VICTORIA.

Chief Secretary's Office, Melbourne, 17th July, 1872.

SIR,—I have the honor to bring under your notice that a person named Thomas Hiden, who was arrested at Williamstown on the charge of having arrived in this Colony contrary to the provisions of the Act to prevent the influx of Criminals into Victoria, pleaded in his defence that his term of imprisonment had expired in 1870, in evidence of which he produced a Certificate under the hand of the Collector of Customs at Fremantle, shewing that "he was a free man and at liberty to leave Western Australia for any part of Her Majesty's dominions."

Hiden was convicted of the charge, ordered to be conveyed in custody back to Western Australia, and the master of the schooner by which he came to Melbourne was convicted of a breach of the Act, and fined in the sum of £10.

As clearances similar to that given by the Collector of Customs are evidently calculated to mislead the persons to whom they are given, and expose them to punishment, I take the opportunity of suggesting, as this is not the first instance of the kind that has recently occurred, that you will be good enough to take due measures to let it be known that the possession of such a Certificate will not exempt persons whose terms of imprisonment have expired from being arrested, should they come to this Colony, and on conviction punished under the provisions of the Act in question.

I have, &c.,
J. G. FRANCIS.

The Hon. The Colonial Secretary,
Western Australia.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Perth, 18th July, 1872.*
