8. Meetings of the Board shall be of two kinds—"Ordinary" and "Special." Ordinary meetings are the regular meetings held in pursuance of these By-laws for the transaction of the general business of the Board, including meetings adjourned for the purpose of any incomplete business, but an adjourned meeting would not exclude any business which was considered necessary to transact. Special meetings are those called under Section 123 of the Act, and shall

9. Ordinary meetings shall be held at the office of the Board, East Avon, on the first Monday in the month, at 7-30 p.m., unless otherwise arranged by resolution carried to that effect at the preceding ordinary meeting of the Board, of which each member has received due notice of the proposed alteration.

10. A special meeting may, on the requisition of three members of the Board, be called at any time in the manner prescribed by the Act, but the Chairman may call a special meeting of the Board as often as he may think proper. No business will be transacted at any ordinary or special meeting unless at least three members of the Board, inclusive of the Chairman or the member of the Board chosen to preside in his absence, shall be present.

13. The first business of all meetings of the Board shall be the reading of the minutes of the preceding meeting aloud with a view of their confirmation.

Voting.

14. Each member (including the Chairman) shall have one vote, and such Chairman shall, in case of equality of votes, have a casting vote in addition to his ordinary vote, and all questions at such meetings shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present. All motions and amendments shall be decided by a show of hands, unless a division is demanded, before the next business is proceeded with.

Minutes of Meetings.

15. The minute-book prescribed by the Act shall be kept, in which any item of business transacted by the Board at a meeting shall be then and there entered by the Secretary. Any worker whose wage has been so fixed may work for and be employed for a period not exceeding six calendar months. Provided, always, that no employer, or firm of employers, shall employ more than one such under-rate worker to every three, or fraction of three workers, in his, or its employ, paid at not less than the minimum rate hereinbefore prescribed.

7. Apprentices.—(a.) In this award a "duly registered apprentice" means an apprentice of whose apprenticeship notice has been given to the clerk of the Court in accordance with the provisions of this clause; and a "duly registered probationer" means a person working as an apprentice on probation, of whose probationary period notice has been given to the clerk of the Court in accordance with the provisions of this clause. (d.) The maximum number of apprentices allowed to any employer in any branch shall be in the proportion of one apprentice to every three or fraction of three journeymen employed by him in that branch.

(e.) For the purpose of ascertaining the number of apprentices allowed to be taken at any time the number of journeymen employed shall be deemed to be the average number of journeymen employed on all working days of the six months immediately preceding such time.

(f.) Apprentices shall not be allowed except to one or more of the following branches of the trade:—

- (i.) Collar-making;
- (ii.) Riding saddle-making;
- (iii.) Gig saddle-making;
- (iv.) Harness-making;
- (v.) Whip thong making;
- (vi.) Bridle cutting.

(g.) The term of apprenticeship shall be five years. A probationary period of three months previous to being bound shall be lawful, such probationary period to be deemed portion of the term of apprenticeship.

(h.) Should any employer from unforeseen circumstances be unable to carry out his obligations to his apprentice he shall be allowed to transfer the apprentice to complete his term with another employer; but it shall be incumbent upon such former employer to notify the clerk of the date of such transfer and when such apprenticeship commenced. (Form 2 in the appendix hereto.)

(i.) The following provisions shall apply in respect of all apprenticeships:—

2. If during the currency of this award classes shall be established at the Technical School for instruction in the trades covered by the award, the employers shall allow apprentices full opportunity for attending the appropriate classes, and the apprentices shall be entitled to the time off necessary for that purpose.
3. At the end of the period of apprenticeship the employer shall give the apprentice a certificate (Form 5 in the appendix hereto) to show that he has served his apprenticeship. Should the employer at any time before the termination of the term of apprenticeship desire to dispense with the services of the apprentice, he may, with the consent of the apprentice, transfer him to another employer carrying on business within a reasonable distance of the original employer's place of business, willing to continue to teach the apprentice and to pay the rate of wages prescribed by this award, according to the total length of time served, and generally to perform the obligations of the original employer. He shall also give to the apprentice a certificate of the time served and of the rate of wages paid, and shall give notice to the clerk of the Court of such transfer in the form provided (Form 2 in the appendix hereto). It shall not be obligatory upon the employer to find the apprentice another employer if he shall so misconduct himself as to entitle the employer to discharge him, but he shall nevertheless give him a certificate for the time actually served.
4. An employer shall be deemed to fail in his duty towards his apprentice if he neglects to keep him constantly at work, but slackness of work may form a proper ground for transferring him to a master willing to undertake the responsibility of teaching him.
5. When an apprentice is discharged for cause, the employer shall send notice in writing of the discharge, and the cause thereof, to the said clerk of the Court (Form 3 in the appendix hereto).

(j.) The minimum wage payable to an apprentice shall be:—

(l.) The Clerk of the Court shall notify the Board of Examiners of the names and addresses of all candidates required to submit themselves to examination. The examination will be held at the place where the apprentice is employed, and it shall be the duty of each employer to provide such necessary material and machinery as may be required and in all ways to facilitate the conduct of the examination.

(m.) The examination will be held in the month of September each year. The Board of Examiners will consist of persons skilled in the trade to be nominated by the union and by the employers carrying on business within the area to which this award applies, or, failing such nomination, or nominations, such person, or persons, as may be appointed for that purpose by the Court. In the event of a disagreement between the examiners, the matter in dispute shall be referred to a third person agreed to by them, or nominated by the Court, or the President, at the request of either member, and the decision of such third person shall be final and conclusive. The examiners shall examine the work of and inquire into the diligence of each apprentice and as to the opportunities provided by the employer to each apprentice to learn.

(n.) The examiners shall report to the Court in writing as to the result of the examination.

(o.) The clerk of the Court shall supply to each candidate a certificate showing the result of his examination, and it shall be lawful for any employer to withhold the increase in wages accruing, in accordance with the scale set forth in sub-clause (j) hereof, from any apprentice who fails to satisfy the examiners.

(p.) If the examiners report to the Court that any employer has not provided sufficient opportunity for the apprentice to learn, the employer shall be deemed prima facie guilty of a breach of this award under Section 90 of the Act, and may be summoned before the Court. Upon any such proceeding the report may be received in evidence.

(q.) Such fees shall be paid by the clerk to the examiners as the Court shall allow.

8. Time and Wages Book.—Each employer shall keep at his place of business, or at each of them if more than one, a book containing:—

- (a.) The name of each worker employed by him and to whom this award applies;
- (b.) The class of work performed, the hours during which the worker is employed, and the wages paid to each worker;
- (c.) Such book may be inspected at any time during ordinary business hours by the secretary for the time being of the workers' or employers' union (if any), and also by any person thereto authorised by the President of the Court of Arbitration.
- (d.) The employer shall be responsible for the proper posting up of such book daily.

9. Area.—This award shall apply over the area comprised within a radius of twenty-five miles from the General Post Office, Perth.

10. Term.—This award shall be binding upon the above-named applicant and respondents, and shall continue in force for a period of three years from its date: Provided that, at any time after the expiration of twelve months from its date, the Court may alter or amend the same on the application of any party or person affected by its provisions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF this Award has been signed by the President of the Court, and the Seal of the Court has been hereto affixed, this twenty-third day of December, One thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

COURT OF ARBITRATION, WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

No. 11 of 1915.

Between The Kalgoorlie and Boulder Master Bakers' Industrial Union of Employers, Applicant, and The Eastern Goldfields Operative Bakers' Industrial Union of Workers, Respondent.

The Court of Arbitration of Western Australia doth hereby make the following Award in connection with the industrial dispute between the above-mentioned parties:—

AWARD.

1. Definitions.—“Baker” shall mean a person other than an apprentice employed mixing, handling, moulding, or baking dough in a bakehouse.

“Jobber” shall mean a baker who is but casually employed and whose employment may be terminated without notice on either side.

“Jobbing dough-maker” shall mean a baker employed to make one or more doughs as a casual employee.

“Single-handed baker” shall mean a baker in charge of a bakehouse where there are no other persons employed in mixing, handling, moulding, or baking dough.

2. The Week's Work.—(a.) Forty-eight hours shall constitute the week's work.

(b.) Baking off shall start at such time between the hours of 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. as shall be arranged between the employer and worker.

(c.) Eight hours shall constitute the day's work, but in the event of any baker not working the full eight hours on any day or days (other than recognised holidays) during the week, it shall be permissible for the time to be made up on Friday, but only to the extent of two hours, after which overtime rates shall apply.

(d.) Constant hands who are required to attend the bakehouse for the special purpose of making a dough shall be allowed two hours for so doing. Such two hours shall be calculated in the day's work, but otherwise working time shall be calculated continuously from the time of starting work until the time for leaving work for the day or night.

3. Overtime.—Any time worked in excess of eight hours in any one day (except as provided in clause 2) shall be considered as overtime, and paid for at the rate of time and a-half.

4. Holidays.—The following days shall be allowed and paid for as holidays, namely, Good Friday, Labour Day, and Christmas Day. Work done on any of these days shall be paid for at the rate of double time for every hour worked.

5. Wages.—The minimum rate of wages to be paid to workers other than duly registered apprentices or probationers shall be:—

Foremen or single-handed bakers—£5 per week.

Oven-workers—£4 10s. per week.

Second hand men—£4 per week.

Jobbers—2s. per hour.

Jobbing dough-makers—

For each dough up to 600lbs.—4s.

Over 600lbs. up to 800lbs.—5s. 6d.

Over 800lbs. two men shall be employed and shall each be paid 5s. 6d.

All jobbers shall receive their wages in cash on the completion of their job.

6. Record Book.—A time and wages book shall be kept in each bakehouse showing the name of each worker, the time at which each worker starts and finishes work each day, the total hours worked, the amount of overtime paid, and the worker's signature for same. The employer and worker shall be jointly responsible for the proper posting of the book daily. The book shall be supplied by the union and shall be open to the inspection of the duly authorised representative of the workers' union during working hours.

7. Allowances.—Jobbers shall be allowed the sum of 6d. for travelling expenses if necessary each time they require to travel to and from work.

Constant hands shall not be allowed to bake buns on Good Friday (except when jobbing hands are not available), when the rate of pay shall be 3s. per hour.

Jobbers who take charge of work in a bakehouse shall be paid the sum of 22s. for the shift, including the making of a dough; but if required to take charge of work exclusive of dough-making they shall receive 18s. per shift only.

8. General.—A constant hand making or baking bread shall not be allowed to deliver the same to customers.

A constant hand shall not be allowed to make two doughs and bake them off in any one day if there is a jobber available.

No worker, other than a relative, shall be allowed to lodge or board on the employer's premises.

Every constant worker shall be paid in cash on completion of his week's work.

9. Apprentices.—(a) In this award a "duly registered apprentice" means an apprentice of whose apprenticeship notice has been given to the clerk of the Court in accordance with the provisions of this clause; and a "duly registered probationer" means a person working as an apprentice on probation, of whose probationary period notice has been given to the clerk of the Court in accordance with the provisions of this clause. Provided that an apprentice or a probationer shall be deemed to be duly registered during the period of fourteen days allowed for registration.

(b.) Any employer hereafter taking an apprentice or probationer shall, within fourteen days thereafter, register such apprentice or probationer by giving notice thereof to the clerk of the Court in the prescribed form.

(c.) If at the date of this award any employer is employing any person as an apprentice or a probationer who has not been duly registered as such, he shall register such apprentice or probationer within fourteen days thereafter.

(d.) The maximum number of apprentices allowed to any employer shall be in the proportion of one apprentice to every four or fraction of four journeymen employed by him.

(e.) For the purpose of ascertaining the number of apprentices allowed to be taken at any time, the number of journeymen employed shall be deemed to be the average number of journeymen employed on all working days of the six months immediately preceding such time.

(f.) The term of apprenticeship shall be four years. A probationary period of three months previous to being bound shall be lawful, such probationary period to be deemed portion of the term of apprenticeship.

(g.) Should any employer from unforeseen circumstances be unable to carry out his obligations to his apprentice he shall be allowed to transfer the apprentice to complete his term with another employer; but it shall be incumbent upon such former employer to notify the clerk of the Court of the date of such transfer and when such apprenticeship commenced. (Form 2 in the appendix hereto.)

(h.) The following provisions shall apply in respect of all apprenticeships:—

1. An employer shall be deemed to undertake the duty which he agrees to perform as a duty enforceable under this award and shall, subject to the provisions of sub-clause (n), pay the apprentice the rate of wages herein provided.

2. At the end of the period of apprenticeship the employer shall give the apprentice a certificate (Form 5 in the appendix hereto) to show that he has served his apprenticeship. Should the employer at any time before the termination of the term of apprenticeship desire to dispense with the services of the apprentice he may, with the consent of the apprentice, transfer him to another employer carrying on business within a reasonable distance of the original employer's place of business, willing to continue to teach the apprentice and to pay the rate of wages prescribed by this award, and generally to perform the obligations of the original employer. He shall also give to the apprentice a certificate of the time served and of the rate of wages paid, and shall give notice to the clerk of the Court of such transfer in the form provided (Form 2 in the appendix hereto). It shall not be obligatory upon the employer to find the apprentice another employer if he shall so misconduct himself as to entitle the employer to discharge him, but he shall nevertheless give him a certificate for the time actually served.
3. An employer shall be deemed to fail in his duty towards his apprentice if he neglects to keep him constantly at work, but slackness of work may form a proper ground for transferring him to a master willing to undertake the responsibility of teaching him.
4. When an apprentice is discharged for cause, the employer shall send notice in writing of the discharge and the cause thereof to the said clerk of the Court (Form 3 in the appendix hereto).

(i.) The minimum payable to an apprentice shall be:—

During the first six months	20s. per week.
During the second six months	25s. "
During the third six months	30s. "
During the fourth six months	35s. "
During the fifth six months	40s. "
During the sixth six months	45s. "
During the seventh six months	50s. "
During the eighth six months	60s. "

(j.) Every apprentice shall be bound to submit himself to examination by a Board of Examiners hereinafter constituted, once in each year of his service, when called upon by the clerk of the Court so to do.

(k.) The clerk of the Court shall notify the Board of Examiners of the names and addresses of all candidates required to submit themselves to examination. The examination will be held at the place where the apprentice is employed, and it shall be the duty of each employer to provide such necessary material and machinery as may be required and in all ways to facilitate the conduct of the examination.

(l.) The examination will be held in the month of September in each year. The Board of Examiners will consist of persons skilled in the trade to be nominated by the union and the employers carrying on business within the area to which this award applies, or, failing such nomination or nominations, such person or persons as may be appointed for that purpose by the Court, or the President. In the event of a disagreement between the examiners, the matter in dispute shall be referred to a third person agreed to by them, or nominated by the Court, or the President, at the request of either member, and the decision of such third person shall be final and conclusive. The examiners shall examine the work of and inquire into the diligence of each apprentice and as to the opportunities provided by the employer to each apprentice to learn.

(m.) The examiners shall report to the Court in writing as to the result of the examination.

(n.) The Clerk of the Court shall supply to each candidate a certificate showing the result of his examination, and it shall be lawful for any employer to withhold the increase in wages accruing, in accordance with the scale set forth in sub-clause (i) hereof, from any apprentice who fails to satisfy the examiners.

(o.) If the examiners report to the Court that any employer has not provided sufficient opportunity to the apprentice to learn, the employer shall be deemed prima facie guilty of a breach of this award under Section 90 of the Act, and may be summoned before the Court. Upon any such proceeding the report may be received in evidence.

(p.) Such fees shall be paid by the clerk to the examiners as the Court shall allow.

10. Posting of Award.—A copy of the award shall be kept posted by every employer subject thereto in a conspicuous place in his bakehouse.

11. Area.—The award shall have effect over an area comprised within a radius of twenty-five miles from the General Post Office, Kalgoorlie.

12. Term.—The award shall be binding upon the above-named applicant and respondent, shall come into operation on the 9th day of January, 1916, and shall continue in force for a period of two years from the said ninth day of January, One thousand nine hundred and sixteen: Provided that at any time after the expiration of twelve months from the date hereof the Court may alter or amend the same on the application of any party or person affected by its provisions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF this Award has been signed by the President of the Court, and the Seal of the Court has been hereto affixed, this twenty-third day of December, One thousand nine hundred and fifteen.
