WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

ANNO NONO,

V I C T O R I A E R E G I N A E.

By His Excellency, ANDREW CLARKE, Esquire, K.H. Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Colony of Western Australia and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. X.

An Ordinance to amend an Act intituled "An Act for the regulation of Pilotage and Shipping in the Harbours of Western Australia."

Whereas, by the second section of an Act passed in the Fourth and Fifth years of the Reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for the Regulation of Pilotage and Shipping in the Harbours of Western Australia," it is, amongst other things, enacted, That the Master or Commander of every Ship or Vessel entering any port, harbor, or anchorage, in this colony, wherein any licensed pilot shall be appointed, or quitting his station for the purpose of shifting berth, or proceeding to sea, from such port, harbor, or anchorage, shall pay the several dues respectively appointed by the Governor in the regulations of such port, harbor, or anchorage: and whereas it is highly expedient to encourage the resort of shipping to the various harbors of this colony, and it appears conducive to that end to abolish all charges either for pilotage fees or for harbor dues, Be it therefore enacted, by his Excellency, the Governor of Western Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that from and after the passing of this Ordinance, in any regulations to be promulgated with respect to any of the ports, harbors, or anchorages, of this colony, no pilotage fees or harbor dues shall be appointed to be paid.

ii. And whereas, by the sixth section of the said Act, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that the master or commander of any ship or vessel, arriving in any port, harbor, or anchorage, in this colony, shall enter into a bond according to a form in the schedule thereunto annexed, with one surety to be approved by the proper officer for the due observance of the enactments of the said act, and the regulations aforesaid; and whereas, the requiring of such bond appears to be in some cases attended with hardship and inconvenience; Be it therefore enacted, that if the master or commander of any ship or vessel, shall, deposit the certificate of registry of such ship or vessel with the collector or sub-collector of revenue at the port, to be by him delivered back to the depositor or his agent, together with the port clearance, then, in every such case, it shall be lawful for the collector or sub-collector of revenue at such port, at his discretion, to dispense with the execution of such bond.

iii. And be it enacted, that from and after the passing of this Ordinance, it shall not be necessary for any person to obtain the certificate alluded to in the tenth section of the said act, and contained in the schedule thereunto annexed, before such person shall be suffered to depart from this colony in any ship or vessel, and no master or commander of any ship or vessel, nor any surety who shall have entered into a bond jointly with such master or commander, shall be deemed liable to any action or to any penalty or forfeiture for having received or conveyed any person on board of such ship or vessel, after the passing of this Ordinance, who shall not have received such certificate, anything in the said act to the contrary notwithstanding.

iv. And be it enacted, that all Pilots employed after the passing of this Ordinance, shall be subject to the same fines and forfeitures for misconduct as any hired pilots mentioned in the Ordinance aforesaid.

v. And be it enacted, that this Ordinance may be amended or repealed by any Ordinance to be passed during the present session.

No. VIII.

An Ordinance to continue for a limited time the Ordinance to regulate the temporary occupation of Crown Lands in the Colony of Western Australia.

Whereas in the seventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, Queen Victoria, an Ordinance of the Legislative Council of the Colony was passed, intituled, "An Act to regulate the temporary occupation of Crown Lands in the Colony of Western Australia," which Ordinance will shortly expire: And whereas it is expedient that the said Ordinance should be continued for a limited period: Be it therefore enacted, by His Excellency, the Governor of Western Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that the said Ordinance shall be, and the same is hereby, continued for the space of three years from the date of this Ordinance.

ii. And be it enacted, that this Ordinance may be amended or repealed by any Ordinance to be passed during the present session.

ANDREW CLARKE,

Governor.

Passed the Legislative Council, this 23rd day of April, 1848.

WALKINSHAW COWAN,

Clerk of the Councils.
