and

and

- (b) by repealing subsection (7).

Section 6A inserted

7. After section 6 of the principal Act, the following section is inserted —

Use by Commission of government staff, etc.

6A. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Commission may by arrangement between the Commission and the Minister concerned make use, either full-time or part-time, of —

- (a) the services of staff employed in the Public Service of the State or in a State agency or instrumentality or otherwise in the service of the Crown in right of the State; or
- (b) any facilities of a department of the Public Service of the State or of a State agency or instrumentality.

(2) An arrangement under subsection (1) shall be made on such terms as the Commission, the Minister concerned and the Public Service Commissioner agree.

(3) A seconded officer shall, before he commences his duties as such, take an oath or affirmation, to be administered by the chairman of the Commission, that, except in accordance with this Act, he will not divulge any information received by him under this Act.

Section 7 amended

8. Section 7 of the principal Act is amended —

- (a) in subsection (1) by deleting paragraphs (a) and (b), and “and” after paragraph (b), and substituting the following —

- (a) receive information furnished to it by any person who alleges that a public officer has —
- (i) corruptly acted or corruptly failed to act in the performance of the functions of his office or employment; or
 - (ii) corruptly taken advantage of his position as holder of his office or employment to obtain any benefit for himself or any other person; or
 - (iii) committed a scheduled offence whilst acting or purporting to act in his official capacity; or
 - (iv) committed an offence under section 552 of The Criminal Code by attempting, whilst acting or purporting to act in his official capacity, to commit a scheduled offence; or
 - (v) committed an offence under section 553 of The Criminal Code by inciting, whilst acting or purporting to act in his official capacity, the commission of a scheduled offence; or

(vi) committed an offence under section 558 of The Criminal Code by conspiring, whilst acting or purporting to act in his official capacity, to commit a scheduled offence;

(aa) receive information furnished to it by any person who alleges that another person has been involved in the commission of an offence —

(i) referred to in paragraph (a) (iii), (iv), (v) or (vi); and

(ii) committed by a public officer,

in such a manner as under Chapter II of The Criminal Code to be deemed to have taken part in committing, or to have committed, that offence or to have been an accessory after the fact to that offence;

(ab) consider, in the light of its own experience and knowledge and independently of any allegation referred to in paragraph (a) or (aa), whether or not the Commission ought itself to allege that a public officer has conducted himself, or that another person has been involved, in a manner described in paragraph (a) or (aa);

(ac) make such preliminary inquiry, if any, as it considers necessary to enable it to form an opinion under paragraph (b);

- (b) consider whether or not, in its opinion, there are reasonable grounds for an allegation to be referred to a person or body (other than the Parliamentary Commissioner) who, or which, is empowered by law to investigate or take action, or both, in relation to allegations of conduct or involvement of a kind described in paragraph (a) or (aa); and

- (b) in subsection (1) (c) by deleting “furnished” and substituting the following —

”;

and

(h) by repealing subsections (6), (7) and (8).

Sections 7A, 7B, 7C, 7D, 7E, 7F, 7G, 7H and 7I inserted

9. Part II of the principal Act is amended by inserting after section 7 the following sections —

Commission may report to Parliament

7A. (1) During or after any investigation or taking of action by a person or body to whom or which an allegation has been referred under section 7, the Commission may report to each House of Parliament that the Commission considers that that investigation or taking of action is not being, or has not been, properly, efficiently or expeditiously carried out.

(2) After considering any report forwarded to it under section 7 (5) or by the Parliamentary Commissioner (in this subsection and in section 7B called “the first report”), the Commission may report to each House of Parliament —

(a) on any finding of illegality made in the first report; or

- (b) on any request made by a person to whose alleged conduct or involvement the first report relates that the findings of the first report be publicly disclosed.

(3) In making a report under this section, the Commission shall —

- (a) report facts only and shall not express ethical or other opinions; and
- (b) before reporting any facts adverse to a person or body, give the person or body a reasonable opportunity to make representations to the Commission concerning those facts.

(4) The Commission may make such recommendations as it thinks fit in a report made under this section.

Public disclosure of findings

7B. If, following the making by the Commission of a report under section 7A, either House of Parliament approves the public disclosure of the findings of the first report, a person may, notwithstanding section 11B, publicly disclose those findings, whether by publication in any newspaper or other written publication or by radio or television or otherwise.

Reference of matters to Parliamentary Commissioner

7C. (1) The Commission may in writing refer an allegation relating to a member of the Police Force or Police Department to the Parliamentary Commissioner instead of referring that allegation to the Commissioner of Police under section 7 (3).

(2) The Commission shall refer an allegation to the Parliamentary Commissioner under subsection (1) by forwarding a report and any recommendations it wishes to make on the allegation to the Parliamentary Commissioner and shall, in the case of an allegation referred to in section 7 (1) (a) or (aa), inform the person who made that allegation that it has done so.

(3) A reference under subsection (1) shall be treated by the Parliamentary Commissioner as if it were a complaint duly made under section 17 of the Parliamentary Commissioner Act 1971 and that Act shall apply to and in relation to that reference accordingly.

Consultation

7D. The Commission may, notwithstanding section 11, consult the Parliamentary Commissioner or the Director of Public Prosecutions concerning any allegation.

Review of decisions not to refer matters

7E. (1) A person may, within 30 days after having been informed under section 7 (4), or such longer period as the Commission may allow, in writing request the Commission to review its opinion that the reference of the relevant allegation is not warranted.

(2) On receiving a request made under subsection (1), the Commission shall —

- (a) review; and
- (b) confirm or reverse,

the opinion to which that request relates.

(3) The Commission shall inform each person who makes a request under subsection (1) of its decision under subsection (2) (b) on the request within 15 days after the making of the request, or such longer period as is agreed between the Commission and that person.

Duty to notify Commission of possible corrupt conduct

7F. (1) This section applies to a person who is —

- (a) the Parliamentary Commissioner;
- (b) the principal officer of a public authority; or
- (c) an officer who constitutes a public authority,

but does not apply to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(2) A person to whom this section applies shall report to the Commission any matter —

- (a) which that person suspects on reasonable grounds concerns or may concern conduct or involvement referred to in section 7 (1) (a) or (aa); and
- (b) which, in the case of a person referred to in subsection (1) (b) or (c), is of concern to that person in his official capacity.

(3) The Commission may make guidelines indicating what matters are or are not required by subsection (2) to be reported to the Commission, and may amend or repeal any such guidelines.

(4) This section has effect despite any duty of secrecy or other restriction on disclosure imposed under a written law, whether enacted before or after the commencement of section 9 of the Acts Amendment (Official Corruption Commission) Act 1994, and a person who complies with this section does not commit any offence by reason of that compliance.

(5) Rules of Parliament made under section 12 may prescribe who is the principal officer of a public authority, but, in the absence of any such Rules of Parliament applying in relation to a particular public authority, the principal officer of that public authority is —

- (a) the person who is the head of that public authority, its most senior officer or the person normally entitled to preside at its meetings; or
- (b) in the case of a public authority which is a department or organization within the meaning of the Public Service Act 1978, the chief executive officer of that department or organization.

(6) If a person to whom this section applies does not comply with subsection (2), the Commission may, after considering any guidelines made under subsection (3) and affording that person a reasonable opportunity to be heard by the Commission, report that non-compliance to any person or body who or which has the power to take disciplinary action against the person to whom this section applies.

(7) In this section —

“public authority” means —

- (a) department or organization within the meaning of the Public Service Act 1978; or

- (b) statutory authority within the meaning of the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1985; or
- (c) government department or other authority to which the Parliamentary Commissioner Act 1971 applies; or
- (d) person or body, or holder of an office —
 - (i) under whom or which a public officer holds office or by whom or which a public officer is employed; or
 - (ii) who or which is prescribed for the purposes of this subparagraph, but does not include the President of the Legislative Council or the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly.

Director of Public Prosecutions to notify Commission of certain matters

7G. The Director of Public Prosecutions shall —

- (a) report to the Commission any matter which the Director of Public Prosecutions suspects on reasonable grounds concerns or may concern conduct or involvement referred to in section 7 (1) (a) or (aa) on the part of the Deputy Director of Public Prosecutions or of a member of the staff of the Director of Public Prosecutions; and

- (b) provide the Commission with such statistics as are specified from time to time by the Commission by writing given to the Director of Public Prosecutions, being statistics relating to the number and types of allegations of the kind referred to in section 7 (1) (a) or (aa) or both received by the Director of Public Prosecutions during each calendar year or during such other period as is specified by the Commission.

Any person may notify Commission of possible corrupt conduct

7H. (1) A person (including a public officer) may report to the Commission any matter which that person suspects on reasonable grounds concerns or may concern conduct or involvement referred to in section 7 (1) (a) or (aa).

(2) This section has effect despite any duty of secrecy or other restriction on disclosure imposed under a written law, whether enacted before or after the commencement of section 9 of the Acts Amendment (Official Corruption Commission) Act 1994, and a person who exercises the power conferred by subsection (1) does not commit any offence by reason of that exercise.

Funds of Commission

7I. (1) The funds available for the purpose of enabling the Commission to perform its functions consist of —

- (a) moneys from time to time appropriated by Parliament and paid to the Commission;

- (b) interest paid to the credit of the Fund under subsection (4); and
- (c) any moneys, other than moneys referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b), lawfully received by, made available to or payable to the Commission.

(2) The funds referred to in subsection (1) shall be placed to the credit of an account at the Treasury to be called the "Official Corruption Commission Fund", which account shall form part of the Trust Fund referred to in section 9 of the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1985.

(3) The funds recorded as standing to the credit of the Fund shall be applied to —

- (a) the remuneration and allowances payable to members and officers of the Commission;
- (b) moneys payable under an arrangement referred to in section 6A;
- (c) expenditure incurred by the Commission in the performance of its functions; and
- (d) all expenditure, other than expenditure referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c), lawfully incurred by the Commission for the purposes of, or in meeting the costs and expenses of the administration of, this Act.

(4) All funds recorded as standing to the credit of the Fund may, until required by the Commission for the purposes of this Act, be temporarily invested as the Treasurer directs in any securities in which funds standing to the credit of the Public Bank Account within the meaning of the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1985 may lawfully be invested and the Treasurer shall cause all interest derived from that investment to be paid to the credit of the Fund.

Section 8 amended

10. Section 8 of the principal Act is amended by deleting “The provisions” and substituting the following —

“ Subject to section 7I, the provisions ”.

Part IIA inserted

11. After Part II of the principal Act the following Part is inserted —
