

WESTERN AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT GAZETTE.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

SATURDAY, JUNE 11, 1836.

[NUMBER 17

*Survey Office, Western Australia,
June 6, 1836.*

IT having been found, on recent examination, that the course of the Avon River above or to the southward of that portion of it which has been heretofore surveyed as far as the township of Beverley, is not in the direction which was assumed on the occasion of the assignment of locations in that quarter;—Notice is hereby given to all persons possessing assignments of land on the Avon above Beverley, that they will be permitted to exchange and re-select the portions of land to which they are severally entitled, in such other parts of the Avon districts, within the intended counties of York and Grantham, as they may desire,—subject to certain necessary regulations, which will be made known by application at this Office.

Notice is also given hereof, that, unless applications for the aforesaid objects be made within three months from the present date, they will not be attended to, and the parties will lose the benefit of the exchange.

*By Command of His Excellency,
J. S ROE,
Surveyor-General.*

QUARTER SESSIONS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the Colony of Western Australia, will be holden at the Court House, at Fremantle, on Friday the first day of July next, at the hour of Nine in the Forenoon.—Dated the 9th day of June, in the year of our Lord 1836.

A. H. STONE,
Clerk of the Peace.

*Commissariat Office, Perth,
May 31, 1836.*
