HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication of the following Instructions to Officers in British Possessions Abroad, relating to "Articles of Agreement" made out under "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854."

By Command,
M. S. SMITH,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Instructions to Officers in British Possessions Abroad.

ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT.

Board of Trade, Marine Department,
August, 1886.

In a recent case in which the Master of a Vessel brought a charge of wilful disobedience against certain members of the Crew, it was decided by a Magistrate in South Australia that the Articles were not valid or binding on the Crew, because (1.) the Voyage was not described therein with sufficient certainty, covering, in fact, nearly the whole civilised world; (2.) the number of Seamen engaged as Sailors was not mentioned.

The Board of Trade are advised that these reasons were wholly insufficient to invalidate the contract between the Master and his Seamen, but, in order to guard against similar objections being taken in future, the Board of Trade think it necessary to impress upon Officers in British Possessions Abroad the necessity of seeing that the Articles of Agreement are in every case made out strictly in accordance with the requirements of Section 149 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854.
