Conveyance of Mails.

Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth, Septemler 22nd, 1858.

TENDERS (in duplicate) endorsed "Tenders for conveyance of Mails" will be received at this office up to noon on Friday, the 19th November next, for the conveyance of the following mails from the 1st January to 31st December, 1859.

A Tender may embrace the whole or any portion of the undermentioned lines.

Between Fremantle and the half-way Tree on the Perth road, twice daily.

Perth and the half-way tree on the Fremantle road, twice daily.

Guildford and Perth, once daily.

Guildford and Northam, once a week.

Northam and York, once a week.

Northam and Toodyay, once a week.

Guildford and Upper Swan, once a week.

Perth and Canning, once a week.

Gingin and Victoria Plains, once a month.

Perth and Albany, once a month; to be conveyed in a spring cart.

The Mail for Albany will be despatched from Perth on such day in each month as may be decided by the Postmaster General and the mail from Albany is to start for Perth immediately on the arrival of the steamer bringing an English Mail, whether she calls on her outward or homeward voyage.

Whenever the Contractor may be returning from Albany without an English Mail, he will bring such Mails as may be entrusted to him by the Postmaster.

The arrival and departure of Mails will be subject to instructions from the Postmaster General, and liable to alteration at any time during the year.

Two approved sureties will be required to join the Contractor in a guarantee for the due fulfilment of the duties respectively contracted to be performed.

No payment will be made on account of any Mail Contract until the bond shall have been respectively signed by the Contractor and his sureties, and any breach of contract in the wilful or negligent departure or delivery of the Mails at the appointed days and hours will subject the Contractor to the loss of a proportionate part of his monthly pay, or the cancellation of his Contract.

The Contractors are to convey and deliver all mails which may be entrusted to them under the authority of the Postmaster General or any of the Postmasters, and to provide secure and water-tight lockers for Mails in carts, and coverings for the bags on horseback; the Contractors moreover will be bound not to convey themselves, or permit their servants to convey, any letter or packet to the prejudice of the Post Office Revenue, under a penalty of Three Pounds for each offence, which penalty will be deducted from their monthly pay.

The whole of the Mails (excepting Albany) may be conveyed either in spring carts or on horseback at the option of the Contractor.

The persons employed by any of the Contractors to convey Mails are to be subject to the approval of the Postmaster General both as to age and character.

Further particulars may be obtained on reference to the Postmaster General at whose office forms of Tender may be had as well as from the Resident Magistrates.

By His Excellency's command,
FRED. P. BARLEE,
Colonial Secretary.
