Conveyance of Mails.

Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth,
 July 9th, 1853.

TENDERS (in duplicate) will be received at this office up to noon of TUESDAY, the 4th October next, for the conveyance of Mails throughout the colony from the 1st January 1854, to the 31st December 1855 inclusive.

The Tenders may embrace the whole or any portion of the undermentioned lines:

Perth	and Fremantle twice a day.
Fremantle	" Bunbury weekly.
Bunbury	" the Vasse "
Perth	" Guildford twice a week.
Guildford	" Northam weekly.
Northam	" York "
Northam	" Toodyay "
Guildford	" Upper Swan "
Perth	" Canning " [month.
Perth	" Champion Bay once a

Perth “ Albany once or twice a [month.

The last Tender must include the conveyance of all steamers and other ships mails from the Sound.

Parties Tendering are not obliged to tender for the two years but may if they think fit, confine themselves to the year 1854.

Tenders must state the rate per mile at which the contractor will undertake to convey additional or express mails; the mode in which it is intended to convey the mail, whether on horseback or in a spring-cart; and the probable time he will take in conveying it to its destination.

The arrivals and departures of mails will be subject to instructions from the General Post Office, and liable to alteration at any time during the year.

Two approved sureties will be required to join the contractor in a bond for the due fulfilment of the duties respectively contracted to be performed.

No payments will be made on account of any Mail contract until such Bond shall have been respectively signed by the contractor and his sureties; and any breach of contract, in the wilful or negligent departure or delivery of mails at the appointed days and hours will subject the contractor to the loss of a proportionate part of his months pay.

Tenders to be inscribed “Tenders for conveyance of Mails”, and each Tender to bear the signatures of the proposed securities.

Parties tendering to attend on the day appointed for the opening of these Tenders, when those parties whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the amount of security, they will respectively be required to give.

Further particulars may be obtained on reference to the Postmaster General or to this office.
