

MISCELLANEOUS
REGULATIONS (VALIDATION).

No. 23 of 1985.

AN ACT to declare that certain regulations shall be deemed not to have ceased to have effect and to provide for the further application of section 42 (2) of the Interpretation Act 1984 upon those regulations being laid before the Legislative Assembly.

[Assented to 24 April 1985.]

WHEREAS due to administrative mishap the regulations referred to in Schedule 1 were not laid before the Legislative Assembly in accordance with the requirements of section 42 (1) of the Interpretation Act 1984;

AND WHEREAS it is desirable to remedy the consequences of the failure to comply with that section so that—

- (a) the regulations referred to in Schedule 1 are deemed not to have ceased to have effect by reason of section 42 (2) of the Interpretation Act 1984; and
- (b) the Legislative Assembly should be enabled to invoke the provisions of section 42 (2) of that Act upon the laying of those regulations before that Assembly:

NOW therefore be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as the Miscellaneous Regulations (Validation) Act 1985.
- Commencement. 2. This Act shall come into operation on the day on which it is assented to by the Governor.
- Validation. 3. (1) Notwithstanding section 42 (2) of the Interpretation Act 1984, the regulations referred to in Schedule 1 shall be deemed not to have ceased to have effect upon the failure to comply with section 42 (1) of that Act in respect of those regulations and never to have ceased to have effect on account of that failure and, subject to subsection (2), those regulations shall have effect, and be deemed to have had effect, according to their tenor as if that failure to comply with section 42 (1) of the Interpretation Act 1984 had not occurred.

(2) Upon the regulations referred to in Schedule 1 being laid before the Legislative Assembly, section 42 (2) of the Interpretation Act 1984 shall apply in respect of those regulations and the Legislative Assembly shall be enabled accordingly, but section 42 (2) shall apply as if the words "or if any regulations are not laid before both Houses of Parliament in accordance with subsection (1)" were omitted.

(3) In this Act "regulations" includes rules and by-laws.
