"Principal place of business as registered" for "registered office."

"The Companies Act as applied by the Limited Partnerships Act, 1909," for "the Companies Act, 1893."

For the purposes of the application term "contributory," as intepreted by section three of the Companies Act, 1893, the provisions of these Rules with regard to the liability of partners and others as contributories shall be substituted for the provisions of Sections 101 and 102 of the Companies Act, 1893.

4. In the event of a limited partnership being wound up by the Court every present and past partner, general or limited, shall be liable to contribute to the assets of the limited partnership to an amount sufficient for repayment of the debts and liabilities of the limited partnership, and the costs, charges, and expenses of the winding-up, and for the payment of such sums as may be required for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories amongst themselves, with the qualifications following, that is to say:—

- (1.) No present or past limited partner shall be liable to contribute as such to the assets of the limited partnership to any greater amount than the amount of any part of his contribution as such limited partner which he may

(2.) No past general partner shall be liable to contribute as such to the assets of the limited partnership except in respect of partnership debts and obligations incurred whilst he continued to be a general partner: but every past general partner who has become a limited partner shall in addition to any amount which he may be liable to contribute in respect to partnership debts and obligations incurred whilst he continued to be a general partner be liable to contribute to the assets of the limited partnership to an amount equal to the amount of any part of his contribution as such limited partner which he may have drawn out or received back since he became or whilst he remained a limited partner.

(4.) No sum due to any partner, general or limited, in his character of a partner, by way of capital, dividends, profits, or otherwise shall be deemed to be a debt of the limited partnership payable to such partner in a case of competition between himself and any other creditor not being a partner; but any such sum may be taken into account for the purpose of the final adjustment of the rights of the contributories amongst themselves.

5. The provisions of Section 192 of the Companies Act, 1893, shall not apply, but in the event of a limited partnership being wound up by the Court every person shall be deemed a contributory who is liable at law or in equity to pay or contribute to the payment of any debt or liability of the limited partnership, or to pay or contribute to the payment of any sum for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, or to pay or contribute to the payment of the costs, charges, and expenses of winding-up the limited partnership, and every such contributory shall be liable to contribute to the assets of the limited partnership in the course of the winding-up all sums due from him in respect of any such liability as aforesaid; but in the event of the death or bankruptcy of any contributory or marriage of any female contributory the provisions of Sections 104 and 105 of the Companies Act, 1893, and of Section 106 of that Act as modified by the Married Women's Property Acts, 1892 and 1895, shall apply subject to the modifications provided by these Rules.

- (d.) Whenever it is otherwise proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the limited partnership is unable to pay its debts, and in determining whether a limited partnership is unable to pay its debts the Court shall take into account the contingent and prospective liabilities of the limited partnership.

NOTICE is hereby given that, by an Order of the Supreme Court of Western Australia made the 7th day of April, 1909, in the above-mentioned matter, it was ordered that the Special Resolution passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company held on the 15th October, 1908, and which resolution was in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"That the capital of the British and Foreign Development Syndicate, Limited, be reduced from £40,000 divided into 40,000 shares of £1 each (of which 20,000 were issued as fully paid up, 250 have been fully paid up, 6,000 have been paid up to 17s. 6d. per share, and 13,750 have been paid up to 15s. per share) to £20,000 divided into 40,000 shares of ten shillings each, and that such reduction be effected by returning to the holders of the above-mentioned 20,000 and 250 fully paid up shares paid up capital to the extent of 10s. per share, thus leaving them fully paid up shares of 10s. each, and by returning to the holders of the above-mentioned 6,000 shares paid up to 17s. 6d. each paid up capital to the extent of 8s. 9d. per share, thus leaving them paid up to 8s. 9d. each with a liability of 1s. 3d. per share uncalled capital thereon, and by returning to the holders of the above-

The paid up capital to be returned to the several holders of the above-mentioned shares (such capital being in excess of the wants of the Company) shall be payable to them from time to time as moneys are available, in proportion to the amount of capital to be returned to them."
