

THE WESTERN AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT GAZETTE.

[PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.]

TUESDAY, 20th AUGUST, 1867.

34

Perth, 16th August, 1867.

IN order to afford all persons an opportunity to testify their loyalty and to join in the demonstration to be made in honor of His Royal Highness The Duke of Edinburgh, should he visit the Colony, the following programme of proceedings, arranged by the Committee appointed to co-operate with His Excellency The Governor in receiving and entertaining His Royal Highness, and which has His Excellency's approval, is published for general information:—

So soon as the arrival of H.M.S. Galatea is known in Perth, His Excellency The Governor will go on board, and welcome His Royal Highness, and offer him the hospitality of Government House, during his stay in this Colony.

His Excellency proposes that the Chairman and the Secretary of the Committee should accompany him, and should ascertain whether The Duke will be pleased, on his landing at Fremantle, to accept an address from the inhabitants of the Colony.

A Triumphal Arch will be erected on the Jetty at Fremantle, under which His Excellency and The Members of The Committee will receive His Royal Highness, when he lands, and where the address will be read.

A Guard of Honor will be in attendance, and arrangements will be made for the inhabitants of Fremantle to witness the ceremony.

The Streets of Fremantle will be decorated with flags and streamers, and a second triumphal arch will be erected near Mrs. Higham's house.

Small arches will also be erected at either end of the Fremantle Bridge and flags will be hoisted at intervals, along both sides of the bridge.

Carriages will be provided for His Royal Highness and Suite and for the Members of the Committee to proceed to Perth; a Military Escort will accompany the Carriages.

After the presentation of the address, His Royal Highness will be requested by His Excellency to enter the carriage provided for him, and will be driven at foot pace through the Streets of Fremantle, so as to afford the numbers that will doubtless assemble on the occasion, an opportunity of warmly welcoming His Royal Highness.

The Carriages will then proceed to Perth, where the Streets will be decorated as in Fremantle; a large triumphal arch will be erected at the junction of Barrack Street with St. George's Terrace.

His Royal Highness will enter Perth by Mill Street, and will be driven slowly through Adelaide and St. George's Terraces to Government House.

At one point there will be an assembly of as many of the Aborigines as can be collected, and near the triumphal arch will be drawn up a large body of children from the various Schools, who will sing the National Anthem.

It is the intention of His Excellency to ask His Royal Highness to be present at a Ball at Government House, at which there will be a large assembly invited to attend.

The pleasure of His Royal Highness will also be taken as to holding a levee.

His Excellency further proposes to request His Royal Highness to inaugurate the New Bridges at Perth and Guildford, which will be decorated with flags for the occasion, and whereon triumphal arches will be erected. A luncheon will be provided for His Royal Highness at Guildford, the Streets of which will be decorated in much the same manner as those of Perth and Fremantle.

It is proposed by the Committee to request the attendance of His Royal Highness, should his stay in the Colony permit, at a Ball which will probably be given at Government House, His Excellency having very kindly placed at the disposal of the Committee, the reception rooms for such purpose.

In order to render the stay of the "Galatea" at Fremantle pleasant to the Officers and Crew, it is proposed that they be asked to join in playing a Cricket Match with the Perth and Fremantle Cricket Clubs, and in a Shooting Match with the Perth and Fremantle Rifle Volunteers.

Various other suggestions are under the consideration of the Committee, but nothing definite regarding them can be decided till the arrival of His Royal Highness, and information be obtained as to the probable length of his sojourn in the Colony.

FRED. P. BARLEE,
Hon. Secretary, to the Committee.
