(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1) of this section The Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Perth in his corporate name may—

- (a) purchase or acquire by exchange or in any other manner and whether subject to or free from any conditions, any interest in any property;
- (b) sell, give, exchange, lease or dispose of in any other manner whether subject to, or free from, any condition, any interest in any property;

- (c) mortgage whether legally or equitably, or otherwise encumber in any manner any interest in any property whether or not the property is vested in him upon any trust or otherwise, by way of security for—
 - (i) the advance of moneys to be used for any purpose; or
 - (ii) the performance of any other obligation undertaken by him in his corporate name,including the granting of any fixed or floating legal or equitable charge over any or all of such property;
- (d) covenant or agree to pay any money or to perform any other obligation or guarantee the payment of money or the performance of any other obligation without giving security in respect thereof;
- (e) enter alone or with another or others into any partnership, syndicate, joint venture or other transaction whether for the purpose of profit or otherwise;
- (f) become a member of a company whether incorporated in the State or otherwise, or any other body corporate and may become or nominate a director or any officer of such a company or other body corporate;
- (g) compound, release or settle claims by or against him in his corporate name, whether in contract or tort, including agreeing the amount of any compensation payable in respect of the compulsory acquisition under the Public Works Act, 1902, or otherwise of any property vested in him in his corporate name, or agreeing to exchange any such property in lieu of such compensation or part thereof.

(3) Any land mortgaged or otherwise encumbered pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section shall, if such land is sold, or if the mortgagee or encumbrancee exercises his power of foreclosure pursuant to the mortgage or encumbrance, be freed and absolutely discharged from the trusts upon which the land may, for the time being, be held by the Archbishop.

(4) None of the powers conferred by paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (2) of this section shall be exercised in respect of any lands which have been granted by the Crown to or for the use of the Roman Catholic Church and which are vested in the Archbishop, except with the prior approval of the Governor.

(5) Subject to subsection (4) of this section, no purchaser, mortgagee or lessee of any such lands shall be bound or concerned to inquire whether any power of sale, mortgage, or lease was duly and regularly made or exercised, or in anywise to see to the application of any purchase, mortgage or other moneys, or to inquire into the necessity, regularity, or propriety of the sale, mortgage, or lease, or be affected by notice that it is irregular, unnecessary or improper. .
