The Trade Mark consists of an oblong label containing a description in Spanish, English, French, and German, of the uses and qualities of the Bitters, and how they are to be used, in the centre is a blank space about 1 inch wide, having the manuscript signature of Doctor J. G. B. Siegert, and on either hand a representation in reverse and obverse of the Vienna Exhibition Medal (1873). The three parallel columns of description in Spanish, English, and German, are surrounded by a fancy border; beneath these and running horizontally, is the description in French similar to the others; on a flap running up the side of the bottle is the following inscription in Spanish, English, German, and French: "For the better guarantee of the genuineness of these bitters, each label contains a fac-simile of the signature of Dr. J. G. B. Siegert, the original inventor, and each box will contain a printed circular of the firm, Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Hized, with fac-similes of our signatures of which please take note."
