Any application may be lodged before the fixed date, but will be treated as having been received on that date; if there are more applicants than one for any lot, the application to be granted will be determined by the Land Board, and should any lands remain unselected such will continue available until applied for or otherwise dealt with.

If a Land Board sitting becomes necessary, after the closing of the date for receiving applications, notice will be given in the Government Gazette and at least one newspaper advising the applicants for the blocks of the date, time, and place of the meeting of the Board, to deal with the matter; but it shall not be obligatory on the Department to give any other notice.

If an applicant wishes to appear before the Land Board in person, he may apply to the Head Office or the Clerk in Charge of any of the District or Branch Land Offices for a certificate to the Railway Department, which, on presentation at the nearest Railway Station, will entitle him to a Return Ticket at Excursion Rates, to the place where the Board will sit, available for seven days from the date of issue.

Land specified as carrying an Agricultural Bank advance is available subject to the special condition that an expenditure of not less than one-fourth of the amount set out shall be made on prescribed improvements in each of the first four years of the lease; but this shall not release the holder from any covenant in the Agricultural Bank Mortgage requiring the improvements to be made at an earlier date. Such advance is subject to the usual conditions governing a loan from the Agricultural Bank, particulars of which may be had on application to the Managing Trustee. Applications for advance must be accompanied by a fee of one per cent.

The areas which are open under Part V. are open under Section 55 (Residential Conditions), and only under Section 56 (Non-residential Conditions) to those persons already holding their full complement under Section 55 in the immediate vicinity.

Resolved: That the Articles of Association of the Company be amended by adding the following Clause thereto:—

(a) That the Capital of the Company be increased by the creation of Twenty thousand new shares of £1 each, to be called cumulative preference shares, to which there shall be attached the special right and privileges following, that is to say:—

(i) The profits of the Company which, in respect of any year or other period, it shall be determined to distribute and apply shall be applied in order of the priority and manner following:—

Firstly: In payment to the holders of such preference Shares of cumulative preferential dividend at the rate of Eight pounds per centum per annum on the capital for the time being paid up on such preference shares respectively.

Secondly: Of the surplus then remaining one-fifth thereof shall be set apart and paid into a reserve fund to be entitled "The Cumulative Preferential Dividend Reserve Fund" until such reserve fund shall have been declared closed, in manner provided in Subclause 4 hereof, and if re-opened during all such time as the same shall remain open.

Thirdly: The remaining four-fifths of the surplus shall be applied in payment to the holders of the ordinary shares of dividends up to but not exceeding in any one year ten per cent. on the capital for the time being paid up on such ordinary shares respectively.

Fourthly: After payment of the dividends to the ordinary Shareholders, as hereinafter provided, the balance shall be divided into three equal parts and one of such parts shall be paid to the holders of the preference shares, and the other two parts shall be paid to the holders of the ordinary shares.

(ii) The capital paid up on the preference shares shall not be liable to cancellation or reduction in respect of loss or depreciation.

(iii) As soon as the reserve fund, provided for in Clause (1) hereof, shall amount to a sum equal to three years' dividend at the rate of Eight per cent. on the capital for the time being paid up on the said Preference Shares of the Company, the Directors shall have power then or at any time thereafter to declare the same closed, and the same shall thereupon be deemed closed, but the Directors may at any time and shall, whenever the said reserve fund shall fall below the sum hereinbefore mentioned, reopen the said reserve fund and keep the same open until the amount thereof shall then be equal again to the said sum, and so long thereafter as they shall deem fit.

The said reserve fund shall, in any year when there are no profits available or the profits of the Company shall be insufficient to pay a dividend of Eight per cent. per annum to the holders of the preference shares as hereinbefore provided, be applied (in the discretion of the Directors) in payment of or towards the payment of a dividend of Eight per cent. per annum to the holders of the preference shares, and such reserve fund shall not be applied for any other purpose except with the consent in general meeting or of the holders of the preference shares for the time being.

(iv) In the event of the winding up of the Company the holders of the preference shares shall be entitled to have the surplus assets first, in paying off the capital paid up on the preference shares held by them respectively. Secondly, in paying off the arrears (if any) of the preferential dividend aforesaid to the commencement of the winding-up and thereafter to participate rateably with the holders of other shares in the residue (if any) of such surplus assets which shall remain after paying off the capital paid up on such other shares.

(v) If the preference shares aforesaid shall be converted into stock, such stock shall be called Preference Stock and the rights and privileges attached to the preference shares shall, as nearly as may be, attach to the preference stock.

(vi) The preference shares shall not confer upon the holders thereof any rights to attend or vote, either in person or by proxy, at any general meeting or to have notice of such meeting unless the meeting is convened for reducing the capital or winding up or sanctioning a sale of the undertaking or altering the regulations of the Company or where the proposition to be submitted to the meeting directly affects the rights and privileges of the holders; provided that the foregoing restrictions upon the voting powers of the Preference Shareholders shall be suspended and Preference shares shall confer upon the holders thereof the same right to receive notices and to vote as ordinary shares, whenever and so long as the dividend on the preference shares shall be three months in arrears.

(vii) The preference shares aforesaid shall be issued to such persons and on such terms and conditions as the board may think fit, and Clause 29 of Table A shall as regards such shares be deemed to be modified accordingly.
