We certify that we have examined the above account with the supporting vouchers, and find that the correct balance to the credit of the Board on the 31st December, 1897, was £63 14s. 1d.

As the Board possesses only a chart of the Colony—defining on a most minute scale the boundaries of Roads Districts, but neither a map showing the various roads and their names, nor any record of what roads exist in the district and their classification—we are unable in any way to certify that the expenditure of Government moneys on roads is in accordance with the provisions of the Roads Act.
