SHORTHAND WRITERS' QUALIFYING EXAMINATION.

A COMPULSORY qualifying examination will be held during the second week of July of all officers who may be classified as shorthand writers.

A separate examination will be held for each class.

Officers will be required to qualify for the class in which the Commissioner has placed them. The classification will be gazetted shortly.

The subjects will be as under:—

- (1.) Class "D" Officers.—Reporting at rate of 150 words per minute. Transcription. Official letters and memoranda from brief notes. Précis writing.
- (2.) Class "E" Officers.—Shorthand writing at rate of 120 words per minute. Transcription. Official letters and memoranda from brief notes. Précis writing.
- (3.) Class "F" Officers.—Shorthand writing at rate of 100 words per minute. Transcription.

In each class spelling, punctuation, and other points will be taken into consideration, and Class "D" officers will at all points be subject to a higher standard than officers in Class "E."

Officers who have been classified in Class "E" may, besides qualifying for that class, enter for the Class "D" examination. Similarly, officers in Class "F" may also enter for Class "E."

The fact of passing for a superior class will not affect the value of the position at present held by any officer. It may, however, be of value should any vacancy occur in the near future in a higher class.
