[NUMBER 465

*Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth,
August 15, 1845.*

GOVERNMENT DEBENTURES.

His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified, that tenders will be received at this Office until noon on Tuesday, the 7th October next, for the purchase of Government Debentures to the extent of £2,000.

Payment will be required to be made in cash on fourteen days' notice from this Office; and the tender may include the whole of the above amount, or any part thereof.

The Debentures will be issued for the sum of £10 each, under the signature of His Excellency the Governor, under the authority of the Act of Council 9th Victoria No. 3; and they will bear interest at a rate not exceeding seven per cent. per annum, payable quarterly at the Colonial Treasury in Perth. The tenders will specify at what rate of interest the money will be lent.

These Debentures will continue out for a period of ten years, but the Government reserve to itself the right of calling them in at an earlier date, on giving six months' notice in the Government Gazette, after the expiration of which time all interest will cease.
