License to Practise as a Surveyor under the Land Transfer Act, 38 Vic., No. 13, Sec. 119.

THE Commissioner of Crown Lands hereby gives notice that in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the Act 38 Vic., No. 13, Sec. 119, he will grant a License to practise as a Surveyor, under the said Act, on the following conditions:—

- a. That the applicant holds a License under a similar Act in one of the following Colonies, viz., South Australia, Victoria, New South Wales, Queensland, New Zealand, or Tasmania, and that he produces a Certificate, of not more than one year's previous date, from the Surveyor General of one of the said Colonies, that he is a thoroughly qualified and reliable Surveyor.
- b. Any Licensed Surveyor of any of the above-named Colonies, but not licensed under the Real Property Act of one of those Colonies, shall be required to produce the same Certificate as above (under a), and, in addition, shall be subjected to an experience in field work in this Colony of not less than 12 months, before being eligible to apply for a License.
- c. Any Surveyor who shall prove to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Crown Lands that he has passed an examination (equivalent to that prescribed for a licensed Surveyor in the Colonies of South Australia, Victoria, New South Wales, Queensland, New Zealand, or Tasmania) in Great Britain, the United States of America, India, or some British Colony, and that he has been in field practice there for not less than two years, shall be eligible to apply for a license on the same conditions as under b.
- d. Any Surveyor not qualified as above under a, b, or c, shall serve at least two years in Western Australia as a Surveyor, before being eligible to apply for a License.
- e. In all cases the Commissioner of Crown Lands reserves to himself the right to subject the applicant to any examination or conditions he may consider necessary. An applicant for a License must present himself personally at the office of the Commissioner of Crown Lands, unless specially excused from such attendance.

Every applicant under these rules must satisfy the Commissioner of Crown Lands that he is a person of good fame and character.
