WESTERN AUSTRALIA.
PROPOSED INTRODUCTION OF THE ALPACA.

No. 1.

*Copy of a Despatch from His Grace the Duke of Newcastle, to Governor
FitzGerald.*

(Circular.) *Downing-street,
25th February, 1853.*

SIR,—I herewith transmit to you the copy of a letter from the Foreign Office, with copies of a despatch and its enclosures from Mr Barton, the Acting British Consul General at Lima, from which it will be seen that a proposal has, with the consent of the Bolivian Government, been made by Don Manuel Antonio Flores to export a number of live Alpacas from a port of Bolivia to Australia.

I have no means of judging with accuracy what may be the feeling of the colonists of Western Australia on the subject, but should you find it is in favor of such an experiment you will communicate with the British Consul General at Lima, and make the necessary arrangements for the exportation of a certain number of the animals in question, which, however, you will observe, from the terms of the proposal already referred to, will not admit of any large supply being assigned to each of the Australian Colonists, should all wish to accept them.

I have to add that I have requested the Earl of Clarendon to give the necessary instructions to the Consul General at Lima on this subject.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) NEWCASTLE.

Governor FitzGerald.

10th February, 1853

[Enclosure 1 in No. 1.]

Foreign Office, February 10, 1853.

SIR,—With reference to your letter of the 23rd April last, and to previous correspondence respecting the question of exporting a number of live Alpacas from Peru to New South Wales. I am directed by Lord John Russell to transmit to you copies of a despatch and of its enclosures from Mr Barton, the Acting British Consul General at Lima, reporting a proposal made by Don Manuel Antonio Flores for effecting this desirable object, and I am to request that you will lay this fresh proposal before the Duke of Newcastle for His Grace's information and consideration.

I am, &c.,

(Signed) WODEHOUSE.

Herman Merivale, Esq., &c., &c.

[Sub-Enclosure 1 in Enclosure 1.]

No 57. British Legation, Lima, Dec. 13th, 1852.

MY LORD,—I have the honor to transmit herewith copy of a despatch received from the British Vice-Consul at Arica, together with copy and translation of a proposal made by Don Manuel Antonio Flores to export a number of Alpacas from a Port of Bolivia.

I am induced to forward these documents for your Lordship's consideration from the circumstance that Mr Flores' proposal is stated to be made with the consent of the Government of Bolivia.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) JOHN BARTON.

The Earl of Malmesbury, &c., &c.

[Sub-Enclosure 2 in Enclosure 1.]

British Consulat, Arica, Dec. 1, 1852.

SIR.—I have the honor to transmit under this cover copy and translation of a proposal made by Don Manuel Antonio Flores, to export a number of Alpacas from a Port of Bolivia, with the consent of the Government of that country, to New South Wales.

I have on several occasions been in communication with the late Mr Adams on this subject, and by reference to my despatch No. 4, of this present year, you will find a proposal from Mr Charles Ledger, which was submitted by Mr Adams to Her Majesty's Government who declined to entertain it on account of the export as proposed by Mr Ledger involving an infraction of Peruvian law.

That there is a desire on the part of the Colonists for this importation is evident from the fact that in the month of April of last year a vessel arrived at this Port from Sydney for the purpose of purchasing Alpacas for New South Wales. It was unsuccessful, owing to the prohibitory Decree of the Peruvian Government rendering impossible the open exportation of Alpacas from a Peruvian Port.

The proposition of Don Manuel Flores removes this obstacle, and is worthy of the consideration of Her Majesty's Government, or any parties in New South Wales desirous of obtaining these valuable animals, and I would venture to suggest the propriety of your immediately laying the same before Her Majesty's Government.

If anything is to be done in this matter it should be done quickly.

There is so little apparent stability in the present Government of Bolivia that it is possible a change may take place at any moment fatal to the success of this enterprise, depending, as it does in a great measure, on the influence of Don Manuel Flores with the present President.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) G. H. NUGENT.

John Barton, Esq., &c., &c.

Translation.

The proposition of Manuel Antonio Flores to place in the Port of Arica, or in one of the Creeks in its vicinity, a given number of Alpacas.

1.—I oblige myself under a fine to deliver in good health and good condition from two hundred to two hundred and fifty Alpacas in the above mentioned Ports.

2.—I compromise myself to obtain from the competent authority a permission for their embarkation without any risk or responsibility for the ship or its captain.

3.—As soon as I receive an answer on this business to my satisfaction I will enter into a contract before the Agent of the English Government for the convenience of both parties.

4.—In this document shall be specified a certain number of days after signature for placing the Alpacas in the Valley of Calacia, (three days journey from Cobija) ready to proceed to their point of embarkation, previous notice being given that the vessel is ready to receive them on board.

5.—From thence to New Holland two intelligent individuals, who understand the care and treatment of these animals, will accompany them to advise them on board of all that may be necessary for their better preservation.

6.—It is also obligatory on me to place in the point where they are shipped fifty cargoes of the Perua Straw for the nourishment of the animals, besides the hay or other fit pasture which might be brought on board the ship.

7.—The animals will be in their assorted colors, white, black, brown and grey, care being taken that they are not under two years old, nor more than four.

8.—Those Alpacas which are born during the voyage and arrive in good condition at the port of discharge shall be considered in the number, and will be taken as substitutes for those that die on the passage.

9.—I am to be paid a moderate amount for each animal shipped, this sum being payable in Valparaiso.

10.—Besides, I am to be considered as entitled to the gratification offered by the Authority at the Colonies to the individual who first introduces a hundred live Alpacas, to be paid on the certificate of my agent of having delivered that number in New Holland.

11.—In case of neglect and notable carelessness, of which the Captain or agent shall receive timely notice from my agents, and it is proved that no attention was paid to them, there shall be no reduction in the amount of the gratification, always provided that the number of live Alpacas which arrive at their destination is not under fifty.

12.—It shall be obligatory on the party in New Holland to send in the vessel which comes for the above-mentioned animals one hundred merino sheep from fathers of true breed, of which I shall be obliged to pay the value and freight, to be decided by the British Consul at Arica in case of dispute.

13.—Any other clauses which may be considered necessary shall be stipulated in the Contract of which mention is made in the third article.

(Signed) MANUEL ANTO. FLORES.
