CIRCULAR.

Downing Street,
21st May, 1898.

SIR,—With reference to my Circular Despatches of 15th July, 1895, 18th February, 1896, 23rd February, 1897, and 15th May, 1897, respecting Colonial nominations for Naval Cadetships, I have the honour to transmit to you a copy of a letter from the Admiralty, stating that the Civil Service Commissioners have pointed out that the reprints of the papers set at the examinations would be of assistance to candidates in the Colonies in preparing for the examination, and enclosing certain papers on the subject.

You will have the goodness to bring this matter to the knowledge of applicants for nominations, and point out to them where the reprints can be purchased. If, however, there should not be sufficient time for the applicants to provide themselves with copies from this country, it may be desirable that you should lend copies to parents and schoolmasters for a limited period, in order to enable them to judge of the qualifications of students, and facilitate the commencement of an adequate preparation.

I have, etc.,

J. CHAMBERLAIN.

The Officer Administering
the Government of Western Australia.

Admiralty,
25th April, 1898.

SIR,—I am commanded by my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to acquaint you, for the information of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, that it has been pointed out by the Civil Service Commissioners that copies of the reprints of the papers set at examinations for Cadetships in the Royal Navy would be of assistance to candidates in the Colonies in preparing for the examination, and would afford some criterion by which they might estimate the chances of their success.

Facilities exist for the purchase of these reprints, as shown in the attached slip, and my Lords desire me to suggest for the consideration of the Secretary of State for the Colonies the feasibility of his Department circulating the fact of their publication and sale in whatever manner may be deemed suitable in the interests of Colonial candidates. They desire me to add that these reprints are not circulated to any candidates by the Admiralty.

A reprint of the papers set at the December examination last is attached.

I am, etc.,
EVAN MACGREGOR.

The Under Secretary of State,
Colonial Office.

Copies of Examination Papers set at Competitions for Naval Cadetships and Assistant Clerkships in the Royal Navy, held under the direction of the Civil Service Commissioners, may be purchased, price sixpence, either directly or through any bookseller, from any of the following agents, viz.:—

The month has been characterised by the usual winter weather. High barometers North of Perth, and a succession of "lows" traversing the ocean South of the Continent in an Easterly direction. These were accompanied by heavy coastal squalls from North-West and West as the centre of the "low" passed. A storm of an unusual character was experienced on the 28th. It struck the West Coast in the neighbourhood of Perth, and seems to have travelled overland in the direction of Esperance Bay. The barometer fell very rapidly to a minimum of 29·44 at 2 p.m. at Perth (from 29·96 at midnight on the 27th) and rose almost as rapidly. The principal storms occurred on the 1st to 3rd, 12th, and 28th; the last one, as might be expected, was felt well inland. The others gave very heavy rains in the South-West, but these were mostly confined to coastal districts.

The total fall for the month was highest in the Bunbury District ( $7\frac{1}{2}$  inches), decreasing gradually Northward to  $1\frac{1}{2}$  inches near Geraldton. In a line parallel to the coast, but about 50 miles inland, it increased from an inch near Mingenew to nearly 6 inches in the Dardanup District. Going Eastward from Perth it fell off rapidly from 5 inches near the coast to little over half an inch at Southern Cross. The Coolgardie and Murchison Districts fared very badly, and all North of Onslow no rain fell. Compared with past records, the monthly fall at Perth was about an average, but the total from 1st January to the end of July has been only 16·80, as against 20·92 for previous years. During the winter months (May, June, and July) the fall has been 15·35 this year, or 2 inches below the average for past years.

Turning our attention to the temperature statistics, it is interesting to note how very much colder the nights are inland than in coastal districts. The coldest place from which we receive reports for July is Southern Cross, where the mean minimum is 38·5, or nearly  $11^{\circ}$  lower than Perth, or  $16\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$  below Rottneet. Sharp frosts were experienced on several occasions, the temperature on the surface of the ground falling to 24·5 at Katanning, 24·6 at Southern Cross, 26·0 at York, and 31·6 at Perth. The temperature at Perth was considerably in excess of that for previous years, the mean maximum ( $65^{\circ}5$ ) being  $1^{\circ}6$ , and the mean minimum ( $49^{\circ}7$ ) nearly  $4^{\circ}$  above the average.
