F. L. STRONACH,

Head of Department.

C.L.D. 5436/1905.

Crown Law Offices,

Perth, 21st September, 1905.

THE following Rules, made in pursuance of the powers vested in His Honour the Chief Justice by Section 115 of "The Bankruptcy Act, 1892" (55 Victoria, No. 32), are published for general information.

H. G. HAMPTON,
Under Secretary for Law.

The Bankruptcy (Administration Order) Rules of 1905.

WHEREAS under and by virtue of "The Bankruptcy Act, 1892," the Chief Justice may from time to time make rules for carrying into effect the objects of the said Act: NOW THEREFORE I, the Honourable Sir EDWARD ALBERT STONE, Chief Justice of Western Australia, in exercise of powers conferred by the said Act, and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, do hereby make the following rules, to come into operation at the expiration of one month from the publication thereof in the Government Gazette :—

Title and Construction.

1. These Rules may be cited as "The Bankruptcy (Administration Order) Rules, 1905," and in the construction thereof, unless there is anything in the subject or context repugnant thereto, words shall have the same meaning as in "The Local Courts Act, 1904," and the Rules and Orders made thereunder.

Request for order.

2. A debtor against whom a judgment has been obtained in a local court, and who desires to obtain an administration order under section one hundred and eleven of "The Bankruptcy Act, 1892" (hereinafter called the Act), shall file with the clerk of the court a request and statement, in writing, in the form No. 1 in the Appendix.

When the debtor is illiterate and unable to fill up the request and statement, the clerk shall fill them up from the information given by the debtor.

Contents of request.

3. (1.) The debtor shall state in his request whether he proposes to pay his creditors in full, or whether he proposes to pay a composition. In the latter case he shall further state the amount in the pound which he proposes to pay, and in either case he shall state the amount of the monthly or other instalments by which he proposes to pay.

(2.) The debtor shall set out in a list attached to his request the names, addresses, and descriptions of all his creditors, including all secured creditors, and all creditors having power to distrain, such as creditors for rent, rates, and taxes. Where a creditor is secured, or any person in addition to the debtor is liable for any debt, the particulars and estimated value of the security, or the name and address of such other person, shall be stated. Where judgment has been obtained or proceedings are pending in any local court or inferior court in respect of any debt scheduled, that fact shall be stated, and the order or summons in each case must be produced to the clerk.

(3.) The debtor shall attach to his request and statement an affidavit deposing that, to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief, the names of all his creditors, and the true amounts of the debts due from him to them, are set out in the list attached to the request, and that the statements made by him in his request and statement are true.

Notice of request.

4. Upon a request being filed, the clerk shall appoint a day for the hearing, and shall, as soon as may be, send, in the form No. 3 in the Appendix, a notice to all the creditors mentioned in the list of the day and hour when the request will be heard. The notice shall be sent by post not less than ten clear days before the day appointed for hearing the request.

The clerk shall also in like manner send a notice to the debtor in the form No. 2 in the Appendix.

Provided that where, on the filing of a request, it appears that the debtor or a majority of the creditors resides or reside nearer to another local court, the clerk may, before appointing a day for the hearing, refer the matter to the magistrate; and thereupon the magistrate may either direct that the request shall proceed, or may, if he is of opinion that it would be inconvenient that the court should administer the estate, order the request and a certificate of the judgment to be forwarded to the local court nearest to which the debtor or a majority of the creditors resides or reside, and thereupon the latter court shall proceed as if the request had originally been filed therein. Before making such order as last mentioned the magistrate may, if he thinks fit, direct notice to be given to the debtor to attend at the court on a day to be named in the notice, and to show cause why such order should not be made. If such order is made, a copy thereof shall be sent by post by the clerk to the debtor.

Objection to debts scheduled by debtor, or to composition or instalments offered.

5. Any creditor to whom notice of the hearing of a request has been sent, and who desires to object to any debt scheduled by the debtor, or to the amount of the composition or the instalments which the debtor proposes to pay, shall send written notice of his objection, by post or otherwise, to the clerk and to the debtor, and in the case of objection to a debt to the creditor whose debt is objected to, not less than five clear days before the day appointed for the hearing of the request, and he shall state in the notice the grounds of his objection. Provided that, by leave of the magistrate, an objection may be heard although such notice has not been given.

Stay of proceedings between filing and hearing of request.

6. At any time between the filing and the hearing of a request the magistrate or clerk of the court in which the request is filed may stay the proceedings on any execution, judgment summons, or order of commitment issued against the property or person of the debtor in respect of any debt scheduled to the request, whether issued by the court in which the request is filed, or issued by any other local court or inferior court and sent for execution to the court in which the request is filed; but in any case the costs of such execution, judgment summons, or order of commitment incurred by the creditor before the stay of proceedings may be allowed, and such costs may, on application, be added to the debt scheduled.

Proceedings on hearing of request.

7. Upon the request coming on for hearing the course of proceedings shall be as follows:—

- (1.) The debtor shall attend in person unless the court otherwise directs.
- (2.) Any creditor, whether he has received a notice of the request or not, may attend the hearing thereof and prove his debt, and, subject to the provisions of Rule 5, object to any debt, or to the amount of the composition or the instalments which the debtor proposes to pay.
- (3.) All debts set out in the list attached to the request shall be taken to be proved, unless objected to by a creditor or disallowed by the magistrate.
- (4.) All creditors whose debts are objected to either by the debtor or any other creditor shall prove their debts in like manner as upon the hearing of an ordinary summons, provided that the magistrate may, in his discretion, direct the proof of any debt to be adjourned upon any terms that he may think fit, and may thereupon either adjourn the further consideration of the application or proceed to determine the same, in which latter case such debt, if and when proved, shall be added to the schedule of proved debts.
- (5.) The debtor shall answer all questions put or allowed by the magistrate.
- (6.) Any creditor whose debt is admitted or who has proved, and by leave of the magistrate any creditor the proof of whose debt has been adjourned, and with the like leave any other person on behalf of any such creditor, shall be entitled to be heard and to adduce evidence.

(7.) Where any facts are proved on proof of which the court exercising jurisdiction in bankruptcy would be required either to refuse, suspend, or attach conditions to the debtor's discharge if he were adjudged bankrupt, the judge may refuse to make an administration order.

(8.) No administration order shall be made under which the payment of instalments, if kept up without default, would extend over a period of more than six years from the date of the order.

(9.) Where the magistrate is of opinion that it would be inconvenient that the court should administer the estate, he may order the request and a certificate of the judgment to be forwarded to the local court nearest to which the debtor or a majority of the creditors resides or reside, and thereupon the latter court shall proceed as if the request had originally been filed therein. If such order is made, a copy thereof shall be sent by post by the clerk to the debtor.

Proceedings when order made.

8. An administration order shall be in the form No. 5 in the Appendix, and when made a copy thereof shall be sent by post by the clerk to the debtor, but it shall not be necessary to prove the receipt thereof by the debtor before taking any proceedings upon the order.

Notice of the order having been made shall be sent to each creditor whose debt has been admitted or who has proved; the notice shall be sent by post and shall be in the form No. 6 in the Appendix.

Notice of the order having been made shall also be sent by post in the same form (with the necessary modifications) to every other local court or inferior court in which, to the knowledge of the clerk, judgment has been obtained or proceedings are pending against the debtor in respect of any debt scheduled to the order.

Objections under Subsection 11.

9. After an administration order has been made, any creditor entitled to object under subsection 11 of section 111 of the Act to any debt scheduled, or to the manner in which payment is directed to be made, must give notice in writing, by post or otherwise, to the clerk of his objection and of the grounds thereof, and the clerk shall thereupon name a day when the objection will be heard. An application to allow the objection shall be heard ex parte in the first instance by the magistrate, who may dismiss the application, or may direct it to be renewed upon notice being given to such persons and upon such terms as to security for costs and otherwise as he may think fit.

Objections after time.

Provided that no creditor to whom notice of hearing of the request has been duly sent under Rule 4, shall be entitled to object to any debt scheduled, or to the manner in which payment is directed to be made unless within two months from the date of the order he proves to the satisfaction of the court that the notice did not reach him, and that he has not received reasonable notice of the proceedings in any other manner.

Proof under Subsection 12.

10. Any creditor desiring to prove a debt under subsection 12 of section 111 of the Act shall send in his claim in writing, by post or otherwise, to the clerk, who shall thereupon send notice of the claim to the debtor, by post or otherwise, in the form No. 10 in the Appendix.

Proceedings if claim not disputed.

11. If the debtor does not, within the period allowed by the notice, give notice that he disputes the claim, the claim shall be deemed to be proved, and shall be added to the schedule to the order accordingly, and notice of the addition shall be sent, by post or otherwise, to the creditor, in the form No. 11 in the Appendix.

Proceeding if claim disputed.

12. If the debtor within the period allowed gives notice of his objection, by post or otherwise, in the form No. 10 in the Appendix, the clerk shall appoint a day for the hearing of the objection, and give notice of the time for hearing to both parties, by post or otherwise, in the form No. 12 in the Appendix; and the magistrate on the hearing may either disallow the claim, or allow the same in whole or in part, in which latter case the debt allowed shall be added to the schedule, subject to the provisions of subsection 12 of section 111 of the Act, and to Rule 21.

Conduct of order.

13. The magistrate shall appoint some person to have the conduct of the order, and may at any time afterwards remove him and appoint any other person in his place.

Duties of persons having conduct of order.

It shall be the duty of any person so appointed to take all proper proceedings for enforcing the terms of the order; but in case of his neglect to proceed, or of urgency, any creditor may, by leave of the court, take such proceedings.

In particular, it shall be the duty of the person so appointed—

- (i.) if default is made in payment of any statement payable in pursuance of the order,
 - (a.) to apply for the issue of a judgment summons under the next following rule; or,
 - (b.) if it appears that the debtor is unable to pay, by reason or illness or other unavoidable misfortune, to apply to the magistrate or clerk under Rule 17.
- (ii.) If any facts become known to such person on which the order might be set aside or rescinded under Rule 15, to bring such facts to the attention of the magistrate, who may thereupon, if he thinks fit, direct notice to be given to the debtor, by post or otherwise, in the form No. 13 in the Appendix, to attend at the court on a day to be named in the notice, and to show cause why the order should not be set aside or rescinded, or may make such order or give such directions in the matter as he may think fit.

Judgment summons to enforce order.

14. If default is made in payment of any instalment payable in pursuance of the order, a judgment summons may, on the application of any person entitled to take proceedings under Rule 13, be issued without fee. A judgment summons shall be in the form No. 8 in the Appendix, and shall be served personally five clear days before the return day thereof, and all proceedings thereon shall be taken in like manner as if it were a judgment summons issued in an action in the local court, except that (as provided by the Act) the debtor shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to have had, since the date of the order, the means to pay the sum in respect of which he has made default, and to have refused or neglected to pay the same; and the magistrate, if satisfied that the debtor has not had the means to pay the sum in respect of which he has made default, may direct that the administration order shall be deemed to have been suspended during the period covered by the default, or make a new order for payment of the amount remaining due under the order by instalments. An order of commitment shall be in the form No. 9 in the Appendix.

Rescission of Order.

15. (1.) Where an administration order has at any time heretofore been or shall hereafter be made, such order may at any time be set aside or rescinded by the magistrate in any of the following cases, namely:—

- (1.) Where two or more of the instalments ordered to be paid are in arrear.
- (2.) Where the debtor has wilfully inserted in the list attached to his request the wrong name or address of any of his creditors, or has wilfully omitted therefrom the name of any creditor.
- (3.) Where the debtor subsequent to the date of the order has obtained credit to the extent of £2 or upwards without informing the creditor that he has an administration order.
- (4.) Where the order has been obtained by fraud or misrepresentation.
- (5.) Where a receiving order has, since the date of the administration order, been made against the debtor.
 - (2.) An administration order may be set aside or rescinded under this rule—
 - (1.) on the hearing of a judgment summons; or,
 - (2.) on the application of any person entitled to take proceedings under Rule 13, in which case notice shall be given to the debtor, by post or otherwise, in the form No. 13 in the Appendix, to attend at the court on a day to be named in the notice, and to show cause why the order should not be set aside or rescinded; but such notice need not be given when the application is made on the ground of a receiving order having been made against the debtor.

Effect of rescission.

16. (1.) Where an administration order is set aside or rescinded under the last preceding rule, it shall be without prejudice to anything already done or suffered under the order.

(2.) Any money paid into court under the order may be dealt with as if the order had not been set aside or rescinded.

(3.) Notice that the order has been set aside or rescinded shall be sent by the clerk to the debtor and to every creditor named in the schedule, and to every other local court or inferior court in which, to the knowledge of the clerk, judgment had been obtained or proceedings were pending against the debtor at the time when the order was made, in respect of any debts scheduled to the order. Such notice shall be sent by post, and shall be in the form No. 15 in the Appendix.

Suspension of order. Form 16.

17. Where it appears that the debtor is unable to pay any instalment, by reason of illness or other unavoidable misfortune, the clerk may from time to time suspend the operation of the order until the next sitting of the court, and the magistrate may from time to time suspend the operation of the order for such time as he shall direct, or make a new order for payment by instalments.

Second request after refusal or rescission of order.

18. Where a debtor has filed a request for an administration order, and the magistrate has refused to make the order, or when an order has been rescinded, the debtor shall not be allowed to file another request in the same or any other court without first obtaining the leave of the magistrate of the court first mentioned.

Suspension of order pending commitment.

19. When an order of commitment is made upon the hearing of any judgment summons, and the execution of the order is suspended for a specified time to enable the debtor to pay the amount in respect of the non-payment of which the order is made, the administration order shall be also suspended during that time.

Calculation of arrears.

20. In calculating the amount in arrear under an administration any instalments accruing due during the period for which such order has been suspended shall not be reckoned in that amount.

Payment pari passu of debts scheduled under subsection 12.

21. All persons scheduled as creditors under subsection 12 of section 111 of the Act before the administration order is superseded under subsection 13 of the Act shall rank pari passu inter se, subject to the priority given by subsection 12 to those creditors who are scheduled as having been creditors before the date of the administration order, but no payment made to any such creditor by way of dividend or otherwise shall be disturbed by reason of any subsequent proof by any other creditor under subsection 12.

Payment into court and appropriation of moneys paid under order.

22. All moneys paid or levied under an administration order shall be paid into court and appropriated in accordance with subsection 8 of section 111 of the Act.

Declaration of dividend.

23. After payments of costs, dividends shall from time to time be declared and distributed among the creditors entitled thereto.

Notice and payment out of costs and dividends.

24. (1.) The clerk shall send notice to the plaintiff in the action when a sum sufficient to satisfy his costs has been paid into court, and when a dividend is declared he shall send notice to each creditor entitled to share therein. Such notices shall be sent by post, and shall be in the form No. 17 in the Appendix.

(2.) Such sum and dividends shall be paid to the persons entitled thereto in accordance with the local court rules as to payment out of court of money paid in under a judgment, the notice in the preceding paragraph mentioned being for the purpose of those rules considered as a plaint-note.

Accounts.

25. The clerk shall keep accounts of the money received and payments made under any administration order in such manner as may be from time to time directed by the Minister.

Unclaimed dividends.

26. (1.) The clerk shall, in the month of March in each year, make out a list of all dividends and other sums payable under administration orders which have remained unclaimed for five years before the first day of January then last past, with the name of the parties entitled thereto; and a copy of such list shall be posted in some conspicuous place in the court house on the days when the court is sitting, and at all times in the clerk's office; and all such dividends and other sums which shall have remained unclaimed for six years on the first day of January next after such list is so put up as aforesaid shall be accounted for by the clerk to the Treasury. The list to be made out and posted in the month of March one thousand nine hundred and six shall include all such dividends and other sums as shall have remained unclaimed for five years or upwards before the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and six under any administration orders made since the Act came into operation.

(2.) Any person claiming to be entitled to any such dividend or other sum after the same has been accounted for to the Treasury may apply to the magistrate to order the same to be paid to him; and the magistrate, if satisfied that the person claiming is entitled, may make an order accordingly; and thereupon the clerk shall pay the sum so ordered to be paid out of any money in his hands, and shall be allowed by the Treasury, at his audit, the amount so paid.

Notice by debtor of change of address.

27. Where a debtor against whom an administration order has been made changes his address, he shall at once give notice to the clerk of his new address.

Use of forms.

28. The forms in the Appendix hereto, with such variations as circumstances may require, shall be used for the purposes of these rules.
