"THE JURY ACT, 1871."

REGULÆ GENERALES,

MADE IN PURSUANCE OF THE ACT
35 V., No. 8.

WHEREAS, by "The Jury Act, 1871," Jurors are entitled to the following remuneration, that is to say,—Every Common Juror who shall attend the Supreme Court, or the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, or any other legally constituted Court, to try civil issues, in pursuance of any summons, shall receive compensation for his loss of time and expenses at and after the following rate, that is to say:—For every Jury upon which such Juror shall be summoned, the sum of 10s. per day, and the sum of 8d. per mile of distance between the place of residence of such Juror and the said Court. Every Special Juror who shall attend pursuant to Summons for the trial of every issue shall be allowed the sum of £1 1s., together with the sum for mileage provided in the case of Common Jurors.

And whereas such remuneration is to be paid by the parties to the Causes to be tried, and for that purpose the party demanding the Jury is required to deposit such sum of money as may be determined by any Rule of Court or Order of the Judge, and such deposit is to be made in such manner, at such time, and with such Officer as the Court or Judge may prescribe, And the Chief Justice is by the said Act empowered and required, by General Orders to make rules for the purpose of carrying out the several provisions of the said Act,

It is ordered,

1. A Juror summoned to attend for the trial of Common or Special Jury causes, not having had notice on a previous day not to attend, who appears in obedience to his summons and continues ready to serve during the day if required, shall be considered as having been within the meaning of "The Jury Act, 1871," in attendance, and as being entitled to be paid according to the provisions of the said Act.

2. The sum of £13 10s. shall be deposited with the Sheriff upon the entry of every Common Law Cause, and before the issuing of the writ of venire facias or precept to the Sheriff, requiring him to summon a Common Jury for the trial of a Cause, by the party requiring the same.

3. Whenever a Special Jury shall be awarded for the trial of any issue, the sum of £20 6s. shall be deposited by the party with the Sheriff before the Registrar proceeds to appoint a time and place for the striking of such special Jury; and such deposit will be irrespective of the fee of £2 2s. payable under the provisions of the 30th section of the said Jury Act to the Sheriff on the striking of such Jury. In default of such deposit the said Order shall be of no avail, and the said Cause shall be tried in the same way as if no such Order had been made.

4. Where a Cause, after having been entered as a Common Jury Cause, has been ordered to be made a Special Jury Cause by Rule or Order, the sum of £6 16s., being the difference between the deposit of £13 10s. made at the time of entry and the sum of £20 6s., shall be forthwith deposited with the Sheriff by the party obtaining such Rule or Order; and in default the Cause shall, notwithstanding such Rule or Order, be tried by a Common Jury, unless the Judge otherwise order.

5. In every case in which the sum of £13 10s. only has been paid on the entry of a Cause, if the cause is afterwards tried as a Special Jury Cause, the said sum of £13 10s. paid on entry shall form part of the fund for payment of the Special Jury; and in every case in which a Cause is tried as a Common Jury Cause, the sum of £13 10s. paid on entry shall form the fund for payment of the Common Jury. Any balance remaining after payment of the Jury in either case shall be returned by the Sheriff to the party paying in the same.

6. In all cases, whether tried by a Special Jury or by a Common Jury, the sum of £13 10s., if deposited by the successful party, shall (less any part thereof that may be returned by the Sheriff) be recoverable as costs in the Cause, if he be otherwise entitled to such costs.

7. In Special Jury Causes, the further sum of £6 16s., if deposited by the successful party, shall, together with the fee of £2 2s. payable to the Sheriff on the striking of such Jury, be deemed to be costs of the Special Jury, and shall be recoverable as costs in the Cause if he be otherwise entitled to such costs and the Judge certify that the Cause was fit to be tried by a Special Jury.

Read in Court this 10th day of January, 1872.

ROWLEY C. LOFTIE,
