*Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth,
October 20, 1847.*

His Excellency the Governor, with a view to the public convenience, has added the following to the Post Office Regulations:—

1. Letters containing Money or important documents may be registered at the time of delivery into the Post Office, upon payment to the Postmaster (or letter clerk in the General Post Office) a fee of one shilling upon each letter, exclusive of the postage; In such cases the address is to be specially noted on the back of the Letter Bill accompanying the mail, and a receipt taken for the same when delivered. Letters intended for any port beyond sea, may be also registered, upon payment of a similar fee, and the receipt of the party to whom addressed will be returned by the first opportunity, on the Voucher which accompanies the letter.

2. Persons wishing to send Bank Notes or Drafts by Post, are advised to cut such Notes or Drafts in halves, and send them at two different times, waiting the acknowledgement of one half before the other is sent, but it is to be observed that the Post Office does not engage to ensure the party from loss in any case, the fee as provided in the foregoing section, being demanded for the additional trouble of registry only.

*By His Excellency's command,
G. F. MOORE,
Colonial Secretary.*
