GOVERNMENT GAZETTE.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

SATURDAY, APRIL 13, 1839. [NUMBER 146.]

*Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth,
April 10, 1839.*

THE extended period, referred to in certain Notices issued from this Office on the 10th of January last, having now expired when it was determined that the fine of Sixpence per acre should be levied on the unimproved Lands of Absentees, held under Circular B, dated Downing-street, February 3d, 1829, except in such cases where documentary proof should be exhibited of the performance of the necessary Conditions of Improvement; and also that the Quit Rents which are chargeable on unimproved Lands belonging to Individuals (whether absent from or residing in the Colony) holding the same under the Regulations of Circular C, dated Downing-street, 12th July, 1830, should be levied,—His Excellency the Governor has directed it to be notified to all parties interested, that they will be allowed the choice of the three following modes of discharging the Amount of the said Fines, or the said Quit Rents, within the period of Limitation:—

1stly. By Cash Payment.

2ndly. By Investment of the Amount of said Fines, or said Quit Rents, in additional Improvements on the Lands chargeable.

3rdly. By the resignation of such a portion of the Lands (calculated at the rate of One Shilling per acre) as would be equivalent to the respective Fines or Quit Rents.

The surrender of Lands so circumstanced will atill continue to be received, in accordance with Lord Glenelg's Despatch of the 7th of March, 1837, but the rate allowed per acre will, in conformity with the Notices above referred to, be limited to One Shilling.

*By His Excellency's command,
PETER BROWN, Colonial Secretary.*
