The weather was fairly seasonable on the whole. In the extreme South-West and South it was unusually wet, but elsewhere the rain-fall was about the same as the mean for previous years. There were no continuous periods of wet weather, but the usual alternations of sun and showers, the latter being mostly confined to the coastal districts. About the 20th an anti-cyclone commenced to form over the Southern portions of the Colony, giving some very cold, frosty weather. The maximum pressure occurred on the 22nd and 23rd, after which the temperature rose steadily as the anti-cyclone receded Eastwards, reaching the unusual height of 87.6 in the Perth Gardens on the 28th, a reading that has only once been exceeded in September since records commenced in 1876. Some rather low temperatures were recorded on the surface of the ground, the minima being:—

Cue	32.0 on the 14th.
Coolgardie	29.6 on the 1st.
Southern Cross	28.8 on the 22nd.
York	28.0 on the 22nd.
Perth Observatory	33.2 on the 14th.
Karridale	29.0 on the 1st.
Katanning	26.5 on the 1st.

Snow was recorded at many places on the 17th.

ATTENTION is hereby drawn to the following provisions of the above Acts relating to Foreign Companies.

F. A. MOSELEY,

Registrar of Companies.

Supreme Court, Perth,
27th March, 1900.

Local register to be kept by foreign companies.

Every foreign company, or the attorney of every foreign company, carrying on business in this Colony shall, in the case of companies carrying on business therein at the time of the passing of this Act, within two calendar months from such time, and, as to all other companies so carrying on business at any time after the passing of this Act, within two calendar months from the deposit in the office of the Registrar of the power of attorney, in accordance with Section One hundred and ninety-eight of "The Companies Act, 1893," open, keep, and maintain, or cause to be opened, kept, and maintained, at the registered office of the said company in the Colony, a Register of Shareholders under this Act, to be called a Colonial Register, for the registration of all shareholders in such company who may apply in writing to such attorney to be registered therein.

Every such register shall be kept in the manner provided by Part III. of "The Companies Act, 1893," and transfers shall be effected on such register in the same manner and at the same charges as on the register kept at the head office of the company, and transfers lodged in the colonial office of the company shall be binding upon the company, and the Court shall be entitled to exercise the same jurisdiction of rectifying the same as is by Section Thirty-six of the said Act vested in such Court with respect to a register of a company incorporated in the Colony.

Every such foreign company failing or refusing to comply with the provisions of this section shall incur a penalty not exceeding One hundred pounds for every day during which such refusal or non-compliance shall continue, to be recovered in a summary manner before any two Justices of the Peace, or by action or suit in the Supreme Court, and shall be a charge on the property of the company, and in addition thereto, if such default continues for the space of three calendar months, the company, and every person acting as trustee or agent for the company or otherwise on its behalf, shall thereafter be incapable, while so in default, of bringing or maintaining in Western Australia any action, set-off, counter-claim, or other legal proceeding whatsoever in the said Colony.

Requirements on reconstruction.

Whenever a foreign company carrying on business in this Colony is reconstructed on the basis of a sale by the liquidator of the assets of the company or otherwise, the liquidator or the company shall reserve, for the benefit of the members of the company registered on the colonial register (hereinafter called the colonial members), a part of the consideration passing to the reconstructing company, proportioned to the interests of the colonial members, and shall forthwith cause notice of such reservation to be published in the Government Gazette and to be delivered to each colonial member, or sent by post to his registered address; and at any time within two months after such publication every colonial member may, by writing under his hand delivered by post or otherwise to the liquidator or the company, or the attorney of the liquidator, or of the company in the Colony, claim the share proportioned to the interest of such shareholder in the part of the consideration so reserved, and shall be entitled to receive the same.

The liquidator or the company shall forward to the Registrar at the Supreme Court a statutory declaration made by the liquidator or by a director or officer of the company authorised by the company in that behalf, stating how this section has been complied with; and until such declaration has been filed no conveyance, transfer, or dealing with any property of the company shall be registered in the Department of Mines or of Crown Lands or in the office of Land Titles, or in the office for the registration of deeds; and no person holding any property, real or personal, as servant, agent, or trustee on behalf of the company shall convey, deal with, or dispose of the same, nor shall any property of the company in this Colony pass to the purchaser thereof.

Before filing any declaration purporting to comply with this Act, the Registrar shall examine the same and satisfy himself of such compliance.
