MEETINGS AND PROCEEDINGS.

Notice of Meetings.

3. Notice shall be given by the Chairman or Secretary of ordinary or special meetings at least seven days before such meeting, and also of every meeting adjourned for a term exceeding two days. The Chairman, if present, shall preside at all meetings of ratepayers and of the Board, and in his absence, or if, after being present, he shall retire, one of the members of the Board chosen by the ratepayers or members present (as the case may be) shall preside.

Meetings.

4. Meetings of the Board shall be of two kinds, ordinary and special. It shall rest with the Chairman and any three members of the Board to exclude the public when in their opinion it is expedient to do so, provided the business before the Board warrants such action being taken.

5. A special meeting may, on the requisition of three members of the Board, be called at any time in the manner prescribed by the ninth section of the Act, but the Chairman may call a meeting of the Board as he may think proper. No business shall be transacted at any ordinary or special meeting unless at least three of the members of the Board, inclusive of the Chairman or member of the Board chosen to preside in his absence, shall be present, and no business shall be transacted other than that for which the special meeting was called.

6. - (c.) Reading of correspondence (in and out) and taking such immediate action as may be deemed expedient in regard thereto;
- (d.) Passing of accounts for payment;
- (e.) Presentation of petitions or memorials and Committee reports, and consideration thereof;
- (f.) Consideration of tenders, ratification of contracts;
- (g.) Ordinary business of the Board.

8. No discussion shall take place upon the minutes except as to their accuracy, or for the rectification of any clerical error.

9. Immediately after confirmation of the minutes the Chairman may make any communication to the Board which he may deem advisable, or bring under consideration any business he may think necessary; and it shall be competent for any member of the Board to ask a question or questions, but he shall confine himself to the question simply, and no debate shall ensue thereon at the time.

Voting.

10. Each member, including the Chairman, shall have one vote, and such Chairman shall, in case of equality of votes, have a casting vote in addition to his ordinary vote, and all questions at such meetings shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present.

Minutes of Meeting.

11. In addition to the minute book prescribed to be kept by the tenth Section of the Act, a rough minute book shall be kept, in which all items of business transacted by the Board at a meeting shall be then and there noted by the Secretary, and subsequently entered by him in the manner prescribed by the Act in the minute book.

Petitions.

12. Every petition or memorial shall be respectful and temperate in its language, and shall be presented to the Board by a member only; and any member presenting a petition or memorial to the Board shall affix his name to the beginning thereof, with the number of signatures; and any member presenting a petition or memorial shall acquaint himself with the contents thereof, and ascertain that it does not contain language disrespectful to the Board. The nature and prayer of every petition or memorial shall be stated to the Board by the member presenting the same.

Motions and Amendments.

15. (a.) A motion once moved at a meeting cannot be withdrawn unless by consent of the Board.

(b.) One or more amendments may be proposed on a motion before the Board. When more than one amendment is moved, the question shall first be put on the last amendment, then on the next in succession, and then on the original motion, in the reverse order in which they are moved.

(c.) A motion or amendment not seconded cannot be discussed by any member except the mover, nor put by the Chairman.

(d.) In submitting a motion or amendment, the Chairman must put the question first in the affirmative, then in the negative.

(e.) When an amendment is carried, the motion as amended thereby becomes a substantive motion, upon which a further amendment may be moved before it is finally dealt with.

APPOINTMENTS OF COMMITTEES.

16. The Board may at any meeting appoint three or more members as a committee to inquire into any matter, and make a report and recommendation thereon, but no committee shall incur any financial liability, or in any way commit the Board to any responsibility whatever without express and specific authority conferred by the By-laws or by a resolution of the Board.

DICTATION.

(To be read by examiner).

The first building to attract the eye is a stone castle, with moat and drawbridge. Here reside the guinea-pigs; and here is to be seen the first animal born in the gardens, a brown and white cavy, which looks about with big black eyes as he trots backwards and forwards on the drawbridge.

Big beasts are the chief attraction. All the carnivora have been bred in captivity. The lion and the tiger, which are two years old, came from Adelaide; the lioness, a year their senior, was reared in Melbourne. These three have cages paved and lined with white tiles. At feeding time, half-past three o'clock, the tiger and lioness become excited, pacing their cages, and licking their lips in anticipation of their daily meal. "The king of beasts" shows little concern. Though his tail is continuously moving, he lies with eyes half closed till the keeper appears; then he lazily rises, and rubs himself against the front bars of his cage.

The wild boars are young, as are the Malayan sunbears. One bear has for companions two puppies and a monkey.

In text hand—Scholarship.
