Manual and Signet, and it was further provided that the Governor be authorised, empowered and commanded to do and execute all things that belong to his office and to exercise all powers and authorities vested in him according to such instructions as may from time to time be given to him under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet or by Order of Her Majesty in Her Privy Council or by Her Majesty through one of Her Principal Secretaries of State and according to such Laws as are from time to time in force in the State of Western Australia:

And whereas by section 2 of the Constitution Act, 1889, it was provided that there shall be in place of the Legislative Council then subsisting a Legislative Council and a Legislative Assembly and that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by and with the consent of the said Council and Assembly to make laws for the peace, order and good Government of Western Australia and its Dependencies and that such Council and Assembly shall, subject to the provisions of that Act have all the powers and functions of the then subsisting Legislative Council:

And whereas it is proper and expedient that further constitutional provision be made to further establish the offices aforesaid and to regulate the powers of the holders of those offices and to confirm the established constitutional provision aforesaid and to regulate the manner and form in which the powers of the Parliament of Western Australia may hereafter be exercised in relation to the offices and powers aforesaid:
