And whereas the ratifications of the said Convention were exchanged on the 23rd day of March, 1891:

And whereas by section 8 of "The Mail Ships Act, 1891," it is provided, that an Order in Council may for the purpose of a Convention with a foreign State apply the said Act, subject to any exceptions or modifications not inconsistent with the provisions of the said Act, to any British possession, and that the said Act when so applied should, subject to those exceptions and modifications, and subject as therein-after mentioned have effect as if it were re-enacted, with the substitution of such British possession for the United Kingdom, provided that, before it should be applied to any British possession named in the Schedule to the said Act the Government of such possession should have adhered to the Convention:
