13¹/₂Colonial Secretary's Office,
Perth, 24th August, 1892.

HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication of the following Despatch, with enclosures, from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, for general information.

GEORGE SHENTON,
Colonial Secretary.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA, {
No. 23. }

Downing Street,
13th July, 1892.

SIR,—

At the Colonial Conference of 1887 considerable discussion took place upon the question whether the Governor of a self-governing Colony should exercise the Prerogative of Pardon upon his own discretion and judgment, or whether he should be guided, as in other matters of local concern, by the opinion of his responsible advisers; but no conclusion was arrived at, as the delegates of the different Colonies were not unanimous in their views. No change has therefore been made up to the present time, and the existing Royal Instructions to the Governor of Western Australia contain the following clause respecting the exercise of the Prerogative of Mercy in Capital cases:—

“The Governor shall not pardon or reprieve any such offender unless it shall appear to him expedient so to do, upon receiving the advice of the said Executive Council thereon; but in all such cases he is to decide either to extend or to withhold a pardon or reprieve, according to his own deliberate judgment, whether the members of the Executive Council concur therein or otherwise; entering, nevertheless, on the Minutes of the said Executive Council, a Minute of his reasons at length in case he should decide any such question in opposition to the judgment of the majority of the members thereof.”

2. Since 1887 the question has received further consideration, and I have recently learnt that all the Australasian Colonies desire that, if Her Majesty so please, the Instructions to their Governors should in this respect be modified so that the Ministry of the day may become responsible for the carrying out or commutation of a Capital sentence, as they already are for all other matters connected with the Administration of Justice. I accordingly lost no time in taking the Queen's pleasure upon the subject; and Her Majesty has graciously signified her willingness to accede to the desire of her Colonial subjects, and to command that fresh Instructions should be prepared for the purpose.

3. I have now the honor to transmit to you fresh Instructions under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet, containing a clause respecting the exercise of the Prerogative of Mercy, and adopting the language of the similar clause in the Instructions issued to the Governor General of Canada, language which will, I trust, be satisfactory to your Ministers as it always has been to the Government of the Dominion.

4. As the clause makes no mention of a report from the Judge in a Capital case, it will rest with your Ministers to consider what should be the practice in this respect, and as they may be glad to be made acquainted with the course which is followed in the Dominion of Canada, I transmit to you a copy of the section in the Canadian Act which relates to this subject (Sec. 8 of Chapter 181 of the Acts of 1886).

I have, &c.,

Governor Sir W. C. F. Robinson, G.C.M.G., &c., &c., &c.

KNUTSFORD.

Section 8 of Canadian Act (Chapter 181) of 1886.

8. In the case of any prisoner sentenced to the punishment of death, the Judge before whom such prisoner has been convicted shall forthwith make a report of the case to the Secretary of State, for the information of the Governor General; and the day to be appointed for carrying the sentence into execution shall be such as, in the opinion of the Judge, will allow sufficient time for the signification of the Governor's pleasure before such day, and if the Judge thinks such prisoner ought to be recommended for the exercise of the Royal Mercy, or if, from the non-decision of any point of law reserved in the case, or from any other cause, it becomes necessary to delay the execution, he, or any other Judge of the same Court, or who might have held or sat in such Court, may from time to time, either in term or in vacation, reprieve such offender for such period or periods beyond the time fixed for the execution of the sentence as are necessary for the consideration of the case by the Crown.—32-33 V., c. 29, s. 107; 36 V., c. 3, s. 1.

Report to be made by the Judge.
