F. Armstrong, Esquire; Joseph Harris, junior, Esquire; Thomas N. Yule, Esquire; H. W. Bunbury, Esquire; Donald Hume Macleod, Esquire; Lenox Bussell, Esquire; Thomas B. Mortimer, Esquire; Marshall MacDermott, Esquire; Francis H. Byrne, Esquire; and Nicholas Carey, Esquire,—

GREETING :—

Know ye, that we have assigned you jointly and severally, and every one of you, our Justices to keep our Peace in our Colony of Western Australia, and to keep, or cause to be kept, all Ordinances and Statutes for the good of the Peace, and for the preservation of the same, and for the quiet rule and government of our People, made in all and singular their articles in our said Colony, according to the force, form and effect of the same; and to chastise and punish all persons that offend against the form of those Ordinances or Statutes, or any one of them, in the aforesaid Colony, as it ought to be done according to the form of those

Ordinances and Statutes; and to cause to come before you, or any of you, all those who, to any one or more of our People, concerning their bodies or the firing of their houses, have used threats, to find sufficient security for the Peace, or their good behaviour towards us and our People: and if they shall refuse to find such security, then them in our prisons, until they shall find such security, to cause to be safely kept. We have also assigned you, and every two or more of you, our Justices, to enquire the truth more fully by the oath of good and lawful men of our said Colony, by whom the truth of the matter shall be better known of all and all manner of Felonies, Poisonings, Trespasses, Forestalling, Regratings, Ingressing, and Extortions whatsoever; and of and singular other crimes and offences, of which the Justices of our Peace may or ought lawfully to enquire by whomsoever, and after what manner soever, in our said Colony, done or perpetrated, or which shall happen to be then done or attempted; and also of all those who in the aforesaid Colony in companies against our Peace, in the disturbance of our People, with armed force, have gone or rode, or hereafter shall presume to go or ride; and also of all those who have there lain in wait, or hereafter shall presume to lie in wait, to maim or cut, or kill our People. And also of all Victuallers, and all and singular other persons, who, in the abuse of Weights and Measures or in selling Victuals against the form of the Ordinances and Statutes, or any of them therefore made, for the common benefit of England and our People of our said Colony, have offended or attempted, or hereafter shall presume, in our said Colony, to offend or attempt. And also of all Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Stewards, Constables, Keepers of Gaols, and other Officers, who, in the execution of their offices about the premises, or any of them, have unduly behaved themselves, or hereafter shall presume to behave themselves unduly, or have been, or shall happen to be, careless, remiss, or negligent in our aforesaid Colony; and of all and singular articles and circumstances, and all other things whatsoever that concern the premises, or any of them, by whomsoever and after what manner soever in our aforesaid Colony done or perpetrated, or which hereafter shall there happen to be done or perpetrated or attempted in what manner soever: and to inspect all Indictments whatsoever so before you or any of you taken, or before others late our Justices of the Peace in our aforesaid Colony, made or taken, and not yet determined—and to make and continue processes thereupon against all and singular the persons so indicted, or who before you shall hereafter happen to be indicted, until they can be taken, surrender themselves, or be outlawed; and to hear and determine all and singular the Felonies, Poisonings, Trespasses, Forestallings, Regravings, Ingrossings, Extortions, unlawful Assemblies, and Indictments aforesaid, and all and singular other the premises, according to the Laws and Statutes of England, as in the like case it has been accustomed or ought to be done: and the same Offenders, and every of them, for their offences, by Fines, Ransoms, Amerciaments, Forfeiture, and other means, as, according to the Law and custom of England, or form of the Ordinances and Statutes aforesaid, it has been accustomed or ought to be done, to chastise and punish. And therefore we command you, and every of you, that, to keeping the Peace, Ordinances, Statutes, and all and singular other the premises, you diligently apply yourselves, and that at certain days and places, which you, or any such two or more of you as aforesaid, shall appoint for these purposes unto the said premises, ye make enquiries, and all and singular the premises hear and determine, and perform and fulfil them in the aforesaid form, doing therein what to Justice appertains according to the Law and custom of England, saving to us the Amerciaments and other things to us therefrom belonging. Lastly, we command, by the tenor of these Presents, our Sheriff of our said Colony, that at certain days and places, which you, or any such two or more of you as is aforesaid, shall make known to him, he cause to come before you, or such two or more of you as is aforesaid, so many and such good and lawful men of his bailiwick, by whom the truth of the matter in the premises shall be the better known, and enquired into.—In witness whereof, we have caused our trusty and well-beloved JAMES STIRLING, Knt., our Governor and Commander-in-Chief of our Colony of Western Australia and its Dependencies, to affix to these Presents his Signature and the Public Seal of our said Colony.

Dated, at Perth, this sixth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.
