EDGAR T. OWEN,
Secretary for Labour.

AMENDMENT OF REGULATIONS UNDER "THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION ACT, 1902."

(1 & 2 Edwd. VII., No. 5.)

In pursuance of the powers and authorities conferred by "The Workers' Compensation Act, 1902," and of every other power and authority enabling him in that behalf, His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia, by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, doth make the following amending and additional Regulations, that is to say:—

Section 7 (2) of the Act.

46. The claim for compensation under the Act may be in Form CX in the Schedule annexed hereto. The claimant must be either the person injured, his agent, legal representative, or a dependant. Where the claimant makes the claim in his own person, his signature at foot of the form must be witnessed by a Justice of the Peace, or a Resident Magistrate, or a schoolmaster, or a clergyman, and the witness must complete and sign an endorsement in the form set forth in the form subjoined to Form CX in the schedule annexed hereto.

SETTLEMENT OF CLAIM BY AGREEMENT

Section 8 (1) of the Act.

47. When a question as to liability to pay compensation under the Act, or as to the amount or duration of such compensation, is settled by agreement, the procedure to be followed shall be:—

- (a.) The Memorandum of Agreement (hereinafter termed the memorandum) shall be in Form CY in the schedule annexed hereto.
- (b.) A duplicate original of the memorandum shall be filed at the office of the clerk in the district wherein the worker was injured, within six months after the date of the injury.
- (c.) If the memorandum purports to be signed by or on behalf of all the parties thereto the clerk shall register it without further proof and without fee, upon being satisfied of its genuineness.
- (d.) Upon registration the memorandum shall be enforceable as a Local Court judgment, provided that the Magistrate may at any time rectify such registration.
- (e.) If the memorandum purports to be signed by or on behalf of one or some only of the parties thereto, or not, in his opinion, to be genuine, the clerk shall, before registering it, send a copy thereof to the other party or parties affected, and request him or them to inform him whether the memorandum is genuine. Form CZ, in the schedule annexed hereto, is provided for the purpose.
- (f.) If all the parties admit the genuineness of the memorandum, or do not dispute it within 14 days, the clerk shall register it without further proof and without fee.
- (g.) If any party disputes the genuineness of the memorandum, in Form CZA in the schedule annexed hereto, the clerk shall inform the party by whom it was left with or sent to him of such dispute, in Form CZB, and that the document will not be registered except with the consent, in writing, of the party disputing the same, or by order of the Magistrate.
- (h.) If the consent mentioned in the last preceding clause (g.) cannot be obtained, the party by whom the memorandum was left or sent may apply to the Magistrate to order the same to be registered.

48. An application for an order to register a memorandum or to rectify the register in the matter shall be made in the manner following:—

- (a.) The application shall be made in Court, on notice, in writing, in Form CZC in the schedule annexed hereto, stating the relief or order which the applicant claims.

- (b.) Such notice shall be filed with the clerk, and copies thereof shall be served—

- (i.) In the case of an application for an order that a memorandum be registered, on the party disputing such memorandum;
- (ii.) In the case of an application to rectify the register, on every party who would be affected by such rectification, or on the solicitor or agent of such party, ten clear days at least before the hearing of the application unless the Magistrate or clerk shall give leave for shorter notice.
- (c.) On the hearing of the application witnesses may be orally examined in the same manner as on the hearing of an action.
- (d.) On the hearing of the application the Magistrate may make such order or give such directions as may be just.
- (e.) The provisions of the Act and these Regulations as to the cost of a hearing before a Magistrate and two Assessors shall apply to any such application.

Regulation 32 is hereby repealed and the following Regulation is substituted therefor:—
