Transfer of Land Act 1874

NOTICE

WHEREAS it is provided by § 15 of the above Act that "The grants in fee or for years of all Crown Lands remaining unalienated at the time of the commencement of this Act" [that is to say July 1st 1875] "shall be delivered not to the grantee but to the Registrar who shall retain the same &c"

And whereas many such grants have been delivered to the grantees and not to the Registrar and are now in the possession of the grantees or of their transferees or of other persons not being the Registrar

And whereas all transactions taking place with respect to such lands are void unless they shall have been done in conformity with the provisions of the above Act

Now it is hereby ordered that all persons having in their possession grants from the Crown bearing a date subsequent to the above mentioned day shall forward the same to me together with all conveyances or charges or any memoranda purporting to convey or to charge or to affect the land the subject of such transactions And shall also forward at the same time a declaration in writing attested by a Justice of the Peace or notary public either declaring that there have not been nor are any transactions affecting the land or that there have not been nor are any transactions other than those which are forwarded at the same time with the Crown grant

And such grantees shall receive in exchange for the grant a certificate of title and in the cases where the grantees have not possession the land will be conveyed charged or otherwise disposed of in accordance with the terms of the conveyances charges or other transactions which have taken place but conformably with the provisions of the Act

By Order

F. HASTINGS JAUNCEY

Registrar of Titles

January 27th 1876

Notice to the Public.

ON and after this date any person requiring traced or other copies of the whole or part of any maps or plans in the Surveyor General's Office may obtain the same on the following conditions only, as no officer is now allowed to furnish them on his private account, as heretofore:—

1. Applications for tracings or plans must be made in writing, addressed to the Surveyor General, and a deposit of ten shillings accompany each.

2. The charge made is at the rate of two shillings and sixpence for each hour, or portion thereof, a draftsman is occupied; this includes materials found.

3. Each tracing or plan will be marked with an official stamp, and bear a number as well as a note of the cost of its execution; if such should be less than the ten shillings deposited on application, any balance will be returned when the tracing or map is delivered to the depositor.

4. Tracings or plans applied for will be forwarded free of post to the applicant, but in all cases full payment for them is required to be made before delivery is given.

5. Every exertion will be made to furnish tracings and plans promptly in the order they are applied for, but no guarantee can be given that they will be delivered within any specified time.

By Command, MALCOLM FRASER,

Surveyor General.
