IN pursuance of the powers and provisions contained in, under, and by virtue of "The Municipal Institutions Act, 1895," the Council of the Town of Fremantle makes and ordains the following additional clauses to By-law No. 5, passed by the Fremantle Municipal Council on the 7th day of July, 1896, and confirmed by His Excellency the Governor (by his deputy) in Executive Council on the 26th day of November, 1896.

91. The places set apart in Fremantle as public stands and numbered 8, 9, 10, and 11, shall be for the exclusive use of passenger vehicles plying for hire to and from fixed places, or along any specified route; and any licensed driver, owner, or conductor of such vehicles who shall ply for hire on any other stand, or in any other place, shall be deemed to have committed a breach of these By-laws, and punishable accordingly.

92. No licensed driver or owner shall allow, permit, or suffer his vehicle to remain on any of the stands mentioned in the last preceding clause for a longer period than ten minutes, whether loaded or not, nor leave such stand at a less period than ten minutes from the time of his arrival thereon, unless his vehicle shall have its full complement of passengers which it is permitted to carry, and not then at a less period than three minutes after the vehicle that has just preceded it; and on leaving such stand must proceed on its ordinary route without loitering.

93. No licensed driver or owner shall leave, or allow, permit, or suffer his vehicle to leave any of the stands mentioned in Clause 91 unless he be first vehicle on the stand for a specified route.

94. The Council of Fremantle may, as it deems expedient, appoint places as depôt stands, where passenger vehicles plying for hire to and from fixed places, or permitted to travel along specified routes, may remain to await their proper turn to get to a stand to ply for hire; but in no case shall drivers, owners, or conductors ply for hire for vehicles while on depôt stands; nor shall vehicles be taken off a depôt stand except to take its proper turn to ply for hire on a stand for which the depôt has been appointed; and the first vehicle on a depôt must take its position on the stand set apart for such depôt when its proper turn comes. (Notice of depôt stands shall be given as required under Clause 46 to this By-law.)

95. No passenger vehicle plying for hire to and from fixed places, or permitted to travel along specified routes only, shall proceed along such routes or to any such fixed place except from one of the stands mentioned in Clause 91; and any licensed driver or owner doing, permitting, allowing, or suffering such to be done shall be deemed to have committed a breach of these By-laws, and punishable accordingly.

96. Any licensed driver or owner who shall take any vehicle off a depôt, or allow, permit, or suffer the same to be taken off such depôt, for the purpose of evading the taking of its proper turn on a stand, shall be deemed to have committed a breach of these By-laws, and punishable accordingly; provided always, that nothing in these By-laws shall be deemed to exclude a vehicle leaving any stand for its stable or for repairs; provided also, that any vehicle so taken off and on returning to its route must take up the rear position the same as if it had come from its ordinary journey.

97. The Council of Fremantle, in advertising any stands they may deem expedient to make, may state in such advertisement the particular position any vehicles shall take while on such stands, and any infringement of such advertisement shall be deemed a breach of these By-laws, and punishable accordingly.

98. For every offence against any provisions of Clauses 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, and 97 of these By-laws, the offender shall, upon conviction, be liable to and shall pay a penalty not exceeding Ten pounds.
