 - (xvii) a school crossing service, being a service provided to assist children to cross roads on their way to or from school; or
 - (xviii) a children's entertainment or party service; or
 - (xix) any other work of a kind prescribed by the regulations;
- or

- (b) the work is the exercise or performance by a person of a power or duty delegated to the person by the CEO under section 45.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), contact with a child does not include contact —
- (a) between a person and a child who is employed by the person; or
- (b) between a person and a child who are both employed by the same person,
- if the contact is lawful and arises in the normal course of the child's employment.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to work that is carried out on a voluntary basis by a child unless the work is carried out in circumstances, or by a child of a class of children, prescribed by the regulations.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply to work that is carried out in circumstances, or by a person of a class of persons, prescribed by the regulations.
- (5) Regulations made for the purposes of subsection (3) or (4) may, without limitation, prescribe a class of children or a class of persons (as the case requires) by reference to criminal record checks or other forms of screening (however described) made under another Act prescribed by the regulations.

[Section 6 amended: No. 49 of 2010 s. 23; No. 47 of 2022 s. 6.]

7. Class 1 offence and Class 2 offence

- (1) A Class 1 offence is —
- (a) an offence against a provision listed in Schedule 1 (if the offence complies with any condition specified in that Schedule); or
- (b) an offence under a law of another jurisdiction prescribed by the regulations to be a Class 1 offence; or

s. 7

- (c) an offence under a law of another jurisdiction the elements of which, if they had occurred in this State, would have constituted an offence of a kind referred to in this subsection; or
 - (d) an offence committed, or alleged to have been committed, before 1 January 2006 that is an offence of a kind referred to in this subsection; or
 - (e) an offence of attempting, or of conspiracy or incitement, to commit an offence of a kind referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d).
- (2) A Class 2 offence is —
- (a) an offence against a provision listed in Schedule 2 (if the offence complies with any condition specified in that Schedule); or
 - (b) an offence under a law of another jurisdiction prescribed by the regulations to be a Class 2 offence; or
 - (c) an offence under a law of another jurisdiction the elements of which, if they had occurred in this State, would have constituted an offence of a kind referred to in this subsection; or
 - (d) an offence committed, or alleged to have been committed, before 1 January 2006 that is an offence of a kind referred to in this subsection; or
 - (e) an offence of attempting, or of conspiracy or incitement, to commit an offence of a kind referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d).
- (3) For the purposes of Schedules 1 and 2, an offence falls within the ambit of this subsection if —
- (a) the victim of the offence is a child who has reached 14 years of age; and

- (b) the age difference between the victim and the offender does not exceed 5 years.

[Section 7 inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 7.]

8. Conviction in relation to offence

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a reference to a conviction in relation to an offence committed by a person is a reference to any of the following —
- (a) a court making a formal finding of guilt in relation to the offence;
 - (b) a court convicting the person of the offence, if there has been no formal finding of guilt before conviction;
 - (c) a court accepting a plea of guilty from the person in relation to the offence;
 - (d) a court acquitting the person following a finding under The Criminal Code section 27 that the person is not guilty of the offence on account of mental impairment or an acquittal following an equivalent finding under the laws of another jurisdiction;
 - (e) a finding under the Criminal Law (Mental Impairment) Act 2023 section 41(2)(c) or an equivalent finding under the laws of another jurisdiction.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act, a reference to a conviction includes a reference to a conviction that is a spent conviction.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), an offence becomes spent if, under a law in any jurisdiction, the person concerned is permitted not to disclose the fact that the person was convicted or found guilty of the offence.
- (4) A reference to a conviction in this Act does not include a reference to a conviction that is subsequently quashed or set aside by a court.

s. 8A

[Section 8 amended: No. 47 of 2022 s. 8; No. 10 of 2023 s. 406 and 412.]

8A. Expunged convictions to be taken to be non-conviction charges for the purposes of this Act

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a reference to a non-conviction charge includes a reference to an expunged conviction, as that term is defined in the Historical Homosexual Convictions Expungement Act 2018 section 3(1).
- (2) Subsection (1) applies despite anything in the Historical Homosexual Convictions Expungement Act 2018.

[Section 8A inserted: No. 20 of 2018 s. 33.]

9A. Application of certain provisions to students

- (1) This section applies in relation to a student.
- (2) If this section applies —
 - (a) section 9(3)(b) does not apply and the approved form may include provision for information about the student's education provider or the person who employs, or proposes to employ, the student in child-related employment; and
 - (aa) section 11(3A)(a) applies as if —
 - (i) the reference to an employer or proposed employer included a reference to the student's education provider; and
 - (ii) the reference to employ or propose to employ the applicant in child-related employment included a reference to the student being employed or proposed to be employed in child-related employment as part of a course with an education provider;

and

- (b) section 11(3) applies as if the reference to the other person were a reference to the other person or the student's education provider; and
- (c) sections 13A(1)(b), 13AA(4) and 20(6) apply as if —
 - (i) the reference to child-related employment by another person were a reference to employment by another person as part of a course with an education provider; and
 - (ii) the reference to the other person were a reference to the other person or the student's education provider;and
- (d) section 16 applies as if section 16(1) were deleted and the following subsection were inserted:
 - (1) If a person or a student's education provider (the employer) who employs a student or procures employment for the student (the employee) in child-related employment —
 - (a) reasonably suspects that the employee has been charged with or convicted of an offence; and
 - (b) reasonably believes that the charge or conviction makes it inappropriate for the employee to continue to carry out child-related work,the employer may give written notice to the CEO of the suspicion and belief and the grounds on which the suspicion and belief are held.

and

- (e) section 18(2) applies in relation to a student employed in child-related employment as part of a course conducted by an education provider as if —
 - (i) the reference to the person's employer were a reference to the person's employer or education provider; and
 - (ii) the reference to the employer were a reference to the employer or the person's education provider;

and

- (f) section 29(1) applies to a student employed in child-related employment as part of a course conducted by an education provider so that the student is under an obligation to give the student's education provider written notice of a relevant change in the student's criminal record as soon as is practicable after the change occurs; and
- (g) section 29(2) applies in relation to a notice received by the CEO from a student employed in child-related employment as part of a course conducted by an education provider so that the CEO may advise the student's education provider of the relevant change in the student's criminal record disclosed in the notice; and
- (h) section 31(3) applies to a student offered child-related employment as part of a course conducted by an education provider so that the student is under an obligation to give the CEO and the student's education provider written notice of the things referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of that subsection; and
- (i) section 34B(1) applies as if —
 - (i) a reference to an employer or proposed employer included a reference to the student's education provider; and

- (ii) a reference to employ or propose to employ a person in child-related employment included a reference to the student being employed or proposed to be employed in child-related employment as part of a course with an education provider.

[Section 9A inserted: No. 7 of 2010 s. 5; amended: No. 47 of 2022 s. 9.]

9B. Education provider not to procure employment for certain students in child-related employment

- (1) An education provider must not, for the purpose of enabling a student to complete the syllabus for a course conducted by the provider, procure employment for the student in child-related employment if —
 - (a) the education provider —
 - (i) is aware of a Class 1 offence or a Class 2 offence of which the student has been convicted; or
 - (ii) is aware that the student has a pending charge in respect of a Class 1 offence or a Class 2 offence;
 - and
 - (b) the student does not have a current assessment notice and has not made an application for an assessment notice that is pending.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $60 000.

- (2) An education provider must not, for the purpose of enabling a student to complete the syllabus for a course conducted by the provider, procure employment for the student in child-related employment if the education provider is aware that a negative notice or an interim negative notice has been issued to the student and is current.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $60 000.

s. 9B

- (3) An education provider must not, for the purpose of enabling a student to complete the syllabus for a course conducted by the provider, procure child-related employment for the student in connection with a child care service if the student does not have a current assessment notice and has not made an application for an assessment notice that is pending.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $12 000.

- (4) An education provider must not, for the purpose of enabling a student to complete the syllabus for a course conducted by the provider, procure child-related employment for the student if the education provider is aware that the student has withdrawn an application for an assessment notice.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $12 000.

- (5) An education provider must not, for the purpose of enabling a student to complete the syllabus for a course conducted by the provider, procure child-related employment for the student with a person (an employer) if —

- (a) the student has previously been employed by the employer in child-related employment for the purpose of enabling the student to complete the syllabus for that course for more than 5 days in a calendar year; and
- (b) the student does not have a current assessment notice and has not made an application for an assessment notice that is pending.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $12 000.

- (6) Subsection (5) does not apply in relation to the procurement of child-related employment for a student if subsection (1), (2), (3) or (4) applies in relation to that procurement of employment.

- (7) A person charged with an offence under this section may be convicted of another offence under this section if that offence is established by the evidence.

Part 2 — Assessment notices and negative notices

Division 1 — Application for assessment notice

9. Application for assessment notice (child-related employment)

- (1) A person who is, or is proposed to be, employed in child-related employment by another person may apply to the CEO for an assessment notice.
- (2) The application is to be —
 - (a) in the approved form; and
 - (b) signed by the applicant; and
 - (c) accompanied by the fee prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) The approved form must include provision for —
 - (a) identifying information to be given about the applicant; and
 - (b) information about the person who employs, or proposes to employ, the applicant in child-related employment.
- (3A) The approved form may require the provision of any other information the CEO thinks fit.
- (4) On receiving the application, the CEO may ask the applicant, by written notice or otherwise, to provide any further information or documents that the CEO reasonably needs to establish the applicant's identity or for a proper consideration of the application.
- (5) The regulations may prescribe other requirements that apply in relation to an application or the consideration of an application.

[Section 9 amended: No. 47 of 2022 s. 10.]

10. Application for assessment notice (child-related business)

- (1) A person who carries on, or proposes to carry on, a child-related business may apply to the CEO for an assessment notice.
- (2) The application is to be —
 - (a) in the approved form; and
 - (b) signed by the applicant; and
 - (c) accompanied by the fee prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) The approved form is to include provision for identifying information to be given about the applicant.
- (3A) The approved form may require the provision of any other information the CEO thinks fit.
- (4) On receiving the application, the CEO may ask the applicant, by written notice or otherwise, to provide any further information or documents that the CEO reasonably needs to establish the applicant's identity or for a proper consideration of the application.
- (5) The regulations may prescribe other requirements that apply in relation to an application or the consideration of an application.

[Section 10 amended: No. 47 of 2022 s. 11.]

11. Withdrawal of application for assessment notice

- (1) An applicant for an assessment notice may withdraw the application at any time before the assessment notice is issued to the applicant.
- (2A) Subsection (1) does not apply if the CEO has issued an interim negative notice to the applicant that is current.
- (2) The applicant is taken to have withdrawn the application if —
 - (a) the CEO cannot establish with certainty the applicant's identity, that the applicant is, or proposes to be, employed in child-related employment by another person or that the applicant carries on, or proposes to carry on, a child-related business (as the case may be); and

- (b) the CEO gives the applicant a written notice —
 - (i) that asks the applicant to provide, within a reasonable specified time, specified information or documents that the CEO reasonably needs to establish any matter referred to in paragraph (a) that is relevant to the application; and
 - (ii) that informs the applicant that, if the applicant does not comply with the request, the applicant's application will be taken to have been withdrawn;

and

- (c) the applicant does not comply with the notice within the specified time; and
- (d) the CEO gives the applicant a written notice stating that the applicant is taken to have withdrawn the application.

(3A) In addition, the applicant is taken to have withdrawn the application if —

- (a) an employer or proposed employer identified by the applicant for the purposes of the application fails, within a period determined by the CEO to be reasonable in the circumstances, to verify that they employ or propose to employ the applicant in child-related employment; and
- (b) the CEO gives the applicant a written notice that informs the applicant that if a verification of the kind referred to in paragraph (a) is not provided to the CEO within a reasonable specified period then the applicant's application will be taken to have been withdrawn; and
- (c) the verification is not provided to the CEO within the specified period under paragraph (b); and

- (d) the CEO gives the applicant a written notice stating that the applicant is taken to have withdrawn the application.
- (3) If —
 - (a) the applicant is a person who is, or is proposed to be, employed in child-related employment by another person; and
 - (b) the applicant withdraws the application or the CEO gives the applicant a notice under subsection (2)(d) or (3A)(d), the CEO is to give the other person a written notice stating that the applicant has withdrawn, or is taken to have withdrawn, the application, as the case requires.

- (4) This section does not apply to an application taken to be made under section 9 or 10 in accordance with section 17(3)(d)(i) or 17B(2)(b)(i).

[Section 11 amended: No. 7 of 2010 s. 6; No. 47 of 2022 s. 12.]

Division 2 — Issue of assessment notices and negative notices

12. Deciding applications for assessment notice

- (1) The CEO is to decide an application under section 9 or 10 in accordance with this section —
 - (a) by issuing an assessment notice to the applicant; or
 - (b) by issuing a negative notice to the applicant.
- (2) The CEO must not decide the application unless the CEO has —
 - (a) made a criminal record check in respect of the applicant; and
 - (b) checked whether notice of a conduct review finding or outcome has been received under section 17A(3) in respect of the applicant.

- (4) If this subsection applies, the CEO is to issue an assessment notice to the applicant.
- (5) If this subsection applies, the CEO is to issue an assessment notice to the applicant unless the CEO is satisfied that, because of the particular circumstances of the case, a negative notice should be issued to the applicant.
- (6) If this subsection applies, the CEO is to issue a negative notice to the applicant unless the CEO is satisfied that, because of the exceptional circumstances of the case, an assessment notice should be issued to the applicant.
- (7) If this subsection applies, the CEO is to issue a negative notice to the applicant.
- (8) If subsection (5) or (6) applies in respect of an offence or a conduct review finding or outcome, the CEO must decide whether the CEO is satisfied in relation to the particular or exceptional circumstances of the case, having regard to —
 - (a) the best interests of children; and

- (b) when the offence was committed or is alleged to have been committed or the relevant conduct occurred or is alleged to have occurred; and
 - (c) the age of the applicant when the offence was committed or is alleged to have been committed or the relevant conduct occurred or is alleged to have occurred; and
 - (d) the nature of the offence or relevant conduct and any relevance it has to child-related work; and
 - (e) the effect of future conduct by the applicant in relation to a child if that future conduct were the same or similar to conduct the subject of —
 - (i) any offence committed by the applicant; or
 - (ii) any charge against the applicant; or
 - (iii) any conduct review finding or outcome in relation to the applicant;
- and
- (f) any information given by the applicant in, or in relation to, the application; and
 - (g) anything else that the CEO reasonably considers relevant to the decision.

[Section 12 inserted: No. 7 of 2010 s. 7; amended: No. 47 of 2022 s. 13.]

13A. Issue of assessment notices and negative notices

- (1) On deciding the application —
 - (a) the CEO is to issue the assessment notice or the negative notice, as the case requires, to the applicant; and
 - (b) if the CEO is aware that the applicant is, or is proposed to be, employed in child-related employment by another person, the CEO must —
 - (i) if an assessment notice is issued — give details contained in the assessment notice to the other person in the manner or form the CEO thinks fit (including by giving a copy of the assessment notice to the other person); and

- (ii) if a negative notice is issued — give a copy of the negative notice to the other person.
- (2) When a negative notice is issued to an applicant, the CEO is to provide with it a written notice that —
- (a) states the reasons for the CEO’s decision on the application; and
 - (b) states that the applicant may, subject to section 26(3A), apply to the State Administrative Tribunal, within 28 days after the date of the negative notice, to have the decision reviewed; and
 - (c) explains how the application for the review is made.

[Section 13A inserted: No. 7 of 2010 s. 7; amended: No. 47 of 2022 s. 14.]

13. CEO to give notice of intention to issue negative notice

- (1) If the CEO proposes or is required to decide an application under section 12 by issuing a negative notice to the applicant, the CEO must give the applicant a written notice that —
- (a) informs the applicant of the proposal or requirement; and
 - (b) states the information about —
 - (i) the applicant’s criminal record of which the CEO is aware; and
 - (ii) any conduct review finding or outcome relating to the applicant of which the CEO is aware as a result of a notice under section 17A(3);
- and
- (c) invites the applicant to make a submission to the CEO, in writing or in another form approved by the CEO, within a specified time about the information and about the applicant's suitability to be issued with an assessment notice.

- (2) If the information stated in a notice under subsection (1) about an applicant's criminal record includes a Class 1 offence (other than a Class 1 offence committed or allegedly committed by the applicant when a child) of which the applicant has been convicted, or for which the applicant has a pending charge, the applicant may make a submission to the CEO under this section only if the applicant reasonably believes that the applicant's criminal record does not include that conviction or charge.
- (3) The specified time referred to in subsection (1)(c) must be reasonable and, in any case, at least 28 days after the CEO gives the applicant the notice.
- (4) Subsection (2) does not apply if the applicant has been granted a pardon in respect of the Class 1 offence.
- (5) Before deciding the application, the CEO must consider any submission made by the applicant within the specified time.

[Section 13 inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 15.]

13AA. Interim negative notice

- (1) Subsections (2) and (3) apply in relation to a person if the CEO —
 - (a) has received an application for an assessment notice made by the person and the application is pending; or
 - (b) has decided to act under section 17(3)(d) or 17B(2)(b) in respect of the person; or
 - (c) is acting under section 20 in respect of the person if the correct notice that would be substituted is a negative notice; or

- (d) is given a notice that the CEO must treat under section 32(1) as an application by the person for an assessment notice.
- (2) The CEO may issue an interim negative notice to the person if the CEO is of the opinion that there is a reasonable likelihood that the circumstances will result in a negative notice being issued to the person.
- (3) The CEO must issue an interim negative notice to the person if the CEO is aware that the person —
 - (a) has been convicted of a Class 1 offence (other than a Class 1 offence committed by the person when a child or in respect of which the person has been granted a pardon); or
 - (b) has a pending charge in respect of a Class 1 offence (other than a Class 1 offence allegedly committed by the person when a child).
- (4) If the CEO is aware that the person to whom an interim negative notice is issued is employed, or is proposed to be employed, in child-related employment by another person, the CEO must give a copy of the interim negative notice to the other person.
- (5) An interim negative notice ceases to have effect when an assessment notice or negative notice is issued to the person.

[Section 13AA inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 15.]

14. Duration of assessment notices and negative notices

- (1) An assessment notice has effect for 3 years unless sooner cancelled under this Act.
- (2) A negative notice continues to have effect unless it is cancelled under this Act.

15. Further assessment notice may be obtained

- (1) If an assessment notice no longer has effect, or will expire within a period of 3 months, the person to whom it was issued may apply under Division 1 for a further assessment notice.
- (2) Section 12 applies to the application as if a reference in that section to issuing an assessment notice were a reference to issuing an assessment notice or a further assessment notice.

Division 3 — CEO may require assessment notice to be applied for

16. CEO may require certain employees to apply for assessment notice

- (1) If a person (the employer) who employs another person (the employee) in child-related employment —
 - (a) reasonably suspects that the employee has been charged with or convicted of an offence; and
 - (b) reasonably believes that the charge or conviction makes it inappropriate for the employee to continue to carry out child-related work, the employer may give written notice to the CEO of the suspicion and belief and the grounds on which the suspicion and belief are held.

- (2) The CEO may ask the employer, by written notice or otherwise, to provide further information in relation to those grounds.
- (3) If the CEO is satisfied that the employer has reasonable grounds for holding the suspicion and belief referred to in subsection (1), the CEO may give the employee a written notice requiring the employee to apply, within 10 days after the date of the notice, for an assessment notice.
- (4) Subsection (3) applies to a person whether or not the person has a current assessment notice.

- (5) The employee must comply with a notice given to the employee under subsection (3) within the period referred to in that subsection.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $1 000.

- (6) It is a defence to a charge of an offence under subsection (5) to prove that, at the time the offence is alleged to have been committed, the person was not employed in child-related employment.

[Section 16 amended: No. 47 of 2022 s. 46.]

17. CEO may require certain people to apply for assessment notice

- (1A) In this section — designated authority means —

- (a) the Commissioner; or
- (b) a department of the Public Service; or
- (c) a body (whether incorporated or not), or the holder of an office, post or position, that —
 - (i) is established, constituted or continued for a public purpose under a written law; and
 - (ii) under the authority of a written law, performs a statutory function on behalf of this State;

or

- (d) any other person or body, or person or body of a class, prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this definition;

designated information means information given to the CEO by —

- (a) the Commissioner of the Australian Federal Police; or
- (b) the Commissioner (however designated) of the police force of another jurisdiction; or

Working with Children (Screening) Act 2004

Part 2 Assessment notices and negative notices

Division 3 CEO may require assessment notice to be applied for

s. 17

- (c) any other person or body, or person or body of a class, prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this definition.
- (1) If a designated authority reasonably believes that a person charged with or convicted of an offence —
- (a) is a person in respect of whom the CEO may ask for information under section 34; or
 - (b) carries out child-related work,
- and the designated authority reasonably believes that the charge or conviction makes it inappropriate for the person to continue to carry out child-related work or have an assessment notice, the designated authority may give the CEO notice of the following —
- (c) the person's name and any former name or alias;
 - (d) the person's date of birth;
 - (da) the person's address and other contact details;
 - (e) the offence with which the person has been charged or of which the person has been convicted;
 - (f) the details of the offence;
 - (fa) without limiting paragraph (f), whether a victim of the offence was a child at the time when the offence was committed or allegedly committed and, if so, the age of the victim at that time;
 - (g) the date of the charge or conviction;
 - (h) any other information the designated authority thinks fit.
- (2) A designated authority may give notice under subsection (1) despite another Act or law.

- (3) If the CEO is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a person in respect of whom the CEO has been given notice under subsection (1), information under section 33A or 34 or designated information —
- (a) carries out child-related work or has a current assessment notice; and
 - (b) has been charged with or convicted of an offence that may make it inappropriate for the person to continue to carry out child-related work or have an assessment notice,

the CEO may —

- (c) if the person does not have a current assessment notice, give the person a written notice requiring the person to apply, within 10 days after the date of the notice, for an assessment notice; or
 - (d) if the person has a current assessment notice, make a decision under section 12 as if —
 - (i) an application had been made by the person under section 9 or 10, as the case requires; and
 - (ii) a reference in section 12 to issuing an assessment notice were a reference to issuing an assessment notice or a further assessment notice.
- (3A) However, the CEO must not act under subsection (3) in relation to information about a charge or conviction if the CEO —
- (a) was previously aware of the charge or conviction; and
 - (b) decided to issue an assessment notice under section 12(5) or (6) despite the existence of the charge or conviction.

- (4) A person must comply with a notice given to the person under subsection (3)(c) within the period referred to in that paragraph.
Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $1 000.

- (5) It is a defence to a charge of an offence under subsection (4) to prove that, at the time the offence is alleged to have been committed, the person was not carrying out child-related work.

[Section 17 inserted: No. 7 of 2010 s. 9; amended: No. 47 of 2022 s. 16 and 46.]

17A. Provision of information by conduct review authority

- (1) In this section —
designated conduct review authority, for a conduct review finding or outcome, means the conduct review authority prescribed by the regulations as the designated conduct review authority in relation to conduct review findings or outcomes of that kind.
- (2) This section applies if —
- (a) a person is, or has been, the subject of a conduct review finding or outcome; and
 - (b) the conduct review authority that is the designated conduct review authority for that conduct review finding or outcome knows or reasonably believes that the finding or outcome is relevant to the performance of a function of the CEO under this Act.
- (3) The conduct review authority may give the CEO notice of the following —
- (a) the person's name and any former name or alias;
 - (b) the person's date of birth;
 - (c) the person's address and other contact details;
 - (d) the conduct review finding or outcome;
 - (e) details of the relevant conduct;
 - (f) details of any person who employs the person in child-related employment, or of any child-related business carried on by the person (to the extent that these details are known to the conduct review authority);

- (g) any other information of a kind prescribed by the regulations.
- (4) If a conduct review authority gives a notice to the CEO under subsection (3) and the conduct review finding or outcome to which the notice relates is subsequently quashed, set aside or withdrawn expressly or impliedly, or found to be unsubstantiated or incorrect, the conduct review authority must give the CEO notice of this change in circumstances.
- (5) A conduct review authority may give a notice under subsection (3) or (4) despite another Act or law.
- (6) On receiving a notice from a conduct review authority under subsection (3) or (4), the CEO may request the conduct review authority to provide any further information to the CEO that the CEO reasonably requires for the purposes of this section.
- (7) A conduct review authority to which a request is made under subsection (6) is authorised to disclose the information to the CEO.
- (8) The information given by a conduct review authority under this section may include information about, or relating to, a finding or outcome that was made before —
- (a) the finding or outcome became a conduct review finding or outcome under this Act; or
 - (b) the conduct review authority became the designated conduct review authority for the finding or outcome under this Act.
- (9) This section does not limit the powers of the CEO to request or obtain information under another provision of this Act.

[Section 17A inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 17.]

17B. Action based on information received in relation to conduct review finding or outcome

- (1) The CEO may, on the basis of a notice given under section 17A, take action under subsection (2) if the CEO is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the person to whom the notice relates —
 - (a) carries out child-related work or has a current assessment notice; and
 - (b) is, or has been, the subject of a conduct review finding or outcome that may make it inappropriate for the person to continue to carry out child-related work or have an assessment notice.
- (2) The CEO may —
 - (a) if the person does not have a current assessment notice, give the person a written notice requiring the person to apply, within 10 days after the date of the notice, for an assessment notice; or
 - (b) if the person has a current assessment notice, make a decision under section 12 as if —
 - (i) an application had been made by the person under section 9 or 10, as the case requires; and
 - (ii) a reference in section 12 to issuing an assessment notice were a reference to issuing an assessment notice or a further assessment notice.
- (3) A person must comply with a notice given to the person under subsection (2)(a) within the period referred to in that paragraph. Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $1 000.
- (4) It is a defence to a charge of an offence under subsection (3) to prove that, at the time the offence is alleged to have been committed, the person was not carrying out child-related work.

[Section 17B inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 17.]

17C. CEO may obtain further information about conduct review finding or outcome

- (1) In this section —
- related authority, in relation to a conduct review finding or outcome, means a person or body (other than a conduct review authority) —
- (a) that made a finding, determination or decision that resulted in, led to or comprised the conduct review finding or outcome; or
 - (b) that —
 - (i) has been involved in any step or process connected with, or otherwise related to, the conduct review finding or outcome; and
 - (ii) is a person or body, or person or body of a class, prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (2) This section applies in respect of a person —
- (a) who has a current assessment notice; or
 - (b) who has applied to the CEO for an assessment notice; or
 - (c) who has applied to the CEO for a negative notice to be cancelled; or
 - (d) in relation to whom the CEO has decided to act under section 17(3)(d) or 17B(2)(b); or
 - (e) in relation to whom the CEO is acting under section 20; or
 - (f) who has applied to the State Administrative Tribunal under section 26 or who is the subject of an appeal against a decision of the Tribunal on an application under that section; or
 - (g) in relation to whom the CEO has been given a notice that the CEO must treat under section 32(1) as an application by the person for an assessment notice.

- (3) If the person is, or has been, the subject of a notice given under section 17A in respect of a conduct review finding or outcome, the CEO may request the conduct review authority that gave the notice or a related authority for any information relating to the person in its possession that is connected with, or otherwise related to, the conduct review finding or outcome.
- (4) A conduct review authority or related authority to which a request is made under subsection (3) is authorised to disclose the information to the CEO.
- (5) This section does not limit the powers of the CEO to request or obtain information under another provision of this Act.

[Section 17C inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 17.]

18. CEO may issue negative notice if notice issued by CEO not obeyed

- (1) If a person does not comply with a notice given to the person under section 16(3), 17(3)(c) or 17B(2)(a) within the period referred to in that provision, the CEO may issue a negative notice to the person.
- (2) If the CEO —
 - (a) issues a negative notice under subsection (1) to a person who is employed in child-related employment; and
 - (b) is aware of the person's employer, the CEO is to give the employer written notice of having issued a negative notice to the person.

[Section 18 amended: No. 7 of 2010 s. 10; No. 47 of 2022 s. 18.]

Division 4 — Cancellation of assessment notices and negative notices

19. Application for cancellation of negative notice

- (1) A person to whom a negative notice has been issued may apply to the CEO for the notice to be cancelled.
- (2) The application cannot be made sooner than 3 years after —
 - (a) the negative notice was issued; or
 - (b) if the person has previously applied under this section — the date of the CEO's notice under subsection (10); or
 - (c) if the person has applied, under section 26, for a review of a decision by the CEO and the State Administrative Tribunal has affirmed the CEO's decision — the date of the Tribunal's decision.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply if —
 - (a) a Class 1 offence or a Class 2 offence with which the person was charged when the negative notice was issued, the previous application was made, or the CEO's decision was affirmed, is later disposed of by a court otherwise than by way of a conviction; or
 - (b) an offence of which the person was convicted when the negative notice was issued, the previous application was made, or the CEO's decision was affirmed, is later quashed or set aside on appeal; or
 - (ba) a Class 1 offence of which the person was convicted when the negative notice was issued, the previous application was made, or the CEO's decision was affirmed, is later the subject of a pardon granted to the person; or
 - (c) the negative notice was issued under section 12(5) because the condition in item 4 of the Table to section 12(3) applied to the person and the pending charge in respect of an offence referred to in that item was later disposed of by a court otherwise than by way of a conviction; or

- (d) a conduct review finding or outcome of which notice was given under section 17A(3) and which was taken into account when the negative notice was issued, the previous application was made, or the CEO's decision was affirmed, is later quashed, set aside or withdrawn expressly or impliedly, or found to be unsubstantiated or incorrect.

- (4) Subsection (2)(a) does not apply if the negative notice was issued under section 18.

- (4A) Subsection (3)(d) does not apply if the conduct review finding or outcome is replaced by another conduct review finding or outcome.

- (5) The application is to be —

- (a) in the approved form; and
- (b) signed by the applicant; and
- (c) accompanied by the fee prescribed by the regulations.

- (6) The approved form is to include provision for identifying information to be given about the applicant.

- (7) The person may, in the application, state any information or make any submission that relates to —

- (a) the person's suitability to carry out child-related work; or
- (b) any change in the person's circumstances, unless the person has previously stated that information or made that submission in or in respect of an application under this Act.

- (8) Section 12(2) to (8) apply to the application as if —

- (a) the application were an application for an assessment notice; and

- (b) a reference in those provisions to issuing an assessment notice were a reference to granting the application; and
 - (c) a reference in those provisions to issuing a negative notice were a reference to refusing the application.
- (9) If the CEO grants the application, the CEO —
- (a) is to cancel the negative notice and give written notice to the applicant accordingly; and
 - (b) if the person so requests — is to issue an assessment notice to the person.
- (10) If the CEO refuses the application, the CEO is to give the person a written notice that —
- (a) states the reasons for the CEO’s decision on the application; and
 - (b) states that the person may apply to the State Administrative Tribunal, within 28 days after the date of the notice, to have the decision reviewed; and
 - (c) explains how the application for the review is made.

[Section 19 amended: No. 7 of 2010 s. 11; No. 47 of 2022 s. 19.]

20. Cancellation of assessment notice or negative notice as result of wrong or incomplete information

- (1) In this section —
- correct notice means —
- (a) in relation to the cancellation of an assessment notice — a negative notice; or
 - (b) in relation to the cancellation of a negative notice — an assessment notice.

- (2) The CEO may cancel an assessment notice or negative notice (the first notice) and substitute the correct notice if the CEO is satisfied that —
 - (a) the decision on the application for the first notice was based on wrong or incomplete information; and
 - (b) based on the correct or complete information, the CEO should issue the correct notice.
- (3) If the correct notice to be substituted is a negative notice, the CEO is to comply with section 13 before the correct notice may be substituted.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (2), an application for the cancellation of a negative notice may be made under this section by the person to whom it was issued.
- (5) Section 19 does not apply to the application if the CEO is satisfied under subsection (2) that an assessment notice should be issued to the applicant.
- (6) The CEO is to issue the correct notice to the person to whom the first notice was issued and, if the CEO is aware that that person is, or is proposed to be, employed in child-related employment by another person, the CEO is to give a copy of the correct notice to the other person.

21A. Cancellation of assessment notices of certain people not involved in child-related work

- (1) If a person in respect of whom the CEO has received a notice under section 17(1) or 17A(3) has a current assessment notice and that person gives the CEO written notice that the person is not employed in child-related employment or carrying on a child-related business, the CEO is to cancel the assessment notice.

- (2) If a person in respect of whom the CEO is required to make a decision in accordance with section 17(3)(d) or 17B(2)(b) gives the CEO a notice under subsection (1), the CEO may —
- (a) cancel the person’s assessment notice; and
 - (b) not make a decision in accordance with that paragraph.
- (3) If the CEO cancels the person’s assessment notice, the CEO is to give the person written notice of the cancellation.

[Section 21A inserted: No. 7 of 2010 s. 12; amended: No. 47 of 2022 s. 20.]

21B. Cancellation of assessment notice on person’s request

- (1) If a person applies to the CEO in writing or in an approved form for the cancellation of the person’s assessment notice and the CEO reasonably believes that the person does not carry out child-related work, the CEO may cancel the notice.
- (2) If the CEO cancels the person’s assessment notice, the CEO is to give the person written notice of the cancellation.

[Section 21B inserted: No. 7 of 2010 s. 12.]

21C. Cancellation of assessment notices of certain people to whom s. 32 applies

- (1) If —
- (a) a notice given to the CEO under section 29(1) or 30 is treated under section 32(1) as an application for an assessment notice; and
 - (b) the person who gave the notice to the CEO advises the CEO that the person has ceased to be employed in child-related employment or to carry on a child-related business; and
 - (c) the person has a current assessment notice; and

- (d) the person requests the CEO not to decide the application, the person is taken to have withdrawn the application and the CEO is to cancel the assessment notice.

- (2) If the CEO cancels the person's assessment notice, the CEO is to give the person written notice of the cancellation.

[Section 21C inserted: No. 7 of 2010 s. 12; amended: No. 47 of 2022 s. 21.]

21. Issue of notice cancels any previous notice

- (1) An assessment notice issued to a person cancels any current assessment notice, negative notice or interim negative notice that has previously been issued to the person.
- (2) A negative notice issued to a person cancels any current assessment notice or interim negative notice that has previously been issued to the person.
- (3) An interim negative notice issued to a person cancels any current assessment notice that has previously been issued to the person.

Division 5 — Prohibitions relating to child-related work

22. Employers not to employ certain people in child-related employment

- (1) In this section — employer means a person who employs, or proposes to employ, another person in child-related employment.
- (2) An employer must not employ a person in child-related employment if —
- (a) the employer —
- (i) is aware of a Class 1 offence or a Class 2 offence of which the person has been convicted; or

(ii) is aware that the person has a pending charge in respect of a Class 1 offence or a Class 2 offence;

and

(b) the person does not have a current assessment notice and has not made an application for an assessment notice that is pending.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $60 000 and imprisonment for 5 years.

(3) An employer must not employ a person in child-related employment if the employer is aware that a negative notice or an interim negative notice has been issued to the person and is current.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $60 000 and imprisonment for 5 years.

(4) An employer must not employ a person in child-related employment in connection with a child care service if the person does not have a current assessment notice and has not made an application for an assessment notice that is pending.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $12 000 and imprisonment for 12 months.

(5) An employer must not employ a person in child-related employment if the employer is aware that the person has withdrawn an application for an assessment notice.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $12 000 and imprisonment for 12 months.

(6) An employer must not employ a person in child-related employment if —

(a) the person has been employed by the employer in that employment for more than 5 days in a calendar year; and

- (b) the person does not have a current assessment notice and has not made an application for an assessment notice that is pending.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $12 000 and imprisonment for 12 months.

- (7) Subsection (6) does not apply in relation to the employment of a person if subsection (2), (3), (4) or (5) applies in relation to that employment.
- (8) A person charged with an offence under this section may be convicted of another offence under this section if that offence is established by the evidence.

[Section 22 amended: No. 47 of 2022 s. 46.]

23. People with negative notice or interim negative notice not to carry out child-related work

If a negative notice or an interim negative notice has been issued to a person and is current, the person must not —

- (a) be employed in child-related employment; or
- (b) carry on a child-related business.

Penalty: a fine of $60 000 and imprisonment for 5 years.

24. People without current assessment notice not to carry out child-related work

A person who does not have a current assessment notice must not —

- (a) be employed in child-related employment; or
- (b) carry on a child-related business.

Penalty: a fine of $60 000 and imprisonment for 5 years.

25. Defences for an offence under s. 24

- (1) It is a defence to a charge of an offence under section 24 to prove that —
 - (a) at the time the offence is alleged to have been committed, the person charged had applied for an assessment notice and the application was pending; and
 - (b) the application was not later withdrawn.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who, at the time the offence is alleged to have been committed —
 - (a) has been convicted of a Class 1 offence (other than a Class 1 offence committed by the person when a child or in respect of which the person has been granted a pardon); or
 - (b) has a pending charge in respect of a Class 1 offence (other than a Class 1 offence allegedly committed by the person when a child).
- (3) It is a defence to a charge of an offence under section 24 to prove that the person charged was employed in child-related employment or carried on a child-related business, as the case requires, on no more than 5 days during the calendar year in which the offence is alleged to have occurred.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a person —
 - (a) who —
 - (i) has been convicted of a Class 1 offence (other than a Class 1 offence committed by the person when a child); or
 - (ii) has a pending charge in respect of a Class 1 offence (other than a Class 1 offence allegedly committed by the person when a child);
 - or
 - (b) who is carrying out child-related work in connection with a child care service; or

- (c) whose assessment notice has been cancelled under section 21A(1) or (2) or 21C(1).
- (5) Subsection (3) does not apply to a person who has had an assessment notice cancelled under section 31(5) if the person —
 - (a) has not been issued with a further assessment notice; or
 - (b) has applied for a further assessment notice and the application was pending at the time the offence under section 24 is alleged to have been committed.
- (6) Subsection (3) does not apply to a person —
 - (a) who has applied for an assessment notice having been required to do so under section 16(3), 17(3)(c) or 17B(2)(a); or
 - (b) who has given the CEO a notice that is to be treated under section 32(1) as an application by the person for an assessment notice; or
 - (c) has been given a written notice by the CEO under section 13 that the CEO proposes or is required to decide an application under section 12 by issuing a negative notice, if the person withdraws the application for an assessment notice before the CEO decides the application.

- (7) Subsection (3) does not apply to a person referred to in section 17(3)(d) or 17B(2)(b).

[Section 25 amended: No. 7 of 2010 s. 13; No. 47 of 2022 s. 22.]

Division 6 — Review by State Administrative Tribunal

26. Reviewable decisions

(1) In this section —

defined period means —

- (a) in relation to a decision by the CEO to issue a negative notice to a person — 28 days after the date of the negative notice; or
- (b) in relation to a decision by the CEO not to grant an application for a negative notice issued to a person to be cancelled — 28 days after the date of the notice given to the person under section 19(10); or
- (c) in relation to a decision by the CEO to refuse to cancel a negative notice and substitute the correct notice — 28 days after the date the CEO refuses to cancel the negative notice and substitute the correct notice.

(2) Subject to subsection (3A), a person may apply to the State Administrative Tribunal within the defined period for a review of a decision by the CEO —

- (a) to issue a negative notice to the person; or
- (b) not to grant an application for a negative notice issued to the person to be cancelled.

(3A) If a person has not made a submission to the CEO under section 13(1)(c) after having been invited to do so by the CEO, the person cannot make an application under subsection (2)(a) without the leave of the Tribunal.

(3B) A person may apply to the State Administrative Tribunal within the defined period for a review of a decision by the CEO to refuse to cancel a negative notice and substitute the correct notice under section 20(2) if the person —

- (a) has been refused leave under subsection (3A); and

- (b) has subsequently made a submission to the CEO under section 13(1)(c) having been invited to do so by the CEO.
- (3) A decision that is the subject of an application under subsection (2) or (3B) continues to have effect pending the outcome of the review, unless the State Administrative Tribunal orders otherwise.
- (4) A decision by the State Administrative Tribunal under the State Administrative Tribunal Act 2004 section 29 so as to provide for the issue of an assessment notice —
 - (a) has effect as a decision of the CEO from the date of the Tribunal's decision; and
 - (b) does not affect the operation of any other provision of this Act as it applies before the date of the Tribunal's decision.

[Section 26 amended: No. 7 of 2010 s. 14; No. 47 of 2022 s. 23.]

Part 3 — Changes in criminal record and criminal record checks

Division 1 — Relevant changes in criminal record

27. Meaning of relevant change in criminal record and requirement to give notice of that change

- (1) For the purposes of this Division, there is a relevant change in a person's criminal record, whether or not the person has a criminal record, if the person is charged with or convicted of a Class 1 offence or a Class 2 offence.
- (2) A requirement imposed on a person under this Division to give notice about a relevant change in a person's criminal record does not require the person to give any information about the change except that the change has occurred.

28. Pending applications, applicant to notify CEO of relevant change in criminal history

- (1) This section applies to a person if —
 - (a) the person has applied to the CEO —
 - (i) for an assessment notice; or
 - (ii) for a negative notice issued to the person to be cancelled;
 - and
 - (b) the application is pending.
- (2) The person must give written notice to the CEO of a relevant change in the person's criminal record as soon as is practicable after the change occurs.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $60 000 and imprisonment for 5 years.

[Section 28 amended: No. 47 of 2022 s. 46.]

29. People employed in child-related employment to notify CEO of relevant change in criminal record

- (1) A person employed in child-related employment must give the CEO and the person's employer written notice of a relevant change in the person's criminal record as soon as is practicable after the change occurs.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $60 000 and imprisonment for 5 years.

- (2) If the CEO receives a notice under subsection (1), the CEO may advise the person's employer of the relevant change in the person's criminal record disclosed in the notice.

[Section 29 amended: No. 7 of 2010 s. 15; No. 47 of 2022 s. 24 and 46.]

30. People carrying on child-related business to notify CEO of relevant change in criminal record

A person carrying on a child-related business must give the CEO written notice of a relevant change in the person's criminal record as soon as is practicable after the change occurs.

Penalty: a fine of $60 000 and imprisonment for 5 years.

31. Duties and employment of people with assessment notice who have relevant change in criminal record

- (1) This section applies to a person if —
- (a) the person has a current assessment notice and is not employed in child-related employment or carrying on a child-related business; and
 - (b) there has been a relevant change in the person's criminal record since the assessment notice was issued to the person.

- (2) A person to whom this section applies must not be employed in child-related employment or carry on a child-related business unless —
- (a) the person has been issued with a further assessment notice; or
 - (b) the person has applied for a further assessment notice and the application is pending.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $60 000 and imprisonment for 5 years.

- (3) A person to whom subsection (2)(b) applies who is offered child-related employment must give the person's proposed employer written notice that —
- (a) there has been a relevant change in the person's criminal record since the person's current assessment notice was issued; and
 - (b) the person has applied for a further assessment notice and the application is pending.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $60 000 and imprisonment for 5 years.

- (4) A person to whom this section applies must give written notice to the CEO of a relevant change in the person's criminal record as soon as is practicable after the change occurs.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $60 000 and imprisonment for 5 years.

- (5) If the CEO receives a notice from a person under subsection (4), the CEO is to cancel the person's assessment notice.

- (6) If the CEO cancels the person's assessment notice, the CEO is to give the person written notice of the cancellation.

[Section 31 amended: No. 7 of 2010 s. 16; No. 47 of 2022 s. 46.]

32A. Certain applicants for assessment notice to notify proposed employer of relevant change in criminal record

If —

- (a) a person whose assessment notice has been cancelled (the cancelled assessment notice) under section 31(5) has applied for a further assessment notice and the application is pending; and
- (b) a person (the proposed employer) proposes to employ the person in child-related employment, the person must give the proposed employer written notice of any relevant change in the person's criminal record since the cancelled assessment notice was issued.

Penalty: a fine of $60 000 and imprisonment for 5 years.

[Section 32A inserted: No. 7 of 2010 s. 17; amended: No. 47 of 2022 s. 25.]

32. CEO to treat notice of relevant change under s. 29 and 30 as application for assessment notice

- (1) The CEO is to treat a notice given to the CEO under section 29(1) or 30 as an application for an assessment notice by the person to whose criminal record there has been a relevant change.
- (2) If the person to whose criminal record there has been a relevant change has a current assessment notice, section 12 applies to the application as if a reference in that section to issuing an assessment notice were a reference to issuing an assessment notice or a further assessment notice.

[Section 32 amended: No. 7 of 2010 s. 18.]

33. Class 1 offence: pending charge or conviction prevents child-related work

If the relevant change in a person's criminal record is that the person is charged with or convicted of a Class 1 offence (other than a Class 1 offence committed or allegedly committed by the person when a child), the person must not —

- (a) be employed in child-related employment; or
- (b) carry on a child-related business.

Penalty: imprisonment for 5 years and a fine of $60 000.

[Section 33 inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 26.]

Division 1A — Designated changes in criminal record

[Heading inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 27.]

33A. Commissioner may give information about change in criminal record

- (1) This section applies in respect of a person —
 - (a) who has a current assessment notice; or
 - (b) who has applied to the CEO for an assessment notice if the application is pending; or
 - (c) who has applied to the CEO for a negative notice to be cancelled if the application is pending; or
 - (d) in relation to whom the CEO has decided to act under section 17(3)(d) or 17B(2)(b); or
 - (e) in relation to whom the CEO is acting under section 20; or
 - (f) in relation to whom the CEO has been given a notice that the CEO must treat under section 32(1) as an application by the person for an assessment notice if the application is pending.

- (2) For the purposes of this section, there is a designated change in the person's criminal record, whether or not the person has a criminal record, if —
- (a) the person is charged with or convicted of an offence; or
 - (b) the person becomes subject to a non-conviction charge; or
 - (c) there is a change in any other information mentioned in the person's criminal record.
- (3) The Commissioner may give the CEO the following information in connection with a designated change in the person's criminal record —
- (a) details of the change in the person's criminal record;
 - (b) information that is connected with, or otherwise related to, the change in the person's criminal record;
 - (c) any other information the Commissioner thinks fit.
- (4) The CEO may give the Commissioner any information that is reasonably required in connection with the exercise of the Commissioner's powers under this section.
- (5) This section does not limit the powers of the Commissioner to disclose information under another provision of this or any other Act.

[Section 33A inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 27.]

Division 2 — Criminal record checks

34. CEO may carry out criminal record check

- (1) In this section —
- DPP means —
- (a) the Director of Public Prosecutions appointed under the Director of Public Prosecutions Act 1991 section 5; or

- (b) a person or body exercising functions that substantially correspond to the functions of the Director of Public Prosecutions under a law of another jurisdiction.
- (2) This section applies in respect of a person —
- (a) who has a current assessment notice; or
 - (b) who has applied to the CEO for an assessment notice; or
 - (c) who has applied to the CEO for a negative notice to be cancelled; or
 - (d) in relation to whom the CEO has decided to act under section 17(3)(d) or 17B(2)(b); or
 - (e) in relation to whom the CEO is acting under section 20; or
 - (f) who has applied to the State Administrative Tribunal under section 26 or who is the subject of an appeal against a decision of the Tribunal on an application under that section; or
 - (g) in relation to whom the CEO has been given a notice that the CEO must treat under section 32(1) as an application by the person for an assessment notice.
- (3) The CEO may ask a criminal records agency for information or access to the records of the criminal records agency —
- (a) to determine whether the person has a criminal record; and
 - (b) if the person has a criminal record, to obtain details of the criminal record.
- (4) If the person has a criminal record, the CEO may ask a criminal records agency or the DPP for any information relating to the person in their possession that is connected with, or otherwise related to, a conviction or charge mentioned in the criminal record.

 - (ii) of a kind prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this definition.
- (2) The CEO may, for a WWC purpose, by written notice request the CEO (Justice) to give the CEO a copy of a prescribed report.
- (3) A request to the CEO (Justice) under this section may only relate to obtaining a report about an offender or alleged offender.

s. 34D

- (4) The CEO (Justice) must comply with a request under this section within a reasonable period after the request is received.
- (5) The CEO (Justice) is authorised to provide the requested report to the CEO.
- (6) This section does not limit the operation of section 34A.

[Section 34C inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34D. Exchange of information with corresponding authorities

- (1) The CEO may disclose to a corresponding authority information obtained or created under this Act that —
 - (a) relates to —
 - (i) a person’s criminal record; or
 - (ii) a conduct review finding or outcome; or
 - (iii) an application made by a person under this Act; or
 - (iv) a decision to issue an assessment notice, a further assessment notice, a negative notice or an interim negative notice;
 - or
 - (b) may otherwise be relevant to the performance of a function of the corresponding authority that substantially corresponds to a function of the CEO under this Act.
- (2) The CEO may request a corresponding authority to disclose to the CEO information obtained or created by the corresponding authority that —
 - (a) corresponds to the information referred to in subsection (1)(a) and relates to a person who has made an application, or has been issued with a notice, under this Act; or

- (b) may otherwise be relevant to the performance of a function of the CEO under this Act.

[Section 34D inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

 - (b) that an assessment notice has been issued to a person;
 - (c) that an application for an assessment notice has been withdrawn by a person;
 - (d) that a negative notice has been issued to a person;

- (e) that an interim negative notice has been issued to a person;
 - (f) that an assessment notice issued to a person has been cancelled under section 21A or 21C;
 - (g) that a person does not have a current assessment notice.
- (3) If the CEO gives a notice to an authorised entity under subsection (2) that discloses information about a person and an assessment notice is subsequently issued to the person, the CEO must give notice of the issuing of the assessment notice to the authorised entity.
- (4) If the CEO gives a notice to an authorised entity under subsection (2) that discloses the information referred to in subsection (2)(d) and the negative notice is subsequently cancelled without an assessment notice being issued, the CEO must give notice of the cancellation of the negative notice to the authorised entity.
- (5) This section does not limit the powers of the CEO to disclose information under another provision of this Act.

[Section 34F inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34G. Disclosure of information to Australian Crime Commission

- (1) In this section —
ACC means the Australian Crime Commission established under the Australian Crime Commission Act 2002 (Commonwealth) section 7.
- (2) The CEO may disclose the following information to the ACC for inclusion in a national register or database established under the Australian Crime Commission Act 2002 (Commonwealth) —
- (a) that a negative notice or an interim negative notice has been issued to a person;

s. 34H

- (b) any other information relating to a negative notice or an interim negative notice prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection;
- (c) in connection with the disclosure of information under paragraph (a) or (b) —
 - (i) the name, address and date of birth of the person to whom the information relates; and
 - (ii) any other identifying information the CEO considers to be relevant in the circumstances.
- (3) If the CEO discloses information to the ACC under subsection (2)(a) and the negative notice or interim negative notice is subsequently cancelled, the CEO must provide information about the cancellation to the ACC.
- (4) If the CEO discloses information to the ACC under subsection (2)(b) or (c) and the information is no longer up to date or found to be incorrect or inaccurate in some other respect, the CEO may disclose new or revised information to the ACC.
- (5) This section does not limit the powers of the CEO to disclose information under another provision of this Act.

[Section 34G inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34H. Disclosure of information relevant to protection of children or other persons

- (1) In this section —

 - (e) the Commissioner of the Australian Federal Police; or
 - (f) the Commissioner (however designated) of the police force of another jurisdiction; or
 - (g) an external government agency prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this definition; or
 - (h) any other person or body, or person or body of a class, prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this definition.
- (2) The CEO may disclose to a prescribed authority any information obtained or created as a result of the performance of a function or the exercise of a power under this Act —
- (a) that, in the opinion of the CEO, is, or is likely to be, relevant to the wellbeing of a child or a class or group of children; or
 - (b) without limiting paragraph (a), in the case of disclosure to the CEO (Children and Community Services) — that, in the opinion of the CEO, is, or is likely to be, relevant to —
 - (i) the wellbeing of a person who under the Children and Community Services Act 2004 section 96 qualifies for assistance for the purposes of Part 4 Division 6 of that Act; or
 - (ii) the safety of a person who has been subjected to, or exposed to, family violence; or
 - (iii) the administration of the Children and Community Services Act 2004;
- or
- (c) that is information of a kind prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.

s. 34I

- (3) However, a prescribed report obtained from the CEO (Justice) under section 34C cannot be disclosed under subsection (2) without the approval of the CEO (Justice).
- (4) This section does not limit or derogate from any other Act or law relating to the disclosure of information for the protection of children or other persons.

[Section 34H inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34I. Sharing of police information

Division 2 — Authorised officers

[Heading inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34K. Designation of authorised officers

The CEO may, in writing, designate officers of the Department to be authorised officers —

- (a) generally for the purposes of this Act; or
(b) for the purposes of a provision of this Act specified in the designation.

[Section 34K inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34L. Identity cards

- (1) The CEO must ensure that each authorised officer is issued with an identity card in an approved form.
- (2) An authorised officer must display the authorised officer's identity card whenever dealing with a person in respect of whom the officer has exercised, is exercising, or is about to exercise, a power under this Act.
- (3) In any proceedings the production by an authorised officer of the authorised officer's identity card is conclusive evidence of their designation under section 34K.

[Section 34L inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

Division 3 — Powers of authorised officers

[Heading inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34M. Entry to places

- (1) An authorised officer may, for an authorised purpose, enter a place if —
 - (a) its occupier gives informed consent to the entry; or
 - (b) the entry is authorised by an entry warrant.
- (2) An occupier gives informed consent to entry to a place if the occupier gives consent after being informed by an authorised officer —
 - (a) of the powers the officer wants to exercise in respect of the place; and
 - (b) of the reasons why the officer wants to exercise those powers; and
 - (c) that the occupier can refuse to consent to the officer entering the place.

[Section 34M inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34N. Powers after entering place

An authorised officer who enters a place under section 34M(1) may, for an authorised purpose, do any of the following —

- (a) inspect the place and any thing at the place;
- (b) search the place and any thing at the place;
- (c) measure, test, photograph or film any part of, or any thing at, the place;
- (d) take any thing, or a sample of or from any thing, at the place for analysis or testing;
- (e) operate equipment or facilities at the place or direct a person at the place to do so;

- (f) make a copy of, or take an extract from, any record or document at the place;
- (g) seize any thing at the place that is or may afford evidence of an offence under this Act;
- (h) direct (orally or in writing) the occupier of the place, or a person at the place, to give the officer any assistance the officer reasonably requires.

[Section 34N inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34O. Directions to provide information or documents

 - (b) direct a person to produce a record or document that is in the person's possession or under the person's control;
 - (c) make a copy of a record or document produced in response to a direction under paragraph (b).
- (2) A direction under subsection (1)(a) —
 - (a) must specify the time at or within which the information or answer must be given; and
 - (b) may require that the information or answer —
 - (i) be given orally or in writing; and
 - (ii) be given at, or sent or delivered to, a place specified in the direction; and
 - (iii) in the case of written information or a written answer — be sent or delivered by a means specified in the direction; and
 - (iv) be verified by statutory declaration.

- (3) A direction under subsection (1)(b) —
- (a) must specify the time at or within which the record or document must be produced; and
 - (b) may require that the record or document be produced —
 - (i) at a place specified in the direction; and
 - (ii) by a means specified in the direction.
- (4) A person is not excused from complying with a direction under this section to give information, answer a question or produce a record or document on the ground that complying with the direction might tend to incriminate the person or render the person liable to a penalty.
- (5) However, any information or answer given by an individual in compliance with a direction under this section is not admissible in evidence against the individual in criminal or civil proceedings other than proceedings for perjury or for an offence under section 35.
- (6) In directing a person under this section, an authorised officer must explain to the person —
- (a) that it is an offence to contravene the direction; and
 - (b) the effect of subsections (4) and (5).
- (7) A direction under this section may be given orally or in writing.
[Section 34O inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34P. Additional powers for relevant records

An authorised officer may, for an authorised purpose, do any of the following —

- (a) operate a computer or other thing on which the officer suspects on reasonable grounds a relevant record is or may be stored or direct a person who has the custody or control of the computer or thing to do so;

- (b) direct (orally or in writing) a person who is, or appears to be, in control of a record or document that the officer suspects on reasonable grounds is a relevant record to give the officer a translation, code, password or other information necessary to gain access to, or interpret and understand, the record or document;
- (c) make a copy of, take an extract from, download, print, photograph or film a record or document that the officer suspects on reasonable grounds is a relevant record;
- (d) seize a record or document that the officer suspects on reasonable grounds is a relevant record and retain it for as long as is necessary for the purposes of this Act;
- (e) seize a computer or other thing on which the officer suspects on reasonable grounds a relevant record is or may be stored and retain it for as long as is necessary for the purposes of this Act;
- (f) take reasonable measures to secure or protect a relevant record, or computer or other thing on which a relevant record is or may be stored, against damage or unauthorised removal or interference.

[Section 34P inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34Q. Offence to contravene direction

A person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a direction given to the person under this Division commits an offence.

Penalty: imprisonment for 12 months and a fine of $12 000.

[Section 34Q inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34R. Exercise of power may be recorded

An authorised officer may record the exercise of a power under this Division, including by making an audiovisual recording.

[Section 34R inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34S. Assistance and use of force to exercise power

- (1) An authorised officer exercising a power under this Division may authorise as many other people to assist in exercising the power as are reasonably necessary in the circumstances.
- (2) In exercising the power, an authorised officer, and a person authorised under subsection (1) to assist the officer, may use force that is reasonably necessary in the circumstances.

[Section 34S inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34T. Procedure for seizing things

- (1) If an authorised officer seizes any thing under this Division, the officer must give the person who was in possession of the thing a receipt for it in the approved form.
- (2) If an authorised officer seizes any thing under this Division, the officer must, if practicable, allow a person who is otherwise entitled to possession of the thing to have reasonable access to it.
- (3) An authorised officer who seizes any thing under this Division may take reasonable measures to prevent the thing being concealed, lost, damaged or destroyed.
- (4) If it is not practicable to move a thing that has been seized under this Division, an authorised officer may do whatever is reasonably necessary to secure the thing where it is situated and to notify people that it is under seizure.
- (5) A person must not, without the approval of an authorised officer, interfere or deal with any thing that the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, has been seized under this Division by an authorised officer.

Penalty for this subsection: imprisonment for 12 months and a fine of $12 000.

[Section 34T inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34U. Application of Criminal and Found Property Disposal Act 2006

- (1) The Criminal and Found Property Disposal Act 2006 applies to any thing that is seized under this Division.
- (2) For the purposes of the Criminal and Found Property Disposal Act 2006, the Department is a prescribed agency.

[Section 34U inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

Division 4 — Entry warrants

[Heading inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34V. Application for entry warrant

- (1) An authorised officer may apply to a magistrate for a warrant (an entry warrant) authorising the entry of a place for an authorised purpose.
- (2) Subject to this section —
 - (a) an application for an entry warrant must be in writing and include the information prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (b) the grounds of the application must be verified by affidavit; and
 - (c) the applicant must appear in person before the magistrate to provide information in support of the application on oath.
- (3) An application for a warrant may be made by remote communication if a magistrate considers that such an application is reasonable in the circumstances.
- (4) If an application for an entry warrant is made by remote communication and it is not practicable to send the magistrate written material —
 - (a) the application may be made orally; and

- (b) the magistrate must make a written record of the application and any information given in support of it; and
- (c) if the warrant is issued — the applicant must, as soon as practicable, send the magistrate an affidavit verifying the application and any information given in support of it.

[Section 34V inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34W. Issue and content of entry warrant

- (1) On an application for an entry warrant, a magistrate may issue the warrant if satisfied that it is necessary for an authorised officer to enter a place for an authorised purpose.
- (2) An entry warrant must contain the following information —
 - (a) a reasonably particular description of the place to which the warrant relates;
 - (b) a reasonably particular description of the authorised purpose for which entry to the place is required;
 - (c) if the authorised purpose is the investigation of a suspected offence under this Act – the provision of the Act suspected of being contravened;
 - (d) the period, not exceeding 14 days, during which the warrant may be executed;
 - (e) the name of the magistrate who issued the warrant;
 - (f) the date and time when the warrant was issued.
- (3) An entry warrant must be in the form prescribed by the regulations.
- (4) If a magistrate issues an entry warrant on an application made by remote communication —
 - (a) if it is practicable to send a copy of the original warrant to the applicant by remote communication — the magistrate must do so; or

- (b) if it is not practicable —
 - (i) the magistrate must provide the applicant, by remote communication, with the information that must be set out in the warrant; and
 - (ii) the applicant must complete a form of warrant with the information received and give the magistrate a copy of the form as soon as practicable after doing so; and
 - (iii) the magistrate must attach the copy of the form to the original warrant and any affidavit received from the applicant, and make them available for collection by the applicant.
- (5) The copy of the original warrant sent, or the form of the warrant completed, under subsection (4) has the same force and effect as the original warrant.

[Section 34W inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34X. Refusal of entry warrant

If a magistrate refuses to issue an entry warrant, the magistrate must record on the application, or the written record of the application, the fact of, the date and time of, and the reasons for, the refusal.

[Section 34X inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

34Y. Effect of entry warrant

- (1) An entry warrant comes into force when it is issued by a magistrate.
- (2) An entry warrant may be executed according to its terms by an authorised officer entitled to enter the place for the authorised purpose specified in the warrant.
- (3) However, if an applicant for an entry warrant contravenes section 34V(4)(c) or 34W(4)(b)(ii), evidence obtained under the entry warrant is not admissible in proceedings in a court or tribunal.

[Section 34Y inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 29.]

 - (g) in any other circumstances prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) The person must notify the CEO of a relevant change of particulars in accordance with this section as soon as practicable after the change occurs.
- Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $5 000.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a relevant change of particulars is any of the following —
- (a) a change in the person's name, residential address or contact details;
 - (b) the person starting child-related employment with a particular employer;
 - (c) the person not starting child-related employment with a particular proposed employer;
 - (d) the person ceasing child-related employment with a particular employer;

- (e) the person starting to carry on a child-related business;
 - (f) the person deciding not to start to carry on a proposed child-related business;
 - (g) the person ceasing to carry on a child-related business;
 - (h) if the person is a student —
 - (i) the person completing or otherwise ceasing a course of study under which the person may or must undertake child-related work as part of that course; or
 - (ii) a change in the person's education provider with whom the person is completing a course of study under which the person may or must undertake child-related work as part of that course;
 - (i) a change prescribed by the regulations.
- (4) A notification under subsection (2) must be in the approved form.
- (5) The approved form may require the provision of any information the CEO thinks fit in connection with a relevant change of particulars.

[Section 35C inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 31.]

36. Assessment notice to be returned to CEO in certain cases

A person must return to the CEO an assessment notice issued to the person as soon as is practicable after —

- (a) the person is charged with or convicted of a Class 1 offence (other than a Class 1 offence committed or allegedly committed by the person when a child); or
- (b) the CEO issues a negative notice or an interim negative notice to the person; or

s. 39

- (c) the CEO gives the person a notice of cancellation of the assessment notice under section 21A(3), 21B(2), 21C(2) or 31(6).

Penalty: a fine of $12 000 and imprisonment for 12 months.

[Section 36 amended: No. 7 of 2010 s. 20; No. 47 of 2022 s. 32.]

[37, 37A, 38. Deleted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 33.]

39. Use and disclosure of information obtained or created in course of official functions

A person who is or has been engaged in the performance of functions under this Act must not, directly or indirectly, disclose or make use of information obtained or created in the course of performing those functions except —

- (a) for the purpose of, or in connection with, performing functions under this Act; or
- (b) for the purpose of the investigation of a suspected offence under this Act or the conduct of proceedings against a person for an offence under this Act; or
- (c) as required or allowed under this Act or another written law; or
- (ca) if the information relates to proceedings before a court or tribunal and the proceedings are or were open to the public; or
- (cb) if the disclosure or use involves the provision of statistical information that could not reasonably be expected to identify a specific person; or
- (d) with the written consent of the Minister or the person to whom the information relates.

Penalty: a fine of $24 000 and imprisonment for 2 years.

[Section 39 amended: No. 47 of 2022 s. 34.]

39A. Ability to provide information and protection from liability

- (1) In this section —
law includes the common law and any rules of equity.
- (2) This subsection applies to information disclosed —
 - (a) to the CEO for the purposes of, or in connection with, any provision of this Act; or
 - (b) without limiting paragraph (a), in connection with the administration or enforcement of this Act; or
 - [(c) deleted]*
 - (d) as otherwise authorised or required under any provision of this Act; or
 - (e) as authorised by the regulations.
- (3) In a case where subsection (2) applies, information may be disclosed despite any other enactment, law or agreement that prohibits or restricts its disclosure.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not derogate from the operation of —
 - (a) section 34E(4) or 34H(3); or
 - (b) the National Disability Insurance Scheme (Worker Screening) Act 2020 section 34(6).
- (5) Subsections (2) and (3) extend to information relating to —
 - (a) spent convictions; or
 - (b) children.
- (6) If information is disclosed by a person in good faith in a case where subsection (2) applies, the person —
 - (a) does not incur any civil or criminal liability; and
 - (b) is not to be taken to have breached any duty of confidentiality or secrecy imposed by law; and
 - (c) is not to be taken to have breached any professional ethics or standards or any principles of conduct applicable to the person's employment or to have engaged in unprofessional conduct.

- (7) Subsection (6) does not apply to the disclosure of information by an external government agency.

[Section 39A inserted: No. 48 of 2020 s. 90; amended: No. 47 of 2022 s. 35.]

40. Protection from personal liability

- (1) A person does not incur civil liability for anything that the person has done in good faith in the performance or purported performance of a function under this Act.
- (2) The protection given by subsection (1) applies even though the thing done as described in that subsection may have been capable of being done whether or not this Act had been enacted.
- (3) The State is also relieved of any liability that it might otherwise have had for another person having done anything as described in subsection (1).
- (4) In this section, a reference to the doing of anything includes a reference to the omission to do anything.

41. Employer to comply with Act despite other laws etc.

- (1) If it would be a contravention of a provision of this Act for a person (the employer) to employ another person in child-related employment, the employer is to comply with the provision despite another Act or law or any industrial award, order or agreement.
- (2) The employer does not commit an offence or incur any liability because, in complying with the provision, the employer does not start or continue to employ the person in child-related employment.

- (3) Nothing in this section operates to affect a person's right to seek or obtain a remedy under the Industrial Relations Act 1979 unless —
- (a) the remedy is for the dismissal of the person by the employer; and
 - (b) the reason the employer dismissed the person was to comply with this Act; and
 - (c) the grounds on which the person seeks the remedy relate to the fact that the person was dismissed for that reason.

[42. Deleted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 36.]

43. Liability of partners for certain offences

- (1) If —
- (a) a breach of a provision of this Act by a person (the employer) who employs, or proposes to employ, another person in child-related employment is an offence; and
 - (b) the employer that breaches the provision is a partnership,
- the offence is taken to have been committed by each of the partners in the partnership.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a partner who proves that —
- (a) the offence was committed without the partner's consent or connivance; and
 - (b) the partner exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence that ought to have been exercised having regard to the nature of the partner's functions and to all the circumstances.

43A. Protection of legal professional privilege

Nothing in this Act requires a person to disclose information that is the subject of legal professional privilege.

[Section 43A inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 37.]

44. Evidentiary matters

- (1) In proceedings for an offence against this Act, an allegation in the prosecution notice of any of the following matters is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, taken to be proved —
 - (a) that at a specified time a specified person did not have a current assessment notice;
 - (b) that at a specified time a negative notice or an interim negative notice had been issued to a specified person and was current.
- (2) In proceedings for an offence against subsection (2), (3) or (5) of section 22, an allegation in the prosecution notice that an employer was aware of a specified matter referred to in that subsection is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, taken to be proved.
- (3A) In proceedings for an offence against section 9B(1), (2) or (4), an allegation in the prosecution notice that an education provider was aware at a specified time of a specified matter referred to in that subsection is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, taken to be proved.
- (3B) In proceedings for an offence against section 9B(1), (2), (3), (4) or (5), an allegation in the prosecution notice that the procurement by an education provider of employment for a student in child-related employment was for the purpose of enabling the student to complete the syllabus for a course conducted by the provider is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, taken to be proved.

- (3) In proceedings for an offence against this Act, an assessment notice, negative notice, interim negative notice or other notice issued under this Act may be proved by tendering a copy of it certified by the CEO to be a true copy of the original.
- (4) Unless the contrary is proved, it is to be presumed that a document purporting to have been signed by the CEO was signed by a person who at the time was the CEO.
- (5) Unless the contrary is proved, it is to be presumed that a document purporting to have been signed by a delegate of the CEO was signed by a person who at the time was a delegate of the CEO and was authorised to sign it.
- (6) This section is in addition to, and does not affect the operation of, the Evidence Act 1906.

[Section 44 amended: No. 7 of 2010 s. 23.]

45. Delegation by CEO etc.

- (1) The CEO may delegate to a public sector employee or, with the approval of the Minister, another person any power or duty of the CEO under another provision of this Act.
- (2) In subsection (1) —
public sector employee means an employee as defined in the Public Sector Management Act 1994 section 3(1).
- (3) The delegation is to be in writing signed by the CEO.
- (4) A person to whom a power or duty is delegated under this section cannot subdelegate that power or duty unless the person is expressly authorised by the CEO to do so.
- (5) A person exercising or performing a power or duty that has been delegated to the person under this section is taken to do so in accordance with the terms of the delegation unless the contrary is shown.

s. 45A

- (6) Nothing in this section limits the ability of the CEO to perform a function through an officer of the Department or an agent.

45A. Delegation by public authority or other body

- (1) In this section —
chief executive officer, in relation to a relevant authority, means the principal officer (however described) of that body; relevant authority means —
- (a) a public authority; or
 - (b) any other body prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this definition.
- (2) The chief executive officer of a relevant authority may delegate to an officer or employee of the relevant authority any power or duty of the relevant authority under this Act.
- (3) The delegation must be in writing signed by the chief executive officer.
- (4) A delegation may expressly authorise the delegate to further delegate the power or duty.
- (5) A person exercising or performing a power or duty that has been delegated to the person under this section or as authorised under this section is taken to do so in accordance with the terms of the delegation unless the contrary is shown.
- (6) Nothing in this section limits the ability of the relevant authority to perform a function through an officer of the relevant authority or an agent.

[Section 45A inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 38.]

45B. Commencement of proceedings

- (1) Proceedings under this Act for an offence or in respect of any other matter may be commenced in the name of the CEO by —
- (a) the CEO; or

- (b) a person authorised to do so by the CEO.
- (2) In any proceedings no proof is required of —
 - (a) the appointment of the CEO; or
 - (b) the authorisation of a person under subsection (1)(b).
- (3) An averment in a prosecution notice that a person is authorised under subsection (1)(b) is taken to be proved unless the contrary is proved.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not limit the ability of a person to commence or conduct the prosecution of an offence if the person has authority at law to do so.

[Section 45B inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 38.]

45C. Time for commencement of prosecution

Proceedings under this Act for an offence must be commenced —

- (a) if the penalty for the offence specified by this Act includes a term of imprisonment for 5 years — within 5 years after the day on which the offence is alleged to have been committed; or
- (b) if the offence is under section 9B(1) or (2) — within 5 years after the day on which the offence is alleged to have been committed; or
- (c) in any other case — within 2 years after the day on which the offence is alleged to have been committed.

[Section 45C inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 38.]

45D. Service of documents

- (1) In this section —
 - document includes any written notice or decision;
 - give includes serve, send, issue and notify.

- (2) A document that is authorised or required by this Act to be given to a person may be given by any of the following methods —
- (a) delivering the document to the person personally;
 - (b) leaving the document for the person at the person’s last known principal place of residence or ordinary place of business;
 - (c) sending the document by post to the person’s last known principal place of residence or ordinary place of business;
 - (d) sending the document by email to an email address specified by the person for giving documents under this Act;
 - (e) any other method to which the person agrees for giving documents under this Act;
 - (f) any other method (including electronic means) prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) The regulations may make provision for or in relation to the time at which a document that is given by a particular method is taken to have been given.

[Section 45D inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 38.]

46. Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations prescribing all matters that are required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed, or are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for giving effect to the purposes of this Act.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulations may —
- (a) provide for the receipt and storage of information obtained or created under this Act that relates to a person’s criminal record and the restriction of access to that information; and

- (b) create offences and provide, in respect of an offence so created, for the imposition of a penalty not exceeding $6 000.

[Section 46 amended: No. 47 of 2022 s. 39.]

47. Review of Act

- (1) The Minister must review the operation and effectiveness of this Act, and prepare a report based on the review —
 - (a) as soon as practicable after the 5th anniversary of the day on which the Working with Children (Criminal Record Checking) Amendment Act 2022 section 40 comes into operation; and
 - (b) after that, at intervals of not more than 5 years.
- (2) The Minister must cause the report to be laid before each House of Parliament as soon as practicable after it is prepared, but not later than 12 months after the 5th anniversary or the expiry of the period of 5 years, as the case may be.

[Section 47 inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 40.]

[Section 56 amended: No. 47 of 2022 s. 42.]

57. People carrying on a child-related business, when s. 24(b) applies to

(1) Until the day prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section, section 24(b) does not apply to a person who carries on a child-related business.

(2) Different days may be prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of subsection (1) by reference to the following —

- (a) the kind of child-related work carried out by the person;
- (b) the kind of person who carries out child-related work;
- (c) the kind of place where child-related work is carried out by the person;
- (d) whether the person is a continuing operator or a new operator.

(3) In subsection (2) —

continuing operator means a person —

- (a) who carried on a child-related business immediately before the commencement day; and
- (b) who continues to carry on that same business;

new operator means a person who starts to carry on a child-related business on or after the commencement day

(whether or not the person has ever carried on a child-related business before that day).

58. Volunteers continuing in child-related employment, when s. 22(6) and 24(a) apply to

(1) In this section —

continuing volunteer means a person —

- (a) who was employed on a voluntary basis in child-related employment by another person immediately before the commencement day; and
 - (b) who continues to be employed on that basis in that employment by that person.
- (2) Until the day prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection, sections 22(6) and 24(a) do not apply in relation to a person being employed in child-related employment as a continuing volunteer.
- (3) Different days may be prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of subsection (2) by reference to the ages of the children in respect of whom child-related work is carried out by a continuing volunteer.

59. Ministers of religion etc. continuing in child-related employment, when s. 22(6) and 24(a) apply to

(1) In this section —

continuing minister of religion means a person —

- (a) who was employed in child-related employment by another person immediately before the commencement day as a minister of religion or in any other capacity for the purposes of a religious organisation; and
- (b) who continues to be employed in that employment by that person in that capacity.

- (2) Until the day prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection, sections 22(6) and 24(a) do not apply in relation to a person being employed in child-related employment as a continuing minister of religion.

60. Other people in child-related employment, when s. 22(6) and 24(a) apply to

- (1) This section does not apply to a person to whom section 58 or 59 applies.
- (2) Until the day prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection, sections 22(6) and 24(a) do not apply in relation to a person being employed in child-related employment.
- (3) Different days may be prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of subsection (2) by reference to the following —
- (a) the kind of child-related work carried out by the person;
 - (b) the kind of person who carries out child-related work;
 - (c) the kind of place where child-related work is carried out by the person;
 - (d) whether the person is a continuing employee or a new employee;
 - (e) whether a criminal record check (however described) has been made in respect of the person —
 - (i) under another Act; or
 - (ii) as prescribed by the regulations.
- (4) In subsection (3) —
- continuing employee means a person —
- (a) who was employed in child-related employment by another person immediately before the commencement day; and
 - (b) who continues to be employed in that employment by that person;

new employee means a person who starts to be employed in child-related employment on or after the commencement day (whether or not the person has ever been employed in child-related employment before that day).

60A. Wilful murder charges and convictions between 1 Jan 2006 and 2 Jul 2008 taken to be relevant changes in criminal record

Without limiting Part 3 Division 1, if a person was charged with or convicted of an offence against The Criminal Code section 278 (as read with section 282) on or after the commencement day and before the day on which the Community Protection (Offender Reporting) Amendment Act 2008 section 13 came into operation (the relevant day) —

- (a) there is a relevant change in the person's criminal record for the purposes of that Division; and
- (b) the relevant change is to be taken to have occurred on the relevant day.

[Section 60A inserted: No. 27 of 2008 s. 13(2).]

61. Transitional regulations

- (1) If this Division does not provide sufficiently for a matter or issue of a transitional nature that arises as a result of the coming into operation of this Act, the Governor may make regulations prescribing all matters that are required, necessary or convenient to be prescribed for providing for the matter or issue.
- (2) Regulations made under subsection (1) may provide that specified provisions of this Act —
 - (a) do not apply; or
 - (b) apply with specified modifications,to or in relation to any specified person, matter or issue.
- (3) If regulations made under subsection (1) provide that a specified state of affairs is taken to have existed, or not to have existed,

Working with Children (Screening) Act 2004

Part 6 Transitional provisions

Division 2 Transitional provisions for Working with Children (Criminal Record Checking) Amendment Act 2022

s. 62

on and from a day that is earlier than the day on which the regulations are published in the Gazette but not earlier than the commencement day, the regulations have effect according to their terms.

- (4) In subsections (2) and (3) — specified means specified or described in the regulations.
- (5) If regulations contain a provision referred to in subsection (3), the provision does not operate so as —
- (a) to affect in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) the rights of that person existing before the day of publication; or
 - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the day of publication.

[Section 61 amended: No. 47 of 2022 s. 43.]

Division 2 — Transitional provisions for Working with Children (Criminal Record Checking) Amendment Act 2022

[Heading inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 44.]

Subdivision 1 — Preliminary

[Heading inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 44.]

62. Terms used

In this Division —

2022 Amendment Act means the Working with Children (Criminal Record Checking) Amendment Act 2022; commencement day means the day on which section 44 of the 2022 Amendment Act comes into operation;

former classification provisions means section 7, and Schedules 1 and 2, as in force immediately before commencement day;

new classification provisions means section 7, and Schedules 1 and 2, as in force on and after commencement day;

pre-commencement assessment application means an application for an assessment notice that is pending immediately before commencement day;

pre-commencement cancellation application means an application for the cancellation of a negative notice under section 19 that is pending immediately before commencement day.

[Section 62 inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 44.]

Subdivision 2 — Classification of offences

[Heading inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 44.]

63. Pre-commencement assessment applications

- (1) This section applies to a person who has a pre-commencement assessment application.
- (2) Subject to this Subdivision, the former classification provisions continue to apply to and in relation to the person until the CEO makes a decision under section 12 in relation to the application and then —
 - (a) if an assessment notice is issued — until that assessment notice ceases to have effect or the person applies for a further assessment notice under Part 2 Division 1 (whichever occurs first); or
 - (b) if a negative notice is issued —
 - (i) until all rights of review and appeal have been exhausted; and
 - (ii) if an assessment notice is issued as a result of a review or appeal — until that assessment notice ceases to have effect or the person applies for a further assessment notice under Part 2 Division 1

(whichever occurs first).

[Section 63 inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 44.]

64. Pre-commencement cancellation applications

- (1) This section applies to a person who has a pre-commencement cancellation application.
- (2) Subject to this Subdivision, the former classification provisions continue to apply to and in relation to the person until the CEO makes a decision on the application and then —
 - (a) if an assessment notice is issued — until that assessment notice ceases to have effect or the person applies for a further assessment notice under Part 2 Division 1 (whichever occurs first); or
 - (b) if the application is unsuccessful —
 - (i) until all rights of review and appeal have been exhausted; and
 - (ii) if an assessment notice is issued as a result of a review or appeal — until that assessment notice ceases to have effect or the person applies for a further assessment notice under Part 2 Division 1 (whichever occurs first).

[Section 64 inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 44.]

65. Decision to act under s. 17(3)(d)

- (1) This section applies to a person if —
 - (a) the person is subject to a decision of the CEO to act under section 17(3)(d) made before commencement day; and
 - (b) the CEO has not made a decision under section 12 in respect of the person before commencement day.

- (2) Subject to this Subdivision, the former classification provisions continue to apply to and in relation to the person until the CEO makes a decision under section 12 and then —
- (a) if an assessment notice is issued — until that assessment notice ceases to have effect or the person applies for a further assessment notice under Part 2 Division 1 (whichever occurs first); or
 - (b) if a negative notice is issued —
 - (i) until all rights of review and appeal have been exhausted; and
 - (ii) if an assessment notice is issued as a result of a review or appeal — until that assessment notice ceases to have effect or the person applies for a further assessment notice under Part 2 Division 1 (whichever occurs first).

[Section 65 inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 44.]

66. Decision to act under s. 20

- (1) This section applies to a person if —
- (a) the person is subject to a decision of the CEO to act under section 20 made before commencement day; and
 - (b) the processes provided for, or referred to, in section 20 (the relevant processes) have not been completed in respect of the person immediately before commencement day.
- (2) Subject to this Subdivision, the former classification provisions continue to apply to and in relation to the person until the relevant processes are completed and then —
- (a) if an assessment notice is issued — until that assessment notice ceases to have effect or the person applies for a further assessment notice under Part 2 Division 1 (whichever occurs first); or

- (b) if a negative notice is issued or is not cancelled —
 - (i) until all rights of review and appeal have been exhausted; and
 - (ii) if an assessment notice is issued as a result of a review or appeal — until that assessment notice ceases to have effect or the person applies for a further assessment notice under Part 2 Division 1 (whichever occurs first).

[Section 66 inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 44.]

67. Processes associated with s. 32

- (1) This section applies to a person if —
 - (a) the person is the subject of a notice given to the CEO before commencement day that the CEO must treat under section 32(1) as an application for an assessment notice; and
 - (b) the CEO has not made a decision under section 12 in respect of the person before commencement day.
- (2) Subject to this Subdivision, the former classification provisions continue to apply to and in relation to the person until the CEO makes a decision under section 12 and then —
 - (a) if an assessment notice is issued — until that assessment notice ceases to have effect or the person applies for a further assessment notice under Part 2 Division 1 (whichever occurs first); or
 - (b) if a negative notice is issued —
 - (i) until all rights of review and appeal have been exhausted; and
 - (ii) if an assessment notice is issued as a result of a review or appeal — until that assessment notice ceases to have effect or the person applies for a further assessment notice under Part 2 Division 1

(whichever occurs first).

[Section 67 inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 44.]

68. Proceedings before State Administrative Tribunal or court

- (1) Subject to this Subdivision, the former classification provisions continue to apply (to the extent relevant) to and in relation to a person who is the subject of proceedings before the State Administrative Tribunal or a court under or in respect of this Act that were commenced —
 - (a) before commencement day; or
 - (b) on or after commencement day if the proceedings relate to —
 - (i) any proceedings commenced before commencement day; or
 - (ii) any matter where the right to commence those proceedings arose before commencement day and the period for commencing those proceedings had not expired before commencement day; or
 - (iii) any matter where the right to commence those proceedings expired before commencement day but the State Administrative Tribunal or a court grants an extension of time to commence those proceedings; or
 - (iv) any matter to which subsection (4) or any of sections 63 to 67 apply.
- (2) Subsection (1)(b)(i) and (ii) extend to a case where the period for commencing proceedings expires and the State Administrative Tribunal or a court grants an extension of time to commence the proceedings.

- (3) The former classification provisions apply under subsection (1) pending the outcome of the proceedings (and subject to subsection (4) and the other provisions of this Subdivision).
- (4) Subject to this Subdivision —
- (a) if, as a result of proceedings referred to in subsection (1), an assessment notice is issued to the person who was the subject of the proceedings, the former classification provisions continue to apply to and in relation to the person until that assessment notice ceases to have effect or the person applies for a further assessment notice under Part 2 Division 1 (whichever occurs first); and
 - (b) if, as a result of proceedings referred to in subsection (1), a negative notice still applies in relation to the person who was the subject of the proceedings, the former classification provisions continue to apply to and in relation to the person —
 - (i) until all rights of review and appeal have been exhausted; and
 - (ii) if an assessment notice is issued as a result of a review or appeal — until that assessment notice ceases to have effect or the person applies for a further assessment notice under Part 2 Division 1 (whichever occurs first).

[Section 68 inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 44.]

69. Rights of review and appeal: related provision

- (1) This section applies if a provision of this Subdivision provides that the former classification provisions continue to apply to and in relation to a person until all rights of review and appeal have been exhausted.
- (2) Subject to this Subdivision, if the State Administrative Tribunal or a court grants an extension of time to commence review or appeal proceedings, the former classification provisions continue to apply to and in relation to the person pending the outcome of those proceedings.

[Section 69 inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 44.]

70. Rights of review and appeal no longer apply if application made under s. 19 or 20

If a person to whom a negative notice has been issued applies to the CEO on or after commencement day for the notice to be cancelled under section 19 or 20 —

- (a) all rights of review and appeal in relation to the negative notice are taken to have been exhausted for the purposes of this Subdivision; and
- (b) the former classification provisions cease to apply to and in relation to the person.

[Section 70 inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 44.]

71. Application of new classification provisions

- (1) Despite any other section in this Subdivision, the new classification provisions apply to and in relation to a person if the person is charged with, or convicted of, an offence on or after commencement day that is classified as a Class 1 offence or a Class 2 offence under those provisions.
- (2) Despite any other section in this Subdivision, the new classification provisions apply to and in relation to a person if the person is subject to a decision of the CEO to act under section 17(3)(d) or 17B(2)(b) made on or after commencement day.
- (3) If the new classification provisions apply to a person by operation of subsection (1) or (2), a classification of an offence by virtue of those provisions applies to and in relation to the person even if the offence was not a Class 1 offence or a Class 2 offence (as the case may be) at the time when the offence was committed or allegedly committed.

[Section 71 inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 44.]

Subdivision 3 — Other provisions

[Heading inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 44.]

72. Application of amended s. 12

Section 12, as in force on and after commencement day, applies to and in relation to a person who is subject to Subdivision 2.

[Section 72 inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 44.]

73. Processes associated with interim negative notice

- (1) Section 13, as in force immediately before commencement day, continues to apply in relation to an interim negative notice issued before commencement day.
- (2) Unless subsection (1) applies, section 13AA applies to and in relation to the following —
 - (a) a pre-commencement assessment application;
 - (b) a decision of the CEO to act under section 17(3)(d) if the CEO has not made a decision under section 12 before commencement day;
 - (c) a decision by the CEO to act under section 20 before commencement day if the correct notice to be substituted would be a negative notice and the CEO has not made a decision under that section before commencement day;
 - (d) a notice that the CEO must treat under section 32(1) as an application for an assessment notice if the CEO has not made a decision under section 12 before commencement day.

[Section 73 inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 44.]

74. Application of Part 3B

The powers conferred by Part 3B may be exercised in relation to a suspected offence under this Act, or other conduct, whether occurring before, on or after commencement day.

[Section 74 inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 44.]

75. Disclosure of information by CEO

- (1) This section applies if the CEO has given a notice to a person under section 38(2) or (3) before commencement day.
- (2) Despite the repeal of section 38 by the 2022 Amendment Act, the CEO must comply with subsection (4) of that section if circumstances referred to in that subsection occur on or after commencement day.

[Section 75 inserted: No. 47 of 2022 s. 44.]

76. Transitional regulations

- (1) In this section —
specified means specified or described in the regulations;
transitional matter —
 - (a) means a matter or issue of a transitional nature that arises as a result of any of the amendments to this Act made by the 2022 Amendment Act; and
 - (b) includes a saving or application matter.
- (2) If there is not sufficient provision in this Division for dealing with a transitional matter, the regulations may prescribe all matters that are required, necessary or convenient to be prescribed for dealing with the matter.
- (3) If regulations made under subsection (2) provide that a specified state of affairs is taken to have existed, or not to have existed, on and from a day that is earlier than the day on which the regulations are published in the Gazette but not earlier than

Working with Children (Screening) Act 2004

Part 6 Transitional provisions

Division 2 Transitional provisions for Working with Children (Criminal Record Checking) Amendment Act 2022

s. 76

commencement day, the regulations have effect according to their terms.

- (4) If regulations made under subsection (2) contain a provision of a kind described in subsection (3), the provision does not operate so as —
- (a) to affect in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) the rights of that person existing before the day of publication of those regulations; or
 - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the day of publication of those regulations.
