The Transfer of Land Act, 1893.

Attestation of Instruments.

MY attention has been called to a practice, by persons attesting instruments, of noting in the attestation clause the fact that alterations, interlineations, or erasures have been made in the instrument prior to its execution, when the truth is the instrument has been so altered since its execution. Such a practice is most reprehensible, and is moreover fraudulent. No such instrument will be received for registration or otherwise, and all persons found offending will be proceeded against as the occasion may require.

GRANULAR EFFERVESCENT

TRADE MARK
AB

CITRATE OF MAGNESIA

The Effervescent Properties of this light and elegant Preparation are retained in the highest degree, through its granular form, producing a continued sparkling effervescence and preserving the flavour as a palatable Saline Draught. It is very valuable to Travellers, especially in tropical climates, as its properties are retained for any length of time unimpaired.

DIRECTIONS.—Two tea-spoonfuls or more, put into a tumbler half full of water, and drunk during effervescence, will prove a mild but efficient Agent; while a small tea-spoonful, taken in a wine-glassful of water, will act as a valuable anti-acid cooling draught when feverish. A deliciously cooling and refreshing beverage may also be made by adding to a tumblerful of cold Spring water (previously sweetened with sugar), a small quantity of the Citrate.

2. The Board shall consist of seven members, elected by the ratepayers, as laid down in the Act. (See Secs. 43, 44, and 45.)

Vacancies.

3. If any member be absent without leave from three consecutive ordinary meetings, his seat shall be declared vacant. (Vide Sec. 44.)

6. If after thirty minutes of the time appointed for the meeting there be no quorum, the meeting shall stand adjourned.

MEETINGS AND PROCEEDINGS.

Meetings.

7. Meetings of the Board shall be of two kinds, ordinary and special. It shall rest with the Chairman and any three members of the Board to exclude the public, when in their opinion it is expedient to do so; providing the business before the Board warrants such action being taken.

8. Ordinary meetings shall be held at the residence of T. G. Bolton, Esquire, on the first Friday in each month at 8 o'clock p.m.

9. A special meeting may, on the requisition of three members of the Board, be called at any time in the manner prescribed by the 9th section of the Act; but the Chairman may call a meeting of the Board as often as he may think proper. No business shall be transacted at any ordinary or special meeting unless at least three of the members of the Board, inclusive of the Chairman or member of the Board chosen to preside in his absence, shall be present; that no business shall be transacted other than that for which the special meeting was called. (52 Vic., 16, Sec. 9.)

14. The Chairman shall preserve order at all meetings and his decision, subject to the provisions of the following rule (No. 21) of these By-laws, shall be final and binding upon every member.

Voting.

15. Each member, including the Chairman, shall have one vote, and such Chairman shall, in case of an equality of votes, have a casting vote in addition to his ordinary vote; and all questions at such meeting shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present.

Minutes of Proceedings.

16. (a.) In addition to the minute book prescribed to be kept by the 10th section of the Act, a rough minute book shall be kept, in which any item of business transacted by the Board at a meeting shall be then and there entered by the Secretary, and subsequently re-entered by him in the manner prescribed by the Act, in the minute book.

(b.) Before reading the minutes at a meeting the Secretary shall hand the rough minute book to the Chairman, in order that while the minutes are being read he may verify the record before signing the same on confirmation of the Board.

Call to Order.

19. It shall be competent for any member to rise to order, on which the member speaking must at once resume his seat and remain silent until the point of order has been succinctly, but briefly, stated by the member who has risen.

20. The Chairman must thereupon decide the point of order or practice, and, if required, cite the rule applicable to the case without argument or comment.

21. It is then competent for any member, not being the member interrupted by the member who rose to order, to demand that the sense of the Board be taken on the point, when the decision of the majority shall prevail, and be final and binding on every member.

Speaker must not digress.

22. A member having audience shall not digress from the subject of debate.

Motions and Amendments.

23. (a.) A motion once moved at a meeting cannot be withdrawn, unless by the consent of the Board.

28. All moneys shall, within seven days after they have come into the hands of the Board or of any officers, servants, or clerks for the use of the Board, be paid into such Bank.

Audit of Accounts.

29. Two Auditors shall be appointed, one of whom shall be a Resident Magistrate of the district, or a person appointed by him; the other shall be elected by the rate-payers at the annual general meeting.
