an arbitrator may order the employer to pay weekly payments to the worker.

- (2) An order under subsection (1) is referred to in this Division as an “interim payment order”.
- (3) An arbitrator may make an interim payment order for weekly payments of compensation on an application under this Division unless it appears to the arbitrator that —

 - (c) circumstances exist that are prescribed by the DRD Rules as circumstances in which such an order is not to be made.

235. Effect of interim payment order

- (1) The payment of compensation in accordance with an interim payment order —

 - (b) does not prevent a question of liability from being heard and determined on an application under section 58 or otherwise under this Act as if the compensation had not been paid.
- (2) Refusal to make an interim payment order is not a finding as to liability in respect of the matter concerned.

236. Recovery of payments

If an arbitrator subsequently determines that a person is not liable to pay compensation by way of the weekly payments or statutory expenses that have been paid in accordance with an interim payment order, the following provisions apply —

- (1) An arbitrator may revoke an interim payment order at any time.
- (2) When an interim payment order is revoked the obligation to pay compensation under the order ceases.

Division 3 — Interim suspension or reduction orders

238. Interim suspension or reduction order

- (a) an interim suspension order is made under section 238(2); and
 - (b) on the Part XI application an arbitrator orders that the weekly payments be increased or reduced,

- (3) If —
- (a) an interim reduction order is made under section 238(2); and
 - (b) on the Part XI application an arbitrator dismisses the application or orders that the weekly payments be increased, the weekly payments of the worker during the period of reduction are to be paid as if the order under Part XI had effect during that period.
