*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Perth, 6th May, 1886.*

HIS Excellency the Governor has directed the publication of the following account of the proceedings at the opening of the Colonial and Indian Exhibition in London by Her Majesty the Queen, on the fourth instant, contained in a telegram transmitted to His Excellency at the request of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the Executive President of the Exhibition,

By Command,
M. S. SMITH,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

[ ADDRESS. ]

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

As Executive President of the Royal Warrant of the 8th of November, 1884, for the promotion of an Exhibition of the British, Colonial, and Indian Empire, subsequently incorporated by Her Majesty's Royal Charter of the 10th September, 1885, I hereby beg leave to lay before you a brief statement of our proceedings up to the present time.

The general interest manifested in the display made by Your Majesty's Colonial and Indian Empire at the Paris Exhibition of 1878, led me, as President of the British Commission, to express a hope that an opportunity might soon occur by which Your Majesty's subjects in England would be enabled to witness the marvellous development which, under your beneficent rule, their brethren and fellow-subjects had attained throughout so many portions of the globe. It was therefore with the highest gratification I accepted Your Majesty's gracious invitation to assume the Executive Presidency of this Commission, the appointment of which by Your Majesty has been the means of making this hope a reality.

The invitations which we were empowered by Your Majesty to issue to the Colonial Governments, and to the Government of India, were forwarded towards the close of the year 1884, and, from the answers received, it at once became apparent that this undertaking had obtained warm and hearty sympathy throughout Your Majesty's dominions.

In Your Majesty's dominion of Canada, throughout your Australasian, African, West Indian, and Eastern Colonies; in your Mediterranean possessions, and elsewhere, grants were voted, commissions formed, and Executive Commissioners appointed. That the work of preparation was undertaken with enthusiasm, and attended with success, is evident from the complete and varied collections which already fill the buildings through which Your Majesty has just passed.

The response received from the Government of India was also of the most cordial character. His Excellency the Viceroy caused, through the Revenue and Agricultural Department, instructions to be issued to every district of Your Majesty's Indian Empire, for the collection of objects illustrative of the arts, manufactures, and resources of that great realm. These collections, which now adorn a large section of the Exhibition, have been supplemented by generous contributions from Their Highnesses the Princes of India, by collections the formation of which we ourselves have authorised, and by the contributions of private native exhibitors.

We are desirous of bringing under Your Majesty's notice our deep appreciation of the hearty co-operation of the Colonial Governments in the Exhibition; and of taking this opportunity of stating how greatly we are indebted to the Commissioners appointed by those Governments, and to the Executive Commissioners, on whom the superintendence of the entire work of installation has devolved.

We further desire to record the valuable assistance which we have received from Your Majesty's Viceroy, from the Supreme Government of India, and from the various officials who have so ably and thoroughly carried out their instructions.

Our grateful thanks are also due to the Colonial Governments, to the Government of India, the Corporation of the City of London, to many city companies, and to the firms and individuals who have contributed to the guarantee funds. The fact that the list of subscribers not only includes those whose interests are likely to be specially affected by the Exhibition, but also comprehends every class of the community, supplies gratifying proof of the universal sympathy and interest which this undertaking has aroused.

We venture to avail ourselves of this opportunity to convey to Your Majesty our dutiful and loyal acknowledgments of the interest which Your Majesty has been pleased to take in our labors, proved, as it is, by Your Majesty's presence here to-day. Nor can we resist a reference to a similar ceremonial, presided over by Your Majesty, but a few paces from this spot, thirty-five years ago. On that memorable occasion, the first of its kind, the Prince Consort, my beloved and revered father, filled the position which I, following in his footsteps at however great a distance, now have the honor and gratification of occupying. Your Majesty alone can fully realise with what deep interest my beloved father would, had he been spared, have watched, as their originator, the development of exhibitions both in this country and abroad, and with what especial pleasure he would have rejoiced in one having for its object the prosperity of Your Majesty's Empire, the interests of which he had so much at heart.

In the Great Exhibition of 1851, Your Majesty's Colonial and Indian possessions were indeed represented, but their importance was then but little realised, and their present greatness was at that time unforeseen. During the years that have elapsed since 1851, few greater changes have been wrought than the marvellous development of the outlying portions of Your Majesty's Empire. It is our heartfelt prayer that an undertaking intended to illustrate and to record this development may give a stimulus to the commercial interests and intercourse of all parts of Your Majesty's Dominions; that it may be the means of augmenting that warm affection and brotherly sympathy which is reciprocated by all Your Majesty's subjects; and that it may still further deepen that steadfast Loyalty in which we who dwell in the Mother Country join with our kindred who have elsewhere so nobly done honor to her name.

[HER MAJESTY'S REPLY.]

I receive with the greatest satisfaction the Address which you have presented to me on the opening of this Exhibition.

I have observed with a warm and increasing interest the promise of your proceedings in the execution of the duties entrusted to you by the Royal Commission; and it affords me sincere gratification to witness the successful result of your judicious and unremitting exertions in the magnificent Exhibition which has been gathered together here to-day.

I am deeply moved by your reference to the circumstances in which the ceremony of 1851 took place. I heartily concur in the belief you have expressed that the Prince Consort, my beloved husband, had he been spared, would have witnessed with intense interest the development of his ideas, and would I may add have viewed with pleasure our son taking the lead in the movement of which he was the originator.

I cordially concur with you in the prayer that this undertaking may be the means of imparting a stimulus to the commercial interests and intercourse of all parts of my dominions, by encouraging the arts of peace and industry, and by strengthening the bonds of union which now exist in every portion of my Empire.

Ode on the Opening of the Colonial and Indian Exhibition.

By Lord Tennyson, Poet Laureate.

Welcome! welcome, with one voice,
In your welfare we rejoice;
Sons and brothers, that have sent
From isle, and cape, and continent,
Produce of your field and flood,
Mount and mine, and primal wood,
Work of subtle brain and hand,
Splendours of the morning land,
Gifts from every British zone:
Britons! hold your own!

May we find, as ages run,
The mother's features in the son;
And may yours for ever be
That old strength and constancy
Which has made your father great
In your ancient island state,
And where'er her flag may fly,
Glorying between sea and sky.
Makes the might of Britain known:
Britons! hold your own!

Britain fought her sons of yore,
Britain failed, and never more
Careless of our growing kin
Shall we sin our fathers' sin.
Men that in a narrower day
(Unprophetic rulers they)
Drove from out the mother's nest
That young eaglet of the west
To forage for herself alone:
Britons! hold your own!

Sharers of our glorious past,
Brothers must we part at last;
Shall not we, through cold and ill,
Cleave to one another still.
Britain's myriad voices call:
"Sons, be welded each and all
Into one Imperial whole;
One with Britain, heart and soul,
One life, one flag, one fleet, one throne!"
Britons, hold your own own,
And God guard all!

HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication of the following Report, by Staff-Commander Coghlan, R.N., Admiralty Surveyor, on the re-examination of the Challenger and other main Passages connecting Cockburn Sound with the Ocean.

Relating to Challenger Passage.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.
Admiralty Survey, Perth,
20th April, 1886.

SIR,—His Excellency the Governor having forwarded to me, for remarks and suggestions, a letter from the Jarrahdale Timber Company, requesting that the Governor would be pleased to authorise that vessels of 18 feet draught (instead of 16 feet) be permitted to navigate the Challenger Passage, I have the honor to furnish, for His Excellency's information, the appended remarks and suggestions, drawn up from a re-examination of the main channels connecting Cockburn Sound with the ocean, completed during February and March, 1886, by Staff-Commanders Coghlan and Jarrad, R.N.

I have, &c.,
J. E. COGHLAN,
Staff-Commander, R.N.,
in charge of Admiralty Survey.
The Hon. Captain M. S. Smith,
&c., &c., &c.,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

1. The main channels connecting Cockburn Sound with the ocean have been re-surveyed, to ascertain if the depths had increased (as reported) since the survey made by Staff-Commander Archdeacon, R.N., in 1872. Our re-examination of the Challenger Pass proves that the alleged increase of depth in that channel has not taken place. The principal channel (Challenger Pass) communicates with the ocean about midway between Garden and Carnac Islands, and is barely half-a-cable (100 yards) wide at its narrowest part, between Stag Rocks and Flat Ledge. The depths vary from 19 to 36 feet, the former depth being found on small rocky heads, which obstruct the channel, with from 27 to 36 feet close around them. There are no natural leading marks to guide a vessel clear of these dangers. A current usually sets obliquely across the channel, either to the N.E. or S.W., according to the direction of the wind; and, therefore, a sailing vessel cannot always avoid the 19-foot rocks, and might be carried over them before the leadsman could call the soundings. A considerable ocean swell is usually experienced in the channel, for which an allowance must be made of from 2 to 3 feet. Therefore, I would suggest to His Excellency the Governor that the present regulations, which prohibit vessels of over 16 feet draught from passing through the Challenger Pass, could not be altered without danger to navigation.

2. A close re-examination was also made of the channel nearest to Garden Island (called on the charts "North Channel"), with the view of ascertaining whether or not a better channel than the Challenger Pass existed in that locality, as, from a general view of the published chart, appeared to be indicated. Our re-survey, however, led to the discovery of several additional sunken dangers, with from 9 to 18 feet on them, and deep water close around; and clearly shows that vessels should not attempt "North Channel" (unless compelled by circumstances to do so), but proceed by the Challenger Pass, and, also, that 16 feet is the greatest draught that can be taken through the latter channel in safety.

3. The rocks recently discovered in the "North Channel" are remarkable sandstone pinnacles, the sounding-lead rolling off their summits suddenly into the deep water which surrounds them. Although the soundings give little or no indication of the approach to these dangers, the bright yellow pinnacle rocks can readily be discerned from a boat during smooth water and a clear sky.

4. Appended is a description of the principal dangers discovered, which His Excellency the Governor may deem of sufficient importance to local navigation as to necessitate a "Notice to Mariners" being published in the Gazette.

LIGHTSHIP NEAR TIMANDRA BUOY.

DISCONTINUANCE OF NORTH LIGHT, LITTLE SEA HILL, AND ALTERATION OF LIGHTS AT PILOT STATION AND LITTLE SEA HILL, KEPPEL BAY.

ON and after 15th April, a Lightship, painted red and carrying a white fixed light visible at a distance of 11 miles, will be moored in 7 fathoms at low water, 3 cables N.E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  N. from the position of the Timandra Buoy, as shown on the chart.

During the flood tide a red flag will be shown by day and a white light by night from a staff on the lantern gallery.

The northern light at Little Sea Hill and the two leading lights at the Pilot Station will be discontinued after the above date; but a light will be shown from the Pilot Station, visible between the bearings of S.W. by W.  $\frac{1}{4}$  W. and S.W. by S., that is, between the Cottier Buoy and the Keppel Rocks.

The high light at Little Sea Hill will, after this date, show red when bearing northward of N.E.  $\frac{3}{4}$  E.

The Timandra Buoy will be shifted from its present position into 3 fathoms, off the N.W. extremity of the Timandra Bank.

Directions by Night.—When entering the Bay from the eastward, with the Cape Capricorn leading lights in line, and when abreast the Cottier Buoy, which will be denoted by opening the light at the Pilot Station on a S.W. by W.  $\frac{1}{4}$  W. bearing, steer for the Lightship, being careful not to bring it to the northward of a West bearing.

When abreast the Keppel Rocks, the light at the Pilot Station will be shut out. Continue a westerly course for 3  $\frac{1}{2}$  cables past the Lightship, when the Balaklava Lights will be brought into line and the usual directions may be followed.

Vessels arriving requiring Pilots—whether or not they have made the usual signal, when off the Cape—should, if not already boarded by a Pilot, make the signal for a Pilot when approaching the Lightship, which will be answered as follows :—

By a white flare up, when the Pilot will be put on board from the Lightship.

By two white lights vertical, when the Pilot is coming off from the Station and the boat is to be looked out for.

By a white light over red, when vessels are to proceed, keeping Balaklava Lights in line, and to look out for the Pilot on the line of lights.

By a red light over white, when a Pilot will be obtained at Sea Hill.

By two red lights vertical, when there is no Pilot available and the vessel is to anchor, or proceed on with Balaklava Lights in line, for better shelter.

By day the foregoing signals will be made by flags of similar colors.

Pilots may be put on board the Lightship by outward-bound vessels not further requiring their services.
