(PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.)

FRIDAY, AUGUST 25, 1843.

[NUMBER 369

*Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth,
August 23, 1843.*

His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to direct the publication for general information of the following copy of a Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, dated 23d Nov., 1842, together with the order of the Privy Council therein referred to.

*By His Excellency's command,
PETER BROWN.*

Downing-street, Nov. 23, 1842.

SIR,—I have the honor to transmit to you, for publication in the Colony under your government, an order made on the 2nd instant, by Her Majesty in Council, authorising Portuguese ships to import "into any of the British Possessions abroad from the Portuguese Dominions, goods the produce of the Portuguese Dominions, and to export goods from such Possessions to be carried to any foreign country whatever.

I have the honor to be,

Sir, your most obedient

Humble servant,

(Signed) STANLEY.

Governor HUTT, &c., &c., &c.

At the Court of Windsor the 2nd day of Nov., 1842.

Present—The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by an Act passed in the 3rd and 4th years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the Trade of the British Possessions abroad," after reciting that by the law of Navigation, Foreign ships are permitted to import into any of the British Possessions abroad, from the countries to which they belong, goods the produce of these countries, and to export goods from such Possessions to be carried to any foreign country whatever; and that it is expedient that such permission should be subject to certain conditions, it is enacted that the privileges thereby granted to foreign ships shall be limited to the ships of those countries which having colonial possessions shall grant the like privileges of trading with those possessions to British ships, or which, not having colonial possessions, shall place the commerce and navigation of this country, and of its possessions abroad, upon the footing of the most favored nation, unless his Majesty, by his Order in Council, shall in any case deem it expedient to grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of foreign countries, although the conditions aforesaid shall not in all respects be fulfilled by such foreign country; and it is thereby provided, that no foreign country shall be deemed to have fulfilled the before-mentioned conditions, or to be entitled to the privileges aforesaid, unless and until his Majesty shall, by some order or orders, to be by him made, by the advice of his Privy Council, have declared that such foreign country hath so fulfilled the said conditions, and is entitled to the said privileges.

And whereas it hath been made to appear to the satisfaction of her Majesty in Council that the Government of Portugal hath fulfilled the conditions hereinbefore mentioned, now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers in her Majesty in Council by the said recited Act of Parliament in that behalf vested, her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth declare, and it is hereby declared accordingly, that the Government of Portugal hath fulfilled the conditions hereinbefore mentioned, and that Portuguese ships may import into any of the British Possessions abroad from the Portuguese Dominions, goods the produce of the Portuguese Dominions, and may export goods from such Possessions, to be carried to any foreign country whatever; provided always, that nothing therein contained shall be construed to prevent Portuguese ships from trading with any of the British Possessions in Europe to such extent, and in such manner as they lawfully may under the law of navigation now in force.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honorable Lord Stanley, one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. GREVILLE.
