it is required to notify the Commissioner in writing of the expulsion of the member, identifying the member and the reason for the expulsion.
Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years or a fine of $8 000.
- (2) The notification may include information that the Commissioner might consider relevant to the question of whether or not the member who is expelled is a fit and proper person to hold a Firearm Collector's Licence.

- (3) An accredited society of collectors that is requested at any time to do so may provide to the Commissioner any information that the Commissioner might consider relevant to —
- (a) the question of whether, for the purposes of this Act, a firearm would be, or form part of, a genuine firearm collection; or
 - (b) the question of whether a person is a fit and proper person to hold a Firearm Collector's Licence.
- (4) Neither an accredited society of collectors that gives the Commissioner any notification or information under this section nor a person involved in the giving of that notification or information is liable in civil or criminal proceedings because of the giving, or the person's involvement in the giving, of the notification or information in accordance with this section if it was in good faith.

17. Section 18 amended

Section 18(4) is amended as follows:

- (a) in paragraph (a), by deleting “a Firearm Collector's Licence or”;
- (b) by inserting after paragraph (a) a paragraph as follows —

- (aa) a Firearm Collector's Licence that is to remain in force for a period of less than 3 years is the prescribed fee reduced proportionately by one thirty-sixth for each month or portion of a month;

”.

18. Section 19 amended

- (1) Section 19(1) is amended as follows:
- (a) by deleting “an offence” and inserting instead —
“ a crime ”;
 - (b) by deleting “subsection (1aa)” and inserting instead —
“ subsection (1ae) or section 19AA ”;
 - (c) by deleting the penalty clause.
- (2) After section 19(1) the following subsections are inserted —
- “
- (1aa) A person who is guilty of a crime under subsection (1) committed in circumstances referred to in subsection (1)(a) is liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for 14 years if at the time of the offence the person was selling 3 or more firearms without a licence or permit entitling the person to sell any of them.
 - (1ab) A person who is guilty of a crime under subsection (1) —
 - (a) committed in circumstances where the person was carrying both a firearm that is a subject of the offence and —
 - (i) a prohibited drug or prohibited plant, as defined in the Misuse of Drugs Act 1981, when not authorised to be in possession of that drug or plant under that Act; or
 - (ii) an amount of money equal to or greater than the prescribed amount,is liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for 14 years;

- (b) committed in circumstances where the person was in possession of 3 or more firearms without a licence or permit entitling the person to be in possession of any of them, is liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for 10 years unless subsection (1aa) applies.
- (1ac) Unless subsection (1aa) or (1ab) applies, a person who is guilty of a crime under subsection (1) committed in relation to a firearm is liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for 7 years if —
- (a) at the time of the offence the offender —
- (i) had been refused, or was disqualified from holding, a licence or permit referred to in subsection (1); or
 - (ii) had had a licence or permit referred to in subsection (1) revoked,
- in relation to the firearm or a firearm of the same kind;
- (b) the firearm was a handgun or a prescribed firearm;
- (c) at the time of the offence, any number or identification mark which was on the firearm had been defaced or removed; or
- (d) the firearm had been altered from the design or characteristics of its original manufacture.

Summary conviction penalty for a crime under subsection (1) committed in any of the circumstances described in this subsection:
Imprisonment for 3 years or a fine of $12 000.

- (1ad) Unless subsection (1aa), (1ab) or (1ac) applies, a person who commits a crime under subsection (1) is liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for 5 years.

Summary conviction penalty: Imprisonment for 3 years or a fine of $12 000.

22AA. Dealing with certain undisclosed information

- (1) If a magistrate or the firearms appeals tribunal proposes to determine an appeal under section 22, the Commissioner must ensure that the magistrate or tribunal is provided with all information to which the Commissioner had regard in making the decision that is the subject of the appeal.
- (2) The magistrate or firearms appeals tribunal may order that the information to which subsection (1) applies is not to be disclosed to the appellant, the appellant’s representative or any other person if, on an application by the Commissioner, the magistrate or tribunal is satisfied that the disclosure —
- (a) might prejudice —
 - (i) the safety of a person;
 - (ii) the effectiveness of investigation or prosecution of a person for an offence under this Act; or
 - (iii) the proper administration of this Act;
 - (b) might reveal the identity of a police officer acting as an undercover officer; or
 - (c) might otherwise be contrary to the public interest.

- (3) An application under subsection (2) may be made without notice to the appellant and may be heard and determined in the absence of the appellant.
- (4) The room or place in which the magistrate or the firearms appeals tribunal hears and determines an application under subsection (2) is not to be regarded as an open court, and the magistrate or tribunal may order that no person is to be in the room or place without the magistrate's or tribunal's permission.
- (5) The reasons for the decision of the magistrate or the firearms appeals tribunal on an appeal under section 22 must not disclose the content or source of information that is the subject of an order made under subsection (2).

- (2) If, when this Act receives the Royal Assent, section 369 of the State Administrative Tribunal (Conferral of Jurisdiction) Amendment and Repeal Act 2004 has not come into operation, when that section comes into operation section 22AA is repealed.

22. Section 23 amended
