- (4) An employer is not to be added as a named party to an award under subsection (2) if that addition would have the effect of extending the award to employees to whom another award already extends.

[Section 38 inserted by No. 94 of 1984 s. 25; amended by No. 15 of 1993 s. 12 and 31; No. 20 of 2002 s. 117(1)⁴.]

 - (b) shall not, within the specified term, vary the award or that provision, as the case may be, unless and to the extent that —
 - (i) it is satisfied that, by reason of circumstances which have arisen since the time at which the specified term was fixed, it would be inequitable and unjust not to do so;
 - (ii) on an application made under paragraph (a), it is satisfied that it is fair and right so to do; or
 - (iii) the parties to the award agree that the award or provision should be varied;and
 - (c) may within the specified term cancel the award if the parties to the award agree that it be cancelled.

- (2) The Commission shall not make an order under this section until it has given notice to the named parties to the award and the Council, the Chamber, the Mines and Metals Association and the Minister and afforded them an opportunity to be heard in relation to the proposed variations.

 - (b) the area in which the agreement is to operate;
 - (c) the intended parties to the agreement; and
 - (d) any other matter prescribed by regulations made by the Governor under section 42M.

- (8) In subsection (5) —
“nominal expiry date” means the date specified in the agreement or enterprise order as the date on which the agreement or enterprise order expires.

[Section 42 inserted by No. 20 of 2002 s. 133.]

- (4) An order under subsection (2) may be made subject to such conditions as the Commission thinks fit.
- (5) An application under subsection (2) operates —

 - (b) as a stay of any application for an enterprise order that has been made by a negotiating party, until the application under subsection (2) is determined or withdrawn.

- (6) Bargaining between negotiating parties for an industrial agreement is initiated when the negotiating party to whom the notice is given notifies the initiating party under subsection (1) that that negotiating party will bargain.

Subdivision 1 — Definition

[Heading inserted by No. 20 of 2002 s. 4.]

97VR. Interpretation

In this Subdivision —

“award” includes an award under the Coal Industry Tribunal of Western Australia Act 1992;

“comparable award”, in relation to an employee, means an award or awards regulating the terms and conditions of employment of employees engaged in the same kind of work as the employee;

“relevant order” means any order under this Act that is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of section 97VS.

[Section 97VR inserted by No. 20 of 2002 s. 4.]

97VS. No-disadvantage test defined

- (1) For the purposes of Schedule 4 clause 1(1)(e), an EEA passes the no-disadvantage test if it does not disadvantage the employee in relation to the terms and conditions of his or her employment.
- (2) An EEA disadvantages an employee as mentioned in subsection (1) only if its provisions result, on balance, in a reduction in the overall entitlements of the employee under —
 - (a) an award; or
 - (b) a relevant order,to which this subsection applies.
- (3) Despite subsection (2), an EEA is to be taken to disadvantage the employee as mentioned in subsection (1) if —
 - (a) it confers on the employer a power to change any term or condition of the employment without the consent of the employee; and
 - (b) the employer could exercise the power in a way that would result, on balance, in a reduction in the overall entitlements of the employee referred to in subsection (2).
- (4) Subsection (2) applies to —
 - (a) an award; or
 - (b) a relevant order,that the Registrar determines, whether under section 97VT or otherwise, would otherwise extend to the employee.

Industrial Relations Act 1979

Part VID Employer-employee agreements

Division 6 No-disadvantage test

s. 97VT

- (5) If the Registrar is satisfied that there is no award that would otherwise extend to the employee, subsection (2) applies to —
- (a) any award, including an award under the Commonwealth Act, that the Registrar determines, whether under section 97VT or otherwise, to be a comparable award; and
 - (b) a relevant order.
- (6) If —
- (a) the Registrar is not able to determine an award for the purposes of subsection (4) or (5); or
 - (b) section 97VT(2)(b) applies, the EEA is to be taken not to disadvantage the employee in relation to the terms and conditions of his or her employment.

Note: By virtue of section 5(2) of the Minimum Conditions of Employment Act 1993 a provision of an employer-employee agreement is of no effect if it is less favourable to the employee than a minimum condition of employment under that Act.

[Section 97VS inserted by No. 20 of 2002 s. 4.]

97VT. Determination of award, comparable award or relevant order by Registrar

- (1) If an employer —
- (a) proposes to enter into an EEA; but
 - (b) is unsure which award, comparable award or relevant order will be relevant to the employment for the purposes of section 97VS,
- the employer may apply in writing to the Registrar for the making of a determination of that matter.
- (2) Upon such an application being made the Registrar must —
- (a) determine which award, comparable award or relevant order will be relevant for the purposes of section 97VS; or

- (b) determine that there is no such award, comparable award or relevant order.
- (3) A determination under subsection (2) is binding on the Registrar for the purposes of section 97VS if the EEA concerned is lodged for registration under Division 5, unless the Registrar considers that the circumstances existing at the time when the determination was made have changed in a material way.

[Section 97VT inserted by No. 20 of 2002 s. 4.]

97VU. All entitlements to be considered

In comparing the entitlements of an employee under an EEA to the entitlements that would be provided to the employee under —

- (a) an award or a comparable award; or
- (b) a relevant order,

the Registrar must take into account all relevant benefits whether in the form of money or otherwise.
