GEO. THROSSELL,
Minister for Lands.

SCHEDULE REFERRED TO.

Conditions of sale of Crown Lands advertised to be sold by auction at _____ on the _____ day of _____ 189 .

1. The land offered for sale is particularised in the notice headed "Land Sales," published in the Government Gazette of the _____ day of _____ 189 , and in the Schedule hereto, and will be sold subject to the terms and conditions of "The Land Act, 1898," and the Regulations thereunder.

2. The lots will be offered separately, and in the order in which they appear in the said notice.

3. The highest bidder shall be the purchaser, and if any dispute arise the lot in dispute shall be put up again and resold.

4. Each lot shall be offered at the upset price, and, if no advance be made, the applicant for the same shall be declared the purchaser at that price; but if any advance be made, the highest bidder shall be the purchaser as aforesaid. Biddings shall advance at the rate of not less than 10 per cent. on the upset price. Should the applicant not be the purchaser, his deposit will be refunded in due course.

5. The purchaser shall, immediately after the sale, pay to the Minister for Lands or his agent a deposit in cash at the rate of 10 per cent. upon the total amount of the purchase money, unless he has already paid a sufficient deposit on application, and any such deposit shall be considered as payment of the purchase money so far as the same will extend.

6. The balance of purchase money, in the case of Town Lots, shall be paid to the Minister for Lands or his agent, by two equal instalments at the end of three and six calendar months from the day of sale, and in the case of Suburban Lots within twelve months from the day of sale, by four equal quarterly instalments, on the first days of January, April, July, and October, the first instalment being payable on the first day of the quarter next following the date of sale; the fees for Crown grant and registration in both cases being payable with the last instalment of purchase money.

7. 8. Each Suburban Lot shall be fenced on the surveyed boundaries, within two years from the date of sale, with a substantial fence, not being a brush fence, proved to the satisfaction of the Minister for Lands to be sufficient to resist the trespass of great and small stock, including sheep but not including pigs or goats; and in default thereof the land shall be forfeited, together with all purchase money and fees which may have been paid: Provided that the Minister for Lands may, if he think fit, dispense with the division fences between two or more adjoining lots purchased by one person, or may, if he thinks fit, accept other substantial improvements in lieu of fencing.

9. In default of payment of any one of the several instalments of purchase money within 30 days after the dates mentioned, or if, in the case of Suburban Lots, the required fencing is not completed within two years from the date of sale, the land shall be absolutely forfeited, together with all purchase money and fees that may have been paid.

10. Immediately after the sale the purchaser shall declare to whom or in whose name he requires the Crown Grant to issue; the name of the grantee or grantees shall be inserted in the form of application to purchase, and no alteration therein shall be made without the sanction of the Minister for Lands.

11. If the purchaser shall not pay the balance of money and fees as hereinbefore provided, his deposit money, or so much thereof as shall have been paid, shall be absolutely forfeited, and the said sale shall be void without any notice to the purchaser.

12. The Minister for Lands shall not be responsible for any delay in the issuing of the Crown Grants.

REMARKS.

The most interesting meteorological feature of the month was the storm which passed right across the Continent, from the North-West coast to Adelaide. The North-West had been visited at the close of last month by a very severe storm, an account of which appeared in the "Notes" for December. During the first few days of January the heavy rain continued at a few coast stations, and isolated thunderstorms, sometimes accompanied by heavy downpours, were occasionally experienced in the Tropics. The first indication of the above-mentioned disturbance, however, was given on the 12th, when the s.s. "Tangier" encountered a "willy-willy" somewhere off the North-West coast. Next morning a few places in the North-West recorded light to moderate rain, and the disturbance evidently travelled at once inland; for on Saturday, the 14th, remarkably heavy rain fell in the Marble Bar and Nullagine districts. It then seems to have passed across the desert, in a more or less South-Easterly direction, passing North of the Coolgardie Goldfields on the 16th, giving Mt. Margaret heavy rains and lighter downpours to the principal Goldfields' centres. Continuing its path, it appeared to pass almost centrally over Adelaide on the morning of the 18th, causing heavy rain in South Australia. On the morning of the 19th it had reached Cape Northumberland, and next day was in the neighbourhood of Tasmania.

The following Table gives the principal rainfall records during its progress through West Australia (100 points=1 inch):—

The mean temperature at Perth was very slightly below the average for previous years. On the whole, the weather was tolerably pleasant for midsummer, except towards the latter end of the month, when it became hot and sultry with occasional thunderstorms.

As usual, the mean maximum day temperature shows a very rapid increase from the coast Eastwards—e.g., Rottne 78.3, Fremantle 80.9, Observatory 85.4, Gardens 87.4, and York 91.6. The inland localities, however, benefited at night, the mean minimum at York being 59.4, and at Rottne 64.9. The hottest place in the Colony, especially during the day, seems, as usual, to be between the Murchison and the North-West coast, the maximum being 109.1 at Cossack, 101.5 at Hamelin Pool, and 99.1 at Cue. Compared with these the corresponding figures on the South coast look quite refreshing, Cape Leeuwin being 73.4, Albany 73.3, and Breaksea 69.4; the highest temperature recorded during the month was only 80.6 at Cape Leeuwin and 76.0 at Breaksea Island.
