Biosecurity and Agriculture Management (Repeal and Consequential Provisions) Act 2007

No. 24 of 2007

---

An Act —

- to repeal various Acts;
- to amend certain other Acts; and
- for purposes relating to those repeals and amendments and to the enactment of the Biosecurity and Agriculture Management Act 2007.

[Assented to 12 October 2007]

The Parliament of Western Australia enacts as follows:

Part 1 — Preliminary

1. Short title

This is the Biosecurity and Agriculture Management (Repeal and Consequential Provisions) Act 2007.

2. Commencement

- (1) Subject to subsections (3), (4) and (5) this Act comes into operation on a day to be fixed by proclamation.
- (2) Different days may be fixed under subsection (1) for different provisions.
- (3) Section 34 is not to come into operation before the Minister has certified, by written notice delivered to the Governor, that each person employed by the APB on the day on which this section comes into operation has —
  - (a) become an officer of an organisation within the meaning of the Public Sector Management Act 1994; or
  - (b) been registered under the Public Sector Management (Redeployment and Redundancy) Regulations 1994 Part 4; or
  - (c) resigned or otherwise ceased employment as an officer of the APB.
- (4) Section 53 is not to come into operation before the Minister has certified, by written notice delivered to the Governor, that —
  - (a) a prescribed account, as defined in the BAM Act section 140, has been established under that Act for the cattle industry; and
  - (b) adequate provision has been made for compensation from that account in relation to cattle that are destroyed under that Act because of a disease in respect of which a declaration for the purposes of the Cattle Industry Compensation Act 1965 section 8 was in effect immediately before the coming into operation of section 53.

- (5) Section 68 is not to come into operation before the Minister has certified, by written notice delivered to the Governor, that —
- (a) a prescribed account, as defined in the BAM Act section 140, has been established under that Act for the grain and seed crops industry; and
  - (b) adequate provision has been made for compensation from the account in relation to grain, seed, crop or bags destroyed in the course of steps taken under that Act to control skeleton weed or any plant disease in respect of which a designation under the Plant Pests and Diseases (Eradication Funds) Act 1974 section 4(2) was in effect immediately before the coming into operation of section 68.

3. Meaning of terms used in this Act

In this Act —

“APB” means the Agriculture Protection Board established by the Agriculture Protection Board Act 1950;

“assets” means —

- (a) property of every kind whether tangible or intangible, real or personal, corporeal or incorporeal; and
- (b) without limiting paragraph (a) includes choses in action, goodwill, rights, interests and claims of every kind in or to property, whether arising from, accruing under, created or evidenced by or the subject of, an instrument or otherwise and whether liquidated or unliquidated, actual, contingent or prospective;

“BAM Act” means the Biosecurity and Agriculture Management Act 2007;

“Director General” means the chief executive officer of the department principally assisting in the administration of the Biosecurity and Agriculture Management Act 2007;

“liability” means any liability, duty or obligation whether actual, contingent or prospective, liquidated or unliquidated, or whether owed alone or jointly or jointly and severally with any other person;

“right” means any right, power, privilege or immunity whether actual, prospective or contingent.

Part 2 — Repeals, transitional provisions and consequential amendments

Division 1 — Preliminary

4. Application of *Interpretation Act 1984

- (1) In this section —
“authorisation” includes a licence, permit, registration, approval, accreditation or certification.
- (2) Subject to any regulations made under subsection (4), the provisions of the Interpretation Act 1984 (for example, sections 16(1), 36 and 38) about the repeal of written laws and the substitution of other written laws for those so repealed apply to the repeal of an Act mentioned in this Part as if that Act were repealed and re-enacted by the BAM Act.
- (3) The other provisions of this Act are additional to the provisions applied by subsection (2) and do not affect the operation of the provisions applied by subsection (2).
- (4) The Governor may make regulations under the BAM Act in relation to issues arising as a consequence of the operation of subsection (2).
- (5) Regulations made under subsection (4) may —
  - (a) include provisions that modify the operation of another written law or otherwise have effect despite another written law; and
  - (b) provide that an order, notice, direction, requisition or authorisation made or given under an Act repealed under Part 2 is to be taken to be an order, notice, direction, requisition or authorisation made or given under a provision of the BAM Act, or regulations made under that Act, specified in the regulations; and

Part 2 Repeals, transitional provisions and consequential amendments

Division 1 Preliminary

(c) provide that subsection (2) does not apply to an order, notice, direction, requisition or authorisation specified in the regulations.

(6) Regulations made under subsection (4) in relation to a matter referred to in subsection (5)(a) or (c) must be made within such period as is reasonably and practicably necessary to deal with a transitional matter that arises as a result of the enactment of this Act or the BAM Act.

5. Transitional regulations

(1) If there is no sufficient provision in this Act for dealing with an issue or matter of a transitional nature that arises as a result of the enactment of this Act or the BAM Act, regulations under this Act may prescribe all matters that are required or necessary or convenient to be prescribed for dealing with the matter or issue.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), regulations made under that subsection may provide that specified provisions of a written law —

- (a) do not apply; or
- (b) apply with specified modifications, to or in relation to any matter.

(3) If regulations made under subsection (1) provide that a specified state of affairs is to be taken to have existed, or not to have existed, on and from a day that is earlier than the day on which the regulations are published in the Gazette but not earlier than the day on which the BAM Act comes into operation, the regulations have effect according to their terms.

(4) In subsections (2) and (3) —
“specified” means specified or described in the regulations.

- (5) If regulations contain a provision referred to in subsection (3), the provision does not operate so as to —
- (a) affect in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State, an authority of the State or a local government), the rights of that person existing before the day of publication of those regulations; or
  - (b) impose liabilities on any person (other than the State, an authority of the State or a local government) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the day of publication of those regulations.
- (6) Regulations made under subsection (1) in relation to a matter referred to in subsection (2) must be made within such period as is reasonably and practicably necessary to deal with a transitional matter that arises as a result of the enactment of this Act or the BAM Act.

6. Regulations under repealed Acts: transitional provisions

Regulations made under the BAM Act may set out —

- (a) such provisions of a savings and transitional nature as are necessary or convenient for the purposes of dealing with matters that are incidental to or consequential on the amendment or repeal of regulations made under a repealed Act; and
- (b) such provisions of a transitional nature as are necessary or convenient to deal with a regulation made under a repealed Act ceasing to have effect because there is not power to make that regulation under the BAM Act.

7. Construction of references in written laws

Unless the context otherwise requires, a reference in a written law to an enactment repealed by this Act includes a reference to the corresponding provision, if any, of the BAM Act.

Part 2 Repeals, transitional provisions and consequential amendments

Division 2 Agriculture Act 1988

---

13. Authority is successor in title of former holder

On commencement day the former holder is succeeded by the Authority.

14. Devolution of assets and liabilities

On and after the commencement day —

- (a) the assets and rights of the former holder that were immediately before that day vested in the former holder vest in the Authority by force of this section; and
- (b) the liabilities of the former holder (including a share of a liability) immediately before that day become, by force of this section, the liabilities of the Authority; and
- (c) any proceeding or remedy that immediately before that day might have been brought or continued by or available against or to the former holder, may be brought or continued and are available, by or against or to the Authority; and
- (d) all records and data of the former holder pass to the Authority.

15. Certain Crown land

Crown land that, immediately before the commencement day, is under the care, control and management of the former holder is to be regarded as if it had, at that time —

- (a) been reserved under the Land Administration Act 1997 section 41 for the purposes of the Biosecurity and Agriculture Management Act 2007; and
- (b) under the Land Administration Act 1997 section 46, been placed under the care, control, and management of the Authority for those purposes.

16. Certain intellectual property

- (1) On the commencement day any intellectual property, or right to apply for, hold, receive, exploit or dispose of intellectual property, that the State has immediately before that day is, by operation of this section, assigned to the Authority.
- (2) In subsection (1) —
“intellectual property” means intellectual property created in the performance of functions under the repealed Act.
- (3) The Minister may certify in writing that a specified intellectual property right was, or was not, created, acquired or held for the purposes of the repealed Act, and such a certificate is conclusive evidence of that fact, unless the contrary is shown.

17. Agreements and instruments generally

Any agreement or instrument subsisting immediately before the commencement day —

- (a) to which the former holder was a party; or
- (b) which contains a reference to the former holder, has effect on and after the commencement day as if —

- (c) the Authority were substituted for the former holder as a party to the agreement or instrument; and
- (d) any reference in the agreement or instrument to the former holder were (unless the context otherwise requires) amended to be or include a reference to the Authority.

Division 3 — Aerial Spraying Control Act 1966

18. Repeal

The Aerial Spraying Control Act 1966 is repealed.

(2) Schedule 2 item 48 is deleted.

Subdivision 2 — Transitional provisions

40. Meaning of terms used in this Subdivision

In this Subdivision —

“Authority” means the Western Australian Agriculture Authority established under the Biosecurity and Agriculture Management Act 2007;

“commencement day” means the day on which section 34 comes into operation;

“Director General” means the chief executive officer of the department principally assisting in the administration of the Biosecurity and Agriculture Management Act 2007;

“former account” means The Agriculture Protection Board Fund referred to in the repealed Act section 9;

“repealed Act” means the Agriculture Protection Board Act 1950.

41. Funds in, or payable to, former account

- (1) On the commencement day any moneys standing to the credit of the former account are to be credited to the Consolidated Account and the former account is then to be closed.
- (2) The Consolidated Account is to be credited with any money that became payable to the former account before the commencement day and that is paid after that day.

42. Devolution of assets and liabilities

On and after the commencement day —

- (a) the assets and rights of the APB that were immediately before that day vested in the APB vest in the Authority by force of this section; and
- (b) the liabilities of the APB (including a share of a liability) immediately before that day become, by force of this section, the liabilities of the Authority; and
- (c) any proceeding or remedy that immediately before that day might have been brought or continued by or available against or to the APB, may be brought or continued and are available, by or against or to the Authority; and
- (d) all records and data of the APB pass to the Authority.

43. Proceeds of sale of certain assets

- (1) If any assets vested in the Authority under section 42 that were purchased from moneys in the Declared Plants and Animals Control Fund referred to in the Agriculture and Related Resources Protection Act 1976 section 65 are sold, the proceeds from that sale must be credited to the Declared Pest Account established under the BAM Act.
- (2) If any assets vested in the Authority under section 42 that were purchased from moneys in the Skeleton Weed Eradication Fund established by the Plant Pests and Diseases (Eradication Funds) Act 1974 section 5 are sold, the proceeds from that sale must be credited to the prescribed account referred to in section 2(5)(a).

- (3) The Authority may certify in writing that a specified asset was, or was not, purchased from moneys in a former account, and such a certificate is conclusive evidence of that fact, unless the contrary is shown.

44. Exemption from State taxation

- (1) In this section —
“State tax” includes stamp duty chargeable under the Stamp Act 1921 and any other tax, duty, fee, levy or charge under a law of the State.
- (2) State tax is not payable in relation to anything that occurs by reason of this Subdivision.

45. Agreements and instruments generally

Any agreement or instrument subsisting immediately before the commencement day —

- (a) to which the APB was a party; or
(b) which contains a reference to the APB,

has effect on and after the commencement day as if —

- (c) the Authority were substituted for the APB as a party to the agreement or instrument; and
(d) any reference in the agreement or instrument to the APB were (unless the context otherwise requires) amended to be or include a reference to the Authority.

46. Immunity continues

Despite the repeal of the Agriculture Protection Board Act 1950, where the APB had the benefit of any immunity in respect of an act, matter or thing done or omitted before the commencement day, that immunity continues in that respect for the benefit of the State.

47. Registration of documents

The Registrar of Titles is to take notice of the provisions of this Division and is empowered to record and register in the appropriate manner the necessary documents, and otherwise to give effect to this Division.

48. Saving

The operation of any provision of this Division is not to be regarded —

- (a) as a breach of contract or confidence or otherwise as a civil wrong; or
- (b) as a breach of any contractual provision prohibiting, restricting or regulating the assignment or transfer of assets, rights or liabilities or the disclosure of information; or
- (c) as giving rise to any remedy by a party to an instrument or as causing or permitting the termination of any instrument, because of a change in the beneficial or legal ownership of any assets, right or liability; or
- (d) as causing any contract or instrument to be void or otherwise unenforceable; or
- (e) as releasing or allowing the release of any surety.
