A vacancy occurring in the office of Chairman or Vice-Chairman shall be filled up at the next meeting of the Board after such vacancy has been declared, previous notice being given in the circulars convening the meeting.

18. Every contributor of £1 annually shall have the privilege of recommending one in-door patient; of £5 annually, three in-door patients; and of £10 annually shall have the privilege of always having one patient in the Hospital.

Life contributors shall have the same privilege in proportion; their donations being estimated as annual contributions of one-tenth.

It is to be distinctly understood that these recommendations are only to be given to persons who, on account of their poverty, are proper subjects for Hospital treatment; and will have to be renewed at the expiration of six weeks from the admission of the patient.

19. Applicants for admission to the Hospital who desire to be attended free of charge shall make a statutory declaration, in the form provided for that purpose, that they are unable to pay for medical attendance, and that they are not entitled to medical attendance from any benefit society or lodge. Any person making a false declaration will be liable to prosecution for perjury, and also to be proceeded against under Section 66, Sub-section 2, of "The Police Act, 1892."

20. Every legally qualified medical practitioner, and every member of the Board of Management, may likewise recommend patients for admission; severe accidents and cases of emergency may be admitted at all times by the Resident Medical Officer.

22. The proper hours for patients to present their recommendations for admission to the Hospital are from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, except in cases of emergency, accident, and such like.

23. No patient shall be discharged from the Hospital without the consent of the Medical Officer in charge of the case, except when ordered by the Board, or in cases of misconduct or on the expiration of the term of their admission order.

MORAL AND RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION.

25. Patients are at liberty to receive the visits of Ministers of, or members of any sisterhood in connection with, the religious denominations to which they respectively belong, and the professed religion of every patient shall be entered in the admission book on admission; ministers, and such other persons, as aforesaid, however, will not be allowed to remain in the wards (except in cases of the greatest emergency) during the professional visits of the medical officers; and they shall retire from the ward during such time as may be necessary for the latter-named gentlemen to discharge their duties.

It is also to be insisted upon that ministers of religion and such other persons, as aforesaid, visiting the Hospital for the purpose of administering religious instruction to the patients, shall visit the patients of their denomination only, and shall so conduct their services as not to interfere with the repose and quiet of other patients in the near vicinity.

26. Any patient wishing any particular minister, sister, or friend to give religious counsel in case of dangerous illness, or apprehension of the approach of death, may signify the same to the nurse, who shall at once communicate with the Resident Medical Officer, or with the Secretary, who shall obtain the presence and services of the minister, sister, or person required, if possible.

27. It is not allowable to conduct public religious services in the sick wards of the Hospital.

28. A room in the Hospital shall, when practicable, be available for public worship among the convalescents of each religious persuasion.

VISITORS.

29. Any friends, not exceeding two at any one time on any one day, may, unless prohibited by the Resident Medical Officer, be admitted to the wards, to visit patients on Wednesdays and Sundays, between the hours of two and four p.m., and shall leave the wards punctually at the latter hour. A bell will be rung five minutes before the hour for departure. Exceptions to the above rule will only be allowed by special permission of the Resident Medical Officer, or, in his absence, the Secretary, in favour of near relations or friends of patients in a dangerous state, or to persons residing at long distances and who may be otherwise unable to visit their sick friends at the regular visiting hours. Visitors are strictly forbidden to introduce food, drink, or refreshment of any kind whatever, without the sanction of the Resident Medical Officer; and to insure the perfect observance of this rule, all parcels, &c., must be opened in the presence of the nurse on duty in the ward.

Visitors must remain at the bedside of the patient they are visiting. Children in arms will not be admitted.

Any person found on the Hospital premises, without special permission, at other times than those set apart for the reception of visitors, is liable to be prosecuted in terms of Clause 16 of "The Hospitals Act, 1894."

MAINTENANCE OF ORDER AND DISCIPLINE.

30. Patients, when able, and when so desired, shall help the nurses in the needful duties of the wards, and shall attend upon other patients whose weakness and wants are greater than their own, and do such other light work as the Resident Medical Officer may direct.

31. Patients admitted suffering from syphilitic or venereal disease must (if required) sign an engagement to remain until discharged by the Medical Officer in charge of the case, and the infraction of this rule will prevent the patient being admitted at any future time.

Patients in the ward in which such cases are treated are not permitted to receive visitors, except by permission of the Resident Medical Officer.

32. Any patient found gambling or using profane or indecent language, or being intoxicated, or committing any breach of any Rule or By-law or any order of the Board or of any Medical Officer, or refusing to obey any request as by the last preceding

Rule mentioned, shall be liable to instant dismissal by the Resident Medical Officer, who may exercise that power, and afterwards report the case to the House Committee. The Resident Medical Officer shall at the same time inform such patient of the day of the next meeting of the Committee.

33. Patients are not allowed to leave the precincts of the Hospital without the special permission of the Resident Medical Officer, given by "pass," which must be left with the porter; and all parcels brought back by patients on their return shall be examined by the nurse.

34. Patients are to take their meals at the ward table, except in cases of necessity. They are to keep their beds neat and tidy, the bedclothes properly arranged, and attend scrupulously to personal cleanliness. They shall also observe a quiet and respectful demeanour towards the officers of the Hospital, the nurses, and each other. Any patient having cause of complaint shall submit the same to the Resident Medical Officer, or Matron, or to a member of the House Committee.

35. On the admission of any patient into the Hospital, his address and that of his immediate relatives, and the name of the professed religion of the patient, shall be taken by the Secretary. The effects of the patient shall be taken charge of by the nurse, who shall hand them to the custody of the Matron; but it must be distinctly understood that, though the Board give positive instructions that every care shall be taken of effects so given in charge, they will not be responsible for any loss or deficiency arising from errors of quantity or description, or from any other cause whatever.

36. On no account shall any officer, servant, or patient be allowed to keep a dog within the precincts of the Hospital.

37. Patients shall observe all Rules, By-laws, or Orders made from time to time by the Board.

40. The Committee shall regulate the several departments of the Hospital in accordance with the Regulations or any By-laws or Directions of the Board, and more particularly in reference to all sanitary affairs, and shall take immediate steps to rectify any defects that may require prompt attention, subject in all cases to the same being reported to the Board.

41. The Committee may suspend, upon sufficient cause, any salaried officer or servant other than the Resident Medical Officer, until the decision of the Board can be obtained; with power in the meantime to employ some other properly qualified person to officiate in the place of the officer or servant so suspended.

42. The Committee may order any repairs or alterations which they consider require immediate attention.

43. The Committee shall hear all complaints that may be made by patients, officers, or servants, and take such action as they may deem necessary in the matter, until the decision of the Board can be obtained, and shall see that the various duties are performed by all the salaried officers and servants of the Hospital.

44. The Committee shall keep a book recording the visits of the members, and in which a note shall be made of all matters in connection with their office.

45. The Committee shall examine and pass all accounts and may pay any account of less than £5, which requires immediate payment.
