Every person keeping or about to keep a common lodging-house within the district shall give, at the office of the said Board, at least four days' notice, in writing, of his intention to apply for the annual registration of such house, specifying its situation and the number of lodgers accommodated or intended to be accommodated, and shall then and there deposit the sum of Ten shillings as a registration fee. Such notice shall be in the Form A in the Schedule hereto, and shall be accompanied by a certificate of character, in accordance with the Fourth Schedule of the Act, and such certificate shall be signed by six habitant house-holders of the Municipality; and the Board may refuse to register any lodging house, the occupier of which fails to produce such certificate. A keeper of a common lodging-house shall not at any one time receive, or cause or suffer to be received, into such house or into any room therein, a greater number of lodgers than shall be fixed by the Board as the maximum number of lodgers authorised to be received into such house or room, and shall be specified in a notice in writing according to Form B in the Schedule hereto, which shall be served upon such keeper, and shall continue in force until, in pursuance of the By-law in that behalf, the number so fixed and specified shall be varied by the Board. A keeper of a common lodging-house (in any case where the Board may from time to time determine that it is expedient to vary the number fixed by them as the maximum number of lodgers authorised to be received into such house or room therein, and may from time to time, for the purpose of variation, cause to be duly served upon such keeper a notice in writing, according to Form C in the Schedule) shall not, at any time after any such notice shall have been served upon him, and after the date specified in such notice, and until, in pursuance of the provisions of this By-law, the number specified in such notice shall be further varied, receive, or cause or suffer to be received, into such house or into any room therein, a greater number of lodgers than shall be specified in such notice as the maximum number of lodgers authorised to be received into such house or into such room.

2. The keeper of any common lodging-house shall cause to be cleansed all rooms, passages, stairs, floors, and offices of every kind daily, and shall cleanse all windows, doors, walls, ceilings, privies, and drains as often as may be necessary, and shall lime-wash the walls and ceilings thereof, or so much of them as shall be necessary, in the first week of each of the months of April and October in every year. A keeper of a common lodging-house shall not, except in such cases as are hereinafter specified, cause or suffer any person of the male sex above the age of ten years to use or occupy any room which may be used or occupied as a sleeping apartment by persons of the female sex. Such keeper shall not, except in such cases as are hereinafter specified, cause or suffer any person of the female sex to use or occupy any room which may be used or occupied as a sleeping apartment by persons of the male sex above the age of ten years. Provided that this By-law shall not be taken to prohibit the use and occupation by a husband and wife of any room which may not be used or occupied by any other persons of either sex above the age of ten years. The keeper of a common lodging-house shall cause every room in his house to be properly ventilated each day. He shall cause the bedclothes of every bed in such house to be removed from such bed as soon as conveniently may be after such bed shall have been vacated by any lodger, and shall cause such bedclothes and the bed from which such bedclothes have been removed to be freely exposed to the air for one hour at least every day.

3. The keeper of every lodging-house shall cause the yard area, or other open space of the premises, to be kept thoroughly clean, and in good order, and free from all slopwater and rubbish, and the privy or privies to be kept clean and in sanitary condition, and constantly supplied with a suitable disinfectant. The privies shall be sufficient in number (no fewer than one for every eight lodgers permitted, in addition to one to be provided for the lodging-house keeper and his family), and shall provide separate privies for the different sexes, and shall cause the pans to be emptied as often as may be necessary, and shall cause all sanitary appliances and the seats, floors, and walls of every privy belonging to such house to be thoroughly cleansed from time to time as often as may be necessary for the keeping such sanitary appliances, seats, floors, and walls in a clean and sanitary condition.

CIRCULAR.

Sir,

Downing Street,
7th April, 1903.

With reference to my Circular despatch of 21st April, 1902, I have the honour to state, for the information of your Ministers, that the Convention relative to Sugar, which was signed at Brussels on the 5th of March, 1902, has been duly ratified by all the Signatory Powers not coming under Article VI., as well as by Italy, and that it will accordingly come into force on the 1st of September next.

2. I enclose, for your Ministers' further information, and with special reference to paragraph 7 of my Circular despatch referred to above, copies of the accompanying Parliamentary Paper containing the terms of ratification and of a declaration by which His Majesty's Government thought it necessary to accompany His Majesty's ratification of the Convention in consequence of doubts having been expressed in some quarters as to the effect of the final Protocol to Article XI., and of the declarations made by the British Delegates in the course of the Proceedings at Brussels with regard to the obligations of His Majesty's Government in respect to the self-governing Colonies.

3. The intention to ratify subject to such a declaration was previously intimated, as will be seen, to the various Signatory Powers.

4. It will be observed that one of the duties of the Permanent Commission will be to collect full information relating to legislation affecting sugar, not only in the contracting States, but in other States as well; it may therefore be desirable that the British Delegate on the permanent Commission should be supplied with a complete set of all the laws relating to sugar in the Colony under your Government, and I should be glad if I could be furnished with three sets of all such enactments, at as early a date as may be possible, and from time to time with similar sets of any further laws on the subject, as soon as possible after being passed.

I have, etc.,

CORRESPONDENCE RESPECTING THE RATIFICATION OF THE SUGAR CONVENTION SIGNED AT BRUSSELS, MARCH 5, 1902.

No. 1.

The Marquess of Lansdowne to Sir E. Monson.*

Sir,

Foreign Office, January 13, 1903.

The question of the obligations of this country under the Brussels Sugar Convention of the 5th March last, and the Final Protocol of the same date in respect of the self-governing British Colonies having recently been raised in the Legislatures of several of the Contracting States, and the discussions having shown that some divergencies of opinion exist on the subject, His Majesty's Government feel it necessary to place formally on record the view held by them on a point which they regard as of great importance as a matter of principle.

The attitude of His Majesty's Government in regard to the matter has never varied. They have declined altogether to agree that Great Britain should be under any obligation to treat the British Colonies as foreign countries. The British Delegates at the Brussels Conference repeatedly and formally declared that the fiscal relations between Great Britain and the British Colonies and possessions must remain outside the Convention, and that in no circumstances would a penal clause be applied in the United Kingdom to British Colonial sugar. These declarations are recorded in the procès-verbaux of the 2nd, 5th, and 7th sittings, and are most explicit and categorical.

It is very improbable that any appreciable amount of sugar will be imported into this country from the self-governing Colonies during the period for which the Convention is to remain in force. But His Majesty's Government attach the utmost importance to the principle of retaining, subject to the special and exceptional concessions mentioned in the Final Protocol, perfect freedom of fiscal relations within the Empire, and in view of the doubts expressed in some quarters as to the proper interpretation of the Convention and the declarations made in the Final Protocol, they consider it necessary to place on record that they will not consent under any circumstances to be bound to penalise bounty-fed sugar imported into the United Kingdom from any of the self-governing British Colonies; and that they are not prepared to accept any reference of this question to the Permanent Commission to be established under Article VII.

* Also to Sir C. Phipps, Sir H. Howard, Sir F. Plunkett, Sir F. Lascelles, Sir W. Barrington, Sir R. Rodd, and Sir M. Durand, mutatis mutandis.

In transmitting to the Belgian Government the ratification of His Majesty the King, His Majesty's Government will make a declaration to this effect, accompanied by a request that it be recorded in the Protocol relating to the deposit of ratifications.

They think it right at once to inform the other High Contracting Parties of this intention on their part, and you will accordingly hand to the French Minister for Foreign Affairs a copy of this despatch, and inform him that His Majesty's Government, in view of the explanation which it contains, will assume that their interpretation of the Convention, so far as it affects the fiscal relations of Great Britain and her Colonies, is not disputed by the French Government, and that their adhesion is accepted by that Government upon this understanding.

I am, etc.,
(Signed) LANSDOWNE.

No. 2.

Sir C. Phipps to the Marquess of Lansdowne.—(Received January 15).
(Telegraphic.) Brussels, January 15, 1903.

With reference to your Lordship's despatch of the 13th instant, I have the honour to report that I have just received information that the German ratifications were lodged yesterday unconditionally.

The Belgian Government suggest that His Majesty's Government should address to them a note, at the moment of depositing their unconditional ratification, stating that they reiterate the declaration with regard to non-penalisation under any conditions of British Colonies, so categorically made by their Delegates; and that His Majesty's Government might even add that any appeal made on this subject to the Permanent Commission would be considered as an infraction of the Convention. The Belgian Government would have no objection to accepting such a note, were it addressed to them by His Majesty's Government, and they would apprise the Governments interested of its terms.

No. 3.

Sir C. Phipps to the Marquess of Lansdowne.—(Received January 15).
(Telegraphic.) Brussels, January 15, 1903.

With reference to my preceding telegram, the Minister of Finance asked whether communications similar in terms to those contained in your Lordship's despatch of 13th January had as yet been made to the other Governments interested.

The Belgian Government was anticipating that all the Signatory Powers would ratify unconditionally.

No. 4.

The Marquess of Lansdowne to Sir C. Phipps.

(Telegraphic.) Foreign Office, January 16, 1903.

I have received your two telegrams of the 15th instant

You should inform the Belgian Minister of Finance that communications similar to that contained in my despatch of the 13th instant were addressed simultaneously to the other Governments interested. His Majesty's Government has, therefore, no longer the power to put off its announcement until the moment has arrived for depositing the ratifications. You should inform the Belgian Government that His Majesty's Government took this course because they considered it of the highest importance that notice of the conditions under which they could consent to ratify should be given to the Powers.

No. 5.

Sir C. Phipps to the Marquess of Lansdowne.—(Received January 17).
(Telegraphic.) Brussels, January 17, 1903.

On the 15th instant I formally communicated your Lordship's despatch of the 13th instant to the Belgian Minister for Foreign Affairs.

I have conveyed the desired explanation contained in your Lordship's telegram of the 16th January to the Minister of Finance, who, as promoter of the Sugar Conference, contemplates advising the Contracting Powers not to answer our Circular communication, and will at the same time inform them that the Belgian Government intends to accept our deposit of ratifications, subject to the reservation which has been announced, whilst each Government can maintain its own opinion respecting the point which has been raised.

No. 6.

The Marquess of Lansdowne to Sir C. Phipps.

Sir, Foreign Office, January 21, 1903.

I transmit to you, herewith, for deposit in the Ministry for Foreign Affairs at Brussels, His Majesty the King's ratification of the Brussels Sugar Convention of 1902.

In transmitting this ratification to the Belgian Government, I have to instruct you to make a declaration to the effect that His Majesty's Government consider it necessary to place on record that they will not consent, under any circumstances, to be bound to penalise bounty-fed sugar imported into the United Kingdom from any of the self-governing British Colonies; that they are not prepared to accept any reference of this question to the Permanent Commission to be established under Article VII.; and that His Majesty's ratification of the Convention is deposited under the explicit declaration and understanding above-mentioned.

You are further to request that this declaration may be recorded in the Protocol relating to the deposit of ratifications.

You will, however, postpone action on this despatch until you receive further instructions.

I am, etc.,
(Signed) LANSDOWNE.

Sir R. Rodd to the Marquess of Lansdowne.—(Received January 26.)

My Lord, Rome, January 23, 1903.

On the receipt of your Lordship's despatch of the 13th instant, I handed a copy of its contents, in accordance with my instructions, to the Minister for Foreign Affairs. M. Prinetti told me that he would have to submit the question to his colleague, the Minister of Finance, but added that, so far as his personal views were concerned, he saw no reason to dispute the interpretation of the Brussels Sugar Convention, so far as the fiscal relations between Great Britain and British Colonies and possessions are concerned, which has been adopted by His Majesty's Government.

I have, etc.,

With reference to your telegram of the 27th instant, relating to the Sugar Convention, I have to instruct you that our ratification should not be deposited before Saturday, the 31st instant.

We have communicated our views to the other Powers, and we desire to wait until the last moment in order that they may have an opportunity of raising objections should they desire to do so.

Sir C. Phipps to the Marquess of Lansdowne.—(Received February 2.)

My Lord, Brussels, January 31, 1903.

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your Lordship's despatch of the 21st instant, transmitting to me, for deposit in the Ministry for Foreign Affairs at Brussels, His Majesty the King's ratification of the Brussels Sugar Convention of 1902.

In compliance with the terms of that despatch and of telegraphic instructions since sent to me, I this morning appended my signature to the Protocol relating to the deposit of ratifications, making at the same time, in accordance with the precise terms of those instructions, the following Declaration, which has been annexed to that Protocol:—

"At the moment of depositing the King's ratification His Britannic Majesty's Minister declares that it is necessary to place on record that the Government of His Britannic Majesty will not consent under any circumstances to be bound to penalise bounty-fed sugar imported into the United Kingdom from any of the self-governing British Colonies.

"He further declares that His Britannic Majesty's Government are not prepared to accept any reference of this question to the Permanent Commission to be established under Article VII., and that His Majesty's ratification of the Convention is deposited under the explicit Declaration above mentioned."

As that Declaration had, according to custom, to be annexed to the Protocol in French, I have the honour to inclose the version in that language.

I have, etc.,
(Signed) CONSTANTINE PHIPPS.

Inclosure in No. 15.

French Version of Declaration.

Au moment de déposer les ratifications de Sa Majesté Britannique, son Excellence le Ministre de la Grande-Bretagne déclare qu'il est indispensable de constater que le Gouvernement de Sa Majesté Britannique ne consentira dans aucun cas à être obligé de pénaliser les sucres primés qui pourraient être importés dans le Royaume-Uni et qui proviendraient des Colonies Britanniques autonomes.

Il déclare en outre qu'il ne pourrait consentir à ce qu'aucune question se rattachant à cet objet soit soumise à la Commission Permanente à établir en vertu de l'Article VII., et que la ratification de la Convention par Sa Majesté est déposée moyennant la Déclaration explicite mentionnée ci-dessus.

At the moment of depositing the King's ratification His Britannic Majesty's Minister declares that it is necessary to place on record that the Government of His Britannic Majesty will not consent, under any circumstances, to be bound to penalise bounty-fed sugar imported into the United Kingdom from any of the self-governing British Colonies.

He further declares that His Britannic Majesty's Government are not prepared to accept any reference of this question to the Permanent Commission to be established under Article VII., and that His Majesty's ratification of the Convention is deposited under the explicit Declaration above mentioned.

Sir W. Barrington to the Marquess of Lansdowne.—(Received February 3.)
Stockholm, January 30, 1903.

My Lord,

As M. de Lagerheim was unable to have his weekly diplomatic reception when your Lordship's despatch of the 13th instant reached me, I thought it best to call at the Foreign Department and leave a copy of it with the Acting Secretary-General, and I took the earliest subsequent opportunity of asking His Excellency himself if he had any remarks to make on the principle maintained by His Majesty's Government with regard to the admission into the United Kingdom of sugar from any self-governing British Colony, irrespective of possible bounty granted to it there.

The Minister said he had referred the matter to the consideration of the Finance Department, and pending an expression of the latter's opinion, he did not wish to offer his own, definitely, on the point in question.

Berlin, February 3, 1903.

My Lord,

In accordance with your Lordship's instructions, I communicated to the Imperial Government a copy of your despatch of the 13th ultimo, relative to the question of the obligations of Great Britain under the Brussels Sugar Convention of the 5th March last, and the Final Protocol of the same date, in respect of the self-governing British Colonies.

I have now received a reply from Baron von Richthofen, translation of which I have the honour to enclose. Your Lordship will perceive that, although the Imperial Government do not share the views of His Majesty's Government in regard to this question, and give their reasons for dissenting from them, they agree in considering the matter one which is unlikely to have any practical signification during the next five years, and that any further discussion of it can therefore be dropped. The Imperial Government will, however, his Excellency concludes, reserve to themselves a free hand as to any measures to be adopted by them, should any quantity of bounty-fed colonial sugar be put on the English market without being subjected to countervailing duties.

I have, etc.,

Inclosure in No. 17.

Baron von Richthofen to Sir F. Lascelles.
(Translation.) Foreign Office, Berlin, January 30, 1903.

The undersigned has the honour to reply to Sir Frank Lascelles, with reference to his note of the 16th instant, as follows:—

The British Government assume the standpoint that, in view of the declarations made by their delegates to the Brussels Sugar Conference, and of the special wording of the provision in the Final Protocol (A) 2 to Article XI. of the Convention of the 5th March, 1902, they would not be bound, after this Convention comes into force, to apply countervailing duties on or prohibit the importation of sugar coming into the British Mother-country from British self-governing Colonies where any bounties on sugar have been granted.

The Imperial Government are not able to share this opinion. Their view is rather that in accordance with the wording of Article IV. of the Convention, which prescribes the introduction of countervailing duties on or the publication of Decrees prohibiting the importation of bounty-fed sugar, generally and without exception, the British Government would not be able to avoid the application of this prescription in regard to any sort of bounty-fed sugar. If the British Delegates, at the beginning of the negotiations of the Brussels Sugar Conference, declared that the British Government were not disposed to apply the penalty clause to the sugar of their Colonies, in view of the text of Article IV. of the Convention, the Imperial Government consider that they cannot attach any importance to this declaration, seeing that it was made at a time when no draft of a Convention existed, and when many remarks were made which in the end have found no expression in the Convention or are not in harmony with it. Later, however, and, in fact, in the final and concluding negotiations the British Delegates did not recur to that reservation. On the contrary, at the nineteenth sitting they declared that, in the event of a Convention being concluded, no preferential treatment over foreign sugar should, as long as the Convention was in force, be accorded in the United Kingdom to sugar from the Colonies. But such a preferential treatment exists if bounty-fed colonial sugar is not subjected to the countervailing duties levied on bounty-fed sugar from foreign countries. The Imperial Government consider it of equally little importance that the British Government have reserved to themselves, on principle, in the prescriptions in the Final Protocol (A) 2 to Article XI., complete freedom in the fiscal arrangements between the United Kingdom and her Colonies and possessions. This reservation, in the opinion of the Imperial Government, is too indefinite to permit of an exception to the provision in Article IV. being derived from it in favour of the British self-governing Colonies.

As, however, the Imperial Government share the view of the British Government that the difference of opinion has at present no practical signification and that it will probably not acquire any during the next five years, they consider that a further discussion of the question in dispute can be dropped, while they reserve to themselves a free hand as to the measures to be adopted by them in the eventuality of bounty-fed sugar from the English self-governing Colonies being put on the English market in a considerable quantity without being subjected there to countervailing duties.

No. 18.

Baron Grenier to the Marquess of Lansdowne.—(Received February 7.)
Legation de Belgique, Londres, le 6 Février, 1903.

M. le Marquis,

L'Article XII. de la Convention relative au régime des sucres du 5 Mars, 1902, stipule que les ratifications seront déposées à Bruxelles, au Ministère des Affaires Étrangères, le 1^{er} Février, 1903, ou plus tôt si faire se peut. Cet Article ajoute que la Convention deviendra obligatoire si elle est ratifiée par ceux des États Contractants qui ne sont pas visés par la disposition exceptionnelle de l'Article VI.

Cette condition se trouve aujourd'hui réalisée par le dépôt des ratifications de la Belgique, de l'Allemagne, de la France, des Pays-Bas, de la Grande-Bretagne, de l'Autriche-Hongrie, et de l'Italie.

J'ai l'honneur de faire parvenir sous ce pli à votre Seigneurie une copie certifiée conforme du procès-verbal de dépôt des ratifications, procès-verbal auquel est annexée la Déclaration du Gouvernement de Sa Majesté Britannique relative aux Colonies Britanniques autonomes.

Je suis chargé de transmettre en même temps à votre Seigneurie le texte d'une Déclaration que le Chargé d'Affaires d'Autriche-Hongrie a remise au Baron de Favereau au moment de procéder au dépôt des ratifications Impériales et Royales. Le Gouvernement Austro-Hongrois a exprimé le désir de voir porter cette Déclaration à la connaissance des États signataires de la Convention, sans toutefois demander à ce qu'elle soit annexée au procès-verbal de dépôt.

L'Espagne et la Suède n'ont pu jusqu'ici effectuer le dépôt de leurs ratifications.

Mon Gouvernement présume que tous les Gouvernements seront d'accord pour l'autoriser à recevoir le dépôt des ratifications de ces deux États postérieurement à la date du 1^{er} Février, à la condition, bien entendu, qu'ils soient disposés à se soumettre, en ce qui les concerne, à toutes les obligations imposées par la Convention. Je serais très reconnaissant à votre Seigneurie si elle voulait bien me faire connaître le plus tôt possible la manière de voir du Gouvernement Britannique à cet égard.

Veuillez, etc.,
(Signé) ALBERIC GRENIER.

M. le Marquis, Belgian Legation, London, February 6, 1903.

Article XII. of the Sugar Convention of the 5th March, 1902, stipulates that the ratifications shall be deposited at Brussels at the Ministry for Foreign Affairs on the 1st February, 1903, or sooner, if possible. This Article adds that the Convention will come into force if it is ratified by those of the Contracting Powers to whom the exceptional provision in Article VI. does not apply.

This condition has this day been fulfilled by the deposit of the ratifications of Belgium, Germany, France, the Netherlands, Great Britain, Austria-Hungary, and Italy.

I have the honour to forward to your Lordship herewith a certified true copy of the record of the deposit of ratifications, to which is annexed the Declaration of His Majesty's Government relative to the British self-governing Colonies.

I am instructed to transmit at the same time to your Lordship the text of a Declaration which the Chargé d'Affaires of Austria-Hungary handed to Baron Favereau immediately before he deposited the Imperial and Royal ratifications. The Austro-Hungarian Government have expressed the desire that the Signatory Powers of the Convention should be informed of this Declaration, without, however, requesting that it should be annexed to the procès-verbal relating to the deposit.

Spain and Sweden have not up to the present time been able to deposit their ratifications.

My Government presume that all the other Governments will consent to authorise them to accept the deposit of the ratifications of these two States at a date later than the 1st February, on the condition that they should be willing to submit, as far as they are concerned, to all the obligations imposed by the Convention.

I should be grateful if your Lordship would acquaint me as soon as possible with the views of His Britannic Majesty's Government on this subject.

I have, etc.,

Count Koziembrodski to M. de Favereau.

Legation d'Autriche-Hongrie, Bruxelles, le 31 Janvier, 1903.

M. le Baron,

D'ordre de mon Gouvernement, j'ai l'honneur de déposer entre les mains de votre Excellence la ratification de Sa Majesté Impériale et Royale, mon auguste Souverain, concernant la Convention des Sucres.

Je suis chargé en même temps de faire, au nom des Gouvernements Impérial Royal d'Autriche et Royal Hongrois, la Déclaration suivante au sujet de la réserve exprimée par le Gouvernement Royal Britannique sur l'attitude de l'Angleterre à l'égard de ses Colonies autonomes dans la question des sucres primés, ainsi qu'au sujet de l'opinion du même Gouvernement, d'après laquelle la Commission Permanente qui doit être instituée d'après l'Article VII de la Convention serait incompétente pour régler cette question.

Les Gouvernements Impérial Royal d'Autriche et Royal Hongrois prennent seulement connaissance de la réserve faite par le Gouvernement Royal Britannique présumant qu'en pratique aucuns sucres primés provenant des Colonies autonomes Anglaises ne seront importés en quantités considérables dans les Royaumes-Unis de Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande pendant la durée de la Convention, et se réservent une complète liberté d'action dans le cas où une importation considérable de ces sucres dans les Royaumes-Unis aurait lieu au cours de cette période.

Veuillez, etc.,

Austro-Hungarian Legation, Brussels, January 31, 1903.

M. le Baron,

By order of my Government I have the honour to place in your Excellency's hands the ratification of His Imperial and Royal Majesty my August Sovereign respecting the Sugar Convention.

I have been instructed at the same time to make, in the name of the Imperial and Royal Governments of Austria and the Royal Government of Hungary, the following Declaration on the subject of the reservation made by the Royal Britannic Government on the attitude of England with regard to her self-governing Colonies on the question of bounty-fed sugar as well as with regard to the opinion of the same Government, according to which the Permanent Commission which is to be instituted in pursuance of Article VII of the Convention will be incompetent to decide that question.

The Imperial and Royal Government of Austria and the Royal Government of Hungary merely take note of the reservation made by the Royal Government of Great Britain, on the presumption that, in practice, no bounty-fed sugar coming from the English self-governing Colonies will be imported into the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland during the period of the Convention, and they reserve to themselves a complete liberty of action in case a considerable importation of such sugar into the United Kingdom should occur during the course of this period.

I have, etc.,

The Marquess of Lansdowne to Baron Grenier.

Sir,

Foreign Office, February 11, 1903.

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of the note which you were good enough to address to me on the 6th instant, transmitting a certified copy of the proces-verbal of the ratification of the Brussels

Sugar Convention by the various Signatory Powers, with the exception of Spain and Sweden, together with the text of the Declaration made by the Austrian and Hungarian Governments which those Governments desired might be communicated to the Signatory Powers.

I request that you will inform the Belgian Government that His Majesty's Government have no objection to the acceptance, at a future date, of the ratifications of Spain and Sweden.

I have, etc.,

(Signed) LANSDOWNE.

No. 20.

Sir H. Howard to the Marquess of Lansdowne.—(Received February 13.)

My Lord,

The Hague, February 12, 1903.

Baron de Lynden informed me yesterday that he had thought it best to ratify the Brussels Sugar Convention without any allusion whatever to the contention of His Majesty's Government that they were not bound in any circumstances to penalize bounty-fed sugar imported into the United Kingdom from any of the self-governing British Colonies.

His Excellency added that, as it was well known that he did not share the opinion of His Majesty's Government in this regard, he had thought it likewise best, in all the circumstances of the case, not to send an official reply to your Lordship's communication of the 13th ultimo.

It is evident that the question of bounty-fed sugar being imported into the United Kingdom from the British self-governing Colonies is here considered as one never likely to arise in practice, and that, therefore, it would be better to avoid, as far as possible, any discussion or correspondence in regard to the same which might endanger the execution of the Convention by any of the Signatory Powers.

I have, etc.,

(Signed) HENRY HOWARD.

INDIA—WEST COAST—NARAKAL.

The smoothest water will be found in 5½ fathoms L. W. S. T. soft mud on the following bearings magnetic, viz. :—

Mallipuram flagstaff ...	N. 80° E.
Narakal obelisk ...	N. 53° E.
Cochin lighthouse ...	S. 45° E.

2. Mariners are cautioned that the mud flats off Narakal have extended seaward.

3. Narakal flagstaff having been dismantled and removed, the light-bright, fixed, will in future be exhibited from the Mallipuram flagstaff.

4. In taking up an anchorage due consideration should be given to the state of the weather. The anchorage given is a good one for all weathers, but smoother water will be found still further North. Vessels wishing for a quick despatch may, during fine weather, approach nearer Cochin to enable boats to get to and from Cochin between Vypeen point and the sands, but in this position during a fresh breeze a short sea soon gets up, making shipping operation difficult and causing damage to boats.

the Regulations thereunder, but such mortgage shall only be effected for the purpose of bona fide improving the lot. This Regulation shall not apply to mortgages effected prior to the coming into force of these Regulations.

Business Permits.

25. (1.) If, in the opinion of the Minister, it is desirable so to do, he may, in his discretion, grant to any lessee permission to carry on, upon his residential lot, any specified business or businesses.

(2.) Such permission shall be granted at such additional annual rent as the Minister may in each case determine, payable half-yearly in advance, as from the next preceding quarter day.

(3.) Such permission shall not be granted in respect of any Residential Lease granted before the publication of these Regulations, but such lease may be cancelled, and a new lease granted in lieu thereof, subject to these Regulations.

26. Application for a business permit shall be made in the form of Schedule G, and a deposit of £5 shall be paid with every application.

27. The application shall be lodged and dealt with as hereinbefore provided in the case of an application for a lease.

28. Before granting permission, the Minister shall satisfy himself, by any such personal or other inquiry as he may deem fit, of the bona fides of the application, and that the permission applied for is necessary in the general interest of the neighbourhood.

29. If the Minister refuses to grant the permission applied for, the deposit, after deducting the expenses of the inquiry (if any), to be fixed by the Minister, shall be returned to the applicant.

30. If the Minister is prepared to approve of the grant of a permit, he shall give notice, by letter sent by post to the applicant, of the amount of additional rent fixed; and the applicant shall, within twenty-eight days after the posting of such letter, forward to the Minister the additional rent for the current half-year. If such rent is not received by the Minister within such time, the application shall be forthwith cancelled and the deposit forfeited. If such rent is so received the application shall be deemed granted, and the expense of any inquiry shall be deducted from the deposit, and the balance credited to the lessee on account of future rent.

31. No permission shall be granted for a longer term than five years, or extending beyond the seventh or fourteenth year of the term of the lease, but such permission may be renewed on such terms as the Minister may think fit.

32. Such permission may be granted in the form of Schedule H.

33. The additional rent shall be payable half-yearly in advance, at the times and in manner prescribed for payment of the rent reserved by the lease, and, in case of default in payment in accordance therewith, the permission may be cancelled by order of the Minister.

34. The permission may be cancelled by order of the Minister in his absolute discretion at any time if, in the opinion of the Minister, any business other than the business expressly authorised is carried on upon the residential lot.

35. The permission shall follow every approved transfer or sub-lease of the residential lot.

36. (1.) No lessee shall sell or allow or permit the sale of any liquor on his residential lot by virtue of any license under "The Wines, Beer, and Spirit Sale Act, 1880," or any amendment thereof, for consumption either on or off the premises, without the special permission, in writing, of the Governor.

(2.) No such permission shall be granted for a longer period than one year without the special consent of the Governor, but every such permission may be renewed, and shall be revocable at any time at the discretion of the Minister.

37. The whole or any part of a residential lot leased, or agreed to be leased, under these Regulations, may be resumed by the Governor for mining purposes, or for any public purpose whatever, at three months' notice to the lessee, published in the Government Gazette; and immediately after the expiration of such three months, all the estate and interest of the lessee therein shall cease and determine as if the lease had never been granted. But on any such resumption, the lessee shall be entitled to receive from the Minister the fair value of any improvements existing on the land resumed, to be ascertained, in the absence of agreement, by one competent person to be appointed by the lessee and one by the Minister, and any difference of opinion
